Patents Granted.

J. S. Stewart, of Tyrone, was granted a patent last week on an incubator. C. R. Harris, of Williamsport, on a domestic garbage burner.

C. E. County Convention.

The Eighth Annual Convention of the Centre County Christian Endeavor Union will be held in Bellefonte in the Presbyterian Chapel, September 5 and 6. The first session will be on Wednesday at 2.30 p. m., the convention closing on Thursday evening.

Baptist Association Anniversary.

The seventieth anniversary of the Centre Baptist association is being held in the Baptist church at Port Matilda, yesterday and today. The introductory sermon was preached by the Rev. I. N. Earle, of Lewistown. The doctrinal sermon by the Rev. E. C. Houck, of Milesburg.

Improvements About Town.

A new walk has been built in front of the Methodist church. The porch which formerly was in front of the church has been removed and a walk with steps leading to the church built.

George Benner has further improved his cosy home by building a walk in front and around it.

Mrs. Rossman Improving.

Mrs. John Rossman, of near Penns Cave, who received a severe paralytic stroke about two weeks ago which rendered her speechless, and her right side useless, is slowly recovering under the treatment of Dr. Lee. The patient is advanced in years and will require considerable time and nursing to recover.

Registration Time Expires.

Next Monday and Tuesday, September 3rd and 4th, are the last days for registering, which is one of the requirements of every voter to entitle him to a vote. Voters, and the district chairmen, should bear this fact in mind so that no one may be deprived of a vote on account of failure to attend to this matter.

Admitted to the Bar.

John J. Bower, chairman of the Democratic County committee, was on Monday admitted to practice law in the courts of Centre county. He studied with the firm Orvis, Bower & Orvis. S. Kline Woodring, student with Fortney & Walker, James A. B. Miller, with Reeder & Quigley, and John G. Miller, graduate of Dickinson law school were also admitted. This makes four more good young Democratic lawyers at our bar to hold up the doctrines of the party.

A Visit from Former Pupils.

Some years since the pastor of the Presbyterian church, Rev. W. H. Schuyler, his wife, her sister and mother, were all engaged in conducting the Lewistown Academy. They are now spending the summer together at the manse. Learning of his presence in Centre Hall, Rev. Samuel Barber, of Princeton, Pa., James B. Chambers and his sister, Annie, of Millinburg, former pupils, and Miss Jennie Barber, came up from Union county last Thursday to spend the day with their old teachers and friends. All went to the cave, and had a delightful time in recalling the events of former years for which the day was entirely too short.

MARRIED LAST EVENING.

Two of Our Young People Take Upon Themselves the Vows of Matrimony.

Last evening at eight o'clock the solemn wedding service was pronounced by Rev. J. M. Rearick, which made Wilbur A. Henney and Floda E. Clements, two of our well-known young people, man and wife. The wedding took place at the bride's home, where about fifty invited guests had assembled. The bridal party consisted of the bride and groom, Miss Pearl Riter as bridesmaid, and John Miller as groomsmen, and presented a fine appearance as they stood before the minister. The bride and bridesmaid were both dressed in white organdy. After the ceremony the newly married couple received the hearty congratulations of the guests. This morning they started on a wedding trip to Philadelphia, Atlantic City, Cape May and other points, and will be gone about ten days. After they return home they will at once go to housekeeping at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. Lucy Henney, on Church street.

The bride is the eldest daughter of George S. Clements. The groom is a prosperous young mechanic, who has built up for himself a large trade, and stands well in the estimation of all who know him.

MUSICAL NORMAL.

A Permanent Musical Normal will be Established at Centre Hall.

The people of the community seem to appreciate the importance of having a permanent musical normal in this place, as a number of our musical people have urged Prof. Zeigler to open a school of that kind. In order to meet the desire of the people, Prof. Zeigler has decided to locate here permanently and to establish a Normal. The first term will open in April and the second term sometime during the summer. The six weeks' session which will close on next Saturday, has been conducted very successfully and the patrons are well pleased with the progress made. The permanent normal will be a great convenience to our people as vocal and all sorts of instrumental music will be taught.

Thieves in Linden Hall.

Some petty thieves entered the stable of Mrs. E. Gettig, a few miles east of Linden Hall one night last week and took with them several sets of harness.

Church Appointments.

Lutheran—Centre Hall, 7 p. m., Spring Mills, 10 a. m.; Tusseyville, 2 p. m. Reformed—Centre Hall, 7.30 p. m.; Union, 10 a. m.; Spring Mills, 2 p. m. Presbyterian—Centre Hall, 10.30 a. m.; Pine Stump, 3.30 p. m.

