A NOTABLE CONVERT.

One of the latest converts to Bryan is Col. Thomas Wentworth Higginson of Boston, Mass., who supported McKinley in 1880, and has always been very independent politically.

Col. Higginson was a brave soldier of the rebellion, a leading and influential citizen of his native state, and was a member of that famous literary coterie composed of Emerson, Longfellow, Lowell, Oliver Wendell Holmes, and other worthies who shed imperishable lustre on Boston and the entire human race.

What did Hastings when governor do for you, Democrats, that you should aid him in electing his men, Messrs. Allison and Thompson to the legislature? If you would have asked an appointment, clerkship, or any substantial favor, he would have told you, "those snaps are for Republicans."

Why then should any Democrat aid in furthering Hastings' interests by supporting his legislative candidates? Our teacher, Calvin Spicher, had no school on Thursday last, in order that he and his pupils might attend the picnic.

The potato crop in this part of the township is the poorest for many years. Lloyd Kerlin, formerly of this place, but who now lives in Juniata county, came over to attend the picnic and also to visit relatives a short time.

The Colyer band contemplates holding an oyster festival some time in the near future. Rev. Rhoads will hold communion services in the United Evangelical church at this place on Sunday.

The Fleisher farms near this place, will be offered at public sale Saturday next. Already an offer of sixty dollars per acre has been made for one and sixty-five for the other.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Rossman and C. S. Fortney and family made a trip to Mifflin county Monday, to visit Mr. Rossman's brother Calvin, who lives at Siglevilla.

Our huckster W. F. Rockey, whose barn and other buildings burned in June, has rebuilt his barn, repaired his cold storage house, and has just completed a large shed.

Wm. McKinney and brother Clayton and family, of Altoona, are spending their vacation with their parents at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Burkim, of Altoona, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. McClenahan.

Wm. Decker and wife are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clark. Miss Zora Heckman, who attended the picnic, and spent several days at this place with her sister, Mrs. Reish, returned to her home at Sunbury Saturday.

Miss Margaret Evans spent several days with her friend Gertrude Spangler, at Centre Hall.

Wm. Allison and sons Frank and Willie, of Spring Mills, spent Sunday with his brother Edward; also Dr. Alexander and wife, of Centre Hall.

Homer Decker, son of landlord Jas. Decker, of Pine Grove Mills, was in town Sunday on his wheel. In coming through the mountain he broke his wheel and had to walk home, a distance of fifteen miles.

The parties who had their cattle in the Seven mountains during the summer brought them out Saturday. A fine herd of about one hundred and fifty.

John Auman wears a broad smile, and says "it is a girl." The Louis Crescent show gave a performance here Thursday evening and was very good; their Italian band rendered fine music.

ANTI TRUST LEAGUE FOR BRYAN.

The National Executive Committee of the Anti-Trust League at a meeting held in Chicago a few days ago endorsed Bryan and Stevenson, and pledged the active support of the League to the Democratic candidates.

We quote below the substance of the address issued to the people of the United States: "It is deplorably evident that the entire course of William McKinley as President of the United States proves him to be distinctly hostile to each and all of the principles and declarations of the platform of the American Anti-Trust League."

"It is notorious that his closest counselor and manager is Senator Marcus A. Hanna, the promoter of many and the recognized political agent and representative of all the great monopolies of the nation."

"The members of his cabinet are instruments of trusts. His Secretary of State is the special champion and friend of British Tory interests. His Secretary of the Treasury is the subservient tool of the great banks and the money monopoly of the world."

"The platform upon which he stands is totally nervous in its anti-trust provision, and wholly void of effectiveness as to remedies suggested."

"Contrasting the nominee of the other great political party with William McKinley, we are convinced that William Jennings Bryan is the uncompromising foe of the great monopoly. His courage is recognized as being unsurpassed, and we believe that his resolve to liberate the American people from the curse of monopoly cannot be shaken."

