

PERSONAL MENTION.
Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.
George Krumrine, of Rebersburg, is in town.
The popular auctioneer Mr. William Goheen, called on his many friends in town Monday.
Mrs. J. C. Hanson, Misses Della Simonette and Eva Johnson, all of Harrisburg, are guests of B. D. Brislin.
Mr. George Swabb, one of the up to date farmers of Harris township, called Tuesday to wish the new management of the Reporter success.
Mr. and Mrs. Wagner and Prof. James Gregg and wife, all of Milesburg, spent Saturday with Porter Odenkirk, at the Old Fort.
Mrs. D. P. Houser, west of town, has recovered from a serious illness which overtakes her periodically. Her grandson, Dan, son of Robert Bloom, had also been ill but is recovering.
The Rev. Samuel Moody preached trial sermons in the Milesburg Presbyterian church recently. Rev. Moody has been a supply at the Duncansville and Gibson memorial churches.
F. R. Luckenbach, cashier of the First National Bank, Philadelphia, and family, and M. B. Garman and wife, of Tyrone, spent Sunday with D. J. Meyer and then drove to Rebersburg.
Aaron Deutweiler had the misfortune to be kicked on the ankle by a horse and have the bones broken. The fracture, which was exceedingly painful, was reduced by Dr. J. F. Alexander.
Randal Musser, son of Justice of the Peace Pierce Musser, will enter Franklin and Marshall college in September. He was successful as a teacher in the Millheim schools and has a bright future before him.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bloom and Mrs. M. J. D. Hubler were to State College Saturday to visit friends. Mr. Hubler moved from that place in the spring and is one of Centre Hall's good mechanics.
G. W. Glace, one of Penns Valley's most progressive farmers, was one of the first of our friends to pay his respects to the new management. In the language of Rip Van Winkle "may he live long and prosper."
Rev. Rieck returned on Thursday from a ten days' vacation of hard work at Eagles Mere, attending the Bible conference. During his absence he also visited his parents in Beavertown, driving overland through Mifflin county.
Two children of Mr. Philip Saul, living on the McNitt farm, which is so ably managed this season by the owner's son, Brown McNitt, have been seriously ill of dysentery, but under the treatment of Dr. Emerick are now improving.
The Rev. Dr. A. E. Goble, President of Central Pennsylvania College, at New Berlin, Pa., with his wife and daughter, is spending his vacation at the home of his father, Samuel Goble, north of Penn Hall.
Farmer Adam Felty, of Boalsburg, who suffered a sun stroke last week, is able to be about again by the use of a cane. It is hoped that he will fully recover before long. Andy Lully, of state college, has also recovered from the effects of heat.
Hon. L. Rhone, who is at present absorbed almost completely in anti-oleo work in the interests of the farmers in general, was in town long enough to talk over the approaching Patrons' Exhibition and picnic which will be held as usual in September.
The many friends of the Jacob Harpster family formerly of this town, now of Missoula, Montana, will be glad to know that Miss Lizzie will arrive here soon, on her first visit since their departure several years ago. She expects to leave home for the east about August 1.
F. A. and W. E. Yearick, of near Madisonburg, purchased a new Peerless threshing outfit and are ready for business. W. E. Yearick has had a good deal of experience in the threshing business and no doubt will give good satisfaction in their line of work.
Pennsylvania Avenue is not monopolizing the improvements in our burg. Proof of which we offer in the new porch to the residence of George Nearhood on Hoffer Street. George believes in home comforts and has a very neat home near the entrance to the picnic grounds.
Mrs. James H. Lohr, her mother Mrs. Welsh, son Willie and daughter Nellie, all of Philadelphia, arrived last week on their annual visit to their many friends here. The formers' husband will arrive in about a week. He enjoys a good position in Broad street station on the clerical staff in the Auditors' Department of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.
Prof. H. C. Rothrock and John H. Hardenberg, of Millheim, were in town Thursday of last week. Prof. Rothrock is favorably known here and has filled the position of principal of the Millheim public schools for several years. He was reelected to the same position by the present board. Prof. Hardenberg is a graduate of Franklin and Marshall, '08, and has been elected instructor of the Grammar grade of the White Haven public schools at an increase of salary.

