

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

CENTRE HALL, PA., Thurs., Oct. 25.
PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

Mrs. Andy Crozier spent a few days in Spring Mills recently.
 Mrs. Samuel Condo, of Spring Mills, is seriously ill with typhoid fever.
 Miss Ella Bottorf, of Lemont, is the guest of Mrs. W. A. Jacobs, her aunt.
 Wm. Lohr, of Union county, was a guest at the home of Wm. Lohr Tuesday.
 Mrs. Krape, wife of shoe merchant C. A. Krape, of Spring Mills, was in town the other day.
 Mr. and Mrs. Perry Luse attended the funeral of Mrs. Luse's brother at Hubersburg Sunday.
 Miss Anna Breen, daughter of John Breen, west of this place, is confined to bed with sickness.
 Mr. and Mrs. Albright, of Penn Hall, made a short visit to Mrs. M. J. Barney, at Howard, recently.
 Miss Nell Bradley and Joseph Augustus Riley will be married at the Bradley home, in Bradford, October 30th.
 Mrs. Sarah Dresler, of Milmont, when renewing her subscription writes that she could not do without the Reporter.
 J. Frank Rearick, of Spring Mills, is the Centre county agent for the acetylene gas lights of Sober and Porter, Lewisburg.
 E. P. Shook, of Spring Mills, was an early Wednesday morning caller. He is one of the Shook Bros., who breed the finest stock in the county.
 Mrs. John F. Miller, of Potters Mills, who has been laid up with rheumatism, is able to be up and around in the house, with the use of a staff.
 Rev. W. H. Schuyler and Mrs. Schuyler are taking a short vacation, spending the time chiefly with friends at Aaronsburg, Mifflinburg, and Lewisburg.
 Lewis Waltz, of near Spring Mills, advertises sale in the Reporter. Mr. Waltz thinks of going west and will spend some time with his sons in that section.
 George Michael, of Potters Mills, was a caller Saturday and advertised his sale of live stock and farm implements. After the sale he and his wife expect to go west.
 A. Fred Blair, son of Frank P. Blair, of Bellefonte, and Miss Cora E. Palmer, of Northumberland, were married Wednesday of last week at the home of the bride.
 A. P. Hosterman, of Centre Hill, called Saturday. He is the Potter township tax collector and was looking after that business. Read his notice on another page.
 Mrs. Anna Harshbarger, of Williamsburg, Blair county, widow of Dr. Harshbarger, of Milroy, was the guest of Mrs. J. Witmer Wolf for several days, returning home Monday.
 R. W. Neese, of Auburn, N. Y., is at Spring Mills, his former home, for a short time. Mr. Neese is a member of the firm of Neese Bros., of Auburn, who are building gasoline engines, and have built up a good trade.
 N. H. Bitner, station agent at Pine, is taking several days vacation part of which he is spending in and about Centre Hall. Mr. Bitner learned telegraphy under station agent Bradford and is now counted an excellent operator.
 Prof. W. A. Brown, of Spring Mills, went to Huntingdon, and may secure the position of band master in the Huntingdon Reformatory. Prof. Brown is well qualified for the position, and if he secures it can fill it with credit.
 J. W. Runkle, formerly of this place, but now of Middleburg, was a caller Saturday in company with B. H. Arney, whose guest he was while in Centre Hall. Mr. Runkle came to Centre county to sell the real estate of his father, deceased, notice of which will be found elsewhere.
 Merchant W. H. Kreamer and daughter, Miss Tace, Friday will go to Altoona, where they will be joined by Mrs. Kreamer, and then proceed to Dubois, where they will spend some time with Mrs. S. H. Heckman. Miss Tace will stay with her sister in that place for an indefinite time.
 Roy Swabb, wife and family, of Erie, spent Monday with Henry Swabb, in this place. Mr. Swabb is a grandson of George Swabb, of Linden Hall, and with his father, John Swabb, is employed in the railroad shops in Erie. The elder Swabb is one of the foremen of the shops and is considered one of the best mechanics in the company's employment.
 A. S. Kerlin is still confined to his home, having only been away from there once or twice for months. In looking over the Reporter files of 1870, September 16, an article appears like this: "A. S. Kerlin, formerly a citizen of our valley, is superintendent of the warehouse of Messrs. Reed & Thompson, Milroy, a place which he filled for a long time, an evidence of his fitness for it. A more accommodating and gentlemanly superintendent could not have been employed."

