

Shoe News For Spring.

The new shoes make the shoe news. Case upon case of Spring time footwear has been tumbled into the store within the last few weeks.

We've have opening the boxes and arranging the stock just as rapidly as we could. We cannot say we are entirely ready to have you view the new Spring lines, for there are many sorts yet to come.

But we can satisfy almost anyone with shoes of new Spring design—shoes that we promise to be strictly up to the hour in style, shoes that we guarantee to be faultless in fit and finish, shoes that cannot be matched at our prices.

If you want a pair of shoes right now, don't wait for the complete lines. Plenty of styles here that you'll like.

Foster's Weather Forecast.

My last bulletin gave forecasts of the storm wave to cross the continent from April 5 to 9 and the next will reach the Pacific coast about 10, cross the west of Rockies country by close of 11, great central valleys 12 to 14, eastern states 15.

Warm wave will cross the west of Rockies country about 10, great central valleys 12, eastern states 14. Cool wave will cross the west of Rockies country about 13, great central valleys 12, eastern states 17.

Temperature of the week ending 8 a. m. April 16, will average about normal in the eastern states, and below on the Pacific slope. Rainfall for the same period will be deficient.

April is often a month of moderate weather and only gradual changes of temperature. Not so this year. The wise man will carry his overcoat and umbrella when journeying during these April days, for one extreme will so suddenly follow another that appearances of the clouds and sky will not be reliable as tokens of coming weather.

Precipitation will be most abundant from 10 to 25; last week of the month will be dry.

The most severe storms will occur not far from March 31, April 9 and 26.

Rainfall will be from average to above in the eastern states, from average to below in the great central valleys and Rocky mountains and below on the Pacific slope. Temperature will be below in great central valleys and eastern states and above in Rocky mountain country and on Pacific slope.

DIED AT JOHNSTOWN.

Mrs. Maude Templeton Dies While Visiting in that City.

Mrs. Maude H. Templeton, while on a visit with friends in Johnstown, Pa., was taken ill and died at the Memorial hospital at three o'clock last Thursday morning.

Mrs. Templeton was the daughter of Mrs. Kate Horner, of Centre Hall, and has made her home with her mother in this place during the past year. About two months ago while coming from the house of a neighbor, she slipped on the porch steps and was thrown heavily to the stone pavement. Mrs. Templeton's illness and subsequent death dates from the fall she received. About three weeks ago she left here on a visit to her sister at Altoona, going from there to Johnstown to visit her friend Mrs. Kate McQuinn. The week previous to her death she was taken ill, and at once her condition became very serious. She was removed to the Memorial hospital. By her fall she sustained internal injuries, and hemorrhages resulted. She also had a touch of typhoid fever.

Her remains were brought to Centre Hall on Friday afternoon and taken to the home of her mother. The funeral took place on Saturday morning, interment was made in the Centre Hall cemetery, Rev. Rhoads officiating in the services.

Mrs. Templeton was aged 26 years, 10 months and 16 days. She leaves a husband and a six-year-old son to survive her, with her mother, a brother, Calvin, and a sister Mrs. Laura Osman, of Altoona.

A Fourth Operation.

J. Howard Spangler, son of ex-Sheriff Spangler, who submitted to an operation of amputating one entire hand and several fingers on the other hand, and part of one foot several weeks ago in the Johnstown hospital, had part of the right foot amputated last week. Howard's misfortune was caused by being caught in a blizzard several weeks ago at Barnesboro, when his hands and feet were badly frozen, amputations being necessary to save his life. The family will move to Bellefonte. Howard expects to be discharged from the hospital in a short time.

A Centre County Man's Luck.

C. L. Beck, formerly of Rebersburg, but now living at Renova, has been offered $25,000 for his preparation to remove paint from woodwork. The preparation made by Mr. Beck is put on the paint with a brush and then the hose turned on to clean it off. The saving in cleaning a passenger car by this method is about $30. Mr. Beck has had offers from the Pullman Car Company, the B. & O. and the Penna. R. R. He made his discovery four or five years ago, and has secured a thirty-year patent on his article.

Two Millheim Deaths.

