

VOL. LXXIII.

THE COURT Th > Passing of Juries on Many Cases.

THE GRAND JURY'S REPORT.

Full Report of Court Proceedings Up to Wednesday,

The regular August term of court minors and on Sunday; prosecutor, H. o'clock, President Judge John G. Love presiding. The greater part of the morning session was occupied by the presenting of petitions and usual routine work of the court.

Potter township, were discharged from | zard; county to pay costs. the custody of the sheriff under the insolvent laws.

After the presenting of petitions and Kramer. County to pay costs. motions the grand jury was called and sworn. L. C. Wetzel, a well-known machinist and inventor, of Bellefonte, was appointed foreman. The court deliver d the usual charge and instructions to the grand jury, after which they retired for deliberations on the several indictments to be presented by N. B. Spangler, Esq., District Attor- further reported that there is needed a ney.

The constables of the several boroughs and townships made their quarterly returns. The roll of the traverse jurors was called and absentees noted when the following were excused: Harry Emery, Ed. Jones, Elias Edmondson, and L. H. Wian.

The trial list was called over and cases for trial noted. Among those settled were Hogarth & Hoffman vs. zell is as jovial as ever. F. P. Bottorf, appeal, and A. C. Horquist & Co. vs. F. E. Naginey, appeal. Court adjourned until 2 o'clock p. m.

The first case for trial during the afternoon session was that of the Com. vs. Charles Wayple (white) and Lowe Jones (colored;) charge, highway rob- light them these dark nights? Is it bery; prosecutor, Louis Elliott. On April 30, 1900, the prosecutor came to Philipsburg, and meeting some friends took a few drinks too many, and as a result could not handle himself. The ofendants, two young men, offered to him to a hotel. Instead of going rtel, they turned into the ball 1 left Eliot there. About to their home. The evidence in this case was circumstancial Defendant was seen near the place of shooting only a few minutes before the shots were fired. There was no positive Prominent Families Clement Deininger; her husband and arrangements were Messrs. John W. identification, yet both of the Hough's testified that their assailant was a colored man and corresponded to the defendant. The testimony of the defendant's witnesses tended to prove an TRIPLE CALLING FROM ON HIGH.

Com. vs. Reuben Freeman; charge, selling liquor without license, and to alibi.

convened on Monday morning at nine H. Gunther, constable of Philipsburg. Com. vs. Christian Reese, charge, assault and battery; prosecutor, Ira B. Howe. Defendant guilty.

Grand jury ignored the following bills: Com. vs. Charles Rooney; John H. Taylor and J. W. Stump, of charge larceny, prosecutor, Wm. Haz-

Com. vs. L. C. Bullock; charge, cruelty to minor child; prosecutrix, Ida Com. vs. W. P. Washburn; charge, embezzlement; prosecutor, J. M. Mallory, to pay costs.

Isaac Shawver's license for Old Fort hotel transferred to 1. T. Armstrong. The Grand Jury way a " that it had acted upon thirteen bills of mulciment, ten of which were found true bills. It new iron door in the jail yard fence, a new porch on the north side, and a The Keller home, as presided over by new cellar door, and that the stable be Mrs. Keller, was one of the most hosrepaired and repainted.

REBERSBURG.

Forest Leitzell and family, of Scottin the Reformed church, and in her dale, are visiting relatives in town, and death the church loses one who was are always welcomed here. Mr. Leitever ready to make sacrifices that good might be done. She was also closely Quite a number of people attended identified with the work of the wocampmeeting at Sugar valley Sunday. man's department of the Grange and Miss Bertha Wolf, of Centre Hall, is held several offices in that order. visiting at the home of J. W. Harter. Why is it that the people in this by a very large number of relatives town who have street lamps don't and friends, not only from the immediate vicinity but from all parts of the because they are too careless?

Misses May and Helen Kreider, who have been spending two months at the home of J. P. Frank's, returned to their home in Harrisburg Tuesday. Sorry to see them leave, as they are death. both ladies of refinement.

Prof. W. F. Zeigler, of Ashbourne, 1844, and was the daughter of David Pa., was a guest at the home of Joh in Mourning.

