

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

—J. R. Lawyer, always a prompt patron, gave us a call, and set his label to 1901.

—J. Roll Keller and wife, of Sigleville, were here for several days on a visit to his parents.

—Mrs. Sallie Horner, of Colyer, was the guest of her friend, Miss Lizzie Runkle, yesterday.

—Miss Eleanor Woods, of Boalsburg, was the guest of her friend, Miss Roxanna Brisbane over Sunday.

—Mrs. James Armstrong, of Oak Hall, spent several days this week visiting her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Love.

—Mrs. W. J. Wilson, of Howard, was a guest at the home of her son, Thomas G. Wilson over Sunday.

—Will Odenkirk went to Millersburg on Monday, to assist in the handling of the work at that railroad station.

—Mr. G. Stadel, of Shadville, Davis county, Illinois, was here last week on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. Thomas G. Wilson.

—Miss Jennie Stahl is suffering from an attack of pneumonia, at the home of her brother, James Stahl, west of town.

—George S. Weaver, of Spring Mills, who pays up regularly, called to keep up that excellent habit; a good example to follow.

—Sheriff Cyrus Brungart was over on Thursday serving jury summons, and to take a look at the fine lot of horses at the hotel stables.

—George B. Weagley, of Madisonburg, gave us a call and put a change of label. He now makes his home at his brother's, near Spring Mills.

—Charles D. Emerick, son of M. L. Emerick, has secured a position in the State Insane asylum at Warren, Pa., and has gone to fill the same.

—Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Meyer attended the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Schaffer, at Aronsburg, on Monday. Miss Sallie McClenahan was also in attendance at the funeral.

—Mrs. John Sanders, on Church street, has been ill from an attack of pneumonia the last week, but is steadily improving as her many friends are pleased to note.

—Our good and popular friend, Mr. Henry Potter, has decided to become a citizen of Centre Hall, and will take up his residence here in a week or so. We shall be glad to have him.

—Abner Nearhood, one of our steady and industrious young men, left this week for Warren, Pa., where he has secured a position as one of the attendants in the State Insane asylum.

—Rev. A. D. Potts, a former citizen of our town, but in charge of the Lutheran pastorate for the last two years at Alexandria, Pa., arrived here on Tuesday for a brief visit among his old friends.

—Our veterinary, Dr. John Rider, was requested by State veterinary Pierson, to assist in the examination of a large herd of cattle near Philadelphia last week, but owing to ill health at the time could not attend.

—Dr. W. E. Park, accompanied by Mrs. Harper Springer, residing out at the railroad station, went to Williamsport yesterday morning, where he placed the latter under the treatment of physicians in the hospital.

—Ed. K. Smith, who is teaching school at Fillmore, came home last Thursday to attend his mother's sale. Ed. has been very successful in his work, and expects to remain in that vicinity after he has finished his term.

—Joseph E. Spangler, east of Centre Hall, with his family, took their departure yesterday on their way to Stephenson county, Ill., where he will again engage in farming. Mr. Spangler was a good citizen, and his many friends will wish him success.

—Mr. D. C. Armstrong is now a citizen of Centre Hall, having removed here with his family from Sigleville, last week, into the house vacated by ex-Sheriff Spangler. Mr. Armstrong is operating a stove mill on the Hoffer tract on Nittany mountain.

—Ex-Prothonotary Wm. F. Smith of Millheim, did the windy work at the horse sales on Thursday and Saturday. It is Wm's old vocation, and he has not lost a whit by faithfully serving a six years' period in the county office.

—Mrs. Thomas G. Wilson, Miss Breeze Benner, Mrs. Mary Odenkirk, and Mrs. John S. Dauberman, delegates from the Centre Hall Presbyterian Missionary society and C. E., are in attendance at the W. F. M. S. in convention at Bellefonte this week.

—A lively and bouncing nine-pound little lady was an arrival at the home of Samuel Kerstetter at the Old Fort hotel on Tuesday morning. She will be a regular boarder at the home with grand-pa Isaac Shawver. Both mother and daughter are doing nicely.

—F. W. Weber, an inventive mechanic of Boalsburg, has three or four contrivances, that are new and meritorious. He would like to have the citizens of enterprise in Centre Hall to erect a plant for the manufacture of his inventions, which he assures us would find ready sale, and do not require a large capital.

