PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of Town.

—Miss Mame Keller was the guest of friends at Reedsville last week.
—Dr. G. S. Bright, of Rebersburg, was a prominent visitor in Centre Hall Tuesday.
—Charley Weiser was down at Hartleton over Sunday on a visit to his mother.
—Julian Fleming arrived this week, on a visit to his many friends in this section.
—W. A. Kriest returned home on Tuesday from Johnstown where he had been visiting his son for the past four weeks.
—Mrs. George Hunter and daughter Miss Ella, of Boalsburg, were visitors at the home of J. D. Murray on Monday.
—Fred Briel is here again buying a car load of horses for his stables at Newark, N. J. He is staying at Runkle's hotel.
—Robert Sweetwood came home last week from Dauphin county where he has been working with R. D. Killian, buying walnut logs. He is going back this week.
—John Van Pelt has gone to Hastings, Pa., where he will work in his uncle's coal office. John was a student in the Bellefonte Academy during the last year.
—George Mowery and wife came over from Lewistown last Sunday on a short visit to their friends in the town. Their son Ed. came on Tuesday by wheel to see his boy friends.
—D. M. Jones, representing the New York Tribune Fresh Air children, was here on Monday to interest this section in placing children for a short outing among our people. He left the matter in charge of our town ministers.
—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Snyder with their little daughter Rebecca, left this morning on a visit with friends in Clearfield, Woodland and Peaie. They expect to be gone a week or two, and Samuel will try his luck on the Clearfield trout streams.
—J. Wm. Kepler, Ferguson township's favorite son in the Legislative race, came to town on Monday just to "see how matters stood." He is putting up a good fight and if he does not win the Democratic nomination, it will be through no fault of his efforts.
—Mrs. Anna Hemphill arrived here last week, and has again opened her residence. Mrs. Hemphill went to Philadelphia last fall to remain over the winter. This spring she was taken seriously ill with pneumonia, the effects from which she has almost fully recovered.

—Miss Kate Alexander, of Millheim, is here on a visit to her brother, Dr. J. F. Alexander.

—Miss Amanda Walker, of Boalsburg, was a guest at the home of Mr. J. D. Murray Saturday.

—Russel T. Meyer, a former Centre Hall boy, but now a plumber at Lewistown, was over to see his old friends in the town this week.

—Rev. Robert O'Boyle, pastor of the Sunbury Reformed church, with his two sons, were here yesterday to attend the Decoration services.

—Wm. Bower, wife and three little daughters, of near Potters Mills, were pleasant callers, and were interested in the workings of our printing machinery.

—Mrs. Charles Evans and children, of Freeport, Illinois, arrived here last week on an extended visit to relatives in this valley. Mrs. Evans is the widow of Charles Evans, who died several years ago, a brother of Mrs. G. L. Goodhart and Mrs. J. B. Strohm at Centre Hill.

—Harry Potter came home last week from Lebanon, Pa., where he is taking a course in the business college. Harry's trip home was occasioned by the serious injuries received by his mother last week in an encounter with a bull. Mrs. Potter is slowly recovering from her injuries, but it will be some time before all the ill-effects will have passed away.

—Mr. and Mrs. Willis P. Breen, who left our vicinity this spring and moved to a farm west of Coburn, came up one day last week to attend to some affairs in the town and greet their many friends. Willis likes it very much in that section, he tells us, and there is little doubt of the people in that locality being in like accord with his family. They were very popular here.

—R. D. Killian and wife came up from Milton on Saturday on a short visit to their friends here. Mr. Killian is now buying walnut timber in the country about Sunbury, and he has been successful in finding quite a great deal. Mr. Killian during his stay in our vicinity, shipped thirty-six car loads of walnut logs to Germany. There is no market in this country for walnut, and foreign countries get all of it.

—At Runkle's hotel on Friday there was a coterie of county officials who are serving their offices faithfully and are popular with all. Sheriff Cyrus Brungart, Prothonotary M. I. Gardner, County Superintendent Gramley and Representative J. H. Wetzel, were in the bunch, and it was the glad hand they were all extending to every one. Not one of them has forgotten his friends after being elected to office, and a more jovial, affable crowd would be hard to find.

MILLHEIM.

Events and Personal Mention from this Live Town.

C. Alexander spent Saturday and Sunday with his brother-in-law, J. W. King, in Laurelton.

Mrs. Annie Mauck, of Nittany, was in town on Thursday attending the funeral of Mrs. H. W. Buck.

Miss Lula Snook returned to this place on Saturday, after spending almost a year with her uncle in Franklin county.

Sanford Miller, of Lewisburg, and his brother Wm., of Jersey Shore, visited their parents in this place over Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Deininger, of York, who has been visiting in this place for the last few weeks, has been considerably indisposed for several days.

The many friends of Mrs. J. P. Condo will be pleased to learn that she is recovering rapidly and is now quite out of danger. She was ill and confined to her room for nearly four weeks but is now able to be about again.

Messrs. Angle and Hancock, of Danville, members of the Millheim Hosiery Company, were here last Friday to complete the organization. The company consists of Messrs. Harrison, who is Superintendent, Angle, Hancock, and the following gentlemen from Millheim: A. Walter, J. P. Condo, F. O. Hosterman, G. S. Frank and J. C. Smith. Their purpose is to fit the building with machinery sufficient to employ all the help in and around Millheim.

