CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS. JUNE 7

There will be 30 contests for credentials in the National Republican convention.

Victoria's Boer war is over; didn't run half as long as McKinley's scarping in the Philippines.

When the U. S. Senate and the State Supreme Court sit down upon a Stone it is likely to crush it.

The farmer would be more benefited by good roads than any other class. The value of a farm is determined by its accessibility.

In all doubtful counties in the state the Democrats and Independent Republicans are fusing on anti-Quay nominees for assembly.

Pennsylvania reaps no credit from the kind of Stone it produces, it is not the kind of "rock upon which my church is founded."

"Prosperity," which didn't affect the farmer half a cent, is beginning to play out with Bellefonte industries as well as some in other parts.

Frauds in Cuban rule are becoming thicker right along. Seven are shown up already and the end is not yet. A sample of the "good government" promised by McKinley.

The grange leaders of the state were before Gov. Stone beginning of the week and demanded the removal of Hamilton and other officials on account of the oleo scandal.

The famine camps in the Bombay presidency have been swept by cholera and smallpox. Fugitives were found dying in the fields and roadside ditches. At Godhra there were 3000 deaths from Cholera in one day. Vultures, dogs and jackals are devouring the dead.

Judge Cantrill of the Kentucky Circuit Court ordered a warrant to be issued for the arrest of former Governor Taylor. The warrant is based on an indictment secured several weeks ago, charging Taylor with being an accessory to the assassination of William Goebel.

The next step against Quay's Governor, Stone, will be to bring his arbitrary and unconstitutional cutting of the school appropriation before the Supreme Court, to teach him another lesson against trampling the Constitution under his feet so he may use the school funds to apply to the corrupt practices of the machine.

Rarely has the Governor of an American Commonwealth received such a rebuke from the Supreme Court of his State as is administered in Chief Justice Green's opinion in the constitutional amendment cases, says the Republican Philadelphia Press, and further thinks there is cause for impeaching the Governor. Impeachment is what the Reporter advised months ago.

The reader has observed the unusual length of the mercantile appraiser's list, embracing all dealers down to the smallest which formerly were not assessed. The new law requires this in order that funds may be obtained to meet the extravagance of the machine administration at Harrisburg. In rare instances the "good" citizen may seek to dodge his share of the tax, while his neighbors manfully submit to theirs.

The Democratic County Convention on Tuesday did good work that will be largely ratified at the polls in November. With true, honest nominees, Centre county is reliably Democratic always. This year the ticket will be elected by an increased majority—the taxpayers have found good housekeeping in county affairs for many years, from Democratic officials, and that is strengthening the party, and justly so. The day has gone by when men of besmirched character can sail through on the cry of party, when back of them is trickery, treachery to party, and spotted private character. Many instances in proof of this could be cited, healthy, among others, the recent rebuke of Adams and Quay; the first nominated for the exalted position of Judge of the Superior Court, but had to withdraw from the ticket because of having been identified with a concern to swindle the people. Lesson taught: Swindlers need not apply for office. Again, in the case of Quay, whose record is one of great and unblushing wrong and shameful abuse of the positions he was entrusted with. Quay has been called down. Lesson taught: Unfaithful public servants will not be tolerated.

The nominees by Tuesday's convention go before the people as men of good character. They are:

Hon. J. K. P. Hall, nominated for re-election to congress, is simple justice to one who stands high among the leaders at Washington as a valuable aid in all that is calculated to bring victory to the party in the approaching presidential campaign. Mr. Hall, during his present term in congress, has been faithful to his party, and in every vote he cast true to the best interests of the country. He will be re-elected by an increased majority. Representative Wetzel, true and tried, was deservedly re-nominated. He is a man of the people and for the people with a clean record at Harrisburg. Always at his post, he will again be a faithful representative.

J. W. Kepler, a gallant young Democrat of Ferguson, for Assembly. He hails from one of the oldest and best Democratic families in the county, running back to the period of the Revolution—intelligent farmers but never office seekers. This recognition is well deserved.

THE THREE LEADING STATE ISSUES.

Three important State issues have already defined themselves with the utmost vividness in the election of members of the next Legislature, says the Record. They are:

1. Constitutional amendment so as to secure hereafter an honest registration of the voters and an honest count of the votes, and thus prevent an unscrupulous and corrupt Machine from piling up fraudulent majorities.
2. The impeachment of Governor Stone for high misdemeanors in order to defend the Constitution of Pennsylvania and the rights of the people from like usurpations in the future.
3. The election of a United States Senator who will do honor and credit to the Commonwealth.

