

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

CENTRE HALL, PA., Thurs., Oct. 18.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

The Luses finished their work at Tyron and came home last Saturday.

Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Hosterman spent several days at Wolf's Store this week.

Paul Fortney, of Bellefonte, is a U. S. District Court juror at Pittsburg this week.

W. W. Bayard's address is changed from Philadelphia to 1554 Broadway, New York.

J. A. Miller, assistant at the creamery, visited his parents at Hublersburg over Sunday.

Creamerymen Wilson and Meyers made a business trip to Pine Grove Mills Tuesday.

Reuben Page, of near Linden Hall, was in town Monday, looking after his pension affairs.

Miss Bessie R. Wolf, of Altoona, is visiting Miss Anna Shoop, daughter of Samuel Shoop.

Harry Potter returned to Lebanon Business College Monday, after being home for several weeks.

Mrs. W. P. Mann of near Reedsville, is receiving medical aid in the German hospital at Philadelphia.

Amos Walters, of Lewistown, formerly of near Tusseyville, was through town Friday selling Millin county peaches.

John Miller, son of Barber Jerry Miller, is in Harrisburg acting as assistant barber in a large tonsorial establishment.

Carpenters Thomas and Austin Krape are engaged in building a wagon shed, corn crib, etc., for Samuel Ripka, near Linden Hall.

Mrs. Sarah Renner and Mrs. Frank Mages, of Mazepa, Union county, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Emerick, of near town.

Hon. J. H. Wetzel, candidate for Assembly spent Friday in Centre Hall, looking after his interests as a candidate.

Gines Johnston, assistant at the Centre Hall station, is dividing his time between business and taking care of E. W. Crawford's guests.

Miss V. Ray Fleisher, of Tusseyville, is the guest of E. W. Crawford. Miss Fleisher is back from attending school at Baltimore.

Mrs. James Wilson, of Howard, visited her son Thomas G. Wilson, manager of the Centre Hall branch of the Howard Creamery Company's business.

Messrs. J. F. Smith and E. W. Crawford assisted the Lutheran church choir in rendering several splendid pieces of music at the Sunday evening services.

James A. Wert and family, of Tusseyville, were in town Saturday. From the appearance of Mr. Wert's turnout, farming is not such a poor business after all.

Geo. H. Bitner and two sons, of near Tusseyville, were in town Saturday. Mr. Bitner thought it poor living without the Reporter coming to his home and ordered the paper sent there.

Mrs. W. F. Bradford gave a tea party Thursday of last week. The guests present were Mrs. John W. Conley, Mrs. W. P. Shoop, Mrs. Mary Odenkirk, Miss Jennie Odenkirk and Anna Shoop.

John E. Breon, for many years a Reporter reader, was a caller last Saturday. Mr. Breon reports everything moving along smoothly about Spring Mills and that the crops were very fair the past season.

On Wednesday a free public library at Alexandria, Huntingdon county, was dedicated. It is the gift of Wm. Thompson, of Philadelphia, and Wm. Wolverton, of New York, men who spent their boyhood days in that place and who have now become wealthy.

County Superintendent C. M. Gramley, of Rebersburg, was in town Friday and spent a short time in the Reporter office. Prof. Gramley is greatly interested in public school work, and if the schools in Centre county are not up to the standard it is no fault of his.

James P. Herring, of Altoona, in company with Mr. Shook, of Spring Mills, spent part of Sunday in Centre Hall. Mr. Herring, some twenty-seven years ago, was a resident of this place, and keeps informed of the improvements and changes in and about Centre Hall by reading the Reporter.

Calvin Bottorf, of near Colyer, was a caller Monday. Mr. Bottorf is a carpenter and has been unusually busy the past season, having scarcely missed a day from work. His next repairing will be on the house of Wm. Bitner, near Tusseyville, who will have the interior of his house remodeled.

Miss Elsie Foreman, daughter of F. A. Foreman, of this place, has been selected by the Bell Telephone Company to take the place of Miss A. Mabel Boal in the telephone exchange at this place, beginning the first of November. Miss Boal held the position as operator since the opening of the exchange and served all parties very satisfactorily.