CENTRE HALL, PA., THURSDAY, AUGUST 30, 1900.

Three Deaths Within Twenty-four Hour

in Centre Hall.

because she was widely known and es-

Mrs. Keller had been in failing health for some time but not until a few days before her death was any apprehension felt. She attended services in her church, where she was always found when health permitted, on Sunday preceding her death and was confined to her bed only a few days.

who went there received a hearty wel-

The deceased was an active worker

The funeral services were attended

MRS. JAMES A. KELLER.

MRS. SAMUEL SHOOP.

WM. L. KURTZ.

in every good work.

come.

father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Deininger, two sisters, Mrs. Lucy Henney, of this place; Mrs. James Stewart, Grange Park at this place last Thursof New Bloomfield; one brother, day. The committee who made the HAPPENINGS OF LOCAL INTEREST two children, Annie L. and William D. Shook, secretary, of Spring Mills; P.

ty from Lebanon county about seventy years ago and settled in or near Aaronsburg, followed by his nephews, Daniel,

Four Deaths.

A three-year-old child of Lyman

Mrs. W. A. Krise received a dispatch from Johnstown Wednesday, the 22nd inst., announcing the death of her sister, Mrs. R. J. Zimmerman.

Miss Carrie E. Bilger, daughter of services conducte

Music by Sprin

. . "Quiet Hour

"The work of

Musei

Sermon by a visiting pastor.

Music by Centre Hall E. L. .

HELEN BARTHOLOMEW, Sec'y.

. 1:30 P. M .- Song service conducted by G. L. Springer. . . Music by Millheim E. L.

. Music.

Deaths in Other Countles.

Theodore Myers, aged 70 years, at SPRING MILLS.

Many of our people are attending the business men's picnic at Hecla to-every one a chance of attending.

"The work of the first vice president," dis-

PENN HALL.

J. C. Condo, proprietor of the Penn spared no effort to make the affair a Hall carriage works, made a business success. At 11 a. m. order was called trip to Loganton last Friday.

Misses Rebecca Snyder and Clara Luse, of Millheim. Prayer was offer-Kerstetter, of State College, spent a ed by Rev. Zones, of Burlingame. The few days at the home of the former's party was then entertained with choice brother, C. R. Snyder, of Green Grove. music by Rev. W. W. Rhoads, Misses was in town yesterday and called to Miss Clara Swarm, the accomplish- Ida Rhoads and Estie Ocker and see us. ed daughter of John Swarm, of Will- Reuben Colyer. Then followed an ad-friends in and about town. Daniel J. Koch, one of Ferguson days of the family in Pennsylvania.

township's enthusiastic young teach- He stated that George Luse, the founfriends at this place.

Miss Laurine Faust, of Potters Mills, and Miss Sadie Condo, of Coburn, teemed for the active interest she took spent Sunday with the latter's parents. Rev. Bennet and Calvin Musser, of Dennis, all of whom followed the car-Williamsport, came on bicycles to Da- penter trade. In conclusion he convid Musser's at noon on Tuesday. gratulated the family upon its sobri-They were caught in the rain storm ety and integrity. Rev. Rhoads then afternoon, and report rather a wet trip. Messrs. H. N. Meyer and H. F. Mc .- sumptuous dinner. In the afternoon a Manaway started on a ten day's bicy- family group picture was taken. Those cle trip on Wednesday morning, to from a distance were Mrs. M. C. Bears mine caving in, at Snow Shoe. Womelsdorf, Pa., where Mr. McMan- and two daughters, of Sparrows Point, away was at one time a student. They M. D.; F. D. Luse, wife and son and pitable in the vicinity, and every one expect to spend some time at the Will- his mother, Elizabeth Luse, of West iamsgrove picnic, after which they Fairview; Rev. Zones and family, of will visit Gettysburg, and stop with Burlingame ; C. W. Luse and wife, of city. relatives in Harrisburg, Sunbury and Tyrone ; Mrs. Emma E. Cooney and Freeburg on their way home.

