

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of Town.

—Mr. Wolf, of the Madisonburg implement dealer, gave us a call.

—Leslie Jacobs left on Tuesday for a visit of several days at Dubois, Pa.

—Clyde P. Wieland, of Linden Hall, spent Thursday last in Centre Hall.

—Miss Emily Alexander visited in Lemont with friends several days last week.

—Mrs. Maria Wagner, of Tusseyville, is visiting among friends in Centre Hall.

—Isaac Smith returned to Altoona last Friday, after a visit several days at home with his family.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Shook, of Spring Mills, were the guests of their friends in town yesterday.

—John Wert, of Tusseyville, spent several days last week the guest of his friend Abner Alexander.

—Mrs. M. F. Rossman, of near Tusseyville, visited her friend, Mrs. Arthur Kerlin, over Sunday.

—Miss Phoebe Potter, of Linden Hall, spent several days in town last week visiting with friends.

—R. A. Bible and his young friend Mr. Geary, of Potter twp., were pleasant callers in our sanctuary.

—Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Sweeney, of Boalsburg, were the guests of Mrs. Lizzie Jacobs, several days last week.

—Mrs. Fred Kuriz, Jr., and Miss Mabel Boal visited friends at State College on Friday and Saturday.

—M. F. Rossman, one of Tusseyville's leading citizens, gave our sanctuary a call and set his label to 1901.

—Mrs. Sallie Kline is quite ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. Lycurgus Lingle, with symptoms of pneumonia.

—Mrs. John Heckman, west of Centre Hall, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Boal, in Tyrone.

—Mr. and Mrs. Homer Barr, of Boalsburg, were the guests over Sunday, at the home of Mrs. Barr's sister, Mrs. Jerre Miller.

—Mrs. H. F. Bitner and son Ralph, of Millersville, Pa., are visiting at the home of her father, Mr. J. D. Murray, since Monday.

—Dr. H. S. Alexander, of Potters Mills, favored our sanctuary with a call and had a change of label made. He is a successful practitioner.

—Miles Arney, who is taking a course in the electrical engineering department at State College, was home over Sunday with his parents.

—Our old friend and patron, J. B. Spangler, from across the valley, was a pleasant caller, and put his label in right shape. Being a cattle dealer he may be a member of the cattle syndicate mentioned in another column.

—Rev. W. H. Schuyler, of Schellburg, Bedford county, filled the pulpit in the Presbyterian church last Sabbath morning, and delivered a pleasing sermon. He is an agreeable gentleman, and the charge may tender him a call to this vacant pastorate.

—Rev. W. W. Rhoads left yesterday morning to attend the United Evangelical conference in session this week in Williamsport. In the assignment of pastors for the ensuing year Rev. Rhoads will be re-appointed to this charge, as he is very popular with his congregations.

—Mr. Alfred Durst, one of Potter township's good citizens, was over last Thursday to attend the horse sale, and was a caller at this office. Mr. Durst is a prominent member of the Grange, and a member of the building committee that erected Grange Arcadia. He will quit farming this spring, making public sale of his stock and implements, and remove to Centre Hall on April 1st.

—Mr. J. M. Warden, the evangelist, takes his departure today for Mifflinburg, where he will begin laboring in that field. Mr. Warden opened his meetings ten days ago in the Lutheran church, with two meetings daily. From the very start the evangelist had an attentive and interested audience which at times tested the seating capacity of the church. He is an earnest and convincing speaker, and by his able argument and plain facts, brought many to view their present and past life in another light. Many reconciliations among members between whom there previously had not been the kindest spirit, have taken place as the result of work, while others were cemented to the church by firmer ties. Mr. Warden has done much good in Centre Hall, and it is hoped from the seed thus planted it may increase and become lasting in its effect.

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses were issued during the past week: Geo. E. Everly and Emma M. Brickley, of Curtin township.

James F. Stover, of Potters Mills, and Mary L. Koeb, Centre Hall.

Geo. S. Williams and Martha D. Parsons, Benore.

Married.

Mr. Sumner V. Stover, of Wolfs Store, and Miss Jennie V. Hagan, of Farmers Mills, were united in marriage at the Lutheran parsonage, at Centre Hall, by Rev. J. M. Bearick, on Saturday evening, Feb. 24.

