

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS., OCT. 11.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

F. Kurtz and family moved to Bellefonte last week.

Mrs. John Wagner, of Lancaster, is the guest of the Geiss family.

Miss Lillie Stump is visiting her uncle, Andrew Kuhn, at Rock Forge.

Miss Bertha Weiser has returned to her home in Millheim after a visit to Scranton.

James Laird, of State College moved to his farm near Charter Oak, in Stone valley.

Perry Luse, one of Centre Hall's young mechanics, is in Tyrone doing carpenter work.

R. C. Wagner, son of Jacob Wagner, of near Tusseyville, is a Freshman at State College.

D. J. Neiman, a Millheim merchant, was married to a daughter of Morris Mamoler, of Lock Haven.

Miss Lillie Christine returned to her home at Elysburg, after spending several weeks among friends in Centre Hall.

W. W. Dellett formerly of this place, is now located at Homestead, and thinks the Reporter the proper news-bearer to his home.

George Michael will make sale of his farm stock and implements within a few weeks and go west, possibly to Illinois or Kansas.

P. Gross Yearick, of the extensive coal firm of Yearick Bros., Montgomery Avenue, Philadelphia, is in town, the guest of W. B. Mingle, Esq.

W. A. Odenkirk is taking charge of the railroad office at M'Elhattan, near Lock Haven in the absence of Newton Braucht, formerly of Coburn.

Mrs. Elizabeth Markle, of Pine Grove Mills, died from paralysis. She was aged seventy-seven years, and was highly respected by all acquaintances.

Wm. Lohr and Miss Anna Lohr Saturday morning went to Philadelphia, where they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Lohr for some time.

Paul Murray, who will graduate from the Centre Hall High school in the spring, expects to enter the Freshman class at State College the following fall.

Associate Judge Wilson, of Millin county, is lying seriously ill at his home in McVeytown, suffering from appendicitis. Considerable alarm is felt about his condition.

Henry Hoffmaster, of Spring Mills, was given an increase of pension from $8.00 to $10.00 per month. Prof. W. A. Frise, a registered pension agent of this place, had the case in charge.

John Smith, of the Smith Bros. Printing Company, Reedsville, called Friday. He was accompanied by his wife and children and stopped with John Breon, west of town, for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Forry, of York county, are spending a week with Jonas Bible, near the Red mill. Mr. Forry is spending his time in fishing, at which he is quite an expert, having caught thirty suckers each fifteen inches in length.

Meschant Jerome Spigelmeyer and wife, of Millheim, visited Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bassler, at Freeburg. The Basslers are known here on account of their musical talent exhibited at the musical convention last winter in this place.

Wm. C. Walters has found employment with Messrs. Kulp and Treaster in the Seven mountains. Mr. Walters will drive a team and knows just how to do that. James E. Dugan will also go teaming for the same firm. Both these young men live in Centre Hall and are not afraid of work.

Mrs. E. C. Harter, wife of the junior partner of the firm of George M. Harter & Son, the practical miller at the mill known as the Red mill, was a caller Tuesday. Mrs. Harter brought with her one of the many turtles which were captured in the dam at that place recently, for which the writer returns many thanks.

Samuel Snyder, who has been in Clearfield for the past ten weeks assisting in the construction of the Keystone building in that place, is home for a few days, owing to an attack of catarrh. J. Milton Snyder is also doing carpenter work on the same building. The contract will not be finished until the holidays.

J. B. Fleisher, of Jamestown, New York, executor of the estate of D. Fleisher, deceased, is in town settling up the affairs of the estate, and expects to remain until next week. He is accompanied by his wife and daughter. Mr. Fleisher sold one of the farms of the estate last week for less than half the price paid for it by his father.

Jacob Neese, of Farmers Mills, was a caller Saturday. He is of the opinion, and he has judged rightly, that to ask a complimentary vote for Mr. Allison is asking too much, and more than democracy in his section will do. Mr. Allison got many complimentary votes for school director from Democrats during the past years, but the Legislature is a different thing, you know.

SPRING MILLS.

Chestnuts are worth 7 cents a quart. Milton fair was poorly attended from this section.

Rev. W. Brown's father and brother, of New Berlin, have been visiting here for the past week.

Among those who spent last Friday at the county seat were, Dr. Braucht and wife, Mrs. C. P. Long, W. H. and Michael Smith, and Edward Ruhl and wife. They all pretended to have legal business, but H. Henry Minstrel show was to be there.

Winter apples will be a scarce article; the storm blew them off the trees too early for winter use.

Michael Smith, of Potters Mills, has been with Smith Bros. the past week, helping to deliver furniture.

W. W. Neese has been housed up the past week with erysipelas in his face.

R. G. Kennelly made a business trip to Rebersburg.

C. P. Long harvested from one of his orchards over two hundred bushels of fine winter apples.

Wm. Gramley says it is a girl, and he wears a smile since the new boarder came to his home.

Misses Katie and Renna Shires, two of the accomplished young ladies of Spring Mills, spent an evening with Miss May Smith, at Potters Mills.

Samuel Harter's sale was the largest in attendance in this section; they had one thousand pokes filled with lunch, and had several hundred at the table. Everything brought a good price.

The farmers are busily engaged in threshing their grain in this neighborhood.

Last week O. T. Cornard had the first invoice of oysters for the season, and being a fine lot were soon disposed of.

Why not organize a Bryan club here like other live communities, and then have a half dozen town meetings previous to the election? It should not be considered too long, the time is growing very short.

J. R. Cameron, of Lock Haven, made a visit of several days at this place last week.

STATE COLLEGE.