The Challenge band will hold a festival Saturday evening at this place. The Coburn band will be present to Kleinfelter died of cholera infantum furnish the music. A cordial invita- last week. The child was buried at tion is extended to all to come and en- Tusseyville on Saturday afternoon, joy a rare musical feast while you eat Ceader's ice cream.

Our schools open next Monday and the directors have been cleaning the room so that everything will be in good Her death was due to heart disease. condition for the very best work.

county. Interment was made in the Henry Roush, who for many years cemetery at this place and services was a resident of our town, now living Dr. John Bilger, of Pleasant Gap, were held in the Reformed church by in Brush valley, is again able to be died at her home Friday night of con-Rev. Kershner, the deceased's pastor, out. Mr. Roush was stricken with pa- sumption. She was aged 24 years, 4 who was with her at the time of her ralysis on the 9th of last March, and months and 25 dayr. The funeral room, not being able to do any work o'clock.

The Luse Reunion. TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS. The Luse family reunion was held in

Kepactec,

H. Luse, C. W. Luse, L. L. Smith,

Retort Courteous. Forest Ocker and E. C. Nearhood who 'Yes, I'm a gentleman," be cried, 'My family in fact is-' Oh, then I see," the maid replied, 'You're simply out of practice. in the auditorium by President Dennis

J. Witmer Wolf has been confined to the house for the past few days.

FROM ALL PARTS.

NO. 36.

W. S. Hettinger, of Spring Mills,

A new walk was built in front of the iamsport, is visiting relatives and dress by the president, who in his re- Shreffier property, adjoining Public marks went back to the grandfather School Park.

> A colored campmeeting will be held in Long's grove near Rebersburg on Sunday.

Look on another page for Kreamer & Son's new ad. Some good bargains Samuel, Joseph, Henry, Elias and are offered.

The Chester De Vonde Theatrical Company is playing this week at Garman's Opera House.

The Bellefonte public schools will on top of Nittany mountain Monday spoke on family reunions. One hun- open on Tuesday. The High school hundred and fifty guests sat down to a will open on Wednesday.

Three Hungarians were crushed to instant death last Friday by a coal

A Eureka paper states that Prof. E. J. Wolf has been re-elected teacher of one of the grammar schools of that

The Odd Fellows of Loganton, will observe Saturday as Memorial Day. son and Mrs. W. W. Roberts, of Patton. Rev. D. E. Rupley will deliver the oration.

> Mr. Steely, of Reedsville, father of the young ladies who visited the Bradfords recently, died suddenly a few days ago.

Cabinet Council met in specia' session yesterday to discuss the situation of the Chinese. A clash among the powers is feared.

If you want to vote you must be registered and assessed on or before September 4th. This is important. Don't. fail to see about it.

Read the new advertisement of C. A. since then has been confined to his took place Sunday afternoon at 2 Krape, the shoe dealer at Spring Mills. Mr. Krape believes in using the Reporter as an advertising medium. Miss Della Fye, of near the Red Mill, almost useless, but with the aid of his daughter of John Fye, deceased, died Isaac Shawver, who for the past five cane he now manages to move about on Saturday evening, aged twenty years was the popular proprietor of the fairly well. Although he has suffered years. Interment was made at the Old Fort Hotel, has moved to town, much from paralysis and various oth- Tusseyville cemetery on Tuesday, into the house vacated by Frank Craw-Henry Stoner, Joseph Grossman,

MRS. JAMESA. KELLER. Mrs. Lottie Keller, wife of James A. Keller died on Friday evening from an illness extending over a period of several years. While her death was not ers is spending a week with his many der of the family, came to Centre counaltogether unexpected, it came as a great shock to the entire community an hour the chief of police found him and took him to the hotel where it was found that his pocket book with twenty-one dollars was missing. Upon investigation by the chief Wayple and Jones were arrested. While in the lock-up both boys confessed and returned the money. At the trial the boys claimed to have found the pocket book, and that they did not know to whom it belonged. There being no evidence of an assault the jury found a verdict of guilty of larceny.

