Many former Republicans have declared their intention to support the Damocratic candidates, and some of the most prominent are making speeches for Bryan. Jesse R. people claim with the utmost confidence that New York will be for Bryan by an immense majority. There is every indication that the claim will be realized. The Gold Democrats, with a few exceptions, have returned to their party, and there are many accessions from the Republicans, and others are coming to us every day. It is true the Republicans have an abundance of money and are working with all their might to counteract the influences that seem to be sweeping the country for Bryan, and no doubt they are doing some harm in some localities at least, but from present indications it seems almost impossible that they will be able to stem the popular tide sufficiently to succeed. The Democratic organization is efficient, the leaders all working together harmoniously for the ticket and the result must necessarily be favorable.

is stumping Ohio for Bryan. Many W other leading Republicans all over the the country have deserted the trust candidate, and are supporting Bryan and Stevenson, the candidates of the Democracy.

Bryan's trip through Indiana, Ohio and Michigan was a perfect ovation. The people turned out to hear him by the tens of thousands, and wherever he went former Republicans appeared and pledged him their support. At Dayton, Ohio, in McKinley's own state one hunred vice presidents sat on the immense platform erected, twentyfour of whom were Germans, who had always been Republicans, and the remaining seventy-six had always heretofore voted the Republican ticket. In Michigan, in localities where the Hollanders are numerous, the entire population seemed to be at the meeting to greet Mr. Bryan. These Hollanders have heretofore been almost unanimously Republicans. This year they are for Bryan and the whole Democratic ticket. McKinley's treatment of the Boers, and his pandering to England has caused these people to change to Bryan.

In the east the change is no less decided than in the west. In Maryland and Delaware the Gold Democrats are rapidly forcing to the front ranks in the fight for Bryan, and Senator Gorman though in poor health, has assumed the leadership as of old. Besides this thousands of Republicans under the leadership of Senator Wellington are supporting Bryan and the Democratic congressional candidates. Senator Wellington says Maryland will be Democratic by from 15,000 to 20,000 majority.

West Virginia is in excellent shape, and daily the Brayn forces are augmented by Republican converts. Only a few days ago Joseph N. Buery, a leading coal operator, one of the largest in the state announced his intention to vote for Bryan. At the Republican State convention Mr. Buery was nominated by that party as one of the candidates for Elector-at-large. He re signed this position, and in a long letter came out strongly for Bryan and the whole Democratic ticket. In Delaware and New Jersey the same influences are at work, and by the time Bryan finishes his campaign in these states, they will be aflame with an enthusiastic energy and determination that will sweep them into the Democratic column.

New York is already fully aroused Fine Line of Furs. and promises good results, but the campaign in that state has just commenced. The Madison Square Garden meeting was the greatest political demonstration in the history of the country, and Bryan's tour of the state brought him in contact with a
