

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS., AUG. 16.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

Miss May Rhone is at Atlantic City this week.

Charles McClenahan has secured a position in J. S. Auman's flouring mill.

The Misses Steely, of Reedsville, are guests of the Bradfords in and about Centre Hall.

Miss Mamie Emerick, daughter of M. L. Emerick, spent part of last week with her aunt, Mrs. E. H. Auman, at Millheim.

Mrs. Nearhood, mother of George Nearhood, on Hoffer street, was overcome by heat last Friday. She is an aged lady and has been delicate for some time.

Hon. L. Rhone went to Tioga county Tuesday. The oleo political business is brisk out there and Mr. Rhone went to that place in the interests of the farmers.

O. W. Stover, of Boalsburg, agent for farm machinery of every description, came to town Friday on business. Mr. Stover is selling the Deering corn harvester at present, and has succeeded in disposing of almost a car load.

Dr. Charles J. Stambach, of Reedsville, and Miss Elizabeth R. Oberholtzer, formerly of Altoona, were married recently. Dr. Stambach is a prominent physician in Millin county.

Xavier Gfrerer was a caller Saturday. He is an example of German frugality, having acquired some valuable property in and near Centre Hall, and today can take the world easy if he wishes to do so.

Mrs. James A. Keller, of this place, and her sister, Mrs. Samuel Youtz, of Millinburg, who had been her guest for a month, Friday of last week went to Lewistown to visit another sister, Mrs. Kline.

Mrs. Sarah Tressler, of Centre Hill, tells the Reporter that she has a green pippin apple of last year's crop that is in a good state of preservation. Mrs. Tressler says the apple crop will be immense in her section.

Jacob K. Confor, foreman of the Ashland Lumber company, of Beech, reports the lumber business brisk in his section. Mr. Confor is a thorough going man, and the parties whom he serves appreciate the fact.

Dr. Frederick Dale, son of J. Y. Dale, of Lemont, has been appointed as acting assistant surgeon of the regular army, with the rank of First Lieutenant. His destination will be either China or the Philippines.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sankey, of Potters Mills, were in town Friday of last week. Mr. Sankey had been ill for some time, but is able at present to be about again, all of which his many friends are glad to note.

John Showers, west of town, states that the dry weather is seriously affecting his crop of corn and potatoes. He had one of the best yields of wheat per acre, threshed this season by thresherman George Emerick.

Miss Lydia Wohlford, of Orangeville, Stephenson county, Illinois, is the guest of Miss Gertrude Spangler, daughter of W. W. Spangler. Miss Wohlford's father moved west with the Wohlford family from Brushvalley when he was a child.

Joel Kerstetter also lost a horse last week. The animal some time ago stepped on a nail which penetrated his foot and blood poison followed with the above result. The beast was one of Mr. Kerstetter's best work horses.

C. W. Swartz, merchant at Tusseyville, was a caller recently. Mr. Swartz is conducting one of the best general stores to be found anywhere in the country districts of the state. He has a large trade which he jealously watches over.

Mrs. Dr. Rhone, of California, and Mrs. Hall, of Wilmington, Delaware, are visiting their old home at Boalsburg. These ladies are sisters of Miss Sallie Keller, of that place, who was injured by a horse running over her during the fire in Boalsburg some time ago. Miss Keller is improving.

John Smith, of Spring Mills, the senior partner of Smith Bros., furniture dealers and undertakers, was in town Friday. The Smith Bros. are hustlers, and hustle for a living, so they say. They also believe in advertising, because they realize that money spent in newspaper advertising brings good results.

Newton C. Yarnell, of Linden Hall, living on the farm of D. J. Meyer, reports crops favorable on that farm considering the seasons. He will have over one thousand bushels of oats and about that much wheat and barley combined. Mr. Yarnell is one of the industrious kind of young men, but finds time to read up agricultural topics and the news in the Reporter.

Wilbur Burkholder, of Centre Hill, the young man who was so seriously injured about the head and face during the wreck of the Presbyterian church at that place, popped in to see the Reporter last week. Mr. Burkholder has fully recovered from his injuries, and no deformities are visible, all of which his many friends are glad to note.

Grant Hoover, the popular insurance agent was in town Friday looking up business in the insurance line.

