

Surprising, Astonishing.

Doubly so when you consider that most merchants are taking advantage of the rising market and advancing prices.

Not So Here == We Smelled the Rat!

Anticipating the advance in prices that the various Trusts were contemplating, we took time by the forelock and bought our goods before they were ready to put up the prices. This little bit of mercantile fore-sight means a saving of Thousands of Dollars to Centre County Clothing Buyers, and we hope a doubling of our business.

We bought double the quantity of goods that we usually need, believing that we can certainly double our business when we offer and actually do sell you goods at fully one half of what you will be asked to pay with others.

We have all our new Spring stock at the old prices, and in many instances at a lower price than existed during the depression.

To make it absolutely certain that this immense stock will be disposed of, we have calculated our profit so small that we feel safe in claiming

One-Half Price for Clothing.

Compared with what you will find others pricing the same goods to you.

This assertion may seem strong to you, but we stand ready to prove every word of it if you but give us a chance.

It is a Condition that Actually Exists.

A condition that you will surely profit by if you take a little time to investigate.

It means an opportunity of saving money the like of which you may not have again in a life time.

You may ask,

Why Do we Sacrifice These Goods?

We will tell you. We can afford to let you have these goods at the smallest of small profits without loss to ourselves and at the same time make ours the most popular clothing establishment in Central Pennsylvania.

We Believe that it will Pay Us in the End.

It has always been the principle of this store to give our patrons the benefit of every good deal that we make.

Once a customer, always a customer, is what we are striving for.

We want you to feel certain that your money will go farther with us than with others.

We want you to know that ours is a store where you can always save money.

We want you to know that the best goods and by long odds the lowest prices will always be found with us.

SEE US--SEE OTHERS, IS ALL WE ASK.

You will then realize and appreciate what our big stock and extremely low prices mean to you. Can you afford to buy clothing without at least giving us a look. It will be a pleasure to show you around.

YOUR MONEY BACK FOR THE ASKING.

FAUBLES,

Brockhoff House Block.

BELLEFONTE.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Gettig have gone to housekeeping at Pleasant Gap.

—Mrs. Harry Dinges and two children visited her brother, E. W. Stine, at Tyrone.

—Postmaster John Stuart, of State College, was a prominent visitor in Centre Hall Monday.

—Abe Lukenbach, of Bellefonte, was here Tuesday taking in the Sunday school convention.

—Mrs. Joshua Potter was to Watertown several days of this and last week on a visit to her sister.

—Miss Sallie Reilly and Mrs. Meyers, of Boalsburg, were the guests of Mrs. Lizzie Jacobs on Monday.

—Co. Supt. and Mrs. C. L. Gramley, of Rebersburg, were the guests of Mrs. Maggie Harper this week.

—Mr. Jacob Bottorf, the representative citizen of Lemont, transacted business in Centre Hall on Tuesday.

—Mr. Frank McFarlane and Miss Nettie McFarlane, of Boalsburg, were the guests of Centre Hall friends on Tuesday.

—Wm. E. Snyder, one of the old veterans who served in the civil war, has entered the National Military Home, in Ohio.

—Miss May Rhone, who has been occupying a position as stenographer in a large New York publishing house, is home on a visit to her parents.

—Harry Blair, representing the Millinburg Buggy Co., was interviewing our dealers last Friday. He was the guest of Jerre Miller, while in town.

—Miss Lizzie Durst has been quite ill with pneumonia the past week at her home on Church street. The many friends of the estimable lady hope for her speedy recovery.

—Ellis Shaffer, of Madisonburg, was a prominent visitor in Centre Hall Tuesday taking in the attractions going here. Ellis is one of the working Democrats in his section.

—Mrs. James P. Herring and son Clarence, who had been visiting friends in Centre Hall and Penn Hall for several weeks past, returned to their home in Altoona Friday.

—Hon. Robert McCoy Foster, who so creditably filled two terms as one of Centre county's representatives, was in Centre Hall a few days ago, looking up the political situation. "Bob" as he is more familiarly called, has announced himself as a candidate and again entered the field. At Harrisburg he faithfully represented the policy of his party and was prominent in its councils.

—Mrs. Ezra Harter and Mrs. Gates Kennelley, two of Spring Mills' estimable ladies, were in attendance at the convention on Tuesday, and remained until the next day visiting friends.