Mrs. W. P. Shoop, of Scranton, after spending several weeks with friends and relatives in Centre Hall and vicinity, returned home Tuesday morning. Constable Philip Frank, of Centre Hill is able to be about again after a severe attack of rheumatism, which for a while stopped locomotion with him.

A. J. Gephart, of Millheim, was a pleasant caller at the Reporter office Friday and inquired into the merits of the water motor that furnishes the power for the Reporter presses. Mr. Gephart conducts a farm near Millheim and in the event the borough puts in a water plant he proposes to attach a motor to furnish power for running light farm machinery.

The Sylvania Grove News, published in Kansas, has this to say of the Pecks located at Rosette, Kansas:—W. E. Peck is teaching school at Climax. —J. A. Peck sold over $100.00 worth of peaches.—J. A. Peck was a delegate to the Democratic convention at Lincoln. [Many years ago C. E. Peck moved from this place to Kansas, and is at present conducting a large farm. The young men mentioned above are:—

COLYER.

Wm. Lee and wife spent a few days visiting Mrs. Lee's mother and sister at Unionville.

G. R. Meiss is making preparations to move to his own store room in the spring and will run his fruit farm in connection with the mercantile business.

Wm. Boal was over to Millin county last week and spent several days visiting his best friend. Success to Billy, winter will soon be here.

Miss Ella Miller, of Bellefonte, visited her friend Mrs. Edwin Brown, last week; she returned home Monday evening.

Mrs. Sallie Horner is on the sick list, also Miss Ida Lingle.

Wm. Meyer's cider press is doing a good business; he intends adding a chop mill in a few days.

On account of bad weather the Colyer band postponed their festival until Saturday evening, 27th; hope the boys will have success, for they certainly render fine music.

Harry McClellan and mother visited at Edward Detwiler's, at Reedsville last week.

INGLEBY ITEMS.

The scribe is going to buy a horse this week to haul prop timber and shingles for J. H. Reifsnyder.

Henry Eisenhuth is building a slide down the mountain to run prop timber down for A. J. Gotshal.

T. O. Keen's wife returned home, and he says he will not be jealous again.

T. O. Keen is going to buy a cow. John Barker is done husking corn and is now getting ready for shooting game.

The scribe from Ingleby borrowed the High valley scribe's rifle; he is getting ready for a shooting match.

Wm. Koonsman has two of the largest porkers he has ever raised.

A fine stranger came to Samuel Rupp's near Rankeltown, and will make his home there.

John Galer left Ingleby and moved to his farm near Rankeltown. We cannot say what he intends doing, but no doubt he will hang out his shingle, "John Galer, attorney at law."

The Democratic meeting at Coburn was the largest of the kind ever held there; both parties were well represented and were well pleased with the speakers.

The game is now free to all, but the poor class of people are "not in it" as they must husk corn to fatten their hogs, while the rich from the towns are killing the game.

The pasture is getting short in the valley and cattle getting thin in flesh; farmers are bringing home their cattle on account of scarcity of water.

Wm. Sheesly, of Pine Creek, bought a saw mill and will be ready to cut all kinds of lumber in the near future.

The wild game is not as plenty as last year on account of the late fire in the spring.

L. O. and J. T. Eisenhuth are hauling prop timber for H. C. Kulp at Penn Hall; they say business is dull in that line on account of the strike, but hope it will soon be settled.

"For three days and nights I suffered agony untold from an attack of cholera morbus brought on by eating cucumbers," says M. E. Lowther, clerk of the district court, Centreville, Iowa. "I thought I should surely die, and tried a dozen different medicines but all to no purpose. I sent for a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and three doses relieved me entirely." This remedy is for sale by Mrs. J. H. Keller, Linden Hall; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

There is always a demand for a great sacred song. "The Palms," "The Holy City" and others have been sung by thousands. Next Sunday, September 21, "The Philadelphia Press" will give free to its readers Arthur Trevelyan's magnificent "Choir Celestial," one of the most beautiful songs ever written.

When you have no appetite, do not relish your food and feel dull after eating you may know that you need a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Price 25 cents. Samples free at Mrs. J. H. Keller's, Linden Hall, and J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.
