

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

—H. H. Miller, of Rebersburg, was in town on Monday.

—Postmaster Boal was in Boalsburg on Tuesday, on a business trip.

—Our old friend Jacob Neese, gave us a pleasant call looking stout and hearty.

—Squire M. L. Rishel, of Farmers Mills, was in town yesterday greeting his many friends.

—J. Will Conley was over from Bellefonte on Sunday to spend the day with his parents.

—Former Recorder W. Galer Morrison, of Bellefonte, was a prominent Centre Hall visitor Saturday.

—Miss Lola Stroh, of Centre Hill, was the guest of her friend Miss Roxanna Brisbane over Sunday.

—Howard Krape, Rebersburg's musical instrument dealer, was in Centre Hall on Tuesday on business.

—Former Sheriff W. Miles Walker, of Bellefonte, was in Centre Hall on Tuesday, looking up the insurance business.

—Isaac Smith, who is employed in a large store in Altoona, came home on Monday for a short visit with his family.

—Mrs. Wm. Derstine and Mrs. Ed. Clinger, of Bellefonte, visited at the home of Mrs. Maggie Harper, last week.

—Miss Emma Wolf and Miss Estie Ocker attended the League convention at Boalsburg, being on the program for essays.

—Mrs. Jerre Miller and Mrs. S. W. Smith were the delegates from Centre Hall at the Luther League convention at Boalsburg, yesterday.

—Harry Clevenstine, in charge of the Wilson creamery plant at Baileyville, came down to spend Sunday with friends in Centre Hall.

—T. B. Jamison, the Gregg township politician of the Democratic faith, and insurance agent, was a prominent Centre Hall visitor on Sunday.

—Prof. John D. Meyer went to Williamsport yesterday to be in attendance at the sessions of the state teachers' association which meets there this week.

—Miss Mae Smith and Miss Rena Shires, two of Spring Mills' handsome and interesting young ladies, were the guests of their Centre Hall friends last Friday.

—Rev. Schuyler, pastor of the Presbyterian church, will preach at Curwensville, Pa., next Sunday, and in consequence there will be no services in the Centre Hall charge.

—John Smith, the alive furniture dealer of Spring Mills, was in town last Friday. John is of the mind to go to Kansas City to take in the Democratic Convention and see the next president nominated.

—Mrs. Michael Decker, east of Centre Hall, who has been quite ill for some time from a liver complaint, shows no improvement in her condition. All will hope for a final recovery of the estimable lady.

—Rev. W. W. and Mrs. Rhoads returned home last Friday from a three weeks' visit with friends in and about Shippensburg, Pa. The Rev. had taken the short vacation in hopes of being benefited in health, and he returns very much improved.

—Mr. Lewis Irwin, our new hardware merchant, arrived on Monday with his family from Bellefonte, and they are now settled down in the residence of the late Mrs. Odenkirk. Mr. Irwin expects to have his store open by July 1st in the foundry building.

—Miss Romie Van Pelt arrived here last Saturday to spend the summer months with her grand parents, ex-Sheriff and Mrs. Spangler. Miss Romie has been taking a course of studies at a Philadelphia institution since January last, and will return to her work again in the fall.

—Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Boal, of Port Carbon, Schuylkill county, were arrivals in Centre Hall on Monday, on a visit to their many friends in the town. Mr. Boal has been in charge of the Presbyterian church at Port Carbon, and is doing a great work for the cause. They will remain several days in the town.

—Howard Spangler, son of ex-Sheriff John Spangler, of Centre Hall, has been discharged from the Johnstown hospital, and is now with his family at Bellefonte, their home for the present. Howard was caught out in the severe blizzard of last winter, while working at Barnesboro, and his hands and feet so badly frozen that he was compelled to submit to amputations of parts of his hands and feet. He was confined in the hospital for several months.

—Harry Keller, Esq., Bellefonte's popular young attorney, was a Centre Hall visitor on Tuesday on professional business. Among the available members of the bar whose names are mentioned in connection with the judgeship honors to be dealt out in the county in the course of a couple years, Harry receives very favorable recognition, and he will probably make a try at securing the Republican endorsement.

—Rev. R. C. Crittenden, of Bellefonte, the ardent worker for the Sunday schools, has been in Centre Hall for a few days. He will assist in the organization of a Sunday school at the Pine Stump school house next Sunday—a work in which he finds the greatest pleasure.

SPRING MILLS.

Children's Day Successfully Observed in Our Churches.

The ladies connected with the United Evangelical congregation of this place held a festival on Saturday evening last which was largely patronized by our people. The sum realized was considerable.