—Hon. W. A. Murray and daughter Miss Flora, of Boalsburg, were the guests of relatives in town Tuesday and Wednesday. Mr. Murray took an active interest in the convention, and then attended to some work in surveying, a profession in which he is quite skillful.

—Our old Democratic friend, Geo. Spangler, of Tusseyville, favored our sanctum with a call, and set his label into '01. Mr. Spangler is never else than pleasant humored and genial, and with that he possesses a public spiritedness that ranks him among the class of useful citizens.

—Centre Hall is largely represented among the attendants at the State Insane Asylum at Warren, Pa., in having six or seven of its young men employed there. The number was increased by the addition of Charles McClenahan, who left last week. The boys receive $16 per month, with boarding and washing, while the work is not very hard.

—Mr. Michael Shaffer departed last week on a visit among his many friends and relatives in Stephenson county, Illinois. Mr. Shaffer has a son residing in that locality with whom he expects to make his home for the next couple months, with a probable visit to Nebraska. Mr. Shaffer will be back in the fall in good time to cast his usual Democratic ballot.

TUSSEYVILLE.

Personal Mention and Other Items of Interest.

We had real good sleighing over Sunday; wish it had lasted longer.

Mrs. Jacob Strohm of this place, is spending a few days at Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. George Spangler spent Monday of this week at Centre Hall.

We wonder, does Jacob always walk so fast when he goes home? He must be afraid.

Quite a number of our people attended the Sunday school convention at Centre Hall Tuesday.

The new band in our neighboring town, Colyer, will make a first-class band with a little practice.

Mrs. D. G. Meek, of Pine Grove Mills, spent a few days of last week with her sister, Mrs. Adam Krumrine.

Wm. Meyers moved to Millheim on Tuesday of this week; quite a number of our people went with the moving.

A sled load of Centre Hall's young people passed through our town on Saturday evening. They went up to M. F. Rossman's where they spent a very pleasant evening.

For the job work, try the Reporter.

COBURN.

The Result of a Fall When Quite Young Causes Death of a Lady.

W. C. Krader one day last week moved into the house formerly occupied by R. F. Vonada.

Thomas Kaler and wife attended his mother's sale, which was held at Northumberland on Saturday.

Mrs. R. F. Vonada, of Reading, formerly of this place, is now in this section visiting friends and relatives.

The Coburn Cornet band is becoming very efficient under the instruction of Mr. Charles, of Millinburg.

William Koonsman shipped his household goods to Ingely and moved into the house owned by T. O. Keen.

R. F. Campbell and his lady friend Miss Donachi, of Lewisburg, and the Misses Campbell, of Sunbury, were welcome guests at the home of A. J. Campbell over Sunday.

A. J. Bowersox will sell part of his household goods on Friday afternoon, and intends to move to Patton in the near future where he has secured employment in the Brick and Tile works operated by a Mr. Good, of Lock Haven.

Miss Olive Zerby a daughter of A. P. Zerby, of Sober, died on Saturday, and was buried at Paradise church, Tuesday, aged 26 years and 10 months. Miss Zerby while yet a little girl when at school, received a severe fall, injuring her hip causing a lameness from which she never recovered and which terminated fatally last Saturday. She had a large circle of friends and acquaintances who all regret her early demise.

SPRING MILLS.

A Brief Summary of the Events Down the Pike.

Mrs. David Burrell who has been quite ill for several weeks is slowly convalescing.

Why not move the town hall building from the country, into a central location in the village? As at present located it is too far away to be of any particular advantage.

Last week the dam supplying the Spring Mills Planning mill with water for engine boiler and other purposes sprung a leak, forcing the firm to stop work for several days for repairs.

In your issue of last week, the type made me say that the anniversary sermon of the K. of G. E. would be delivered on Saturday morning 25th inst. It should have stated on Sunday morning.

Joseph Alters one of our esteemed citizens will move to Centre Hall on 1st proximo. We are very sorry to lose Mr. Alters, he is an excellent neighbor and a highly skilled mechanic.

Wm. Bair will relinquish farming for Wm. Allison on 1st proximo, and move to Zion to take charge of a peach orchard. Wm. Gramley will transfer his implement business to R. D. Runkle, and take the position about being vacated by Mr. Blair.

