HANNA AND THE TRUSTS.

Mr. Hanna in a speech delivered in Chicago a few days ago, said "he did not believe that there was a single trust in the United States," and yet before he finished his speech he charged that Chairman Jones of the Democratic National Committee was at the head of the cotton trust.

J. W. Kepler is abundantly qualified to represent Centre county in the legislature. He will only favor measures that are of benefit to the masses.

J. K. P. Hall has all the qualifications for an ideal congressman. His record in the lower house is absolutely clean; he is the friend of the soldier; he looks after the interests of the lower classes, not simply because it is his duty, but a pleasure; he does not favor trusts and monopolies.

Messrs. Wetzel and Kepler were nominated by the people for the legislature; Messrs. Allison and Thompson were nominated by Hastings. Which two of these candidates are most likely to serve the people best?

If you wish to continue to pay a necessary war tax every time you draw a check, make a note, or execute a legal document then vote for McKinley. But if you are tired of wasting your money to pay this odious and burdensome tax, then vote for Bryan.

Even his enemies concede that Mr. Bryan is incorruptible, and has the courage of his convictions. He says if elected he will do justice to the soldier, and that he will do his utmost to destroy the power of evil in the trusts.

In the salt producing districts of the state of New York many once flourishing towns have been practically depopulated, and hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of property rendered valueless, all because the Salt Trust for the purpose of curtailing the salt production, has purchased the salt mines at these towns, and closed up and dismantled the operations.

Then again, if you are thinking of buying a Dinner Set, don't fail to see the kind we offer. They are the semi-victorious, and of the famous Sebring make and guaranteed not to glaze.

Hastings wants to be a real Quay, and is beginning by dictating to the Republican party who shall be its candidates, under the guise of harmony.

Ex-Pension Commissioner Murphy in a recent interview disclosed the fact that when a committee of G. A. R. called upon President McKinley to induce him to inaugurate a more liberal pension policy, and if necessary to remove the Pension Commissioner, he replied that he could not consider their request, because the "money power" was opposed to the further enlargement of the pension list.

Ralph Gift, of Sunbury, was a guest at the Eutaw house over Sunday.

John Smith, the hustling furniture dealer of Spring Mills, spent Sunday with his brother at this place.

Mr. Hart, of Philadelphia, is visiting Alex McCoy.

We had a fine rain in this part of the valley Saturday; how many of us returned thanks for the blessings of that rain which was so much needed.

Mrs. Tom Farmer visited her parents. Tom Farmer left on Friday; they will move to Philadelphia in a few days, where they will make their future home. Success to them.

It Happened in a Drug Store. "One day last winter a lady came to my drug store and asked for a brand of cough medicine that I did not have in stock," says Mr. C. R. Grandin, the popular druggist of Ontario, N. Y.

"She was disappointed and wanted to know what cough preparation I could recommend. I said to her that I could freely recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and that she could take a bottle of the remedy and after giving it a fair trial if she did not find it worth the money to bring back the bottle and I would refund the price paid. In the course of a day or two the lady came back in company with a friend in need of a cough medicine and advised her to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I consider that a very good recommendation for the remedy." It is for sale by Mrs. J. H. Keller, Linden Hall; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

When you have no appetite, do not relish your food and feel dull after eating you may know that you need a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Price 25 cents. Samples free at Mrs. J. H. Keller's, Linden Hall, and J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.