Wm. King, of Glen Iron, brother of the well known and popular G. C. King of this place, was bitten in the thumb a few weeks since by a muskrat, ending in blood poisoning, from which he died. Mr. King was well known in Union county.

A few days ago George W. Dunkle, the well known wall paper merchant, showed me an egg measuring 9½ inches lengthwise and 8½ inches in circumference. This monster was the fruit of an ordinary Leghorn chicken—much egg that.

Misses Esther and Lula Baker, of Millinburg, formerly of this place, are here visiting friends. They are the guests of Adam Neese and wife. Miss Ella Dunkle, of Altoona, is also here visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Dunkle.

D. H. Roth, our village landlord, not enjoying the best of health of late, has retired from active duty, and his son Edwin has taken charge of the hotel as manager. He is no novice in the business and guests can rest assured that they will receive every attention.

O. T. Corman the popular merchant, a day or two since, with other fruits, received the third invoice of pine apples; this lot was decidedly luscious and unusually large ones, and before the day was over all were disposed of. Mr. Corman's store has become headquarters for fine groceries, and choice fruits of all kinds.

Throwing lighted fire crackers at horses as has been indulged in of late by some of our boys, is a villainous piece of business and deserves the severest condemnation. To avoid the laws delay these boys should be thoroughly cowed to teach them a lesson. Such recklessness is a jeopardy to life and limb, and should be stopped at once.

Sunday last was Children's day, and the little people were out in full force. The Reformed church was very profusely decorated with flowers for the occasion. The little speakers delivered their recitations and dialogues like orators, and some of the older ones displayed abilities of no common order.

The services in the Presbyterian church were of a very interesting character; music, recitations, and addresses followed in rapid succession. The program was quite lengthy and everything passed off in an admirable manner. The attendance was very large. In the Methodist church the ceremony was likewise very interesting. The platform was a profusion of flowers and spruce and presented a very beautiful scene. The little orators delivered their pieces in excellent style. Edward Confer, one of our rising young men, delivered quite a graphic account of the growth of the Methodist church and other interesting statistics relating to it, and proved himself an able extempore speaker. The singing of C. C. Bartges was especially fine, and the music grand. B. F. Kenneley director and Miss Ida Condo organist, of course with two such proficient and skillful artists in charge it could hardly be otherwise. Children's day in our village was a complete success.

MILLHEIM.

Rev. A. W. Mell, of Des Moines, Delivered an Interesting Lecture.

Miss Anna Gutelius, of Millinburg, visited friends in town over Sunday.

Miss Sallie Dow, of Loganton, was the guest of Miss Mary Hartman on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Gephart are spending several days in Williamsport this week.

Mrs. R. A. Bumiller entertained her sister, Mrs. Calvin Weidensaul of Laurelton over Sunday.

Mrs. Adams, formerly of this place, but now of Danville, is spending a week among former acquaintances in this place.

On account of the illness of Rev. Chilote a young Mr. Bierly, from Rebersburg, filled the pulpit in the M. E. church on Sunday evening.

S. D. Miller, who had been employed at Lewisburg for some time, returned to this place on Saturday. He reports work slack at this season of the year.

The United Evangelical congregation will celebrate Children's day next Sunday evening, July 1. The children are being trained this week, and a rich treat awaits those who will attend the service.

J. P. Condo and family spent Sunday in Sugar valley, at the home of Mrs. Condo's father, near Logan Mills. They were accompanied by Mrs. Condo's sister, the wife of Rev. M. A. Kenneley, of York, Pa.

Prof. John A. Hardenburg, who had been teaching at White Haven for nine months, returned to his home in this place on Monday evening for his summer vacation.

Miss Ada Breon left for Williamsport last week, where she will spend a week among friends, expecting to stop over at Bellefonte on her return, where she will assist in celebrating the Fourth and make the eagle scream.

Last Friday evening Rev. A. W. Mell, of the Des Moines conference of the United Evangelical church, delivered a very interesting and instructive lecture in the Evangelical church. Rev. Mell is a young man, highly educated, fine appearing, forceful and entertaining. He lectured on China, to which country he has been recently appointed as a missionary by his church. He and Rev. C. N. Dubbs, a son of Bishop R. Dubbs, of Chicago, with their families, are expected to sail for China in the early part of September. They will locate in the province of Hunan, in the southern part of that country. Both of these young men are sons of noted ministers, and have been brought up in the church, thus preparing them for work of this kind. The board made a wise choice and can rest assured that their appointments are the right men.