On Monday evening the death of Miss Maude, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Ulrich, occurred at the family home at Millheim. She was aged about sixteen years, and had been ill for about two weeks from brain fever. On Tuesday morning, Harry, the eleven-year-old son of Robert Harter died from brain fever. He had been ill but two weeks, and was a very bright and interesting boy.

New Firm in Charge.

On Monday the new mercantile firm Meyer & Musser, took possession of the old Wolf store stand. Since Monday the store has been closed, this being necessary in taking an account of the stock. In this work William Noll, of Pleasant Gap, and James Young, of Philadelphia, are lending valuable assistance. It will require several days to complete this work when the old firm, Wolf & Crawford will hand over the business to their successors.

Died in Illinois.

The wife of Mr. Elias Heckman died at her home in Orangeville, Ill., last Saturday, from a cancerous tumor, aged about fifty years. Mrs. Heckman was a native of Illinois, and her maiden name was Ritzman. Mr. Heckman is seriously ill with pneumonia. He is a brother of Commissioner Daniel, of Bellefonte; J. F., of Spring Mills, and William, near Centre Hall.

Millinery Opening.

Mrs. C. B. Boob left on Monday morning for Eastern cities, to buy her stock of Spring and Summer Millinery. A large display of trimmed hats and bonnets and millinery novelties will be exhibited at her opening, on Tuesday and Wednesday, April 10 and 11. All the ladies are cordially invited to come and see them.

All Occupied.

The houses in Centre Hall are all occupied with but one exception and the next census will put us in a very favorable light. The town's population is greater at this time than ever in its history and we shall make a splendid showing over the census taken in 1890 when we were credited with but 440.

Entertainment.

The Sunday school of the Reformed church will give an entertainment in their church next Saturday evening. The children have been practicing for weeks past for this occasion, and an excellent program has been prepared.

A Trip to State College.

On Saturday the scholars of the grammar school taught by D. Wagner Geiss, enjoyed a trip of inspection to State College under the guidance of their instructor. The scholars to the number of about forty were taken to State College by hacks and buggies, horses for the purpose being furnished by H. W. Dinges, Jacob Lee, John Heckman, S. W. Smith, J. W. Wolf, and D. A. Booser. Members of the Pine Stump school were also taken along. At the College the party was taken in charge by Professors and were shown through that institution. The experimental station, mechanical arts building, stables, and all departments were placed at the disposal of the scholars. Every attention was shown them by the officials. The party had their lunch with them and it was eaten in one of the recitation rooms. The scholars were highly pleased with their trip and gave a vote of thanks to those who furnished facilities, in affording them the day's outing.

Studio Opening.

Having purchased the photograph gallery of T. C. Bartges, at Centre Hall, I desire to state to the residents of Centre Hall and surrounding section, that the studio will be open for work on Friday of each week hereafter. Please note the date. The first opening day will be on Friday, April 13th. Photo work of the best, the latest, and prices as low as consistent with good work. My galleries will be open as follows: State College, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday; Centre Hall, Friday; Millheim, Saturday, of each week.

W. W. SMITH.

A Native of Potter Township.

Mrs. Hannah McCoy Van Dyke died at her home in Lock Haven, last Thursday morning, after an illness of almost a year, of cancer of the stomach, at the age of about seventy years. She was a native of Potter township, and a daughter of Alexander and Elizabeth McDowell McCoy, and was the last surviving member of her family. Her husband died in 1895, and was a prominent railroad contractor. She was an aunt of Mrs. J. W. Wolf, and Miss Emma McCoy, of Centre Hall.

Of Interest to Fishermen.

It is the desire of the Pennsylvania Fish Protective association that all persons interested in promoting the fish interests of the state communicate at once with their representative in congress, urging the passage of House bill No. 7343, appropriating $25,000 for the establishment of a fish culture station in Pennsylvania. Also, the Lacy bill, H. R., 6634, to prohibit the shipment of game in violation of state laws.

Died in Iowa.

Thomas P. Fowler, a former resident of this part of the state, died at Springville, Iowa, on March 6th. He went to Iowa in 1870. At his death he was the owner of two fine farms. He was aged about 56 years. He left a wife two sons and two daughters. Of his family he is survived by a brother Abel, residing in Milfill county, and a sister, Mrs. W. H. Harter, of Hartleton.

Died in Benner Township.

