CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS. Aug. 2.

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL TICKET.

PRESIDENT: WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN, Nebraska. VICE PRESIDENT: ADLAI E. STEVENSON, Illinois.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL: P. GRAY MEEK, Bellefonte. FOR CONGRESSMAN-AT-LARGE: N. M. EDWARDS, Williamsport. HARRY E. GRIMM, Doylstown.

COUNTY TICKET.

FOR ASSEMBLY: J. H. WETZEL, Bellefonte. J. W. KEPLER, Ferguson Twp. FOR JURY COMMISSIONER: FREDERICK ROBB, Liberty Twp.

Hon. S. P. Wolverton, of Sunbury, was nominated by the Democratic party of Northumberland county for the State Senate against his wishes, but it is thought he will accept the place owing to the flattering vote he received.

If Bryan has no possible chance of election in November why are the Republicans starting in so early to perfect all arrangements for a campaign of coercion, corruption and crime? The truth is the Hannaites are badly scared and while they are whistling to keep up their courage they are also getting all things ready for the biggest boodle campaign ever heard of in this or any other country.

The Democratic State convention of Kentucky nominated Gov. Beckham for reelection and declared in favor of a modification of the Geoble election law, so as to meet the objections made by a portion of the Democrats. This action on the part of the regulars will insure the election of Governor Beckham and the electoral vote for Bryan and Stevenson.

The representations of the trusts and monopolies who are continuously crying free silver, are not afraid of free silver at all. It is not free silver but Bryan and a Democratic congress they dread. They are afraid of an honest man in the White House—a man who will exercise his constitutional powers in the interests of all the people instead of that of a class.

Four years ago the Republican party had a great deal to say about the "full dinner pail" for the working man, but they forgot to say anything about the increased price of the contents in this "dinner pail." In the first place the Tinplate Trust raised the price of the dinner pail. The coffee trust added a few cents; the sugar trust not to be outdone in practical Republicanism extorted its share of the spoils from the coffee trust; the slices of bread were reduced in price by the flour trust; for the meat we are made to pay tribute to the beef trust, and the salt trust added his dinner with salt at an increased price.

Congressman H. N. Johnson, of Indiana, has renounced the Republican party, and expressed his determination to support the Democratic ticket. Mr. Johnson while in Congress has shown himself to be a man of superior ability, and he will do good work for Bryan in his own state and the middle west.

Bryan and Stevenson are today eminently stronger than was Bryan on election day in 1896. Twenty thousand votes when properly distributed in a few close states would have changed the result. It is conceded by the Republicans that all the states that voted for Bryan in 1896 will surely vote for him this year, and there is no doubt that Kentucky, Maryland and Delaware will be in the Democratic column in 1900.

Hon. Patrick Egan, of New York, ex-Minister to Chili, was one of the first to congratulate Mr. Bryan after his nomination at Kansas City. He also expressed his entire satisfaction with the Democratic platform, and tendered his services for the campaign. During the campaign of 1884 Mr. Egan became prominent as an effective campaigner, because of his work in behalf of Mr. Blaine and the Republican ticket.

The perilous state of those who occupy exalted station was again illustrated Sunday evening when King Humbert, of Italy, was suddenly stricken down by the bullet of an assassin. The king was on a visit to Monza and had just finished distributing certain prizes, the rewards of athletic skill, when the murderer fired upon him, as he was in the act of entering his carriage sending three bullets into his body one of which, penetrating the heart, caused instant death.

This is another assault upon authority by the spirit of anarchy. It is true that there has been much discontent throughout Italy, by reason of the heavy taxes, rendered necessary by the Italian ambition to be reckoned one of the great powers, but the condition of the people has been infinitely better under Victor Emmanuel and Humbert than it was under the system which it superseded.

Humbert was born in 1844 and succeeded his father on the throne of united Italy in 1879. Thus he reigned twenty-one years, mostly with wisdom and with a sincere regard for the welfare of his people. He never made much claim to the possession of heroism, and yet during the ravages of cholera in Naples and other Italian cities he manifested courage as well as devotion to the humblest of his subjects by going into the hospitals and even into the poison-infected homes of the poorest of the poor.

Superior court handed down a decision in the appeal from the case of Millin county in the county line case, dismissing the appeal. The appeal was taken up by Huntingdon county from the decision of the associate judges of Millin county, who refused to receive and record the report of the county line commission, and also for refusing a change of venue. It is not probable that Huntingdon county will apply to the Supreme Court, since there is a certainty that they will be turned down as was Millin county in their former appeal.