BOALSBURG.
John R. Strong, the jolly mason, of Potters Mills is working for A. P. Krape this week.
Clyde Boob, of Aaronsburg, brother of W. W. Boob, is the guest of the Boob family at present.
Mrs. Edward C. Nearhood, and sister, Miss Maud Ocker, of Rebersburg, went to visit Mrs. J. W. Ruhl, at Pardee, and will continue their trip to Millburg.
W. Byron Garis, one of the busiest masons in the country has just completed a cistern for James B. Stroh at Centre Hill; next job is at Boob's wheel factory and then to "Al" Krape's cellar wall.
A. B. McNitt and son Sterrett stopped at the Reporter office Tuesday long enough to take advantage of the new rates of this paper, and to say that the state mill of the latter several miles west of town is running in full force.
Samuel F. Snyder and Milton H. Snyder, two of Centre Hall's skilled mechanics, will ship their carpenter tools to Clearfield latter part of this week and in a short time follow themselves and engage with contractor D. E. Dunlap in the erection of several buildings in that place.
Postmaster John Stuart, of State College, was in town on Monday conferring with Postmaster George M. Boal how they might further the chances to hold their present positions. There is always a bit of uncertainty about this election business anyway that concerns the "ins" in the post office just a little more than the "outs."
W. W. Spangler and daughter are doing considerable work at their comfortable home at the station end of town. Last week they entertained by giving a house party and a trip to Penn's Cave. Among others they entertained Misses Rachel McMurray, of Latrobe, Edna Wilkinson, Margaret Evans, Mabel Sankey and Marcellus Sankey, all of Potters Mills.
A trio of Bellefonte gentlemen embracing legal and official representatives of the county, passed through Centre Hall and doffed their hats to the Reporter. They were C. M. Bower, Esq., of the widely known law firm of Orvis, Bower and Orvis, District Attorney N. B. Spangler, and Sheriff Brungart. The sheriff would much rather come to Penns valley in any other than an official capacity. He is full of sympathy for the unfortunate and favors them to the utmost limit of the law, which gains for him the highest respect of all.
Harry M. Bitner, a recent graduate of the Millersville State Normal school and son of Dr. H. F. Bitner, a professor in the same institution, is enjoying his vacation with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Murray. He has special reasons for enjoyment, as he has just passed through a trying ordeal in the hands of Specialist, Dr. Watson, of Philadelphia. Some time ago Harry was unfortunate enough to have his nose injured in an athletic contest. Dr. Watson successfully operated on the member, but some days later in removing the silver tube that had been inserted, excessive bleeding began which threatened to result almost more seriously than the original trouble. Harry will enter the Sophomore class of Franklin and Marshall college next September.
SPRING MILLS.
J. W. Bair and family of Tusseyville, formerly of this place, and E. B. McMullen, of Millheim, were the guests of W. P. Alexander last week.
The Penn Hall band had a festival on last Saturday afternoon and evening which proved a decided success. It approached a general picnic; the grounds were thronged with young and old, and everything passed off pleasantly. The manager deserves a compliment for his successful efforts.
The potatoes and corn jumped almost an inch when treated to a couple of showers this week. Rain was badly needed in this section. We were all apprehensive of a general dry up. Sinking and Penn's creek were simply little rivulets; in fact, the former followed its name very closely, it did sink almost out of sight; but since the showers our fears vanished.
Spring Mills will be strongly represented at the Bellefonte pageant this week. Almost everybody and his cousin will be there.
Berries are very plentiful in this section of the valley.
Penn Hall.
This section was visited by a heavy rain on Sunday night, which refreshed vegetation very much.
The band festival was very largely attended Saturday evening and proved to be a grand success financially. The boys are very thankful for the interest shown by the public.
Mrs. C. E. Zeigler and son Paul are spending this week visiting friends and relatives at Rebersburg.
Communion services were held in the Evangelical church last Sunday morning.
Are you going to the centennial? was the question of the day for the last few weeks.
D. W. Zeigler purchased a new improved fly shuttle loom and is now prepared to do all kinds of carpet and rug weaving to order.
Mr. Howard Bickel is engaged in running a stove mill at Pleasant Gap,