REBERSBURG.

Henry Royer, of Johnstown, is visiting at the home of J. C. Morris.
 Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Wolf, of Mifflinburg, spent a few days among friends and relatives in town.
 Victor Walker who has been home attending his grandfather's funeral, returned to Susquehanna University on Friday.
 Prof. C. L. Gramley and Miss Winifred Wolf, delegates to the State Sunday School Convention, left for Altoona Tuesday, at which place the convention is in session.
 Mr. and Mrs. Ira Walker, from Illinois, are visiting friends and relatives in town, having been called here to attend the funeral of his aged father.

STATE COLLEGE.

Miss Crissie Krumrine after spending a very pleasant summer at Atlantic City, returned home Monday.
 The many friends of J. Oliver Glover will be pleased to know of his continued improvement.
 Mrs. M. Dee. Foster, of Birmingham, Ala., is visiting at the home of Wm. Foster, Sr.
 B. F. Morgan, who is Superintendent of the Murray Lumber Co., at Curwensville, is home for a few days.
 Thomas McMahon has resigned as street commissioner and John Corraige has assumed charge of the street work until the next meeting of council.

FARMERS MILLS.

Hurrah for Bryan!
 The Republicans are getting sore. No more of their prosperity.
 The farmers of this locality are winding up their fall work.
 Al Bradford can boast of having the biggest porkers for this season.
 A new boarder came to the home of David Rearick; a little late for corn husking.
 Rev. Dubbs, the Evangelical pastor of the Rebersburg charge, held communion services at this place on Sunday morning. The people of this place are always glad to have the Rev. with them.
 Ex-Prothonator Wm. Smith is doing considerable repairing for his tenant, Emanuel Eye.
 Edward Confer spent Sunday with his many friends in Farmers Mills.
 Harry Eye and sister and lady friend spent Saturday and Sunday at Oak Hall, and also took in the sights at State College.
 All be on the look out for the wedding; Katie says the furniture is to be made this winter.

POTTERS MILLS.

John Smith, the up-to-date furniture dealer, and accomplished daughter, Miss May, of Spring Mills, were in town Sunday.
 Jesse McClenahan is home on a vacation.
 Miss Mary Evans, of Williamsport, is visiting her parents at this place.
 Mrs. Mary Garbrick and two interesting little daughters, of Farmers Mills, spent Sunday with Mrs. Hartman.
 The sick in and about town are, David Evans, Linnie Evans, Mrs. McCoy, and Mrs. John Miller.
 Mrs. William McKinney is visiting friends in Altoona.
 John McCormick, manager of the Commercial telephone, visited his aunt Mrs. Kate Carson.
 Some of Centre Hall's fine young men who are in the habit of calling in our quiet little village, get left some times. It is so very quiet here our ladies retire early; come a little earlier next time, boys.
 Mrs. H. S. Alexander, and Mrs. Michael Smith returned from their visit to Johnstown, and report having had a delightful time.

Tour of the World.