Jacob Deutweiler offers his farm for sale. He has one of the best farms in that section and is located near Tusseyville.

Mrs. Eliza Stump and daughter Annie, made their yearly visit to the Reporter office to pay their subscription in advance.

Lloyd Brown, of near Linden Hall, was a caller Tuesday, and reports everything moving in the same channels up there.

Mrs. J. B. Strunk, of Nittany, gave a party on the anniversary of their marriage on Saturday. The affair was largely attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harter, of Lincoln, Nebraska, are east and were the guests of Harvey Bird, of Rebersburg, for some time.

James Runkle, of Tusseyville, called Wednesday and reports that his son Calvin has improved sufficient in health to leave his bed.

Sim, the Clothier, is in the eastern cities studying the latest styles and making selections for his popular Bellefonte clothing store.

Mrs. John Huff, of Lamar, returned to her home Monday after caring for her daughter, Mrs. F. M. Crawford, for several weeks during her recent illness.

Aaron Detweiler, of Colyer, was one of the many callers Tuesday. He gives his entire attention to huckstering and does most of his marketing at Lewistown.

Dr. D. M. Wolf, of Spring Mills, one of the foremost educators in Pennsylvania, attended the Reformed reunion Wednesday and called on the Reporter to wish it success.

Boyd S. Auman, of Spring Mills, spent Tuesday in Centre Hall. He is a studious young man, preparing for Gettysburg College, and expects to take up some profession after he is through with his school work.

John Armstrong, a son of Mrs. James Armstrong, of Phillipsburg, aged eleven years, was accidentally shot and killed while playing with a target gun. He was struck under the left eye and died almost instantly.

C. M. Gephart, the organ and sewing machine dealer, of Millheim, paid his respects to this office Friday. Mr. Gephart does an extensive business in his line, and his patrons know that his goods are as represented.

Mrs. John R. Hazlet, of Williamsport, came up Friday to aid in caring for her daughter, Miss Alice, who is ill at the home of Mrs. Isaac Smith. Miss Hazlet is subject to heart trouble, and it is one of these attacks which she is suffering now.

M. M. Grove, surveyor and justice of the peace, was climbing the mountains above town for several days last week looking up division lines for Mrs. Forner and others. 'Squire Grove is at home in the woods and is unusually correct in his surveying.

Prof. David Krise, of Liberty, Tioga county, was elected principal of the Mill Hall High School. There was a dead-lock on the principalship for a number of weeks, the board voting for Prof. T. B. Shannon, of Turbotville, and Prof. Martin, the former principal.

Victor Crawford, brother of F. M. Crawford, of this place, who is managing a drug store in Philadelphia, is at his home in Millinburg at present. Mr. Crawford is favorably known among the young people here, having at one time clerked in the general store of Messrs. Wolf & Crawford.

A. B. Homan, son of Henry Homan, and brother of Miss Elsie Homan whose death was announced last week, came east from Clarno, Wisconsin, where he had been engaged on a farm since last spring. Mr. Homan has been staying in town, owing to the sickness in his old home. His sister had died before he reached this place.

The Rev. Dr. R. L. Gerhart and family arrived in Lewisburg Friday afternoon of last week. On Sunday Dr. Gerhart took charge of his pastoral work of the Reformed church. He served that congregation four years previously in the capacity of pastor. The family have a large number of friends who welcomed them to Lewisburg. Dr. Gerhart's last charge was at Bellefonte, where he resigned to accept the call at Lewisburg.

Prof. Warren S. Krise, with his wife and children, of Johnstown, arrived in Centre Hall Tuesday and will be the guest of his father, Prof. W. A. Krise, for a short time. Prof. Krise, last spring, was elected Justice of the Peace over his father-in-law, a Republican. He takes considerable interest in politics, is well posted on current affairs, and for the past year has taught school in the suburbs of Johnstown, at a very good salary.

Fred W. Weber and son John, of Boalsburg, called Friday to see how printing was done. Mr. Weber is spending some of his leisure time in the construction of a sectional spiral stairway which will enable stairways to be built to order in shops and shipped wherever needed. There is an opportunity for some one prepared to manufacture such an article to open a good trade at profitable prices. Parties interested should write to Mr. Weber.

AARONSBURG.