A deed for the transfer of 2,765 1/2 acres of coal and fire clay land in Noyes township, Clinton county, has been entered for record. The deed is from A. N. Blandin and wife to the Clinton Coal company. There are four revenue stamps on the deed of the denomination of $100, and one of the denomination of fifty. The consideration named in the deed is $450,000.

State Grange at Lock Haven.

The executive committee of the Pennsylvania State Grange has decided that the annual meeting of that organization will be held at Lock Haven the second week in December. The question of having the meeting this year held in that city was virtually decided at the meeting last year, but final action in the matter was only taken recently by the executive committee.

R. R. Improvements.

The Pennsylvania R. R. company is making its annual improvements around the station and Grange Park, prior to the Grange Encampment.

While the company keeps the surroundings at the station in good repair, one thing is much needed, and that is a hydrant and trough at the stock yard. This is not so much for the stock shippers, as it is necessary from a humane standpoint.

W. Gross Mingle Leaves the Bank.

W. Gross Mingle, who has been assistant cashier of the Penns' Valley Banking Company for the last three years, will leave that financial institution on Saturday. He filled the position in a most creditable manner and proved a correct accountant. Chas. Bartholomew, who has been doing clerical work in the bank for some time, will be promoted to fill the position thus vacated. Mr. Mingle will embark in other business, announcement of which will be made later.

No Change in Insurance Rate.

The question discussed in Centre County Pomona Grange, relative to increasing the tax rate of insurance where buildings are not protected by lightning rods, resulted in the measure being indefinitely postponed. The Grange Insurance Company is doing an extensive business, and has had the good fortune to have a very low rate of insurance. The company officials conduct the business in a very economical manner, pay their losses quickly and do not quibble in making adjustments, all of which greatly aids in building up the business of the concern.

SUPPOSED ROBBERS ARRESTED.

Two Tramps Arrested Below Coburn on the Charge of Robbing the Post Office.

Last Friday word was received here that several suspicious-looking tramps had been seen in the vicinity of Millheim. W. Gross Mingle and B. D. Brisbin at once started for that place with the hope of catching the tramps who were in town on the day of the postoffice robbery. When they arrived in Millheim they learned that the tramps had gone in the direction of Coburn. Constable Leitzell, of Millheim, was taken along and the tramps were found in an old saw mill below Coburn. The tramps offered no resistance and were brought directly to Centre Hall. Here they gave their names as Charles O'Hara, of Philadelphia, and John Malloy, tourist. The surrounding circumstances warranted Justice of the Peace Mingle in committing them to jail to await a hearing before the United States Marshall. On Saturday they were taken to Williamsport, where Commissioner Bentley fixed the time for the hearing on Monday, Sept. 3. These tramps were loafing about town on the day of the robbery, selling needles, pins, etc., and one of them spent some time in the foundry, from which place the tools used in robbing the safe were taken. These tramps were evidently not in town for their health, and hereafter the authorities should keep a close watch on all suspicious characters.

A Well-Known Pastor Dies.

Rev. W. O. Wright, for over thirty years pastor of the Presbyterian church at Milesburg, died in the Presbyterian hospital, at Philadelphia last Thursday. Rev. Wright and family moved to Philadelphia last fall, he having given up his work as pastor on account of ill health.

Christian Endeavorers at Millheim.

The ninth annual convention of the Keystone League of Christian Endeavor of the Central Penna. District of the United Evangelical Church, will meet in Millheim on September 11th to 14th. About one hundred delegates are expected to attend, among them Bishop Dubbs and other prominent men in the church.

Struck by Lightning.

During the heavy storm on Monday morning a horse belonging to J. S. Herman, of Lemont, was struck by lightning and instantly killed. The residence of Mrs. John Moore, of the same place, was also struck and some of the plastering in a room burned off. A stable belonging to John Getz, of the same place, was also struck by lightning and burned to the ground.

Firemen's Convention at Phillipsburg.

The Central Pennsylvania Firemen's convention held at Phillipsburg last week attracted the largest crowd ever convened in that town. The Logans, of Bellefonte, won the prize for the best equipped company in the parade. The Pleasant Gap band was adjudged the best band in the contest. The district will not be enlarged. Du Bois was chosen as the place for holding the convention next year.

Saved a Child in Peril.

A team of horses hitched to a spring wagon and driven by Samuel Koeh became frightened at an approaching freight train at the station. The horses began to kick and tear up in general and for a time it looked as though the consequences would be serious. On the wagon was a little child, daughter of Mr. Frank Fisher, of Penn Hall, and her life was in imminent danger. Seeing her predicament, Thos. G. Wilson made a dash for the vehicle, seized the little one and landed her in safety. It was a heroic deed on the part of Mr. Wilson.

Cemetery Improvements.

