

THE CENTRE REPORTER

S. W. SMITH, Editor and Proprietor.

TERMS.—The terms of subscription to the Reporter are one dollar per year in advance.

OLD SUBSCRIBERS can pay One Dollar any time during 1900 and get the paper for one year beginning July 1, 1900.

NEW SUBSCRIBERS whose subscriptions are paid in advance of July 1, 1900, will get the same credit as though the paper had not changed hands.

The figures on the label opposite your name do not mean that you owe the Reporter to that date, provided that date is farther back than July 1, 1900. All subscriptions begin July 1, 1900, except those paid in advance of that date. All the dates of labels will be changed as soon as possible.

FOR TWENTY-FIVE CENTS the Reporter will be sent to new subscribers from now until January 1st.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—25 cents per line for three insertions, and 5 cents per line for each subsequent insertion. Other rates made known on application.

CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS. AUG. 23

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL TICKET.

PRESIDENT: WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN, Nebraska.

VICE PRESIDENT: ADLAI E. STEVENSON, Illinois.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL: P. GRAY MEER, Bellefonte.

FOR CONGRESSMAN-AT-LARGE: N. M. EDWARDS, Williamsport.

HARRY E. GRIMM, Doylestown.

COUNTY TICKET.

FOR ASSEMBLY: J. H. WETZEL, Bellefonte.

J. W. KEPLER, Ferguson Twp.

IRISHMEN FOR BRYAN.

On the 15th of August the United Irish Societies had their annual meeting at Sunnyside Park, Chicago. Ex-Congressman John F. Finnerty is the President of this organization, and under his leadership they passed resolutions against imperialism and militarism, and condemning the foreign policy of the McKinley administration.

AARONSBURG.

The sale of Mrs. Sarah Shaffer's real estate which was continued from the 11th to the 18th inst., resulted in the sale of the property to Mrs. Caroline Mayse for five hundred and twenty-five dollars, a gain of ten dollars from the former, $515.00 having been bid.

Miss Blanche and Emma Cronmiller, of Joliet, Ill., who were on a trip to Niagara Falls, New York City, Philadelphia, Atlantic City and Reading are spending a week at D. H. Rote's, Mrs. Rote being an aunt and N. W. Cronmiller, (whose home is with Rote's) is an uncle of theirs. They expect to start home on the last day of this month.

George Kreighbaum, who hauled milk for the Coburn creamery since last spring quit, and Edward Stump, who moved from a farm near Centre Hall to this place, has taken the place and in the future will wait on the customers.

High Valley, No. 2. The potato crop in High valley is an average one; corn is little better than half crop; big bugs a full crop, and so are the potato bugs; chestnuts will also be a big crop.

A. J. Stoner always has on hand the Michigan cedar shingles and sells them to suit buyers.

The No. 1 scribe has worn out the Georgetown scribe; he is as dead as Galloway's bay mare, which was drowned in mud pond last week.

Calvin Bowersox, at Centerville, Snyder county, was bitten by a copperhead snake in the right leg above the foot. He went into the cellar and stepped on the snake, which was lying at the foot of the steps.

At the coming Central State Firemen's tournament to be held at Philipsburg this month the district will probably be enlarged. The counties of Clinton, Huntingdon, Blair and Jefferson will be taken in. This will give the district the towns of Lock Haven, Altoona, Huntingdon and Renova.

Abraham Matthew, of Coalport, fell from a tree, and in his descent came in contact with a picket fence. One of the pickets caught at the base of his left ear and tore a gash up the side of his face to his scalp and a large V shaped cut in his scalp. The cut was through to the bone and it took nineteen stitches to sew it up.

The soothing and healing properties of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, its pleasant taste and prompt and permanent cures, have made it a great favorite with the people everywhere.

For sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

MILLHEIM.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bolinger, of Altoona, arrived at this place on Monday afternoon; many years ago Mr. Bolinger was a resident of this town, and will now spend some time here with friends and relatives.

Rev. H. W. Buck, and his daughter, Miss Laura, were both confined to the house for several days last week, but at this writing are able to be about again.

Miss Kathryn Gutelius returned to her home in Millinburg last Friday, after spending two weeks at the home of D. L. Zerby.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Harter, of Altoona, are visiting Mrs. Harter's parents in this place.

Miss Margaret St. Clair, of Rochester, was entertained last week by her friend Miss Maud Musser.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Harrison returned on Monday from a short trip to Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

Mrs. Alice Gettig and children, of Bellefonte, are visitors in town this week.

Mr. Frank Noll, of Lancaster, is spending a few weeks at his home in this place.

