COLLEGE MEN FOR BRYAN.

President Elliot, of Harvard, has announced that he will not support McKinley because he is opposed to the imperialistic policy of the Republican administration. With this declaration of President Elliot's causes the announcement that nine-tenths of the Faculty of Harvard are for Bryan. Four years ago they were unanimously for McKinley, and would not even be civil to Bryan. This is a wonderful change, and is an indication of how sentiment has changed in the east from what it was in 1896.

When Bryan came to New Haven, Connecticut in 1896, he was mobbed by the Yale students, and his meeting broken up. This year Yale has a large Bryan club, and a large number of the Professors are openly for Bryan. This is also true of Cornell, Ann Arbor, Michigan, and all other Colleges. In 1896, with a few exceptions, the College Professors supported McKinley, irrespective of party. Now a majority of these people are against McKinley, and in favor of Bryan.

For some years prior to 1896 the educators of this country, and the College-bred people inclined towards the Democracy on the tariff question. But in 1896 on the money question they almost unanimously supported McKinley, under the belief that if McKinley was elected on the financial issue, he would not interfere with the tariff. In fact it was proclaimed from the hustings and by the party organs that there was an understanding between the Republican organization and the Democrats who opposed Bryan, that the tariff was not to be disturbed. This promise of course, was violated at once. McKinley could not even wait until the regular session of congress but had to call an extra session to repeal the Wilson Bill, and substitute the trust-breeding Dingley Bill, in its stead. Not because the country desired such action, but because the trusts and syndicates demanded the repeal of the Wilson Bill, and the substitution of a measure that would enable them to reimburse themselves for the money contributed to elect McKinley.

This action on the part of the Republicans, and the imperialistic policy of the administration under the grinding hand of Mark Hanna has driven the College people back into the Democratic party. Their influence will be very potent in the campaign, and is materially strengthening Bryan before the people.

When you vote for Assemblymen you must remember that not simply the men must be considered, but you must consider whether you want Centre county represented by Republicans who will act altogether contrary to Democratic principles. The Democratic candidates for the legislature can be depended upon to vote against any unjust Republican measures, and that is sufficient reason why every Democrat in Centre county should support them. Their Democracy is unquestionable.

Chairman J. K. Johnson, of the Democratic county committee, has arranged with the district chairmen to have meetings at a number of places in Penna valley the locations and dates of which are appended. It is the duty of all good Democrats to see that these meetings are attended. Democrats don't believe in civilizing with bayonets, or compelling one to vote the Democratic ticket by threats, but they do believe in persuading voters by discussing the issues of the day honestly and fearlessly, and it is to hear these arguments that the chairman asks all Democrats and others who wish to do so, to assemble at the various places mentioned below, where they will be met by able speakers.

Messrs. Allison and Thompson are afraid to say whether they are for Quay or Hastings. If they are afraid to say openly where they stand now, will they have the courage to vote their own convictions if elected to the Legislature?

Hon. J. K. P. Hall, the Democratic candidate for Congress in this district, is exceptionally well qualified for the position to which he aspires. He has had experience as a legislator and is thoroughly posted in the routine work of a congressman. He takes special pains in looking up the pension claims of soldiers, without regard to politics.

If the people of the Twenty-eighth Congressional District wish to acknowledge the faithful service of one of their most faithful servants they will give Hon. J. K. P. Hall one of the largest majorities ever accorded a candidate from the district. Politics has never entered into Congressman Hall's service and he always was found on the side of those measures that would be of the most good to the most people. He is an able man, and has been a faithful servant of the people in Congress and is justly entitled to receive an overwhelming majority in Nov. His services entitle him to a big majority and the people should not be half-hearted about it.—Falls Creek Herald.

Fell Down a Well.
Mrs. Louis LaChance, of Houtzdale, fell through the covering of a dry well 14 feet deep and came near dying of suffocation. The well was so full of gas that it almost proved the death of Mrs. LaChance and her rescuers. It was not until the fourth man was let down into the well that it was possible to get a rope around the unfortunate woman.

It Happened in a Drug Store.

"One day last winter a lady came to my drug store and asked for a brand of cough medicine that I did not have in stock," says Mr. C. R. Graudin, the popular druggist of Ontario, N. Y. "She was disappointed and wanted to know what cough preparation I could recommend. I said to her that I could freely recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and that she could take a bottle of the remedy and after giving it a fair trial if she did not find it worth the money to bring back the bottle and I would refund the price paid. In the course of a day or two the lady came back in company with a friend in need of a cough medicine and advised her to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I consider that a very good recommendation for the remedy." It is for sale by Mrs. J. H. Keller, Linden Hall; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

A Wonderful Offer to Women.

We have received word of a most remarkable offer which is to be made to women by The Delinctor, of New York. Taking the fact that next year begins a new century, The Delinctor offers to distribute $1,500 among 1901 women. The plan is so cleverly arranged that a woman living in a small town or village, has just as good a chance to win one of these 1901 prizes as a woman living in a city—because the prizes are given for the number of subscriptions secured in a town in proportion to the population of that town, instead of being given simply to those who send the largest list of subscribers—which, of course, are most easily obtained in big cities. Another clever feature of the plan is, that all the cities and towns of the United States and Canada have been arranged in seven classes. The cities of the greatest population are grouped in Class 1, and as these cities are not very many, the prizes offered are twenty-eight; the highest prize being $500, and the lowest $5.00. The total amount of prizes given away in this class is $1,000. The remaining smaller towns and villages fall into six other classes, and as the number of towns in a class increases, because, of course, there are more small towns than large ones, the amount of prizes given away to a class increases, so that in Class 7, there will be $4,000 distributed among 601 winners.

Furthermore, to everyone who fails to win one of the 1901 prizes there will be paid an extra commission on subscriptions, provided they equal one out of every two hundred inhabitants of the town from which the contestant sends them.

This is altogether a very liberal offer, and one which the famous old Delinctor is well able to make good. From our point of view, we do not see why such an offer needs to be made by the Publishers of The Delinctor, for we believe it already has nearly half a million subscribers. Its strong hold upon the affections of American women has come in the past generation, from its practical advice about dress details and home matters.