Com. vs. Eph. Learish and John Leisher and John Walker; charge, aggravated assault and battery. The trouble in this case arose out of an over indulgence in liquor. A dispute arose and the defendants claim that the prosecutor attempted to draw a revolver when Walker, one of the defendants, threw a stone, which struck the prosecutor in the eye. Nolle prose rish. Walker plead guilty to assault. Sentenced to pay the cost of prosecution, twenty-five dollars fine and to certain. undergo imprisonment in the county jail for a term of six months. Joseph A. Emerick vs. Central R. F.

Co. of Pa.; appeal. J. C. Meyer, Esq. for plaintiff, Orvis, Bower & Orvis for the defendant company. This action arose out of a claim of damages by Mr. Emerick for a cow killed by a freight train; appealed by the defendant company. The question of fact involved in this case was, whether or not the cow was struck while on the crossing. are spending a few days with their pa-According to a special act of Assembly for Centre county the railroads are required to fence their right of way, and are not responsible for any loss to stock Edgar, Mrs. Roy Miller, Mrs. B. F. of deliberation the jury returned a ver- Wright. dict for the defendant.

The case of Com. vs. D. E. Armties.

Centre county vs. M. F. Riddle, deceased, Daniel Heckman, and Thomas W. Fisher. The above cases were ap- section took a trip to Penus Cave on peals from the report of the auditor of Monday. They reported a fine time. Centre county surcharging the Commissioners. After the plaintiff had suits Saturday. They fit up to date. presented its testimony, Col. Reeder, counsel for the defendants, moved for a compulsory non-suit which was time. granted.

On motion of John M. Dale, Esq., John Blanchard, Esq. was appointed an auditor to pass upon the exceptions ed, in a practical manner, the beauty filed to the first and partial account of and benefit of belonging to a fraternal Geo. T. Brew, administrator of Geo. order in the assistance given Samuel Delige (colored;) charge, aggravated to decorate the grave and its surround- the United Evangelical church, Rev. assault and battery with intent to kill. ings. Such acts show a true fraternal W. W. Rhoads, officiating. Inter-Prosecutor, John Hough; an attack feeling among the members of the ment was made in the Centre Hall was made on Mr. Hough and his son Lodge, such as should exist in all frawhile going from their store in Scotia | ternal societies.

Wolf Tuesday. Victor Walker, who was employed at Cross Forks, Pa., for the past two months, is home again.

were visitors at the home of James P Frank.

Installation services were held in the Reformed church on Thursday night for the purpose of installing the pastor, Rev. Wetzel. Rev. Kershner, of Centre Hall, preached an eloquent sermon. He was assisted in the services by Rev. Brown, of Aaronsburg. H. L. Gilbert, of Detroit, is home on a visit to his parents.

Mrs. Samuel Frank, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Kreamer for the past month returned to her home in Harrisburg Tuesday morning.

Prof. E. M. Brungart left for Cross Forks, where he holds a principalship qui as to the last count and Eph. Lea- over five schools. Mr. Brungart is a gentleman of much tact and ability, and unbounded success in his work is COLVER.

Jacob Lee, wife and little daughter, of Northumberland, are spending short time with Mr. Lee's parents. Jacob Weist, agent for a large dry goods house in Philadelphia, was the guest of G. R. Meiss Tuesday night. John Boal and Wm. Jordan, with a gentleman friend from Philadelphia, rents at Colyer.

Among the sick in and around Colyer are, Mrs. Charley Miller, her son on crossings. After an hour and a half Rickert, John Rickert, and Frank a lingering illness. She had been Philip Bradford and family, of Linden Hall, spent Sunday at the home strong was settled by agreement of par- of Mrs. Bradford's parents, Mr. and well known throughout this commu- cider are Tuesdays and Thursdays of Creek, aged 83 years. Spent nearly Dr. Emerick. Mrs. J. R. Lee.

The Philadelphia boys and several of the hand some young ladies of this The Colyer band boys received their met.