Wm. Pealer, one of our highly esteemed citizens and a prominent Democrat, has been repeatedly urged by his many friends to be a candidate for the Assembly. That Mr. Pealer would prove a very strong candidate is unquestionable, but he assures me, that while fully appreciating the well wishes and kindness of his friends he will not be a candidate.

AARONSBURG.

The News of the Honored Burg as Seen by Our Scribe.

Jake Bame's have again moved back to their own house on 2nd street.

George E. Stover has struck a job somewhere and with his tool chest pulled out on Monday morning.

Mrs. Henry Phillips is still in Snyder county and will remain until after the sale of her father's personal effects.

On Thursday Joe Korman will fit to brush valley and that will start a general fitting in this neighborhood.

C. W. Burd has purchased the property that lately belonged to Elijah Burd and was sold at sheriff's sale last December to J. H. Reifnyder for $240.

Frank Holloway still has six horses on his hands to dispose of. He exchanged his bay team with Mr. Morris, of Bellefonte, and got a pair of Kentucky bred sorrels.

Report says, Long of Rebersburg, has rented the Weaver meat market, and that Deobler will do the killing and dressing of the meat and that Houtz will drive the wagon.

Mat Swab is home from Lancaster, where he worked for several months in a bakery. He expects to start shortly for Johnstown, and not finding work there will go on to Pittsburg.

BOALSBURG.

Mrs. Elizabeth Grove Died Last Thursday, of Pneumonia.

Many of our people took advantage of the sleighing over Saturday and Sunday.

Many people from our burg attended the Sunday school convention at Centre Hall this week.

A. Lee moved to Centre Hill last Tuesday; W. Stover moved from Linden Hall into F. Tharp's house at this place last week; Charles Stemm moved back on the farm last week.

The High school entertainment was a success; the door receipts were $26.00. Reuben Stuart, in the Spy, wore epaulettes that were worn by Colonel Johnson during the Revolution, while several of the swords used by the players have interesting histories of former battles.

Boalsburg has some small people as well as other places; one young man brought with him three other young men, and he offered to pay the admission for all, however, he succeeded in cheating the door keeper, intentionally, out of nearly half the admission fee. We could all be dudes thus.

Mrs. Elizabeth Grove died last Thursday evening at her home, of pneumonia, after an illness of three days. Mrs. Grove was within a few days of being 75 years old. The funeral took place Saturday at three o'clock, interment in the Boalsburg cemetery. Rev. A. A. Black officiated. Mrs. Grove was a highly respected citizen, and a life long member of the Reformed church. She is survived by one son and a number of grand children.

POTTERS MILLS.

What is Taking Place of Interest in that Busy Town.

If you want good fish go to Emanuel Smith.

Harry Fishburn was to Bellefonte Saturday on business.

We are pleased to note that William Stiver is about again.

Mrs. Mary McCoy has been quite ill for the past few days.

Mrs. Lena Smith our leading seamstress, has been on the sick list.

Wm. Smith, furniture dealer of Spring Mills, was in our town Saturday transacting business.

Moving time will soon be here, some have already moved; who is it in our town who walked to the moving?

Mrs. R. S. Alexander and Mrs. Lena Smith attended the Sunday school convention at Tusseyville on Thursday last.

A son of Tony Garver, of near Centre Hall, while visiting his uncle, David Slotman, at this place, was taken seriously ill, but is recovering.

We notice that Dr. Alexander of this place is driving a new horse, and it is a fine one. The Dr. was compelled to add to his stock of horses owing to the increase of his practice.

Wm. Spangler's sale was largely attended, everything sold well and it was the leading sale of the season. No doubt many will wish he would have sale again because of the fine dinner that was served.

Instant Relief from Toothache

Can often be obtained by placing in the hollow tooth a small piece of cotton saturated with the famous H. H. Medicine. Sciatica, that painful disease of the sciatic nerve, extending from the hip down the leg, producing great agony, is best treated by the vigorous external application of the H. H. Medicine. The same remedy is equally efficacious in Neuralgia, that excruciating nerve pain, which should receive immediate attention. Try it, and you will recommend it to your neighbors. Internal remedies for neuralgia, rheumatism and headache are all of them dangerous, and should therefore be avoided. Call for the genuine article with the portrait of Dr. Dodge Tomlinson, 400 North Third Street, Philadelphia, Pa., on each wrapper, and refuse to accept worthless substitutes. For sale by J. D. Murray.