—Hudson W. Love, of Lewisburg, was up last Thursday on a short visit to his aged mother, Mrs. Jane Love, on Church street. Hud. is the manufacturer of a rheumatic cure, a preparation with which he is meeting with extraordinary sales, and a constant increase in demand.

—We were pleased to receive a call on Monday from our good friend and patron, Mr. Henry Shadow, of Colyer. Mr. Shadow always brightens up the sanctum and drives away the ordinary dull care and gloom when he comes. The REPORTER is his favorite and he says he simply cannot get along without it.

—Former County Treasurer James J. Gramley, who is now farming in Nittany valley, came over to spend a few days with his daughter, Mrs. J. E. Spangler, near Centre Hall. Mr. Gramley took home with him a sleigh which he regards as a relic. He bought it at a sale twenty years ago for $11! Yet Mr. Gramley says he has never yet found one of those polished and padded vehicles of today half so comfortable as his less pretentious one, and comfort is what he is after.

SPRING MILLS.

Our Schools in a Flourishing Condition under Competent Instructors.

Business still continues good at the Spring Mills planing mill; the company is manufacturing some very fine work.

There will be quite a number of changes and removals here on the 1st proximo. Dwellings are not particularly scarce.

Penns and Sinking creeks were very high during the past week, but no particular damage was done in this neighborhood.

All our merchants report a very excellent business during February. D. H. Ruhl our accommodating landlord, states that business with him during last month was unusually good. Several times he was forced to provide sleeping quarters for his guests in private families.

William Steely and wife, and John Kenneley and grand-daughter, Miss Edith Owen, of Lewistown, made us a flying visit last week. Mrs. Steely came especially to see her mother, Mrs. Charles Miller, who has been quite ill for the past six weeks, and is not improving very rapidly.

The advent of March has been somewhat on the lien order. Let us hope that the adage of coming in "like a lion and going out like a lamb" will be verified. We are all anxious for spring—eager to handle the white wash brushes and for a general cleaning up.

Miss Mabel Sankey will again teach the "young ideas here to shoot" during the coming summer. She is at present obtaining subscribers for her school. Miss Sankey is a very accomplished lady and a born teacher for the little folks, and not only seems, but is a favorite with them all. At present Miss Sankey has charge of the primary department at our Academy, and Miss Helen, the refined and highly educated daughter of W. H. Bartholomew, of Centre Hall, the intermediate. Spring Mills is very fortunate indeed, in having her schools in charge of two such able and accomplished lady teachers.

BOALSBURG.

John, the Bright Little Son of R. B. Harrison, died Sunday.

Mrs. George Stone is very ill with acute rheumatism.

Mrs. Fisher and son Charles attended a funeral in Sunbury last week, and have not yet returned.

The High School Literary society will hold their annual exhibition in the M. E. church Friday, March 16th. They will no doubt give an excellent entertainment. The "Noble Spy" will be the principal feature, together with specialties. The proceeds are for the library fund.

Monday afternoon three of our sport fishermen went to Oak Hall dead water and with hook and line caught together 129 large suckers; Frank Allen caught 31, Harry Bailey, 33, and Ed. Riley caught 60. We have been informed that Wm. Myers on Tuesday caught 100. We have later learned that a party of men from Oak Hall seized the dead water Tuesday night. Some of the parties are known.

We are sorry to record the death of John Harrison, the eight-year-old son of R. B. Harrison, which occurred on Sunday morning. The funeral took place Tuesday forenoon; Revs. A. A. Black and Lesher officiated, and T. L. Bickle, of Bellefonte, a friend of the family, was also present. The family have the sympathy of the community as they have lost a very bright and winsome son.

POTTERS MILLS.

What Our Correspondent Finds of Interest in that Busy Section.

Thomas Keen is moving to Centre Hall today.

Michael Smith is at Spring Mills helping the Smith Bros.

We are pleased to note that Miss Linnie Evans is able to be about again. Miss Bollinger, of Lock Haven, is visiting her cousin, Miss Gertrude Spangler.

The sad drowning accident at Pine Grove Mills on Saturday, should be a warning to our boys who go skating.

Rev. Chilcote will deliver his last sermon before going to conference, next Sunday; we hope he may return for another year.

Our band has gradually broken up, and this week the horns were disposed of; we hope the parties who get them will make better use of them than our fellows did. Boys, now put your band wagon up for sale.