A Legislature capable of accomplishing these high aims would also be able to promote the welfare of Pennsylvania in many other ways. Impeach the Governor! The Reporter was the first to raise the cry several months ago. Now, since by the unanimous opinion of the Supreme Court Governor Stone has been adjudged guilty of robbing the people of an opportunity to have honest elections, let the cry ring from every county in the state, impeach Governor Stone!

THE COMING CAMPAIGN.

The New York correspondent of the Ledger says it is the belief here that the Presidential campaign now opening will develop more bitterness and personalities than has characterized any previous contest since Cleveland and Blaine ran against each other in 1884. That memorable campaign was one of personalities almost entirely. There was scarcely any issue debated except that of the characters of the opposing candidates. This year will be different in that the private characters of the opposing candidates are not likely to be attacked. But their public characters will be bitterly assailed. The issues of the past four years have developed so much heat and passion that they cannot be discussed without personalities of the most violent kind. Already the discussion of the Philippine question has resulted in several eminent individuals being called liars, and in President McKinley being attacked in a most impassioned way. A foretaste of what is coming was given at the anti-imperialist mass meeting in Cooper Union several nights ago. One speaker seriously likened President McKinley to Aaron Burr, who was regarded as the most dangerous man in American politics. But even this is mild as compared with what is coming. Rev. Dr. Parkhurst's remarks just before sailing for Europe shows what may be expected. If there is such savage talk in May, what will not be said in October?

Against Sunday Funerals.

The Bellefonte Ministerial association has adopted resolutions protesting against Sunday funerals, and will sanction them only in cases of absolute necessity.

Would Not Suffer so Again for Fifty Times Its Price.

I awoke last night with severe pains in my stomach. I never felt so badly in all my life. When I came down to work this morning I felt so weak I could hardly work. I went to Miller & McCurdy's drug store and they recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It worked like magic and one dose fixed me all right. It certainly is the finest thing I ever used for stomach trouble. I shall not be without it in my home hereafter, for I should not care to endure the sufferings of last night again for fifty times its price.—G. H. Wilson, Liveryman, Burgettstown, Washington Co., Pa. This remedy is for sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; H. F. Rossman, Spring Mills; J. F. A PRICE ANNIHILATED!
....CLOTHING AT LESS THAN WHOLESALE COST....
Beginning Thursday, May 31st, and lasting until all are sold.
We inaugurate one of the Greatest Sales in Men's, Youths' and Boys' clothing ever held in Bellefonte. $4,500 worth has been sacrificed at less than it costs to make them.
This Telegram Explains It All:
PHILADELPHIA, May 23, 1900.
SIM BAUM, Bellefonte, Pa.
We are now ready to close out our entire line of Spring Clothing. Can you use them at a price? LIVERIGHT, GREENEWALD & CO.
Did I take advantage of it? I think so. Upon receiving the above telegram I immediately went to Philadelphia and bought the entire Stock of $4,500 at a Reduction of Forty Per Cent.
When I made this purchase I had a two-fold object in view. First, to place myself in a position to handle the best line of Clothing in Centre county; and second, to give my customers the benefit of the extraordinary low prices. The hustler of today is the man who will eventually win in the long run. If you have ever bought from me you know my method of doing business. I do not sell you an article once just for the mere sake of selling you, but I sell you with the main object of selling you again. By conducting my business in this manner I hope in course of time to make an ever ready customer of you.
Do not think this is a "FAKE" sale or anything of the sort. It is a sale of Ready-made Clothing—the best that can be had at prices far below their actual value, the like of which you may never have a chance at again. I have divided the stock in four lots:
Lot No. 1. 200 Men's Fancy Worsted Suits, with double and single breasted vests, in stripes and checks; actual value $10 to $12, my price—$5 to 7.50.
Lot No. 2. 300 Men's blue, black and novelty Suits, with single and double breasted coats and vests—others' price $12 to $18; my sale price—$7.50 to 11.00.
Lot No. 3. 75 Young Men's Suits in blue, black and novelties, single and double breasted vests. Prices range from $4.00 to 11.50.
Lot No. 4. This lot embraces our well-known Suits for the Boys and little ones. Former price, $1.90 to $5.00. Special sale price from $1 10 to 3.75.
Give me a call and you will be surprised at the prices, styles and qualities. You know as well as I do that it pays to look around before buying elsewhere, so a call is all I ask; it costs nothing to look.
Yours for Business,
