A tobacco trust is forming. Easy way to fight that and make money at the same time—quit chewing.

The Republicans now talk of putting senator Wolcott, a stiff silverite, on the ticket with McKinley, to catch silver votes. What hypocrisy!

The Kentucky Republican state convention upholds Taylor's actions. Of course—but all the courts, State and Federal, just went 'tother way.

General Otis is coming home. Since he put a dozen or more ends to the Philippine war, he should bring one of them along so the people may see what the "end" looks like.

Mr. Quay says he will again be a candidate for senator and that he will be elected. Go ahead Matt, we'll hold your hat. But you said the same so often within two years and just as often didn't get there.

The United States transport Thomas arrived unexpectedly from Manila and returning officers and men of the army say that everything seems to point to a long and devastating guerrilla warfare in the Philippines.

One day last week over 5000 immigrants arrived at the port of New York and were quickly absorbed in the city or scattered for different States of the Union, pretty sure to find work and better wages than they have ever enjoyed.

The officials appointed to go down and give Cuba good government, have been caught in a scheme of wholesale robbery, and are now under arrest. When will there be an end to rascality in high places? It would almost seem that the State and National administrations are being run in the interest of plunderers. Shame!

It is rumored McKinley may leave the Methodist church, because of severe and reiterated criticisms aimed at him by a number of conferences of his denomination, in connection with the much discussed army canteen law within the last few months, and those adopted a few days ago at Chicago by a committee of the Methodist general conference stung him to the quick.

In every leading industrial centre, Chicago, Buffalo, New York, Baltimore and Philadelphia the labor unions are making demands for more pay and in many cases are out on strikes. Wages have not gone up and the cost of necessities of life have increased so as to make their condition deplorable. This is McKinley prosperity. The trusts are coining money, it comes out of the people's pockets, and labor suffers.

The officers who were appointed to the army from civil life because they had political pulls, and who were sent to the Philippines, have grown tired of their jobs, and are anxious to come home. Many of them have resigned, but their resignations have not been accepted, and they will have to stay where they are. There seems to be a moral in this, which may apply to the civil service—if there were more work and less pay attached to the offices, there might not be such a rush of applicants for them.

The British, 20 to 1, have forced the Boers to retreat though the latter have saved their guns and supplies in recent defeats. The prospect for the heroic boers is gloomy and they are likely to go under but with a record for bravery unexcelled in the history of the world. The rejoicings of the British over hard-earned success is as if the champion prize-fighter Corbett and his friends were running wild over a licking their idol had given a five year old boy.

Of the 11 men on trial at Sunbury for conspiracy to defraud the borough of Shamokin in street paving contracts, eight were on Saturday convicted and the other three released. Those found guilty include all the Councilmen and ex-Councilmen accused of taking bribes, and several of the agents of paving companies who are said to have put out the money. The jury had quickly arrived at a decision concerning the guilt of the men accused except in the case of W. E. Dixey, for whom three ballots were passed. Here is another warning for unfaithful town officials guilty of transactions that will not bear daylight and are attempted to be kept hidden from the public eye.

A dispatch from Manila says over 300 United States Volunteer officers have handed in their resignations to escape the arduous campaigning of the rainy season in the Philippines and all were refused.

If all the officers who desired were permitted to resign there would not be fifteen officers left to a regiment. Officers tire of fighting the Philippines, the rainy season sickens them. One thing is cheering our men, the appointing of General McArthur to take the place of General Otis, who has "ended" the war over a dozen of times and now has ended himself.

Our forces in the past few weeks gained in a number of fights, killing many insurgents.

Montana Politics.

Montana is a youthful State, but one that learns politics rapidly, thinks the Pittsburg Dispatch. Without saying anything concerning the senatorial election in Montana, which has occupied considerable time for discussion by the United States Senate, plenty of novelty was brought to the surface when Mr. Clark reached the point where he concluded to resign. Already two appointments have been made, the one being Clark himself, the other a man favored by the Governor, who was absent from the State when the Lieutenant Governor appointed Clark. The Governor's appointment makes the situation interesting. If Clark was not legitimately elected the vacancy has existed since before the meeting of Congress. If the Senate did not know whether he was entitled to a seat the Governor could not know of a vacancy until the Senate found it out. If Clark was not elected and could not resign his resignation does not take him out of the Senate, for he had nothing to resign, and unless the Senate shows him to have been elected his status is still undetermined.

If Clark was entitled to resign and the Lieutenant Governor appointed him as his successor, for the Governor to recall the appointment is another innovation in politics. It is dangerous, for it may arouse Governors to begin the practice of discharging Senators whenever the Senator proves unsatisfactory to the Governor. If the Governor can recall an appointment made by some one else, why not recall an election by the Legislature? Why not the Nation recall the admission of Montana? Montana is peculiar, but at the same time interesting, particularly in a speculative way.

SCRANTON COUNCILMEN ARRESTED. Bribery has led to the arrest of 18 members of the City Council of Scranton. The Municipal League and the Men's Union of one of the Presbyterian churches are the prosecutors.

The Shamokin case ended on Saturday by eight of the councilmen being found guilty of bribery. In Philadelphia the North American was threatened with blackmail if it did not stop its exposure of the corrupt doings of the Mayor and Council. This has aroused the pulpit, press and citizens of all parts of the country in condemnation of the attempted stifling of a free press by threats to injure Wannamaker's business by blackmail and otherwise, if the North American was not stopped from exposing officials in wrongdoing.

It is pleasing to know the pulpit is joining the press against official wrong. The Reporter heretofore never made mention of the fact—long known to many—that for several years persecution and efforts to do it injury, have been attempted in certain quarters because it fearlessly exposes wrongdoing—but it remains firm in its duty, come weal or woe.

Some startling disclosures were made on Monday in the Municipal affairs of Washington, Pa., borough. It has been brought out by the Auditors that the borough has lost some $6000.

The Right Courses.

Dairy and Food Commissioner Wells is out, remarks the Pittsburg Dispatch. Before leaving his office, however, he took occasion to dismiss one special agent and give out the intimation that he was being sacrificed to save Secretary Hamilton, or even higher State officials. Hamilton, it is said, will reinstate the discharged agent.

TAYLOR LÖSES IN KENTUCKY.

The United States Supreme Court on Monday finally settled the Kentucky Governorship case by deciding in favor of Governor Beckham, Democrat, who was on the ticket for Lieutenant Governor with the murdered Governor Goebel, dismissing the writ of error of Governor Taylor from the Kentucky Court of Appeals.

Thus the case has been decided in a half dozen tribunals against Taylor, Republican.
