

SHOES

That Stand on Their Own Bottoms

That is true literally and it is just as true metaphorically. Our shoes stand on their own bottoms. They rest on their well earned reputation.

We carry no shoes that must be bolstered up with clever names and elaborate advertising. We advertise our shoes to let the public know what we are doing, but our advertising is merely an incident.

For many years we have been shoeing the people of this bailiwick with unvarying satisfaction. Upon the record we have made the business stands.

J. S. DAUBERMAN, 146m CENTRE HALL.

All About the Halls. An intelligent and highly cultured gentleman, recently located in the county, inquired of the Reporter why so many places had the affix of "hall" to their names.

Be Somebody and of Real Use. What are you doing to help your town in a solid way and out of your own means? Some can do much, but are not there when needed.

Recent Millin Co. Deaths. Stone valley, Samuel Cummings, age 77 years. Derry, wife of Jos. N. Hamilton, age 60 years.

What Centre County Got. Centre county last year received from the state $46,594.97 for the support of its common schools.

Teachers' Examination. Last Friday, Co. Superintendent Gramley held his teachers' examinations in the Centre Hall school building for the boro and Potter township.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.

Tribute Paid to Our Heroic Dead Yesterday with Memorial Services.

The Memorial Day services were appropriately observed at Centre Hall yesterday, and with fitting ceremonies proper tribute was paid to the memory of departed heroes who went to the front to give up their lives in defense of their country.

The day opened with a cloudy and threatening aspect. The weather was portending rain, heavy clouds overhanging, with an occasional drop of rain falling.

In the morning a detail of about twenty men, of Co. B, 5th Regiment, came over from Bellefonte, to decorate the graves of John Thomas, who died in the service during the Spanish-American war, and Robert Murray, two members of the company who died and are interred in the Centre Hall cemetery.

The Samuel Shannon Post, G. A. R. members of whom participated in the civil war, has suffered greatly by death in its ranks, and as each year passes member after member has answered the last roll call.

The heavy clouds which were overhanging during the morning broke in the afternoon, and the weather was ideal. By evening the people began to assemble in the town, and quite a large number from other parts to witness the exercises.

The Evangelical Church Case. Since mentioning the prospect of litigation over the United Ev. parsonage in this place, in last week's Reporter, we have learned the point in dispute:

A Peculiar Accident. Mrs. Joseph Ross, of Pleasant Gap, had a peculiar and very painful accident last week which has since given her great trouble. She went to the barn yard to do the milking. As she was passing a calf it switched its tail, and the tail caught in the handle of the milk bucket.

Try Salt. There is nothing more strengthening to the feet than salt. Those who suffer from tired feet will derive much relief and benefit from a salt bath, prepared by adding to a quart of warm (not hot) water a tablespoonful of salt.

Commencement Exercises. The Commencement exercises of the Bellefonte High School will be held in Garman's Opera House, next Thursday afternoon. In the evening Hon. Emerson Collins, of Williamsport, will deliver the commencement oration.

The Centennial Music. Prof. P. H. Meyer, who has charge of the musical department of the County Centennial, July 25 and 26, will be fully equal to the occasion, having for years conducted some of the most successful musical conventions in this and adjoining counties.

Starts on June 1st. Calvin G. Spicher, the census enumerator for North Potter and Centre Hall boro, has received his necessary supplies and credentials, and will start on the statistical hunt on June 1st.

AN AGED MAN DEAD.

William Emerick Passes Away After a Long Illness.

William Emerick, one of the aged men in this community, died at his home about one mile east of Centre Hall station, last Monday morning, at about four o'clock, after a long illness.

Mr. Emerick had been in bad health all through the winter. He was aged over eighty years and he was afflicted with the infirmities due to old age. About four weeks ago gangrene set in on his left leg from the knee to the foot, also affecting the foot of the right leg, and death was but a matter of a short time, his great age precluding any thoughts of amputations.

Mr. Emerick was twice married, his first wife having died a number of years ago. He is survived by a wife, and three children by his first marriage. They are, Mrs. John L. Runkle, of Tusseyville; Mrs. Wm. Smith, of Madisonburg, and George, foreman of the blacksmith department in the Henep Buggy Works, at Freeport, Ill.

The funeral took place yesterday morning. Interment was made in the Centre Hall cemetery. Rev. J. M. Rearick, pastor of the Lutheran church, of which Mr. Emerick was a life-long member, officiated in the services.

New Hardware Store.

Centre Hall is to have a new firm starting in business in a short time. Daniel Irwin's sons, of Bellefonte, composed of L. C. and E. P. Irwin, intend opening a large store in the foundry building, and will carry a big stock of hardware, including carriage and wagon makers supplies.

Caterpillars Doing Great Damage.

Reports from all parts of the county are to the effect that caterpillars are doing great damage to the fruit crop. The worm has not been so plentiful and so devastating within the recollection of the oldest inhabitant. In some parts of the valley orchards have been denuded of their foliage, with a likelihood of even the trees dying.

A Sudden Death.

Thomas Gentzel, a farmer living about one mile from Millheim, died very suddenly early yesterday morning. Mr. Gentzel was in his usual good health on Tuesday, and went to bed in the evening feeling quite good. Early in the morning his wife was awakened by his peculiar breathing and tried to help him to a sitting position in bed.

The New Fair Ground.

Work on the new Bellefonte fair grounds and race course of the Centre county agricultural society was commenced last Thursday by Contractor Shoemaker, with a large force of men. It will cost about $25,000 to erect the buildings and put the grounds in good shape.

Last Sabbath.

Rev. Dr. Holloway delivered a learned discourse in the Lutheran church of this place on Sunday last.

Rev. Dr. Schuyler preached an appropriate sermon from the Presbyterian pulpit, which was replete with food for thought upon bickerings, faultfindings and tendencies that cause bad feelings in congregations as well as in communities.

Horse and Mule Colts.

A big dealer in Kentucky horse and mule colts has made arrangements to open a stable at Runkle's hotel, beginning about the middle of August, to keep on hand about one hundred head of colts for public and private sale. Pens to accommodate this number will be erected by landlord Runkle, and the stock brought will be direct from Kentucky stock farms.

Trial Postponed.

The case of Lenhart for the murder of Motz, was called in court at Lewisburg last week. Lenhart plead "not guilty," the trial was then postponed to September term.

State Will Buy.

At the Treasurer's sale of unseated lands at Bellefonte, June 11, the State is likely to be a purchaser of many thousand acres of those denuded of timber by lumber operations.

A CARD!

To The Public.

A Word to the Wise is Sufficient.

Selling well made, new, stylish, honest goods at honest prices since I have established, has been my aim, delight and principle.

A child is as much at home with us as a grown person, pays the same price that a father and mother would pay. We try, we think we are square dealers. The people of Centre county know our motto which is "Fairness and Squareness" and "Money Back for the Asking."

The Best Plan to Adopt in Buying

Is to come here and see that everything is just as represented. We have more at stake in every transaction than the buyer. Goods must satisfy, wear well, in fact give satisfaction in every detail.

Our One Week Special $7.50 stripe and check Novelty Suits, will as all other goods sold here, give me a continuance of your patronage. You run no risk of getting old stock here as goods cannot accumulate in a few months but in years of business.