The Misses Esta, Minerva and Rose Smith took a trip to Nittany Valley on Saturday, returning on Tuesday afternoon.

COBURN.

Mr. Frederick and his sister, Mrs. Bryan, of Jersey City, N. J., and a young lady of Laurelton, are visiting at the home of John Bowersox at this place.

John Hosterman and family, of Woodward, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Hosterman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hosterman, at Georgetown.

Miss Mayme Garthoff spent a few days last week renewing acquaintances in Rebersburg.

S. D. Gettig, Esq., one of the rising young attorneys of Bellefonte, spent Sunday at this place, the guest of Jacob Kerstetter. He was accompanied by a lady friend.

Frank Hackenburg is at Green Burr this week working in a boarding house connected with the campmeeting being held at that place.

The Coburn water company has about completed all arrangements, and are almost ready to begin digging the ditch for the pipes. About a dozen men will be employed to dig the ditch.

T. A. Hosterman expects to move into the rooms over T. B. Everett's store.

Daniel Krader is getting ready to build his new house adjoining the store room formerly occupied by J. W. Glasgow.

LEGAL NOTICE.

The sale of Mrs. Sarah Shaffer's real estate which was continued from the 11th to the 18th inst., resulted in the sale of the property to Mrs. Caroline Mayse for five hundred and twenty-five dollars, a gain of ten dollars from the former, $515.00 having been bid.

Miss Blanche and Emma Cronmiller, of Joliet, Ill., who were on a trip to Niagara Falls, New York City, Philadelphia, Atlantic City and Reading are spending a week at D. H. Rote's, Mrs. Rote being an aunt and N. W. Cronmiller, (whose home is with Rote's) is an uncle of theirs.

George Kreighbaum, who hauled milk for the Coburn creamery since last spring quit, and Edward Stump, who moved from a farm near Centre Hall to this place, has taken the place and in the future will wait on the customers.

High Valley, No. 2. The potato crop in High valley is an average one; corn is little better than half crop; big bugs a full crop, and so are the potato bugs; chestnuts will also be a big crop.

A. J. Stoner always has on hand the Michigan cedar shingles and sells them to suit buyers.

The No. 1 scribe has worn out the Georgetown scribe; he is as dead as Galloway's bay mare, which was drowned in mud pond last week.

Calvin Bowersox, at Centerville, Snyder county, was bitten by a copperhead snake in the right leg above the foot. He went into the cellar and stepped on the snake, which was lying at the foot of the steps.

At the coming Central State Firemen's tournament to be held at Philipsburg this month the district will probably be enlarged. The counties of Clinton, Huntingdon, Blair and Jefferson will be taken in. This will give the district the towns of Lock Haven, Altoona, Huntingdon and Renova.

Abraham Matthew, of Coalport, fell from a tree, and in his descent came in contact with a picket fence. One of the pickets caught at the base of his left ear and tore a gash up the side of his face to his scalp and a large V shaped cut in his scalp. The cut was through to the bone and it took nineteen stitches to sew it up.

The soothing and healing properties of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, its pleasant taste and prompt and permanent cures, have made it a great favorite with the people everywhere.

For sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

OVER THE STATE.

Semi-Local News Taken from Exchanges.

Happenings of Particular Interest to the Reporter Readers.

Fire of incendiary origin destroyed a creamery plant at Mechanicsburg valued at $6,000.

While swimming in the river in Sunbury, Arthur Zimmerman, age eleven years, stepped into a deep hole and was drowned.

Impure drinking water is supposed to have caused the illness of thirteen men working in the railroad shops at Altoona.

Seven cases of small pox have developed in Erie, and several more are suspected. The authorities have quarantined part of the town.

It took $141,428.94 of the State's money to pay the members of the National Guard for their attendance at the Mt. Gretna encampment.

Senator Hummel's barn, upon the farm tenanted by Mr. Daniel Sassaman, at Hummel's Wharf, Snyder county, was burned with the year's crops and several head of live stock.

A spark from a locomotive caused a fire, burning up about $20,000 worth of lumber for Hall and Kaul of Emporium. C. B. Howard & Co. also lost about $2,000 worth of logs.

While Joseph York, of Millin, was assisting in changing the track at Bixler Friday he was struck on the nose by a flying bolt nut, which considerably disfigured that member.

Geo. M. Lumbard, assistant editor of the Snyder county Tribune and his family were compelled to stay over night on an island in the Susquehanna river because a wild cat appeared on the scene.

David Shambach's barn and wagon shed at Paxtonville, was struck by lightning, Wednesday morning, and burned with all the grain, hay, etc. The live stock and farming utensils were all saved.