COBURN.

Memorial Day Appropriately Observed by Our Schools.

Andrew Harter is still confined to his bed.

Mrs. G. R. Stover is housed up with sore throat.

Henry Kaler, of Fisher's Ferry, is visiting his parents.

R. H. Billmeyer went to Milton on Monday to pay his family a visit.

Don't forget the chicken and waffle supper on Saturday afternoon and evening next.

Miss Katie Billmeyer, of Millmont, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Agnes Billmeyer at this place.

Mr. Lohr, an itinerant Evangelist, preached at this place on Sunday evening, in the Evangelical church.

A team belonging to Robert Hackenberg became frightened at the freight train on Monday forenoon and ran away; results not known.

It is supposed that another mad dog passed through here on Saturday and went in the direction of Woodward.

The dog had a fight with a dog belonging to Samuel Styers, who lives a few miles east of here along the Woodward road.

Walter, a son of A. J. and Elizabeth Campbell, of this place, was taken to Shamokin on Saturday by his brother Malcolm, and from there he was taken by his father to one of the Philadelphia hospitals to receive treatment for hip disease, of which the lad has been a sufferer for several years.

Our schools celebrated Memorial Day last Thursday—being Washington's birthday, by having appropriate exercises, but on account of inclement weather they were not very well attended in the afternoon; in the evening the exercises were repeated with a few additions to the program. A collection was taken, and one dollar and thirty-six cents was raised for the Curtin monument fund.

J. W. Gramley and his family, who had been living on the farm of Andrew Harter for the last few years, had sale of his personal property on the 19, and last Thursday left for Kane county, Illinois, where he will manage a farm belonging to a Mr. Spangler, a former Centre countian. Lewis Wilkins and Weaver Edmunds, of Aaronsburg, accompanied them to their western home.

POTTERS MILLS.

Personal Mention and Other Items of Interest from that Town.

William Smith's youngest child was very ill with spasms.

Miss Lizzie Foust is home with her mother for a few weeks.

Mrs. Susan Burkholder moved to Milroy on Thursday; we wish her success.

Dr. Alexander and Michael Smith attended the sale of Mrs. Jacobs Saturday.

Mrs. Lucy Moyer has returned to her home, after visiting friends at Bellefonte.

Samuel Bitner was called to Joliet Illinois, owing to the serious illness of his son Charley.

Mrs. John McClenahan has gone to Altoona, on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Mollie Berkim.

The gray horse will not appear any more, the driver has come back to stay; Potters Mills is good enough after all.

Mr. C. Smetzier purchased the home of Phillip Lester; Phillip intends going west in the spring. We are sorry to lose them.

Worry kills more men than work, but some men in this place neither worry or work, hence they have a promise of a long life.

The exercises rendered by the schools on Memorial Day were a great success, owing to the efforts of our able teacher, Mr. David Foreman. The school room was handsomely decorated.

MILLHEIM.

The Heavy Rainfall Last Week Caused High Water Last Week.

J. H. Reifnyder took a business trip to Bellefonte last Wednesday.

Mrs. W. E. Keen visited her mother in Milton several days last week.

Mr. Woods Bathgate, of Lemont, was in town on business last Saturday.

Miss Sara Moyer, of Centre Mills, was the guest of her friend, Miss Mary Hartman, over Sunday.

Miss Jessie Harter, of State College, is staying with her aunt, Mrs. Wm. Miller, on East Main street.

Quite a number of our people attended the banquet given by the K. of G. E., of Spring Mills, on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Eva Harter and Mr. Fitzpatrick, of Tyrone, visited at the home of G. W. Harter, on Water street, several days last week.

The entertainment given by the schools on Washington's birthday, was a decided success. The town hall was crowded, and the scholars all performed their parts creditably.

Ex-Prothonotary W. F. Smith will be master of ceremonies as Mr. Holloway's horse sale. Wm. knows all about the business of auctioneering, but does not like the business these cold days.

Rev. H. W. Buck, Miss Laura Buck, Mrs. C. H. Morris, and Mrs. J. W. Stover left on Tuesday morning for Williamsport, to attend the United Ev. Conference, which holds its sessions there this week.