The cemetery has been enclosed by a new fence and now looks somewhat better than it did before. The association could yet improve it with little expense by planting trees and laying out drives and walks. The people of the community seem to be taking a greater interest in fixing up their cemetery lots and the association should do all in its power to make the cemetery look as neat as possible. It is hoped that in a few years an iron fence can be built. That, with an arched gateway and ornamental trees would make our city of the dead as beautiful as any in the county.

Seriously Kicked by a Horse.

Phillip Leister met with a serious accident while crossing the Seven Mountains Sunday afternoon. He was riding a horse which he had just obtained across the mountain, when the horse became frightened at something in the road, and threw him heavily to the ground. In attempting to disentangle himself from the stirrup the horse kicked him on the head, fracturing his skull. Mr. Leister managed to walk back to Thomas Decker's and was then brought to Pottery Mills, where Dr. H. S. Alexander dressed the wounds. He was brought to his home in Centre Hall on Monday, and is getting along as well as can be expected.

A large crowd is attending the Business Men's Picnic at Hecla Park today. The program of entertainment has attracted people from all over the county.

GRANGE ENCAMPMENT

And Inter-County Fair Opens September 15.—An Interesting Program.

The arrangements for the Grange Encampment and Inter-County Fair at Grange Park, Centre Hall, Pa., are being perfected, and is now an assured success. One hundred tents are already engaged and orders are coming in nearly every day. The program will be the most interesting and instructive that has been prepared for years.

Camp will be opened Saturday, Sept. 15th. Sunday will be devoted to religious services; Monday, 17th, the exhibition proper will open; Monday evening the entertainments will open in the auditorium. On Tuesday the program of lectures and addresses will begin.

The speakers who will conduct these daily meetings are among the most prominent in the state. Both ladies and gentlemen have been secured as instructors. The Grange will have the most prominent part in the program.

The Pure Butter Protective Association has asked to join in this gathering and have been assigned Thursday afternoon. The oleo fraud will be uncovered and exposed in its true hideousness, showing how the farmers are despoiled of their butter markets. Every farmer and citizen interested in good government should be present to hear the true inwardness of the oleo counterfeit swindlers.

FLAG EXHIBIT.

The flags of the Republics of the three Americas, and two new flags—one designed for the County Pomona Grange and the other for Subordinate Granges. These will be the handsomest flags ever designed for any society and will be on exhibition for the first time. A confederate flag will also be on exhibition which will give those present an opportunity to see the banner of the South which led the confederate hosts in the great struggle in the sixties.

STATE COLLEGE EXHIBITS.

The State College and State Agricultural Experiment Station will make a large display of the work of the College and Experiment Station, which will be worth the trip alone to the Grange encampment. Especially should every farmer and lover of plants visit this department and learn of the many varieties of plants, fruits and cereals.

POULTRY EXHIBIT.

Over a hundred birds have already been pledged for the poultry show, many of which are new varieties in this section. From present indications the exhibit will run up to two hundred birds.

LIVE STOCK.

The exhibit of sheep and swine will be larger than last year. The great drought of the present season is against the exhibit of cattle, still there is the assurance of some fine herds, and may yet be an important part of the Grange fair.

Exhibit of musical instruments, bicycles and domestic manufactures will be larger than former years as every available space is already engaged requiring the erection of new, temporary buildings. Among the exhibitors in these departments will be Thornton Barnes, of Philadelphia; Garites & Son of Philadelphia; Demorest Sewing Machine Co., of Williamsport; Weaver Organ Co., of York; W. A. Huber, of Mechanicsburg; Irvin Hardware Co., of Centre Hall; H. A. Deltzer, of Lebanon; John Kennedy, Centre Hall; Vermont Farm Machine Co.; Johnston Harvester Co.; Safety Buggy Co.; Walker Buggy Co., Cincinnati, Ohio. Besides these a large number of applications for exhibition privileges are in process of arrangement which will be announced as soon as completed.

ACETYLENE GAS PLANT.

One of the most interesting exhibits will be the acetylene gas plant for the lighting of country homes, by C. K. Sober, the great lumberman of Lewisburg. The grounds and auditorium will be lighted with this gas and at head quarters large lights will be placed. Mr. Sober will be present to explain the workings of the system, and farmers should make a thorough examination.

Parties desiring information should write to the chairman at Centre Hall, Pa.

Gold in Pennsylvania.

During the past few months rumors of gold found in the Roaring Creek Valley, near Catawissa, caused no little excitement, but last week these rumors were verified by an analysis which came from an assaying firm at Philadelphia showing that there really was some yellow metal on the farm of Simon Shive. Every one who owns land in that section is now looking for gold.

Ed. Nearhood will have a full stock of cantaloupes and watermelons Saturday.