Ada, wife of George Smith, died at her home in Benner township on Thursday last, after a lingering illness from consumption. She was aged nearly thirty-five years, and leaves a husband and four children to survive her. Interment was made in the Shiloh church cemetery on Sunday morning.

Mad Sheep Kill Themselves Butting.

The epidemic of rabies in Erie county flocks is spreading, and another large flock of sheep has been destroyed. They belonged to Elvin Frank, and three weeks ago one was bitten by a mad dog. The disease was communicated to others and many killed themselves by dashing their heads against the sides of their pen.

Closing of the Boro Schools.

The winter term of the town schools closes with this week—one of the most satisfactory terms since the system of grading was adopted. With Prof. Wagoner as principal, and Wagner Geiss, Frank Foreman and Miss Anna Bartholmew as teachers, the term ends without a complaint. This speaks well for the parties named, and the board of directors can feel proud of the work accomplished under their constant labors to render our schools a credit to Centre Hall and place them upon the highest plane. Our highest grade is superior to many of the academies of 25 years ago.

The Reporter takes especial pride in the forward stride made, as the writer is closely identified with the foundation for this improved standard in accomplishing the erection of a school building with four rooms, and bringing about the present system of our graded schools. Strange to tell, a few persons in the town bitterly opposed this work then, and were willing to defeat the grading, and have the schools remain at the old foggy notch, when the children of the town were dragged around in old smithshops to be taught their A B C's and "readin', writin' and cyprin'".

A Big Sale.

The public sale of D. J. Meyer last Thursday on his farm east of Linden Hall, was attended by a very large crowd. Mr. Meyer had a large lot of stock and implements to sell and started the sale early in the morning. For lunch he had prepared five hundred bags with sandwiches and other food, supposing this quantity of food would be sufficient. The supply was short of the demand by a good margin, and some had to go hungry. The weather was fine and crowds were attracted from all parts. The sale footed up over $2100. The hogs brought $207, and were eagerly sought for. Cattle brought good prices, cows bringing prices up to $51. Mr. Meyer will rent his farm hereafter, and the present tenant Newton Yarnell will take charge of it.

Good for Martz.

During the civil war the applications for furloughs by the boys to go home became so numerous that it became necessary to refuse many; as a test and to avoid favoritism a rule was fixed upon requiring an examination as to the cleanliness of the applicant in his person and equipments in camp. The soldier who did not come up to the requirements, was refused a furlough. Among the successful ones was John Martz, the shoemaker in this town. He stood the examinations from company inspection up to headquarters, was pronounced the cleanest man in the regiment and was rewarded with a two weeks' furlough.

Horses by Express.

Fred Briel, a dealer in horses, last week bought up a car-load of horses in this section, and Wednesday afternoon shipped them from this place by express to New York, where they would arrive next morning. They went in a palace horse-car, and will reach their destination about 30 hours earlier than by freight. The car goes through by regular passenger train and will test the advantages of such a shipment by express over those of a freight line. Mr. Briel paid as high as $250 to $290 for team.

Can't Have the Job.

The Director of the Census has ordered that no assessor, tax collector or justice of the peace shall be appointed as an enumerator. He has also directed that the names of the enumerators be withheld from publication. This is done for the protection of the enumerators from the flood of advertisements with which they would be afflicted if their names should be made public. They would be solicited to become agent for all kinds of patent medicines, farming implements, etc., and this would interfere with their work.

Improving his Building.

Ex-sheriff Spangler is erecting a neat little building between the hotel and meat market to be used as a shoemaker shop by Will Curry. The sheriff has also improved the meat market building. It has been lowered about two feet to get rid of the high porch to the entrance. This building was erected by Henry Witmer, dec'd., and was used originally for a grain and store house.

Horse Sale.

O. F. Cromley, of Cedarville, Ill., will bring a car load of horses to Centre Hall, and will offer them at public sale on or about April 10th. Mr. Cromley has brought horses to this county before and he is well-known to many in this section. This lot will consist of drivers, draught horses, mated teams, etc.

Married.

At the residence of Thomas A. Benage, Centre Hall, April 2, 1900, by Rev. F. F. Christine, Mr. R. D. Killian, of White Deer, Union county, and Mrs. Susie E. Stiffer, of Colyer, Pa.
