SPRING MILLS.

An Interesting Letter from that Busy Town and Locality.

Quite a number of removals and changes will be made in our village next week. But there appears to be no scarcity of dwellings.

Jerry Howard, a reformed drunkard and ex-jailbird, delivered a very interesting lecture in the M. E. church on Sunday evening last, to quite a large audience.

I hear of several building operations, also one or two enterprises for our village, to be pushed forward this spring. But I can trace none of it to any very reliable source.

Rev. Chilcote delivered a very able discourse to the K. of G. E. on Sunday morning last. It was their 13th anniversary sermon. His remarks received the closest attention from a very large congregation.

Daniel Schlegel plasterer, states that he has about all the work here, and in neighboring towns he can do for several months. Mr. Schlegel has few equals as an expert plasterer, and of course his services are always in demand.

It is generally regretted here by the friends of Wm. Peeler, and also by a large number of Democrats, that he has declined to be a candidate for legislative honors. It is conceded by almost everybody regardless of politics, that he would prove a representative of marked ability, and an antagonist not very safe to trifle with nor underestimate, and his candidacy was almost a fixed fact. But his recent positive declination has put them all at sea.

Is the act christian or pagan, to employ a poor woman to laundry a general wash, scrub, clean up and toil from morn 'til night, and then remunerate her with the munificent sum of twenty cents, particularly when the employe is weak minded and hardly knows the difference between twenty cents and a half dollar, but nevertheless does her work well? To force down the wages of employes possessing intelligence and ability is all well enough, they can accept or refuse the price just as they elect, if they refuse and prefer remaining idle, no one can blame them for being beggars—each to their choice. Parties requiring workmen will employ them at as low figures as possible, this is natural, simply business—but of questionable policy. But when the employe is of unsound mind, as in the case cited, and has little or no idea of the value of labor, and then to reward such labor with a mere pittance, looks like taking advantage of imbecility—honest folks would say looks like swindling.

Lip Badly Cut.

Last Saturday Samuel Rowe met with a painful accident. He was running the wood lathe in Reasick's shops, turning down a piece of wood about two feet long. The stick flew out of the lathe and struck Samuel on the upper lip, cutting his lip clean through. Dr. Glosser put several stitches in the wound.

Thieves at Linden Hall.

Thieves were active at Linden Hall during the past week. The grist mill office was entered and the desk ransacked, and several articles were taken. Late in the evening the railroad station was entered, but the thieves were discovered and frightened away. The Linden Hall Lumber Company's office was also broken into and an overcoat and pair of gloves were taken.

We have saved many doctor bills since we began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home. We keep a bottle open all the time and whenever any of my family or myself begin to catch cold we begin to use the Cough Remedy, and as a result we never have to send away for a doctor and incur a large doctor bill, for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy never fails to cure. It is certainly a medicine of great merit and worth.—D. S. Mearke, General Merchant and Farmer, Mattie, Bedford county, Pa. For sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; H. F. Rossmore, Spring Mills.

Had a Good House.

The "Spy of Gettysburg," a drama produced by home talent in Grange Arcadia on Saturday evening, played to a good house, and the company did themselves credit as amateur actors. The parts played by John Hosterman, John Miller, and Walter M. Kerlin, were cleverly acted and far above the average, while that of Miss Anna Barthowomew deserves great praise.

Relief for Corpulence.

Corpulent persons, and others who suffer from swollen joints and limbs on account of being on their feet all day long, will experience a wonderful touting up of the muscles of the affected parts by bathing them with the H. H. H. Medicine, and then rubbing briskly with the hand, for several evenings. A small twenty-five cent bottle is large enough to try, if the signature and portrait of the inventor D. Dodge Tomlinson, Philadelphia, appears on the wrapper, as a guarantee of its quality. What remains over can be used to relieve rheumatism, neuralgia, lameness, stiffness, swellings and sprains, for which purpose it has no equal. A bottle will repay the sufferer a hundred fold its cost in the saving of suffering, which it effects. For sale by J. D. Murray.
