THE RIGHT MAN.

Every Democrat in Centre county should vote for Hon. P. Gray Meek tre county for years; he never stood son is not a political ingrate. back to look on, but with his paper, The Democratic Watchman, and all his personal force, entered every contest, county, state and national, to win. He has always been a Democrat -never lukewarm or indifferent-and did all in his power always to wrench the power from the Republicans. A man of the type of P. Gray meek is to be admired by Republicans and Democrats. He never waits until he sees which way the wind blows, but pitches in for Democratic success. If there is a man on either ticket who is deserving of complimentary votes, it is Mr. Meek. Centre county should give its largest vote to him for Auditor General.

MR. ALLISON IS HUMAN.

Mr. Allison says he will not make a personal canvas of the county for the Legislature, but he said he wouldn't be a candidate under any considerations; that he wouldn't take the office if given to him without a cent of expense to him, and so on. Now the Reporter don't mean to say that Mr. Allison is untruthful, because it does not believe that he is, but it does say that Mr. Allison is human and that is right. after ex-Governor Hastings held a conference with him, he decided to run 'for harmony's sake."

The Reporter predicted that Mr. Allison would not be the candidate on the Republican ticket for the Legislature, because he himself said in the most emphatic manner that he would not be. The Reporter was fooled. That's an honest admission, and others had better take warning. Now, if Mr. Hastings says so, Mr. Allison must go out on the road, of course much to his dislike. (?) Mr. Allison is human, nothing more, and can change his mind.

Because Democrats gave Mr. Allison

The Democrats who are personal friends of Mr. Allison and who might ordinarily compliment him with their votes, do not want to approve Hasting's methods, and that safely said that he would be happy to be certain of securing his party vote in November. is right. Mr. Hanna has become quite a cam-paign orator, and makes usually, one speech a day. So far he has failed to explain why he attempted, during the last session of Congress, to deliberate-ly steal the enormous sum of $270,000,-000 from the pockets of the people, by 000 from the pockets of the people, by his pet Ship Subsidy scheme. Perhaps he thinks, that his attempt to turn an honest penny for himself, by incidentally creating a subsidy that would enrich himself, at the expense of the public, is of too little consequence to speak about, when he is so busy caring for the trusts. Little steals like the Hanna Ship Subsidy, complimentary votes for school direct- the Cuban frauds, and the army beef scandals, are too insignificant to be noticed by Mr. Hanna. Grand Olosing Out Sale of Oxfords. In order to make room in our al-

The Republican organs, at the beck of Mark Hanna, are making great ado just now because some miners out in Cripple Creek, Colorado, so far forgot themselves as to pelt Teddy Roosevelt with green groceries and stale eggs. Any conduct of this character is to be condemned by all good people, and it is to be regretted that these miners committed such an overt act, but before the Republicans become too loud in their condemnation, they should recall the fact that during the campaign of 1896 Mr. Bryan was treated to stale eggs by the Republican patriots of Chicago, and that at a meeting where he was the principal speaker he was mobbed by the aristocratic students of Yale, in loyal and cultured New England. Then not a word of condemnation was heard from Hanna and his gang, of these outrages upon Mr. Bryan, but rather commendation for those who, boasting of their intelligence and respectability, had played the rufflan.

The Republicans don't even know who Clearwater is. Why vote for a man for Congress of whom you know absolutely nothing. Every voter in the twenty-eighth district knows that Mr. Hall, the Democratic nominee for Congress, did his fall duty as a Congressman and represented this district with credit.

A vote for Messrs. Wetzel and Kepler means a vote for redistricting the state into congressional and senatorial districts; a vote against Republican mismanagement in state affairs; a vote for equalization of taxes. They are pledged to do that. The Republican candidates have not said a word what they will do in any of these matters. They must wait for orders.

It is important that Hon. J. K. P. Hall be returned to congress. With a Democratic president in. the White House and such men like Mr. Hall in the lower house of congress, we may look for honest legislation that will go # far to relieve the country of its distress-4 ed condition.

Walter Fosnot has become part owner of the Democrat and Sentinel, published in Lewistown the firm being H. J. Fosnot and son. The Democrat and Sentinel is published semiweekly and is a spry paper and sound in Democratic doctrine.