COBURN.

A Letter of Interest from that Busy Town, as Seen by Our Correspondent.

Mrs. B. B. Wilson is at present visiting friends at Howard.

Mr. Frick, of Lewisburg, transacted business in our town on Tuesday.

Mr. William Brown, of Sunbury, is at this place visiting at the home of James Burd.

L. B. Walker has been off duty a few days at the creamery, on account of sickness.

G. R. Stover, the station agent, is sporting a boil on his upper lip, which is very troublesome.

Some of our farmers have commenced making hay; the crop will be a short one in many places.

The car containing Philippine products was viewed by a large number of people on Wednesday.

The festival on Saturday evening was well attended, the net receipts amounting to about $40.00.

Mrs. Emma Brown, of Sunbury, (nee Burd) is at this place visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Burd.

W. L. Hosterman purchased a car load of shoats at East Liberty, Pa., and brought them to this place, and will fatten them for market.

A free open-air concert was given on Tuesday evening by O-ne-no, the "Indian Medicine Man" which served as a prelude to the sale of his wonderful catarrh root.

POTTERS MILLS.

Personal Mention from Our Neighbors Across the Way.

Miss Linnie Evans is on the sick list; hope she may speedily recover.

Landlord James Reish was in Bellefonte Saturday, transacting business.

Mr. Samuel McCoy and wife, of Jersey Shore, visited his parents last week.

Mrs. Nannie Royer and family, of Altoona, are visiting friends at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. James Moyer, of Tusseyville, spent Sunday with friends at this place.

Mrs. J. F. Alexander, of Centre Hall is visiting at her home at this place, for several days.

Miss Katie Hewes, of Bellefonte, is spending her vacation with her aunts, the Misses Pierce.

Mr. Jacob Auman lost a valuable horse Monday morning, while going for a load of wood it dropped dead.

Who was it who took his girl for ice cream Saturday evening and was afraid to take her home; don't get frightened the next time.

LINDEN HALL.

The Events and Incidents from Up the Valley.

Miss Lydia Veighdorfer, of Pine Glenn, was a guest at the Brooks home over Sunday.

The festival on Saturday evening seemed to be quite a success in all respects.

Mrs. Daniel Wieland and family are at present entertaining some of their many friends.

Samuel Spangler, who was seriously hurt by being dragged by a mule, is slowly improving.

Mrs. Brungard, of Rebersburg, was visiting friends in and around town one day last week.

Miss Freddie Hess, a student at the Moravian seminary, Bethlehem, is home on her summer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Gettig and children, of Altoona, were the guests of Mr. Gettig's mother over Sunday.

The show on Monday night seemed to be very attractive for our town people, as every one turned out to see the fun.

The long wished for and much needed rain has come at last; many garden vegetables were entirely dried up for want of rain.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zeigler spent a few days with relatives and friends in Brush valley, and report a very pleasant time.

Misses Annie and Grace Garbrick, of Zion, were guests of the Misses Zeigler over Sunday; came over in time to enjoy the festival.

Miss Sarah Wieland, of Osceola, accompanied by her ward, Miss Elenora Helms, are spending a few weeks at the home of Daniel Hess.

Miss Annie Corl, accompanied by Mabel Baumgardner, of Pleasant Gap, were the guests of Robert Corl and family a few days of last week.

The death of the two Sparr girls has cast a gloom over our community that will be felt for some time. They were kind to all, both rich and poor.

Wm. Felding left for Philadelphia last week on a visit of a few weeks and while there will seek for work, and may then remain for the winter.

Foster Jordan and sister Miss Minnie, of Bellefonte, were visiting at the pleasant and hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Brooks, on Saturday and Sunday last.

A Card of Thanks.

I wish to say that I feel under lasting obligations for what Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has done for our family. We have used it in so many cases of coughs, lung troubles and whooping cough, and it has always given the most perfect satisfaction, we feel greatly indebted to the manufacturers of this remedy and wish them to please accept our hearty thanks.—Respectfully, Mrs. S. Doty, Des Moines, Iowa. For sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; H. F. Rossman, Spring Mills; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

Last fall I sprained my left hip while handling some heavy boxes. The doctor I called on said at first it was a slight sprain and would soon be well, but it grew worse and the doctor then said I had rheumatism. It continued to grow worse and I could hardly get around to work. I went to a drug store and the druggist recommended me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I tried it and one-half of a 50-cent bottle cured me entirely. I now recommend it to all my friends.—F. A. Babcock, Erie, Pa. It is for sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F.