As a result of putting a lot of paper and rubbish in the cellar furnace and starting a fire, an explosion occurred blowing off the furnace door and severely burning Cloyd Wise, of Altoona, on the arms, head and face.

Three children of Mr. and Mrs. Dyart, of Mapleton, died within eight days of dysentery. The oldest child was aged three years and eight months and the other two younger. Two of them were buried in the same grave.

At Morris Run, a few days ago 2 year old Eddie Bennett was playing in the street. A cow came along and seeing the child's bright colored kilts, rushed at the child, caught her on her horns and tossed him twenty feet in the air. The child was severely injured.

The barn of Potter Kinter, Grant township, Indiana county, was burned by lightning. Loss $1,000; no insurance. Also the barn of James Elkin, same county, in same way; also the barn of Augustus F. Stahl, of near Sipesville, Somerset county.

Lightning killed five valuable cows for H. Botouf, of near Herndon, Northumberland county. Seventeen cows were standing in the woods when the storm came up. The family saw the lightning strike the head of cattle.

During a storm Tuesday of last week the spire of the Memorial Baptist church, at Williamsport, was blown off while services were in progress. The steeple fell on top of the church, and immediately the congregation arose and made a rush for the door.

At Wilkesbarre last week J. L. Wilkinson aged 81 and Sarah Ann McCool aged 72 were married. When youthful lovers they quarrelled, Wilkinson having gone west, and were separated. On his return from the west last week he sought his old sweetheart, proposed and was accepted.

The accidental swallowing of his false teeth was primarily the cause of the death of Philip Litinger, of Allegheny. The plate was removed with much difficulty, but subsequent irritation of the respiratory organs developed pneumonia, which caused his death.

While Jerre Brambaugh and Levi Johnston were loading a twelve foot drill hole at the sand works at Mapleton, the fourteen sticks of dynamite they were tamping exploded, dislodging more than a ton of rock, which knocked down their scaffold, precipitating the men a distance of about fifteen feet. The men were not seriously injured.

During the thunder storm A. M. Gibson, Lock Haven, was feeding six chickens, when there came a blinding flash of lightning and the chickens all dropped to the ground, apparently dead. Five of the fowls finally rallied and rose to their feet, but the sixth chicken was dead. Mr. Gibson felt the shock, but was not seriously stunned.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor of Wind Ridge, Greene Co., Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

COURT PROCLAMATION.

Whereas the Hon. John G. Love, President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of the 48th Judicial District, consisting of the county of Centre, Pa., has issued his precept bearing date the 30th day of July 1900, to the effect of holding a Court of Common Pleas and Orphans' Court at Centre, Pa., on Monday, August 28th, 1900, and to continue two weeks. Notice is hereby given to the Coroners and Justices of the Peace, and to the Constables of said county of Centre, that they be then and there in the proper form, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, with their records, inquisitions, examinations, and their own remembrances, to do those things which to their office respectively are done, and those who are bound in recognizances to prosecute against the prisoners that are or shall be in the jail of Centre county, by then and there to prosecute against them as shall be just.

Given under my hand, at Bellefonte, the 28th day of July, in the year of our Lord, 1900, and the one hundred and twenty-fourth year of the Independence of the United States.

CYRUS BRUNGART, Sheriff.

REAL ESTATE PUBLIC SALE.

Whereas the estate of Geo. P. Reark, deceased, will be offered at public sale on the premises now occupied by Mr. John Smith, one in lots of Potters Mills, Pa., on SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER, 1900.

At 10 o'clock a. m. This farm is situated in Potter township, Centre County, Pa., and bounded by lands of M. J. Decker, Wm. Young, Daniel H. Henry, and others. It contains about 240 acres, of which about 140 acres are clear and in a high state of cultivation. Balance is pasture land, and is well watered. It is thickly covered with oak, pine and chestnut timber. Thereon is erected a good Dwelling House, newly painted and ready for occupancy. It has a large lot about as good as new, mountain water piped to house and barn; choice fruit of all kinds on the premises.

TERMS OF SALE.—10 per cent. of purchase money to be paid on day of sale, balance to be made in three annual payments; deferred payments to be secured by bond and mortgage with interest.

W. O. REARK, Cent. a. Hall, D. H. REARK, Farmers Mills, Executors.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR CHARTER.