"In view of these facts, the American Anti-Trust League does hereby endorse the candidacy of William Jennings Bryan for President and Adlai E. Stevenson for Vice President, and pledge them the loyal and active support of the League."

The American Anti-Trust League has a strong organization, extending over every state in the Union, and this endorsement will add strength to the Democratic ticket. The League is especially strong in the middle west and in New York, where the contest will likely be determined, for the one side or the other. We need not comment upon the motive of this endorsement of Bryan and Stevenson, the resolutions speak for themselves.

Richard Croker has already wagered $80,000 that Bryan will be elected. He has the utmost confidence that New York will be for Bryan, and promises that the majority below the Harlem river will be over 100,000.

Our teacher, Calvin Spicher, had no school on Thursday last, in order that he and his pupils might attend the picnic.

COBURN

Mrs. A. J. Campbell and her sister Miss Scholl, both of Shamokin, are sojourning with friends at this place.

The evaporating plant at this place commenced business last week one day. The price paid for apples at present is 12 cents per 100 pounds.

The potato market seems brisk. Messrs. Hoy, of Millheim, shipped two car loads last week, and P. H. Stover shipped a car load Wednesday of this week.

A meeting has been called for Friday evening, to all Democratic voters in Penn township, to assemble at the school house at this place to try and organize a Bryan Club. All loyal Democrats will please take note of this and come.

Rev. Gearhart will leave on Wednesday for New Berlin, to be present at the Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran church, of Central Pennsylvania, which convenes at that place on Wednesday evening to continue over Sunday.

The 12th Regiment N. G. P. has been called out to quell the riots in the Anthracite coal regions. T. B. Everett of this place, is a member of the company stationed at Williamsport, and he is expecting a call. His company left on a rush order on Saturday, but for some reason he was not yet notified.

Harvey Reiter and W. H. Snively left for Lewisburg Monday morning, and will operate a refreshment stand at the Union county fair, for James Burd, of this place.

Miss Minnie Neese, of near Penn Hall, is doing the work for Levi Spigelmeyer during his wife's sickness.

Prof. A. J. Harter, of Altoona, is home on a visit to his parents.

Work was resumed on the water line one day last week, and it will now be pushed to completion as rapidly as possible, so that the work may be completed before cold weather sets in.

PENN HALL.

John Hosterman and C. R. Snyder are the happiest men in town, because each one says, "it's a boy."

Lot Condo has been laid up with a severe attack of quinsy.

Mrs. George Taylor and son Loane, of Filmore, are visiting relatives and friends in and about town.

Jacob F. Bitner left for Lancaster, where he was admitted to the freshman class of Franklin and Marshall College. Mr. Bitner is a talented young man and we wish him success during his college career.

The cider press at the lower end of town is running full time on Tuesday and Thursday of every week. The average run of cider thus far has been from 1600 to 2000 gallons per day.

Prof. P. O. Stiver, of Freeport, Ill., was in town last week, hunting up his old friends and acquaintances. Mr. Stiver was at one time a student at the old Penn Hall Academy.

The Penn Hall carriage works has had quite a run in the line of buggies the last week, five of which were new, and four second hand jobs. The proprietor, Mr. Condo, has the reputation of using nothing but the best stock on the market, and this is what has given him the extensive trade he carries.

Miss Jennie C. Bitner, the accomplished daughter of J. K. Bitner, left for Allentown, Pa., where she will spend a week visiting at the home of Mrs. Medlar.

Hon. James A. Kerr, secretary of the National Democratic congressional campaign committee, has issued the following proposition: To bet $1,000 even that he can name thirteen states that will go for Bryan; $1,000 even that he can name thirteen that will go for McKinley, and $1,000 to $4,000 that Bryan will carry the other nineteen states.

A Word to Mothers. Mothers of children affected with croup or severe cold need not hesitate to administer Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It contains no opiate nor narcotic in any form and may be given as confidently to the babe as to an adult. The great success that has attended its use in the treatment of colds and croup has won for it the approval and praise it has received throughout the United States and in many foreign lands. For sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.