J. C. Meyer, Esq., and family, who had visited for about a week in town, went back to Bellefonte Saturday afternoon.

D. J. Meyer, administrator of his sister's estate, offered the homestead at public sale last Saturday. The highest bid was $515.00, which he did not think sufficient, Mrs. Shaffer having paid $1100, for the same. The sale was adjourned until next Saturday.

George Kiestler picked and sold the first peaches from his orchard last Saturday morning. They were fine and he had no trouble in disposing of them.

The union Sabbath school picnic held in Mr. Coburn's woods east of town, was quite an affair. It was well attended by the schools, and many people from the surrounding neighborhood spent the day there. The high wind and a little shower of rain in the afternoon, however, scattered the crowd and the greater part went home.

Miss Jennie Medlar, of Allentown, and Mrs. Harvey Musser and children, of Akron, Ohio, are visiting at the home of Mr. Coburn. Mr. McCurdy, cashier of the First National Bank of Bellefonte, came down with Mr. Coburn Saturday afternoon, remaining over Sunday. Miss Medlar went back to Allentown Monday morning.

That was a breezy affair before the justice Monday evening; one party had been notified to meet the other party to settle some difficulties between them. Not less than fifty persons, men and women, came to the place to hear the fun.

J. Roland Wyle and wife, of Akron, Ohio, are visiting Mr. Wyle's parents. He is employed by the Akron Rubber Works; during the hot months the company does not manufacture goods, only pack and ship.

Ira Gramley is again back at the old business—a butcher wagon retailing meat. He did not like lumbering in the woods as well as he does cutting steak and making "Hamburg sausage." Ira is the right man in the right place.

John W. Haffley and his brother Benjamin started west Monday morning; they expect to be absent not less than two months, and will visit relatives in Ohio, Wisconsin, Illinois, and Kansas.

Mrs. Henry Crouse after being away two months visiting her son Fred in Somerset county, and also friends in Ohio, returned home last week.

Clayton Wyle bought a horse a few weeks ago from Wm. Burd for ten cents and judging from the price paid the horse was worthless; that was not the case, Burd had no use for him and while away at work in the woods no one to attend him. Wyle again disposed of him for five dollars.

STATE COLLEGE.

Dr. Will Harter, Phil. Foster, F. M. Greinn and O. C. Edwards returned on Saturday morning from a fishing trip down to Zerby. They had a fine time and caught many fish.—Will Buckhout and Oscar Gray are employed temporarily at the Experiment Station upon the mailing list work.—Chemist C. W. Norris left on Saturday for New Castle, Pa., to spend his vacation with his parents.—Prof. Wm. A. Buckhout is visiting friends at various New England points.—Miss Laura Swartz, of West Chester, is visiting Miss Elizabeth Stuart.—The Rev. Dr. Reaser was unable to preach Sunday morning owing to ill health.—Mr. Egos H. Hess preached a very able and interesting sermon in the M. E. church Sunday evening.—A burning brush heap back of the College caused quite a little excitement Sunday afternoon, but did no damage.—Col. J. Calvin Sauer transacted business in Bellefonte Monday.

—John W. Stuart left Monday on a short business trip to Clearfield.—Prof. I. Thornton Osmond, Dean of the Department of Physics, returned last Thursday from his summer sojourn upon his farm at Charlottesville, Va.—Carpenter John Roger, who is working at Canoe Mines, near Punxsutawney, was home over Sunday.—Daniel M. Stuart returned home Thursday after a week's absence in Pittsburg.—Dr. John I. Robison returned Monday from a business trip to Philadelphia. Chemist F. M. Greiner left Tuesday for Buffalo, N. Y., on a short business trip.

A Mother Tells How She Saved Her Little Daughter's Life.

I am the mother of eight children and have had a great deal of experience with medicines. Last summer my little daughter had the dysentery in its worst form. We thought she would die. I tried everything I could think of, but nothing seemed to do her any good. I saw by advertisement in our paper that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was highly recommended and sent and got a bottle at once. It proved to be one of the very best medicines we ever had in the house. It saved my little daughter's life. I am anxious for every mother to know what an excellent medicine it is. Had I known it at first it would have saved me a great deal of anxiety and my little daughter much suffering.—Yours truly, Mrs. George F. Burdick, Liberty, R. I. For sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.
