

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS., SEPT. 20.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

Wm. Lee, of Colyer, was a caller Thursday and had a kind word to say for the Reporter.

Hugh Hamilton, of State College, visited his sister, Mrs. James Goodhart, at Lewistown.

Miss Jennie Longacre, one of the public school teachers in Bellefonte, is the guest of Mrs. L. C. Irvin.

Wm. Bun Fischer, son of Rev. W. E. Fischer, of Shamokin, D. D., is a student at Gettysburg College.

Margaret Bolander, of Middleburg, assistant postmistress at that place, is a visitor at the Geiss home.

Mrs. Dr. Ward, of Bellefonte, came to town Friday to see her aged mother, Mrs. Mary Stiver, on Church street.

Miss Jennie Gill, of Milroy, is spending a week with her sister, Mrs. Isaac Shawver, at this place, and called at the Reporter office.

The veteran Wm. Knofsinger, of Pleasant Gap, took in the picnic and did not fail to remember the Reporter both socially and financially.

The marriage of Miss Winifred Neubaker, of Danville, and J. Malcolm Laurie, of Bellefonte, took place at Danville yesterday (Wednesday).

County Commissioner Heckman finished delivering assessors' blanks in Penns Valley Friday, and stopped over in Centre Hall for several hours.

Charles Bitner, of Potters Mills, a young man of more than ordinary ability, and who keeps well posted in current affairs, was a caller Thursday.

William C. Schuyler remained with his parents until Tuesday of this week when he returned to New York, to take his place as a Sophomore in Hamilton College.

Professor Theodore E. Hamilton, a graduate of Harvard and of the Missouri State University, is the new instructor in modern languages at Bucknell University.

Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Rearick, and Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Rossman, of Tusseyville, drove to Snyder county last Thursday, where they spent several days among friends.

The Freeburg correspondent to the Middleburg Post says: Mr. Keister and Mrs. Mary Hartman, of Centre county, visited with C. W. Bassler and wife over Sunday.

While opening a jar of fruit Joseph Relp, Jr., of near Reedsville, severed two arteries by the glass crushing in his hand and almost bled to death ere medical aid was procured.

Nelson W. Williams and Miss Minnie E. Houtz, both of Lemont, were married Wednesday of last week at the Lutheran parsonage at Pine Grove Mills, by Rev. C. T. Aikens.

J. I. Condo, of Spring Mills, was up to the picnic and Reporter office Tuesday. Mr. Condo is failing in health and has given up the blacksmithing which he followed for many years.

W. C. Farner, of Colyer, was a caller, and states that he has his new house almost completed. Last summer he built a new barn, and in a short time will have a splendid house in which to spend the remainder of his days.

Rev. C. T. Aikens, of Pine Grove Mills, accompanied Messrs. Orie E. Sunday and Wilson Brown, son of A. M. Brown, both of Pennsylvania Furnace, to the Susquehanna University, at Selingsgrove, where they have become students.

Willis Bottorf, who for the past five years has been connected with the hardware store of Potter & Hoy, Bellefonte, as a salesman, resigned his position and will enter State College, where he will take a course in Electrical Engineering.

J. Emory Shires of Roaring Springs, Pa., called Tuesday. Mr. Shires is engaged in farming at that place and reports the crops very fair, and is one of the few farmers who does not condemn farming, but says it is profitable, especially in his locality where milk is the chief product.

George Hyde, of Ridgeway, twenty years old, and worth $2,000,000, and Frances Hanlon, of Lewistown, eighteen years old, daughter of "Pat" Hanlon, a wealthy oil operator, were married at Buffalo, N. Y., last week. It was a runaway marriage, and created considerable sensation.

Prof. A. D. Morrill, who occupies the chair of Biology in Hamilton College, Clinton, New York, who had been spending a few days with his brother-in-law, Rev. W. H. Schuyler, returned to his home last Friday. He was accompanied by his wife and Mrs. M. E. Carver, mother of Mrs. Morrill and Mrs. Schuyler.

Augustus Wolf, of Kayser, W. Va., was a caller Tuesday. Some twenty years ago Mr. Wolf worked at the blacksmith trade with the Harpsters in this place, after which he went south, and at present is conducting an extensive manufacturing concern in his own name. He was an excellent mechanic when here, and that is the basis of his success.

Perry O. Stiver, of Freeport, Ill., came east last week on a visit to his aged mother, Mrs. Mary Stiver, of this place. Mr. Stiver is at present one of the proprietors and editors of the Freeport Bulletin, the leading Democratic weekly of that city, issued daily and weekly. He was formerly county superintendent of public schools and still maintains a great interest in educational affairs. Mr. Stiver's presence here brings to mind his brothers, who attended school at Centre Hall and afterward went west to begin life on the foundations laid here. Rev. Samuel Stiver is conducting a Military Academy, at Banker Hill, Ill.; Dr. William Stiver is practicing medicine at Freeport, Ill.; Dr. Roland J. is following the same profession at Lena, Ill.; Thomas J. Stiver is connected with the University of Denver in the capacity of "Demonstrator of Anatomy," and also has charge of free clinics in nose and throat diseases. David S. Stiver is a prominent dentist in Chicago, and has also invented some valuable apparatus used in his profession.

