School Shoes

VE'VE just opened a line of the noblest shoes f r school boys and girs that we have ever shown at any price. and these are not the most expensive sorts, either.

* The man who owns and runs the factory in which these shoes were produced has been a practical shoemgker all his life. He used to make shoes by hand and did loads of cobbling for school children. It was during his early days that he studied the needs of children add saw the need of better shoes than had been made for the youngsters.

the commonplace, clumsy shoes usually turned out for children.

82 pays for a pair of the best in the lot. Some are $1.75, $1.50, $1.25 and $1.00, all very low-priced when the quality is considered.

Will you come in and look at them?

An interesting program has been arranged for the Veterans' reunion Saturday at Hecla Park. A train will return Saturday evening to Spring Mills and farther if necessary.

The Dandy Band,

The Colyer's Mills cornet band is a dandy-dandy players, dandy boys. Their uniforms look splendid. All told, the Colyer band is in it. Although just a new organization, there is musical talent in many of the members not often found in a country band.

Meeting of Grange Lecturers.

The Lecturers of the Subordinate Granges are requested to meet in the auditorium, Grange Park, Wednesday, Sept. 19, for the purpose of conferring with master, lecturer, and secretary of Pomona Grange to arrange for a series of grange meetings to be held throughout the county this fall.

The Burchfields.

A number of representatives of the Burchfield family were in camp recently at Shingletown, and appointed that place for a reunion of the family next August. Edward Burchfield, of Altoona, was selected president; vice presidents, Miss Priscilla Stewart, Mrs. Effie Jacobs, Mrs. Nora Felty; treasurer, G. W. McWilliams; secretaries, W. E.
