

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS., Sept. 27.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

Miss Mary Feese, of Colyer, is the guest of E. W. Crawford and family.

George O. Benner, proprietor of the Star store, is attending the Lewisburg fair.

Miss Maude Neff, daughter of John Neff, deceased of Big Run, is stopping with the family of W. A. Sandoe.

D. Wagner Geiss, who is doing clerical work in the coal office of Edward K. Rhoads, was home over Sunday.

Mrs. Jeff Shaffer and two interesting little children, of Lewistown, are stopping with friends in Centre Hall.

Mother Alters and daughter, Mrs. Thomas Kennelley, of Spring Mills, visited at the home of J. M. Alters last week.

John Wolf, of Potters Mills, and Mr. Dreese, who hails from the south, went to Williamsport Monday to secure employment.

Mrs. Ida Lambert and children and Miss Agold, of Williamsport, spent a few days at the home of Mrs. Lambert's mother, Mrs. Fannie Colyer, at Colyer.

Charles Miller, who is traveling with Arthur B. Lee's threshing outfit, was a caller last week, and reports that Mr. Lee's machines have quite a lot of work to do.

Miss Lizzie Harpster, of Missoula, Montana, who came east last week with her brother-in-law, Jerry Miller, went to Harrisburg Saturday to pay a visit to her sister, Mrs. Dr. Widder.

Mrs. Ida Rhoads made good use of her musical abilities in the auditorium last week. Miss Rhoads is a well equipped musician, and can handle a number of musical instruments with great skill.

Perry J. Alters, son of J. M. Alters, of this place, who has been in Altoona for some time in the employ of the Pennsylvania railroad, returned to his home on account of ill health and will attend the high school here.

John Van Pelt, who spends most of his time in Hastings, was here over the picnic. He had a number of Bellefonte chums with him for several days. Monday he went to Bellefonte to continue his studies at the Academy.

Mrs. Beaty, of Spring Mills, was one of those from that place who attended the picnic. Her daughter, Mrs. Ellis Hazell, of Everling, Ohio, expects to come east to spend a short time this fall. She also has a son, Daniel Beaty, at Bellevue, Ohio.

Dr. J. R. Gast and wife, of Millinburg, after a six months' rest in California during the past winter, and summering at their cottage in Delaware, returned home last week and took time to call on their Centre Hall friends during picnic.

Squire Fergus Potter called on the Reporter Monday. He reports the political horizon clear in his bailiwick for the entire Democratic ticket. Squire Potter is a Democrat from principle and feels that all will be better off if Bryan is elected.

R. B. Spangler and wife, of Hastings, were the guests of ex-Sheriff Spangler, of this place. They arrived Saturday and remained for a short time. Mr. Spangler holds an important position at Hastings, but finds time about once a year to come home to see his parents.

Isaac Frain, of Abdera, President of the Grange Fire Insurance Company, was a caller last week. Mr. Frain is greatly interested in the welfare of the Democratic county, state and national ticket, and like all right thinking people is of the opinion the tickets will win on their merits.

J. A. Decker, of Pine Grove Mills, was a pleasant caller last week. He is a son of John D. Decker, of near Poters Mills, and conducts a meat market in connection with the Pine Grove Mills hotel. He is one of the contented men in this world and finds much satisfaction in reading the Reporter weekly.

G. G. Gingerich, wife and interesting children, of Clearfield, attended the picnic last week. The family drove here behind as fine a team of bays as stood on the picnic grounds during the week. Mr. Gingerich is a brother of George and Samuel Gingerich of near this place and is engaged in farming, and reports crops very good in that section.

Wm. K. Camp, son of W. R. Camp, of Tyrone, who is the eastern representative of the large confectionary firm of F. W. Rueckheim & Bro., Chicago, called for a brief chat. He reports his father as having a splendid trade in the furniture and undertaking business in Tyrone, and that his brother Harry has secured a position in the main office of Rueckheim Bros.

Wm. Coldren and Benjamin Royer, of near Pleasant Gap, last week returned from a trip to Freeport, Ill., where they spent some time with Joseph Spangler, formerly of near this place. Mr. Coldren, it is reported, seriously contemplates going west to engage in farming. He is at present conducting a large farm, and whatever place he selects to locate in will secure a first-rate citizen and farmer.

Wm. Mulbarger, of Colyer, has secured employment with the Cutps.

Mrs. L. Ray Morgan and little son, Louis, of State College, attended picnic last week.

Miss Verna Durst, daughter of Alfred Durst, has secured a position with W. W. Boob as typewriter and stenographer.

Miss Anna Lutz, daughter of Joseph Lutz, of this place, entered the Reporter office Monday to learn the art of printing.

The Misses Bair were callers at this office Monday. They are Reporter readers and had the address changed from Lemont to Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Moyer, of Colyer, were in Centre Hall Monday to meet their daughter, Miss Mary C., who had been spending several weeks at State College.

A. M. Mott, the marble man of Bellefonte, who has been suffering from an abscess on his leg near the thigh, expects to go to Philadelphia to have an operation performed.

The Juniata peach growers are sending up a wail on account of the very meagre returns received for shipment of peaches to cities. The quotations are fair, but the returns are small.

Mrs. A. M. Wilson, of Lock Haven, called at the Reporter office to show her appreciation of the Reporter. She was formerly of Coburn and is interested in the news of Centre county furnished by the Reporter.

Miss Laura Runkle, of Middleburg, the accomplished daughter of James Runkle formerly of this place, was the guest of the Misses Geiss during last week. Miss Runkle has a host of friends in Centre Hall who are always delighted to see her come to town. She was accompanied by her bosom friend, Miss Carrie Hertzler, who is a charming Jersey City girl.

COLYER.

Jack Weaver intends to close his blacksmith shop in a few weeks and will do blacksmithing for the Culp lumber company in the Seven mountains.

George Meiss is doing quite an extensive business selling Millin county peaches through this valley.

Quite a number of our young men have quit the Culp lumber job and are going to work for the large lumber company now laying their tram road through the Seven mountains.

The new cider mill of W. H. Meyer is in good shape; no lifting of barrels, as he has a cider pump which will pump the cider into the barrel on the wagon. He will make cider Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Any one desiring to buy a good property of thirty-three acres of land, peach orchard, good buildings, bank barn with straw shed attached, apply to Henry Meyer of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Meyer, of Centre Hall, spent Sunday at Wm. Lee's.

Howard Lingle and wife left this week for Union county, also Calvin Ruhl and wife; they intend to spend several days at the Lewisburg fair.

Mrs. James Horner visited her mother at Pleasant Gap on Saturday, who is very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Forry and grandchild, of Hellan, York county, arrived last week and will remain several weeks visiting friends in this neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. George Weaver, of Spring Mills, were the guests of G. R. Meiss Saturday.

Quite a number of our people attended picnic last week; some report having a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wert, of near Tusseyville, and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Wert, of Millheim, spent Sunday at the home of D. C. Bohn and family.

The people about Colyer do not take kindly to the rural mail delivery.

INGLEBY ITEMS.

James T. Eisenhuth is going to Somerset county Monday to work in the coal mines.

Dr. Barker and H. Eisenhuth are the boss corn farmers at this place.