SPRING MILLS.

O. T. Corman, the reliable merchant had his first drive Friday last, in his handsome buggy, manufactured to order at the Penn Hall carriage works of J. C. Condo. The buggy is remarkably light, yet very substantial, elegantly finished and polished like a mirror. Mr. Corman had it built expressly for his own private use.

The wind storm, cyclonic in character, which came down our valley Wednesday morning last, played havoc with the apple orchards. I question if there are a dozen apples left on all the trees in this neighborhood. The cider press has been running early and late in consequence, but owing to the large quantities of apples being unripe the quality of the cider is questionable. Apple butter boiling is next in order. The exodus from this place to the picnic grounds is quite observable; the pike too, is lively with teams of merry parties going to and fro, and all seem happy.

Mrs. J. C. Lorillard, of Mexico, Pa., is here visiting relatives and friends. Potts and Sinking creeks are almost dry. It puzzles the employes of Allison's mill to operate the plant on even half time, and that is hardly a success. Mrs. Rev. Chilcote, is in Williamsport visiting relatives and friends.

The K. of G. E. talk of having a picnic the last of this month or the first week in October. If it does occur it will be a very enjoyable occasion, for Spring Mills' Castle never does anything by halves. Owing to the Grange picnic, Corman's will not operate their cider press Thursday, but after this week will operate at the different places Tuesday and Thursday of each week.

Monday last we had quite a chill down this way, in fact it was cold. Overcoats and wraps were in great demand.

PENN HALL.

H. F. Weaver, of Lock Haven, was here on a brief business trip last week. E. C. Housman, who recently had his nose broken in a runaway accident is able to be around again.

Two of our women pugilists had a regular "knock out" last Thursday in a potato patch while raising potatoes. However, no one was badly hurt.

I. W. Ziegler, teacher of the Cross Roads school spent Sunday with his parents at Linden Hill.

Geo. W. Sheesley's new cider mill is running full blast, and gives entire satisfaction.

J. C. Condo the bustling coachmaker has more orders for buggies and road wagons than he is able to fill.

Miss Emma Carter who had been stying at the home of James Evans, south of Spring Mills for the last two years, returned to her parental home north of town to remain.

From present indications our section will be well represented at the Grange encampment.

D. A. Ertle made a brief business trip to Howard last week. A bran new baby boy arrived at the home of C. R. Snyder.

Kryder Frank, one of our ambitious young men, accepted a position as clerk in H. F. Rossman's store, at Spring Mills.

Why do not Penn Hall and Spring Mills cooperate and organize a Bryan club?

REBERSBURG.

Mrs. Abner Wolf, of St. Louis, Mo., is visiting at the home of her father, Wm. Bair.

The farmers in this vicinity are almost all done cutting corn, and report the crop a good one.

Mrs. C. C. Bierly is slowly recovering from her recent illness. Guy Roush, of Millinburg, spent a few days among friends in town.

Mrs. Emma Jordan, of Ebensburg, is a pleasant guest at the home of H. W. Corman.

Prof. C. L. Granley removed the fence around his yard recently which makes a marked improvement to his residence.

Miss Aggie Neighart, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is visiting her friend, Miss Eva Meyer.

Rev. Harman preached an excellent sermon Sunday evening, on "The first temptation in the Garden of Eden." It was greatly enjoyed as was shown by his appreciative audience.

H. I. Brungart, agent for the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Co., is a hustler. He has put out a half dozen policies in the last two weeks; we wish him continued success in his business.

Miss Rebecca Moyer left for Bloomsburg, at which place she will attend the Normal this year.

Wallace Brungart who has been employed at Watkins Glen, N. Y., during the summer, is home on a vacation.

Mrs. Maude Koons, of Logan Mills, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Willis Weber.

George Weber and family, of Lock Haven, spent Sunday among friends in town.

Rev. Wetzel, pastor of the Reformed church, preached his Harvest sermon on Sunday morning.

INGLEBY ITEMS.

J. W. Galer and housekeeper moved to Coburn.

H. Eisenhuth has his store house completed. T. O. Keen has no logs at his mill and must close down until he gets some in.

Wm. Koonsman is going to improve the property bought from T. O. Keen. Dr. Barker husked corn this week; he has No. 1 corn.

An epidemic of diphtheria threatens Carlisle. Thirteen cases were reported, some of the cases being black diphtheria. There are numerous cases of typhoid fever also.

The great success of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the treatment of bowel complaints has made it standard over the greater part of the civilized world. For sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hill; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.