Rev. B. Hengst, of Lewisburg, a former pastor of the United Evangelical church of this place, spent the last week among old friends and acquaintances here. Rev. Hengst was pastor of this church when the present imposing edifice was erected. He has been a minister in his church for fifty-three successive years, serving a number of important charges with great satisfaction. He is one of God's noble men, and although some seventy years of age, is active and vigorous. Over last Sabbath he had charge of the communion services at Coburn, acting as substitute for Presiding Elder Remer, preaching on Saturday evening and three times on Sunday, without any visible fatigue.

COBURN.

Our Scribe Has the Events of His Section of the Past Week.

Harter, of Altoona, spent Sunday with his parents at this place.

Mr. Henry Mark and wife, of Penn Hall, visited their son William on Sunday.

Delegate election will take place on Saturday afternoon, between the hours of 3 and 7 p. m.

N. B. Shaffer and wife, of near Centre Hall, stopped a few hours in our city, on their way home from Feidler.

Our band will hold the first festival of the season, in the rear of the Evangelical church, on Saturday evening, June 2.

Smith's shows, an aggregation of the world's wonders, was billed for this place on Tuesday evening, but for some reason they failed to appear.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mr. William Tarbet, the efficient manager of the Howard Creamery at this place, and Miss Mallory, of Rebersburg.

The remains of Mrs. Buck, wife of Rev. H. W. Buck, of Millheim, were brought to this place on Friday morning, and then taken to Lewisburg for interment.

Miss Caroline Krader, who has been making her home in Philadelphia for the last few years, is now at this place attending to her sick sister, Mrs. Levi Spigelmeier.

J. W. Kepler, one of the Democratic candidates for legislative honors was in this section on Tuesday looking up Democratic friends. Coming in, as it were, at the home stretch.

The Quarterly Conference of the United Evangelical church was held at this place on Saturday and Sunday last. In the absence of Rev. Remer, P. E., for this district, Rev. Benjamin Hengst presided. He preached on Saturday evening, Sunday forenoon, Sunday afternoon, and in the evening. In the forenoon the Lord's supper was administered, in the afternoon a German sermon was preached. Rev. Hengst has grown old in the service, being now 73 years of age, having preached for 53 years.

SPRING MILLS.

What Has Happened of Interest in Our Neighboring Towns.

Dr. P. W. Leitzell will leave for the west on Monday next on special business, and will not return until the 11th. During his absence his patients will be under the care of Dr. Krumbine, a very able physician. On dit that Dr. Leitzell's trip is his own "wedding affair," but I am assure that this a mistake.

O. T. Corman of our village in addition to his large produce operations, and by the way, a heavy shipper from our station, has recently entered into the grocery and provision business and has his store room thoroughly stocked with a very complete and desirable line of staple goods. I overheard him remark to a farm 22 a day or two since, that he would purchase any part of a hundred and fifty bushels of old potatoes and as many crates of eggs if he had any to sell as he was very short in his orders. Mr. Corman is a very popular young man and ranks high in character as a prudent and reliable business man, and in consequence his new enterprise is a complete success.

How extremely unpleasant it is to attend church and be annoyed by audible whisperings and the constant moving of feet by the ill mannered and thoughtless during service. Why do such persons attend church, and for what purpose? They simply expose their gross ignorance and ill breeding, and unquestionably are a nuisance to the entire congregation—a nuisance too, which should not be tolerated for single moment. What regard have they for the judicious and grave, what do they care for the worshippers. To admonish or expostulate with such stupidity would be like casting pearls before swine, and evidently the only proper remedy for these worse than Algerines, would be a peremptory order from the pulpit to vacate their seats, and in the future, or until they know better, make themselves conspicuous by their absence. An extreme measure of this character and enforced without any ceremony, no doubt would have the desired effect and remedy the evil.

POTTERS MILLS.

What Our Correspondent Finds of Interest in that Section.

Mrs. Stonebraker has been on the sick list.

Mrs. Heckman, of Centre Hall, visited her daughter, Mrs. James Reish several days.

Mr. and Mrs. James Stover were visiting his sister, Mrs. Burris, at Linden Hall Sunday.

Messrs. F. A. Carson and C. Smetzer went to Lewistown one day last week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowersox, of Mifflin county, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Carson at this place.

Some of Centre Hall's handsome ladies and gents had a chicken and waffle supper at Reish's hotel Friday evening; no doubt they had a fine time.

Miss Kathryn Wilkison, of this place opened her school Monday; we wish her success, and hope she will conduct her school satisfactory to all concerned.

Two of Centre Hill's handsome young men were on a wild goose chase Saturday evening. Boys, you had better be sure of your game before you start.

Mrs. McKinney opened her ice cream parlor on Saturday evening. Boys, that is the place to take your girl for cream; don't be stingy, for you are always sure to get the worth of your money there.

I consider it not only a pleasure but a duty I owe to my neighbors to tell about the wonderful cure effected in my case by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I was taken very badly with flux and procured a bottle of this remedy. A few doses of it effected a permanent cure. I take pleasure in recommending it to others suffering from that dreadful disease.—J. W. Lynch, Dorr, W. Va. This remedy is sold by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; H. F. Rossman, Spring Mills; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.