Notice is hereby given that an application will be made to the Governor of Pennsylvania on Monday, the 10th day of September, at 10 o'clock a. m., in the City of Harrisburg, Pa., by Harter, A. B. Meyer, Andrew Vonals, Andrew Harter, Adam Berges and others under the Act in that behalf passed by the General Assembly of this State, to incorporate and regulate certain corporations, approved April 29th, 1874, and the supplemental act in that behalf passed by the General Assembly of this State, to be called "The Coburn Water Company," the object and purpose of which is to provide for the supply of water to the town of Coburn, in the township of Potter, Centre County, and State of Pennsylvania, and to purchase, construct, maintain and operate a water supply system in and about the town of Coburn, and to acquire and hold real estate and other property in and about the town of Coburn, and to do all such things as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of the said Act.

As a result of putting a lot of paper and rubbish in the cellar furnace and starting a fire, an explosion occurred blowing off the furnace door and severely burning Cloyd Wise, of Altoona, on the arms, head and face.

Three children of Mr. and Mrs. Dyart, of Mapleton, died within eight days of dysentery. The oldest child was aged three years and eight months and the other two younger. Two of them were buried in the same grave.

At Morris Run, a few days ago 2 year old Eddie Bennett was playing in the street. A cow came along and seeing the child's bright colored kilts, rushed at the child, caught her on her horns and tossed him twenty feet in the air. The child was severely injured.

The barn of Potter Kinter, Grant township, Indiana county, was burned by lightning. Loss $1,000; no insurance. Also the barn of James Elkin, same county, in same way; also the barn of Augustus F. Stahl, of near Sipesville, Somerset county.

Lightning killed five valuable cows for H. Botouf, of near Herndon, Northumberland county. Seventeen cows were standing in the woods when the storm came up. The family saw the lightning strike the head of cattle.

During a storm Tuesday of last week the spire of the Memorial Baptist church, at Williamsport, was blown off while services were in progress. The steeple fell on top of the church, and immediately the congregation arose and made a rush for the door.

At Wilkesbarre last week J. L. Wilkinson aged 81 and Sarah Ann McCool aged 72 were married. When youthful lovers they quarrelled, Wilkinson having gone west, and were separated. On his return from the west last week he sought his old sweetheart, proposed and was accepted.

The accidental swallowing of his false teeth was primarily the cause of the death of Philip Litinger, of Allegheny. The plate was removed with much difficulty, but subsequent irritation of the respiratory organs developed pneumonia, which caused his death.

While Jerre Brambaugh and Levi Johnston were loading a twelve foot drill hole at the sand works at Mapleton, the fourteen sticks of dynamite they were tamping exploded, dislodging more than a ton of rock, which knocked down their scaffold, precipitating the men a distance of about fifteen feet. The men were not seriously injured.

During the thunder storm A. M. Gibson, Lock Haven, was feeding six chickens, when there came a blinding flash of lightning and the chickens all dropped to the ground, apparently dead. Five of the fowls finally rallied and rose to their feet, but the sixth chicken was dead. Mr. Gibson felt the shock, but was not seriously stunned.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor of Wind Ridge, Greene Co., Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor of Wind Ridge, Greene Co., Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor of Wind Ridge, Greene Co., Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor of Wind Ridge, Greene Co., Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor of Wind Ridge, Greene Co., Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor of Wind Ridge, Greene Co., Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor of Wind Ridge, Greene Co., Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor of Wind Ridge, Greene Co., Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor of Wind Ridge, Greene Co., Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor of Wind Ridge, Greene Co., Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor of Wind Ridge, Greene Co., Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor of Wind Ridge, Greene Co., Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor of Wind Ridge, Greene Co., Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor of Wind Ridge, Greene Co., Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor of Wind Ridge, Greene Co., Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor of Wind Ridge, Greene Co., Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor of Wind Ridge, Greene Co., Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor of Wind Ridge, Greene Co., Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor of Wind Ridge, Greene Co., Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor of Wind Ridge, Greene Co., Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor of Wind Ridge, Greene Co., Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor of Wind Ridge, Greene Co., Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

SPECIAL TEN-DAY EXCURSION TO OCEAN GROVE.

For the benefit of those desiring to visit the great Ocean Grove Camp Meeting, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will, on August 23, sell excursion tickets to Ocean Grove, Asbury Park, or Long Branch from stations named below at the very low rates quoted.

These tickets will be good for passage to Philadelphia on train indicated, thence on regular trains leaving Broad Street Station at 3:30 and 4:03 P. M. that day to destination.

Table with columns: Train, Leaves, Rate. Rows include Philadelphia, Lemont, Oak Hall, Linden Hall, Centre Hall, Rising Spring, Coburn, Poter Iron, Millmont, Millburg, Lewsburg, Philadelphia.

Tickets will be good for return passage on regular trains until September 1, inclusive, and will permit of stop-off at Philadelphia within limit.

Good News Again