We are pleased to hear that ex-Editor Burns, who moved his family to Selinsgrove on account of poor health, is much improved.

Prof. W. W. Cooke, late of the Fort Collins, Colorado Experiment Station, is engaged in special work at the Experiment Station.

Chemist C. P. Bristle has just returned from a pleasant visit to his home at Swarthmore.

Miss Elizabeth M. Stuart visited friends in Bellefonte Saturday.

Street commissioner Thomas McMahon is making many improvements on College Avenue.

Charles H. Foster returned Tuesday from a business trip to Pittsburgh.

John A. Williams, of Port Matilda, transacted business in town Saturday.

Hon. John T. McCormick and son Frank were in town Monday. They are seldom seen here since they have gone into the telephone business.

The Morgan family visited at Dr. Fisher's, at Zion, over Sunday, and were royally entertained.

Graduate student P. Bruce Lundy, has secured a good situation with Dr. Alexander, at Marietta.

A little well managed detective work quite easily located the fellow who robbed Krumrine's store a few nights ago, and as it is not the first offense of this kind, he will likely get the full extent of the law.

INGLEBY ITEMS.

The scribe from Ingleby is a clean, good looking fellow, the best looking fellow at that place, and always full of fun.

T. O. Keen's wife left him Friday afternoon, and said she would remain some time, perhaps he would do better.

Wm. Koonsman received a new boarder Friday, and says it is a dandy little girl.

Dr. Barker fell from his grape arbor and hurt his arm.

Henry Eisenhuth has corn which bears four ears to the stalk. He says he will take his seed from this corn and next year raise all that kind.

Barney Eisenhuth is taking out prop timber for A. J. Guntshah; he will load a car with big timber this week.

H. Kreamer has a new organ, and is now going to play "the solo tune."

Music for S. S. Convention.

At the approaching Sabbath school convention in Altoona, October 23, 24 and 25, the music will be a more than usual prominent feature. The state executive committee has secured the services of E. O. Excell, of Chicago, the famous convention chorister, who will have charge of the singing.

"For three days and nights I suffered agony untold from an attack of cholera morbus brought on by eating cucumbers," says M. E. Lowther, clerk of the district court, Centerville, Iowa. "I thought I should surely die, and tried a dozen different medicines but all to no purpose. I sent for a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and three doses relieved me entirely." This remedy is for sale by Mrs. J. H. Keller, Linden Hall; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

COBURN.

Chestnuts are already in the market and seem to be a plentiful crop.

George B. Shaffer and wife spent a few days at the Milton fair last week.

Mrs. M. D. Rockey, of Tylersville, is visiting her many friends in this vicinity.

The first Democratic meeting of the campaign will be held at this place on Thursday evening. This meeting will be held in the school house, and will be addressed by Hon. C. M. Bower and Senator W. C. Heinle. The indications are that there will be a large outpouring of Democrats and others, to discuss the issues of the campaign, ably assisted by these two prominent gentlemen. The Coburn cornet band has been secured to furnish the music for the occasion. Let everybody turn out.

It is reported that a sensational elopement took place at Ingleby, last Friday, but the writer can not vouch for the correctness of the report.

J. Wilbur Kooney is now night watchman at the evaporator.

The employees of the evaporating plant were made happy on Saturday by the receipt of their weekly wages. The management pays at the end of every week.

Capt. H. S. Taylor, of Bellefonte, had legal business in town last Friday.

Mr. Ryan, superintendent of the Bellefonte water works, was in town Saturday, inspecting the laying of the water pipes for the Coburn water company. One of his sons, Mr. Huffman and a Mr. Flack, all of Bellefonte, are here putting in the pipes.

The Reformed congregation at this place celebrated communion in their church Sunday afternoon.

The Bryan club recently organized, had their first regular meeting Saturday evening, when a number of new members joined. It is the purpose of the club to swell the membership to over one hundred. Let the good work go on, and all Democrats should see the advantage of organization and fall into line at once.

POTTERS MILLS.

Misses Renna and Kathryn Shires, of Spring Mills, called on their friend, Miss May Smith.

Miss Blanche Heckman returned to Sunbury Saturday.

James Durst is improving and is able to be about again.

Emanuel Smith has received a new supply of goods; give him a call.

Corn husking and cider making are the principal occupations at present.

Mrs. Kathryn Alexander and Mrs. Lena Smith are visiting M. L. Smith, at Johnstown, and also taking in the centennial celebration.

The rural free delivery scheme is bitterly opposed on this side of the valley.

The parties who visited John Auman's chicken house the other night had better "look a little out."

J. W. Kepler, Democratic nominee for Assembly, was shaking hands with his many friends here last week. Mr. Kepler is a man of ability and abundantly able to fill the office of Assemblyman. Vote for Kepler.

AARONSBURG.

Jefferson Gates and wife, of Tyrone, accompanied by two daughters of Charles Hill, who lived and taught school here many years ago, came to town Saturday evening, remaining over Sunday. Mr. Gates and wife left on Monday morning, the other two ladies remaining until in the afternoon. They left here thirty-two years ago. The older one, Martha, is married and has seven children; they own and live upon a three hundred acre farm in North Dakota.

Miss Beckie Bollinger came to town Monday evening. She expects to help her mother pack and store her goods and next week they will go out to Rock Springs, where Mrs. Bollinger will spend the winter.

Miss Polly Stover had a paralytic stroke Monday and is seriously ill; she is a maiden lady and lived alone.

When you have no appetite, do not relish your food and feel dull after eating you may know that you need a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Price 25 cents. Samples free at Mrs. J. H. Keller's, Linden Hall, and J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.
