

Dainty Shoes for Dainty Feet.

A young miss with a dainty foot needs and should have a dainty shoe. We are aware that there are more ill-shaped, poor-fitting Misses Shoes than any other kind.

Our Fall Styles are Very Pretty.

All suitable leathers; all suitable lasts; every desirable toe and heel, and at pleasing prices. Come, see about it.

MINGLE'S SHOE STORE.

William S. Gray.

William S. Gray, a prominent resident of Stormstown, died Monday of last week. He was aged seventy-two years.

Four hundred bushels choice potatoes can be bought free on board at Centre Hall. All one variety—Rural New York. Address this office.

Fall Millinery Stock.

Mrs. Lucy Henney has on hand a choice selection of Fall millinery goods which are offered at the most reasonable prices. Stock all new and up to date.

Rev. Gotwald Dead.

Word has been received of the death of Rev. Dr. Luther A. Gotwald, formerly of the Aronsburg family of that name. He has been a prominent Lutheran minister living in Ohio, but has been in poor health for a number of years.

Looking Ahead.

The Milroy correspondent to the Lewistown Gazette says, L. F. Treasurer and H. C. Kulp have purchased the Foust property on the top of the Seven mountains, their object being a summer resort there in the event of the proposed trolley road being built across the mountains.

Young Lawyer Dies.

James W. Alexander, a prominent young attorney of Bellefonte, died last Friday afternoon, after an illness of twenty-four hours. He was thirty-six years of age and the only son of the late State Senator Cyrus T. Alexander.

Some Fine Horses.

J. H. Darrow on Saturday shipped a car of the finest draft horses sent out from this station in a number of years. The average price paid was $112.00.

Clinton County Tobacco Crop.

Six townships in Clinton county had a total acreage of 845 acres planted in tobacco this season, with an average estimated yield of 1,000 pounds per acre. The crop will sell at about ten cents per pound, making a total of $84,500 for the entire crop of the county, which is $35,000 less than the value of the crop in 1899.

Memorial Services.

The memorial services for Miss Elsie Homan, who died August 4 took place Sunday forenoon in the Lutheran church at this place. The audience room was filled, many of those in attendance being young people and associates of the deceased.

Own Your Own Homes.

There seems to be a commendable disposition among laboring men and mechanics in this community to own their own properties, and many of them are making efforts toward that end. Nothing is better for a town than for a great majority of its residents to be property owners.

RURAL MAIL DELIVERY.

Centre Hall the Central Point. South Side Well Served.

The Route as Laid Out at Present will Cover a Large Territory.

Rural mail delivery will be in operation through a large portion of Potter township within a short time. Frank I. Taylor, of Media, an agent of the rural mail delivery department of the postoffice department, came here Tuesday and on Wednesday went over the territory which will be served by the rural delivery.

The route as laid out at present is appended. There may be slight deviations. The delivery will be made daily.

ROBBERS FOILED.

Seven Attempts to Blow Open a Safe Prove Fruitless.

Seven explosions fail to blow open the safe in the Bald Eagle railroad station at Mill Hall Thursday night of last week. The burglars discovered four young men in a freight car and ordered them to keep quiet, or their heads would be blown off, after which the car door was shut and fastened on the outside.

Suicide at Adamsburg.

Isaac Saltsman, a blacksmith and carriage maker, of Adamsburg, Snyder county, committed suicide by firing a ball from a 32-caliber revolver into his head a little back of the temple, Thursday morning of last week.

Cut an Artery.

Harry Harper last week cut an artery in the lower part of the left leg, and lost a large quantity of blood. He and some other young men were sitting on the school house steps talking, and while so doing young Harper amused himself by thrusting his knife blade into a piece of board.

A Curious Case of Skin-Shedding.

A resident of Clark county, Missouri, S. O. Buskirk, has shed his skin annually since his birth, which occurred in 1850, says the Scientific American. The operation requires several days, and for the last five years has begun exactly on June 27.

Smith, the Photographer.

Will be at his Centre Hall studio, from Tuesday until Friday during the Grange picnic. A fine time to have a family group taken. We will also make the popular penny photos at that time.

COLLEGES OPEN.

The Attendance Large. Many Young Men Preparing for Active Life.

Pennsylvania State college opened with 130 students in the freshman class, making the total number of students over 400. President George W. Atherton opened the school year with chapel services after which General James A. Beaver made a half hour's address.

Franklin and Marshall College opened last week when Professor R. C. Scheidt, of the science department, delivered an address before the students on "The Historical development of Thought in the College." The outlook for a successful year was never more flattering.

Lafayette College, Easton, opened with 150 new students, the freshman class being the largest in the history of the institution. President Warfield conducted the opening exercises in the chapel, the interior of which has been very much beautified owing to the generosity of John H. Converse, of Philadelphia, who sent the college a check for $500 for the purpose.

BOALSBURG.

The combined Reformed picnic held in McFarlane's grove Saturday Sept. 15, was quite a success, being well represented by the following congregations: Boalsburg, Pine Grove Mills, Pine Hall and Houseville. All enjoyed the outing and were glad to meet the representatives of the sister congregations.

Miss Gray, of Milesburg, is visiting in town. Miss Hattie Wagner, of Bellefonte, is visiting at the home of Miss Mary Hosterman. The people here were treated to an exciting game of ball Saturday, between the B. H. S. team and the Pine Grove, which resulted in 6 to 2 in favor of the B. H. S. team.

LINDEN HALL.

David Zeigler, of Lock Haven, was the guest of his uncle, Henry Zeigler, east of town last week. Mrs. George Swabb, who has been very ill with dysentery, is convalescing.

S. PAUL DINGES HONORED.

A Young Man Raised and Educated in Centre Hall a Legislative Candidate.

"The Index," a publication in the interest of Prohibition issued monthly at Williamsport, says:

"S. Paul Dinges, one of the bright young business men of Williamsport, is deservedly held in high esteem. He was born in 1873, at Centre Hall, in Centre county, Pa., and came to Williamsport in 1889 to engage with his brother in general insurance. He is now the active and successful general agent of the North Western Life Insurance Co. for North Central Penna., and all Prohibitionists would be proud of him as a representative of this county in the state legislature."

POSTAL SERVICE.

Some Interesting Figures Based on the Closest Calculations.

The annual weight of the mail carried in the United States is 664,286,868 pounds. To transport it would require 33,214 freight cars forming a train 300 miles long, hauled by 500 locomotives having 500,000 horse power.

The 6,576,310,000 pieces of mail carried annually, placed together would make a band seven feet wide around the world.

The daily travel on railroads is 813,000 miles, a distance thirty-two times around the world.