Mrs. G. R. Meiss left today, for Philadelphia, where she will remain some

The Odd Fellows again demonstrat-W. Jackson's estate and distribute the Shoop and family during the long ill- balonged to that church since child- Floda E. Clements tunds in the hands of the accountant. ness of Mrs. Shoop, and after her death hood. The funeral services were held Con. vs. Albert Dixon, alias Bert the trouble and expense some were at on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in Kleckner, of Union county. She was whatever. The left side of his body is the youngest of a family of nine girls, and was married to Mr. Keller January 8, 1867. Ever since their marriage they have lived on the farm a few Mr. and Mrs. Kreider, of Harrisburg, miles below town. She is survived by kind-hearted old Henry. her husband and five children, Mrs. Frank Fisher, of Penn Hall, David K.,

John H., Christian D., and William F.

W. L KURTZ.

Wm. L. Kurtz died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Kurtz, in this place Friday night at 9 o'clock, after an illness of two weeks. The deceased was a resident of Lewisburg, where he edited and published ble hostess, Mrs. Neese, invited the opened by Rev. Miller. the Lewisburg Journal, having purchased that plant in 1895.

In 1887 the deceased was married to Miss Annie Krissinger, of Berlin, Somerset county, who, with four and eighteen months, survive him. Mr. Kurtz was born in Aaronsburg thirty-eight years ago. He graduated from Bucknell College, later was a member of the firm of Kurtz & Son, millers, at this place, after which he been learned. engaged in the hardware business in Berlin until 1895. father's home Monday afternoon, and fit from Union county.

were conducted by Rev. J. M. Rearick, assisted by Rev. Rhoads, Dr. Wolf, Dr. Holloway and Dr. Schuyler. The in- Saturday. terment was made at Berlin, Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Kurtz will dispose of her Lewisburg property including the Journal and later move to Berlin. MRS. SAMUEL SHOOP.

Mrs. Mary Ann, wife of Samuel Shoop, died on Sunday morning after this place. suffering from a complication of diseases but the direct cause of her death was consumption. Mrs. Shoop was the public that his days for making the past twenty years she was prevent- press has been removed to a better and ed from going away from home very much. Her quiet, inoffensive man- will find it more handy than heretoner won for her the esteem of all she fore.

Mrs. Shoop was the second daugh- Joseph A. Twitmire ter of J. O. Deininger. She was born | Margaret B. Underwood in Centre Hall, where she has ever Samuel W. Z-ttle since resided, with the exception of a few years, when she and her husband Annie Irene Gates lived in Williamsport. She was aged Lewis J. Casselberry 44 years and 18 days. She was mar- Hattie J. Bartley ried to Samuel Shoop in 1873.

She was a consistent member of the United Evangelical church, having Wilbur A. Henney cemetery.

Yephania Underwood The deceased is survived by her | Elizabeth Brown er diseases, he is still the same jolly, Rev. Rearick, of the Lutheran church, ford. officiating. A number of our young people were Epworth League Rally. invited to spend Friday evening at the home of J. D. Neese, and they report worth League Rally to be held at having had a very pleasant time. Spring Mills, Sept. 6. "Songs of Soul" When the guests of the party had all will be used. Bring your lunches with arrived, cards were introduced and an you. All are cordially invited. hour or two were spent very pleasant-9 A. M. -- Prayer and praise ly playing whist or euchre. After sev- by Miss Margare' Evans. eral prizes had been won, the estima- president of the Epworth League."-Discusi Mills E. L. party to partake of the elaborate feast. Music.

WOLFL'S STORE AND VICINITY.

ussion opened by Miss Gertrude Spangler. Gen The Reporter has no correspondent eral discussion. children aged between twelve years from this place, therefore the writer the second vice president," discussion opened by will endeovor to send communications Music by Sprucetown E, L Miss Kathryn Kerr. General discussion.

discussion by Rev. E. L. Williams. . Rumor has it that in the near future 6:45 P. M .-- Song service, conducted by Mrs. W a new store will be opened in this vil- A Sandoe. lage. Who the party is has not yet Sermon, by a visiting pastor. Con vice.

Orwig and Grove's steam saw mill J. J. Steely, of Lowell, Snyder Co. will this week be moved to the Morris The funeral services were held at his timber tract. They will bring the outfor a number of years.