BOALSBURG.
William Fisher and wife, of Sunbury, are visiting at the home of Mr. Fisher's mother; they are accompanied by Mrs. Fisher's mother and sister, Mrs. Kieffer and daughter.
Ed. Lucas and John Close are wearing broad smiles, the former is the proud papa of a boy and the latter of a girl.
Rev. and Mrs. A. A. Black are spending the former's vacation of three weeks in Huntingdon and Adams counties.
Mr. and Mrs. McQuay, of Pittsburg, are spending a short vacation at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bailey.
John Huss, of Johnstown visited old friends in Boalsburg Tuesday.
Jacob Weber was confined to his home with rheumatism for five weeks.
Matthew Goheen, who is employed in Ohio, returned home last week and will remain several weeks. His arrival was a great surprise to the family as none knew of his coming.
William Stuart, of Allegheny, has been given a ten-day vacation, and returned home Saturday last.
George Fisher, of Philadelphia, returned home to visit friends; he will remain about two weeks. The boys gave George two weeks to return home when he left, but the two weeks swelled into two years before his return.
Mr. Wm. Keller and wife, of Lancaster and Harry Keller and wife, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with their aunts, the Misses Keller.
The Harris township school board elected the following teachers for the ensuing year: High school, Prof. Charles E. Hower; Grammar, R. B. Harrison; Primary, Miss Gertie Wieland; Rock Hill, D. K. Mothersbach; Walnut Grove, Charles Moore; Shingletown, George C. Hosterman.
AARONSBURG.
James L. Ettinger, who works in the Chronicle office at Lewisburg, is home with his family for a few days.
Albert Stambach and family, of Lock Haven, are visiting at Emanuel Cronmiller's. Mr. Cronmiller's daughter, Minnie Adams, of Danville, is also home.
M. M. Musser's daughter, Mary Edwards and two children, from Florida, have come to spend the summer.
Squire Rote is still on his cot; the doctor talks of getting him out before long. He has had quite a siege of it, being over two months since he had to give up and take to his cot.
Some parties have commenced cutting oats; in some fields grasshoppers are very bad. Will Guisewite says they bite off the heads and there they lie on the ground and he will have nothing but the straw to harvest.
W. R. Houser is helping Andy Musser put away his cabbage crop which is unusually fine. He has shipped barrels and barrels of it, and still has a great deal to dispose of.
Gertie Russel, of Lewisburg, is visiting her many friends in town; not having been here for some years her many friends are glad to see her.
COBURN.
Frank Leeder, of Snow Shoe, is visiting her sister, Mrs. S. B. Styers, at this place.
Mrs. Robinson and daughter Edna, of Shenandoah, arrived here Thursday evening to visit her mother, Mrs. Caroline Krader, who had been lying ill with rheumatism for several weeks.
The festival held here last Saturday was well attended; the proceeds for the evening were about forty-five dollars.
Miss Wilson of Howard, is the guest of her brother, B. B. Wilson.
Miss Fitzer, of Philadelphia, is a visitor at the home of Adolph Miller.
Miss Minnie Billmyer is spending a few weeks with her sister, Miss Katie Billmyer, at Millmont.
Mrs. S. R. King and daughter Bessie returned home Saturday after a six weeks' visit to friends and relatives in Ohio.
Miss Anna Beekey is visiting her mother, Mrs. Samuel Everett.
Mr. S. S. Baker returned home last week.
IS IT RIGHT?
For an Editor to Recommend Patent Medicines?
From Sylvania Valley News, Brevard, N. C.
It may be a question whether the editor of a newspaper has the right to publicly recommend any of the various proprietary medicines which flood the market, yet as a preventive of suffering we feel it a duty to say a good word for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. We have known and used this medicine in our family for twenty years and have always found it reliable. In many cases a dose of this remedy would save hours of suffering while a physician is awaited. We do not believe in depending implicitly on any medicine for a cure, but we do believe that if a bottle of Chamberlain's Diarrhoea Remedy were kept on hand and administered at the inception of an attack much suffering might be avoided and in very many cases the presence of a physician would not be required. At least this has been our experience during the past twenty years. For sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; H. F. Roseman, Spring Mills; J. P. Smith, Centre Hall.

CELERY KING

NATURE'S CURE

A Young Girl's Experience.

My daughter's nerves were terribly out of order. She was thin and weak; the least noise started her, and she was wakeful at night. Before she had taken one package of Celery King the change in her was so great that she could hardly be taken for the same girl. She is rapidly growing well and strong, her complexion is perfect, and she sleeps well every night.—Mrs. Lucy McNutt, Brush Valley, Pa.

Celery King cures Constipation and all diseases of the Nerves, Stomach, Liver and Kidneys. Sold by druggists. 25c and 50c. Sold by J. F. Smith, Centre Hall; F. E. Wieland, Linden Hall; G. H. Long, Spring Mills.
