

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS., Sept. 13.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

Helen Sandoe, daughter of W. A. Sandoe, was confined to bed last week from dysentery.

Miss Belle Schaffer, of Nittany Hall is visiting her friend Miss Catharine Orwig at Lewisburg.

Miss May Baldwin, of Lock Haven, has been elected teacher of the intermediate school at Beech Creek.

Hon. B. K. Focht, of Lewistown, was renominated for State Senate at Lewisburg without opposition.

John Bitner, west of town, has been ill for the past ten days. At one time his condition was rather serious.

Rev. Brown, of Aaronsburg, participated in the installation ceremony of Rev. K. Otis Spessard, at Millinburg.

Wm. Rauchau, of near Madisonburg was a caller Tuesday and substantially expressed his appreciation of the Reporter.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Henney returned Monday from their honeymoon trip, after an absence of near two weeks.

Rev. W. M. Spangler, of Salona, has accepted a charge at Williamsburg. He served the Salona charge for six years.

Rev. Schuyler and Rev. G. W. Kersbner attended the Christian Endeavor convention at Bellefonte last Thursday.

Mr. Daniel Jows was in Centre county over Sunday. It begins to look serious, Uncle Daniel.—Millinburg Times.

Mrs. Ruth Sharp, widow of George Sharp, died Friday evening at ten o'clock at the home of her son, James Sharp, at Coleville.

Ed Royer is operating the saw again on Colyer's mill. Mr. Royer is an expert at the business and can saw all out of a log there is in it and in a short time.

George R. Stover joined his wife and family here on Saturday evening, says the Millinburg Times, spent Sunday and all returned home to Coburn Monday morning.

Ed Zimmerman left Millheim for Nipton, Cambria county, to run the saw mill on the lumber job at that place, which recently has been purchased by Charles Harter, of Loganton.

F. S. Tomlinson, wife and children drove from Clearfield to Aaronsburg last week, and were guests at the home of Mrs. Tomlinson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Noah Leitzell.

The members of St. Johns Reformed church of Bellefonte, tendered a reception to their popular pastor, Rev. T. Levan Biekel, upon his return from a three months' European trip.

Miss Della Bartges entertained a number of young people last week from Centre Hall at the home of her parents near this place. Miss Della is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Bartges and is popular among the young people of this community.

Dr. G. W. Hosterman put down a stone walk in front of his residence that can't be beat in the town. The material used is five-foot flag stones from the Jersey Mills quarry. The Dr. will also lay stone walks to the stable and on the side street.

Mrs. Wolf and little babe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Durst, of this place, are home to spend some time with her parents. Rev. Wolf, who has been granted a vacation from his reformed charge at Kaiser, W. Va., will come on later and remain a short time.

Among other Huntingdon visitors to the fair on Friday were Sheriff Brungart and county superintendent C. L. Gramley, of Rebersburg, two of Centre county's representative citizens. That is what the Huntingdon Semi-Weekly News says, and its judgment is correct.

The Reformed Christian Endeavor Society was represented at Bellefonte at the convention by Irvin Mussler and Miss Agnes Murray. Misses Grace Smith and Jennie Odenkirk, Mrs. Frank Bradford, Mrs. Charles Arney, G. O. Benner and T. G. Wilson represented the Presbyterian Society.

Miss Mary Maude Rice, of Reedsville, and Davis Brower Longaker, will be married in the Presbyterian church, Reedsville, September 13, at seven o'clock. Reception immediately after the ceremony, at the home of the bride's parents. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Clifford Rice and is well known in social circles in Millinburg county. She is a graduate of W. Chester Normal and taught school for several years in an institution near Philadelphia.

John Keller filled the appointment in the Reformed church Sunday evening in a most creditable way. Mr. Keller has yet one year in the theological seminary, before being admitted to the ministry but he handled his subject Sunday evening in such a way that none of his listeners would judge him a student without personal knowledge of that fact. Mr. Keller is a young man who, without doubt, in the future will be heard from in the ministerial rank of the highest class.

W. A. From, of Millinburg, transacted business at Coburn one day last week.

A. S. Kerlin, who has been confined to the house for some months, is not gaining strength.

Samuel Diehl, of Bellefonte, accompanied by Mr. Rhoads, of Axemann, were in town Monday.

Wm. C. Schuyler, son of Rev. Dr. Schuyler, will return to Hamilton College, N. Y., Friday of this week.

Alpha, a child of C. C. Small, of Rebersburg, is quite ill with typhoid fever. Robert, son of Charles Small, who had been very ill, is recovering.

Harry Potter, son of J. T. Potter, west of town, came home from Lebanon Business College to attend picnic.

Miss Lizzie Burkholder, of Centre Hill, who had been confined to her bed for a week or more, is able to be about again.

J. Emory Hoy, husband of Mrs. Anna Mingle Hoy, is due at the Mingle home Saturday, for a stay over Grange Encampment.

Miss Elsie Gearis returned home from Reedsville where she had been staying for some time. She was accompanied by Miss Annie Mowery, of Lewistown.

Wm. Singler, of Reedsville, was in town Tuesday on business. He expects to open a general blacksmith shop near that place and came here to do some trading with W. W. Boob.

John S. Hosterman, son of Dr. G. W. Hosterman of this place, will enter the Freshman class of Franklin and Marshall College, at Lancaster. He leaves for that place this week, and expects to study for the ministry.

John S. Auman has been unable to attend to business at his flour and chop mill for the past ten days owing to illness, which, however, is not of a serious nature. Mr. Auman handles the Phoenix mill feeds which are the best on the market.

R. H. Billmyer and Mrs. Agnes Billmyer returned to Coburn from Endon, North Carolina, last Saturday morning. Mr. Billmyer was engaged in overseeing a large lumber operation at that place, but taking sick concluded to come north to recuperate.

Rev. A. A. Kerlin and son Percival, of Sharpsburg, Md., are here on a visit to A. S. Kerlin, a brother. Rev. Kerlin has a charge in Maryland in which he is very popular. He reports peaches wonderfully plenty in his state, and that hundreds of bushels are going to waste.

Rankletown, as the scribe of High valley has dubbed a certain place along the railroad south of this place, was well represented in the town one evening last week, at the justice's office. After all it was "much ado about nothing."

The straw hat and the linen pants, will soon be retired.

The summer girl will soon be a back number.

Miss Annie Beechey went to Millinburg Monday. Al says life is not worth living since she has gone.