The Philadelphia Times announces that, beginning with their Sunday issue of Oct. 25, they will publish weekly a series of articles descriptive of a tour of the world by Dr. Edward Brooks, Superintendent of Public Instruction in Philadelphia, which will be illustrated by colored photographs in the form of supplements to their Sunday edition. These will be ten by fifteen inches in size, printed on heavy plate paper and will illustrate the most famous and beautiful scenes in a journey around the world.
 When you have no appetite, do not relish your food and feel dull after eating you may know that you need a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Price 25 cents. Samples free at Mrs. J. H. Keller's, Linden Hall, and J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.
 The Spring telephone company which commenced business in Mifflin county last March has consolidated with another company operating in Juniata county, according to the Lewisburg Free Press. The rate for phones which has been one dollar per month will be raised as the operation of the line has demonstrated that it cannot be operated on a paying basis at such a low rental.
 When you cannot sleep for coughing it is hardly necessary that any one should tell you that you need a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to allay the irritation of the throat, and make sleep possible. It is good. Try it. For sale by Mrs. J. H. Keller, Linden Hall; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

SPRING MILLS.

Hunters do not report game plenty. Apples are selling for twenty and twenty-five cents per bushel.
 J. Wells Evans bought the Rankle farm in Georges valley.
 George Mowery, of Lewistown, is coming to this place to start in the livery business. George is an old timer at the business, and was employed by the Boozer Bros. for many years.
 Edward Ruhl and Baker made a business trip to Lewistown for several days.
 Mrs. J. Frank Rearick has been visiting in Philadelphia and Washington for the past couple weeks.
 Miss Ida M. Condo and Will Musser are contemplating a trip on their bikes to Loganton.
 Michael Shires is busily engaged in the insurance business.
 The Centre county fair was well represented from this section.
 Fred Moyer, of Penn Hall, was in town the other day shaking hands with his many friends.
 Luther Roper and Thomas Gill, of Belleville, spent Sunday with Mrs. Roper.
 Floyd Bowersox, our village blacksmith, is prepared for the coming winter horse shoeing.
 Fin Stover, of Potters Mills, was seen on our streets one day last week.
 The sale of Mrs. Frank Kennely was poorly attended Saturday afternoon.
 Calvin Rossman and wife, of Siglerville, stopped overnight with Smith Bros., on their way to Mrs. John Rossman's funeral.
 Charles Cummings, the popular clerk in O. T. Corman's store, places great confidence in the election of Bryan and Stevenson.
 An infant child of Dallas Young's, of Georges valley, died last Saturday night.
 Calvin King and wife Sundayed with her mother, Mrs. Krape. Mr. King is operating a big lumber job in Sugar valley.
 Next in line will be the big porkers; they must be scarce, as we hear no talk of any.
 Daniel Kennely shot three fine gray squirrels, but when he went to pick them up they were like the Irishman's flea.
 Gentzel Bros. are busy running their hay baler.
 Peter Neese, after a visit of several weeks in Nittany and Bald Eagle valleys, returned to James McCool's, where he has made his home since the death of his wife.
 Few drivers take better care of their teams than does Robert Bartges, who gathers cream for the Spring Mills creamery.
 Notwithstanding the severe drought the Spring Mills creamery keeps on making gilt edged butter, which finds a very ready sale. First-class butter is at a premium, and that is what the Spring Mills creamery turns out.
 John Snavely is one of the busiest men in town just now, and is acting both as carpenter and tin smith. His new dwelling is being pushed to completion rapidly.
 Among the gentlemen of leisure in Spring Mills, none seem to enjoy life more than Messrs. Wm. Pealer and Hiram Durst. They have each earned restful days, having labored hard at whatever they were engaged earlier in life.
 Messrs. Allison Stover, of Aaronsburg, and Alfred Swam, of Rebersburg, are plastering Landlord Ruhl's new house. They are excellent mechanics, and have more work than they can do at present.

"For three days and nights I suffered agony untold from an attack of cholera morbus brought on by eating cucumbers," says M. E. Lowther, clerk of the district court, Centerville, Iowa. "I thought I should surely die, and tried a dozen different medicines but all to no purpose. I sent for a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and three doses relieved me entirely." This remedy is for sale by Mrs. J. H. Keller, Linden Hall; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.