The calthumpians serenaded the bride and groom on Wednesday evening, and all agreed they were a fine looking couple. There are a few ladies in this town who expect an invitation to the moving; don't disappoint them.

On Friday while Lloyd Smith was loading wood in the mountain, his team became frightened and ran away; if it had not been for the bravery of his Mother, Mrs. Adam Smith, who caught the team, there would have been serious trouble.

The sale at the late residence of Fayette Moore, deceased, was largely attended, and the stock and implements brought good prices. Miss Eliza will leave on Thursday and will make her home with her brother, John Moore, west of Centre Hall.

TUSSEVILLE.

Personal Mention and Other Items of Interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McClellan went to Millheim Saturday last.

The funeral of Mr. William Rishel, on Saturday, was very largely attended.

Mr. Harry Cooney, of Patton, Pa., visited relatives in our villa on Monday.

Mr. William Breon spent a few days of this week at his home near Spring Mills.

Miss Rebecca Spangler spent Sunday with her friend, Miss Blanche Rossman.

Messrs. Harry and Frank Floray, of this place, spent Saturday night at Millheim.

Miss Katie Love is spending a few weeks at her home, owing to the illness of her father.

Rev. G. W. Kerschner visited his members of this congregation during the latter part of last week.

Quite a number of our people attended church at Centre Hall during the past week; William Rockey took quite a number out several evenings.

Ingleby Items.

Mr. and Mrs. Garthoff visited at Mr. Barker's on Sunday.

Charles Eisenhuth, of this place, cut a painful gash in his hand with an ax. John W. Galer is lumbering at Ingleby in full earnest. Mrs. Eisenhuth of this place visited Em'l Eisenhuth's on Sunday.

F. P. Barker is on the sick list, but improving. A daughter of Mr. Delong at Poemills is laid up with a bad cold. Henry Eisenhuth of this place is in the prop timber business assisted by his brother Bernard. J. W. Galer lost a valuable mare. The High valley scribe said if he had two loads of props he could fill out a car load. Rube Eisenhuth went to Linden Hall to work in the woods for the Linden Hall Lumber Co.

Foster's Weather Forecast.

My last bulletin gave forecasts of the storm wave to cross the continent from March 7 to 11 and the next will reach the Pacific coast about 11, cross the west of Rockies country by close of 13, great central valleys 14 to 16, eastern states 17.

Warm wave will cross the west of Rockies country about 12, great central valleys 14, eastern states 16. Cool wave will cross the west of Rockies country about 15, great central valleys 17, eastern states 19.

Temperature of the week ending 8 a. m. March 19, will average above normal in the great central valleys, above in eastern states, below on the Pacific slope. Rainfall for same period will be below normal east of the Rockies and above west.

About the date of this bulletin a moderate warm wave will be in the great central valleys and a cold wave immediately behind it. These will pass to the Atlantic coast within three days. This cold wave will produce some rain in southern and snow in northern states after which will come a period of two weeks of dry weather and rising temperature.

We have saved many doctor bills since we began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home. We keep a bottle open all the time and whenever any of my family or myself begin to catch cold we begin to use the Cough Remedy, and as a result we never have to send away for a doctor and incur a large doctor bill, for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy never fails to cure. It is certainly a medicine of great merit and worth.—D. S. Mearkle, General Merchant and Farmer, Mattie, Bedford county, Pa. For sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. There is a Reason Why I am entitled to some of your trade. I fully explained that in the last issue of this paper. For the benefit of those who did not read it, I again say— Goods Sold on Their Own Merits, No Misrepresentation of Goods Allowed, Your Money Back for the Asking. I fully realize that I cannot expect all your trade, but I am sure a trial will prove financially beneficial to you. To all persons, I would be very much pleased to have you call and see me in my new location, and I will try to prove to you that I DO WHAT I ADVERTISE.

Sim The Clothier. There is no Reason Why I cannot and will not save you money on your Spring wants in Clothing and Furnishing Goods. Come and see me. It will do no harm, possibly some good may result from it. I realize you won't leave your old trading places unless inducements are offered, and along this line I intend to conduct my business. Goods listed in the papers mean nothing to a buyer. You must see, feel and get prices. You will then be able to judge for yourself. Give me a call when around my way. I will endeavor to make it interesting for you. "SIM THE CLOTHIER." Reynolds' Bank Building, - Bellefonte, Pa.