Major General Miller, the new major general of the National Guard of Pennsylvania, was commissioned by Gov. Stone last week. The general has selected his officers as follows: Lieutenant Colonel and Assistant Adjutant General, William J. Elliot, of Philadelphia; Lieutenant Colonel and Inspector, John P. Penny, of Pittsburgh; Lieutenant Colonel and Judge Advocate, Howard L. Calder, of Harrisburg; Lieutenant Colonel and Quartermaster, William F. Richardson, of Harrisburg; Lieutenant Colonel and Commissary of Subsistence, Austin Curtin, of Roland; Lieutenant Colonel and Surgeon-in-Chief, Joseph K. Weaver, of Norristown; Lieutenant Colonel and Ordinance officer, L. F. Lauree, of Pittsburgh; Lieutenant Colonel and Inspector of rifle practice, E. V. D. Shelden, of Pittsburgh; Major and Aide-de-camp, Sanford Clarence Lewis, of Oil City; Major and Aide-de-camp, C. J. S. Miller, of Franklin; Major and Aide-de-camp Lewis E. Butler, of Philadelphia.

Mr. Wm. C. Patterson and Mrs. Margery Boyer, of State College, have each been granted a pension of eight dollars a month.

There are very few establishments that get "all there is in the business" without a special effort. For most of them there is still something to be gained by communications addressed to the people. Usually the business notice is intended to reach a particular number of readers, and the advertiser who keeps that fact in mind in shaping his newspaper announcement is more likely to achieve his purpose than one who aims merely at "general results."

That Susquehanna University will remain in Selingsgrove has been settled. Work will begin in a few days on a new building, and the uncertain condition of affairs which has existed since June has by reason of the weak cause of the uninformed agitators gravitated back to former and normal basis. The Rev. A. N. Warner, it is stated, will invest a goodly amount of his private purse to push on the new buildings to completion.

Buffalo Bill Wild West show's train suffered a severe collision near Milwaukee Junction shortly before daylight on Sunday, resulting in the smashing of a show employee's sleeping car containing some forty sleeping inmates. One of the latter is dead and nine others are in Detroit hospitals suffering from more or less serious injuries.

The tour will be in charge of one of the Company's tourist agents, assisted by an experienced lady as chaperon, whose special charge will be unescorted ladies. The rate covers railway and boat fare for the entire round trip, parlor-car seats, meals en route, hotel entertainment, transfer charges, and carriage hire.

For detailed itinerary, tickets, or any additional information, address Tourist Agent Pennsylvania Railroad Company, 1196 Broadway, New York; 890 Fulton Street, Brooklyn; 789 Broad Street, Newark, N. J.; or Geo. W. Boyd, Assistant General Passenger Agent, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia.

Mad Dog Sidelaces. Dr. G. W. Simpson witnessed an unusual sight upon his premises in Mill Creek the other day. A strange dog afflicted with the rabies entered the Doctor's lot and made a vicious attack upon the latter's pet canine, says the Huntingdon Monitor. The maddened animal was frothing furiously at the mouth and during the attack succeeded in sinking his teeth into the body of the Simpson dog. The Doctor, who was in the lot at the time, hastened to his house to get a gun but upon his return the mad dog was gone. The animal ran in all his fury to the railroad track and seemed to throw himself in front of an approaching freight train. At all events he was cut in twain and a miserable existence was thus ended. The opinion is general that it was a case of canine seldice.

A Mother Tells How She Saved Her Little Daughter's Life. I am the mother of eight children and have had a great deal of experience with medicines. Last summer my little daughter had the dysentery in its worst form. We thought she would die. I tried everything I could think of, but nothing seemed to do her any good. I saw by advertisement in our paper that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was highly recommended and sent and got a bottle at once. It proved to be one of the very best medicines we ever had in the house. It saved my little daughter's life. I am anxious for every mother to know what an excellent medicine it is. Had I known it at first it would have saved me a great deal of anxiety and my little daughter much suffering. Yours truly, Mrs. George F. Burdick, Liberty, R. I. For sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

Pensions Granted. Mr. Wm. C. Patterson and Mrs. Margery Boyer, of State College, have each been granted a pension of eight dollars a month.