M. C. Gephart, our popular and hustling music dealer, made a trip to Sugar valley the latter part of last week, expecting to return on Saturday; the blizzard overtook him and he could not get home before Sunday. Elk creek was quite boisterous last week, it made one think of the experience of '89. Had the rain fall not ceased just when it did, no doubt there would have been considerable damage done. High water brings terror to our people.

Rev. W. F. Auman and Prof. John Hardenburg, of White Haven, came to this place on Monday morning to attend the funeral of the child of Lloyd Auman. Services were held at the home of Mr. Auman, and were conducted by Rev. Brown, of Aaronsburg.

Mr. W. E. Huey, formerly cab driver at the Musser house, now of Vintondale, Pa., arrived in town on Saturday accompanied by Mrs. Huey. They will spend a week with Mr. Huey's parents on North street; Mr. Huey is working for a coal company, occupying the responsible position of weigh master.

Rev. S. P. Remer, of Lewisburg, Presiding Elder of Centre district preached in the United Ev. church on Saturday evening, Sunday morning and evening. The blizzard kept many people from attending these services, nevertheless the Rev. was greeted with appreciative hearers, who were delighted with his masterly discourses.

SPRING MILLS.

K. of G. E. Gave their Second Annual Banquet Tuesday Evening.

Spring Mills Castle K. of G. E. gave their second annual banquet in their hall on Tuesday evening last, and for elegance of service, the entertainment surpassed all previous efforts of that character occurring in our village.

The hall was beautifully and brilliantly illuminated, the tables artistically arranged and set with elegant china and costly glassware, reflecting all the colors of the rainbow and lavishly furnished with all the substantial and delicacies of the season. The menu was sumptuous and very elaborate; one large table beautifully furnished, was reserved exclusively for the members of Millheim Castle, and represented by the following ladies and gentlemen, S. Weiser, L. C. Tobias, A. A. Frank, D. H. Shires, E. E. Knarr, F. D. Colyer, C. H. Breen, G. L. Springer, I. D. Keen, E. B. Keen, P. P. Leitzell, H. Leitzell, and their wives, also H. Breen, J. M. Rice and E. Auman. The committee of arrangements, consisting of J. I. Condo (chairman), Jno. Smith, W. P. Alexander, R. U. Bitner and John Zerbe deserve all praise for the very able manner in which everything was arranged and conducted; nothing was left undone by the gentlemen which would conduce to the pleasure and comfort of those participating in this "feast of wit and flow of soul."

The music under the charming skill of Miss Ida M. Condo was enchanting, and highly appreciated by the large assemblage who attested their approbation by applauding her to the very echo. The singing by Miss Rena Showers was particularly well executed, and elicited loud and continued applause. C. C. Bartges sang several songs in his usual masterly style, Jas. P. Osman rendered some very fine music on the violin, Mr. Weiser and Mrs. Frank sang a very laughable dutch song. A short address was delivered by Rev. Chilcote, and Samuel Weiser, of Millheim, also made a few remarks. The entertainment was interspersed with several very amusing tableaux, in fact, melody, mirth and repartee ruled the evening. At a late hour all retired to their respective homes, expressing themselves as having been most delightfully entertained, and only regretting that the banquet scenes with all its attending pleasures was at an end.

Last Florida Tour.

Lots of Goods and More Coming.

We thought we would have our complete stock open for your inspection on March 1st, and so we advertised our opening on that day, but we are sorry we must apologize to you for our delay. Still we have done some business even before our opening. Our methods are sure to mean success. We not only want to sell you once. We want to sell you all the time. How can we do this? By one way known to all firms and squareness in our business dealing with you. Some stores say they do this, but do they? You know whether they do or not. May be you have been caught.

Make or break, we intend to begin right from the start. What we tell you in our advertisements, providing the printer makes no errors, is just as reliable as if you heard it direct from our lips. Fairness and squareness shall be our motto. With this end in view, success must crown our efforts.

SIM THE CLOTHIER. Large stylized text advertisement.

Your Money Back for the Asking.

Give us a trial that we may prove to you that every statement made by us is a veritable fact. Again we apologize for not having our entire stock on hand, although no fault of ours, rather blame the Eastern manufacturers for their tardiness.

Give us a call. We may have what you want. If we haven't it now, we will have, and plenty of it, too.