Allen Gilbert returned from a few Mrs. A. E. Speck, of Oneida Townweeks' visit to the lower counties last ship, Huntingdon Co., on Saturday last, aged 69 years.

W.A. Corman, the watermelon man, Henry Cryder, cashier of First Natook a load of melons to Rebersburg on tional Bank of Altoona. Aged 64 Saturday evening. He sold 70 out of years. a load of 72 Good, Billy; come Samuel Hartman, of Salona, Clinton around again. county. He was one of the pioneer

Mrs. Catharine Confer, of Loganton, school teachers of that county. is at present visiting her children at Dunnstown, Clinton Co. Was canal Mr. D. B. Weaver's hydraulic eider foreman for thirty years and lately press is now in running order and Mr. placed on the pension roll of the Penn-Weaver takes this means of informing sylvania railroad. nity, al hough owing to ill health for each week until further notice. The her whole life in Beech Creek. more convenient place and the public

Lemont Buffalo Run Loveville Howard day. The stores being closed gives Beliefonte Wingate

Lemont Bellefonte Morrisdale Mines Elizabeth A. Your g Dundar Samuel Clayton Rider Bellefonte

parents and many friends. 44

Henry Showers and David Fortney, all of Tusseyville, were unfortunate in Appended is a program of the Eplosing horses from the the effects of lockjaw.

> Mrs. Ella Bumiller, Mrs. D. L. Zerby, Mrs. Christian Miller and Christopher Alexander, all of Millheim, came "The work of the up on Tuesday to attend the funeral services of Mrs. Shoop.

> > Abe Armstrong, the new proprietror of the Old Fort hotel moved into that hostelry on Tuesday. Mr. Armstrong is an experienced hotel man and knows how to please his guests.

> > The Potter township school board met on Saturday afternoon and adopted new readers. For half of the schools they adopted Baldwin and for the other half Cyr readers.

W. H. Moyer wishes to announce that his new hydraulic cider press will be in operation Tuesday and Thursday He was engaged in educational work of each week, and that the best of satisfaction is guaranteed.

Mrs. William Matterson, of Coudersport, swallowed a teaspoonful of belladonna in mistake for castoria, and immediately fell into a stupor from which it has deen impossible to rouse her.

Prof. B.M. Wagenseller and brother, of Selinsgrove, spent a week at the home of John T. Lee. This is Prof. Wagenseller's first visit to town since completing his term of school here.

John Rickard, an employe at E. M. Huyett's stave mill in the Seven mountains is seriously ill. He lay unconscious for more than twenty-four hours, Mrs. Elizabeth Furst, of Beech and is a peculiar case as reported by W. H. Denlinger, of Patton, washed his gloves with gasoline and shortly afterwards put them on to take a drive. In striking a match to light a eigar the gloves took fire and burned his hands badly.

Because he did not believe in banks, eccentric George McCalmont, of near Franklin, is out $$40. The old man kept his money sewed up in the bed tick. While he was away from home the house was broken into and the money stolen.

John C. Delette, son of W. W. Delette, who for several years was a resident of town, died of typhoid pneumonia, will wend their way to the school at the home of his wife's parents, in Johnstown, on last Sabbath morning. Elias Auman and wife, of Fort Mr. Delette was a member of the Pres-Wayne, Iud., are visiting their aged byterian Church, the Masonic Lodge, and the Junior Order of American James Hanna is delighted over the Mechanics. He was buried by the arrival of a little daughter at his house. Masonic Order.

Miss Bertha Cadwalder, of New York, is visiting friends and relatives Marriage Licenses. in the valley. Bellefonte John Smith and daughter, Miss May

Lola Evey

Sarah E. Whippo

Anna Marie Foley

James Banuen

Frances Morrison

Samuel E. Campbell

started on Tuesday for an extended visit in the west.

Centre Hall

W. L. Wagner

A. Corman & Son's cider press at Fleming Spring Mills is doing a good business.

School begins on Monday. The little people are glad, but of course some house with the rapidity of a snail.