

Dainty Shoes for Dainty Feet.

A young miss with a dainty foot needs and should have a dainty shoe. We are aware that there are more ill-shaped, poor-fitting Misses Shoes than any other kind.

Our Fall Styles are Very Pretty.

All suitable leathers; all suitable lasts; every desirable toe and heel, and at pleasing prices. Come, see about it.

MINGLE'S SHOE STORE.

J. W. Kepler is as well qualified for the Legislature as any man on the Democratic or Republican tickets.

CHURCH APPOINTMENTS. Presbyterian—Centre Hall, preparatory service Saturday, 2:30 p. m.; Communion Sunday, 10:30 a. m.; Spring Mills, 2:30 p. m.

Novelty Works. It is rumored that Millheim is to have novelty works in the near future, of such capacity as to employ quite a number of men.

Seriously Afflicted. D. H. Ruhl, of Spring Mills, well known in all parts of Centre county, is seriously afflicted. Quite recently his tongue was paralyzed, rendering him speechless.

Fire Co. Meeting. There will be a meeting of the Centre Hall fire company Tuesday evening of next week. A good attendance is requested, as important business will be transacted.

Wedding at Pleasant Gap. The wedding of Miss Lyda White, daughter of Rev. Edmund White, the Methodist pastor of Pleasant Gap, to Herman J. Cunningham, a rising young business man of Philadelphia, took place Wednesday of last week.

Meeting at Ripka's. The Democratic meeting at Ripka's school house Friday night was well attended, and great enthusiasm was displayed on the part of all Democrats.

Position at Morganza. Clayton Stover, of Centre Hill, resigned as teacher of the school near Jacksonville, and came home last Saturday. Mr. Stover has secured a position as an instructor in the Reform school at Morganza, Washington county, Pa., and left Monday to be installed into the duties of his new position.

Potter Democrats. The Democratic meeting held at Colyer last night, Wednesday, was well attended. Arthur Lee was elected chairman, after which ex-Commissioner George L. Goodhart introduced W. Harrison Walker, who made an excellent address.

Officers of Reformed Synod. The 154th annual convention of the Eastern synod of the Reformed church of the United States, Thursday, at Sunbury, in the First Reformed church of that place opened with 159 delegates and elders present.

Accident at Howard. Jack Confer, a farmer of near Howard, was seriously injured by an extra freight train Saturday morning. He was crossing the track with a heavy two horse wagon, when the engine struck the turnout between the horses and wagon.

AN UP TO DATE WOMAN.

Mrs. C. H. Shaffer a Helper and a Good Mechanic. Mrs. Shaffer, wife of C. H. Shaffer, of Millinburg, is a woman whose equal is not found in many places.

A NEW INDUSTRY.

Ice Ponds Prove Profitable About Centre Hall. Centre Hall being some four or five miles distant from a stream of water or large dam where ice can be cut, a number of parties have constructed ice ponds of various sizes and during the winter months realize handsomely from the several crops of ice harvested.

FARM SOLD.

The W. K. Alexander Farm in Potter Twp. Sold at $32.50. The farm of W. K. Alexander, in Potter township, on the Boalsburg road, was sold by Dr. J. F. Alexander, assignee, Saturday, to Rev. J. M. Rearick, of Centre Hall, for $32.50 per acre.

Skimming Station at Tusseyville. The Howard Creamery Company began the erection of its skimming station at Tusseyville Tuesday. The district in which this station is located is admirably adapted to dairying, and farmers will find with a skimming station conveniently located that dairying is the most profitable branch of the industry.

Run Off at Spring Mills. A peculiar accident happened to the team of Elias Weaver, of near Spring Mills, which was driven by Benjamin Ripka down the hill at Condo's blacksmith shop. The hill at that place is quite steep, which caused the load of corn fodder that was being hauled to slip forward and fall on the horses.

Will be a Great Convention. The State Christian Endeavor convention, which will be held in Philadelphia November 29-32, promises to be the greatest ever held. The convention will meet in Dr. Conwell's Baptist temple, which has a capacity for seating 5,500 persons.

Fire at Pine. The little village of Pine, two miles east of Jersey Shore, was scorched by fire early Sunday morning. The hotel conducted by C. H. Weymouth and the frame building occupied jointly as a residence by A. N. Bitner, and the general store of R. C. Quiggle & Son, and the Post Office were entirely destroyed, together with considerable of the contents.

Mr. Bitner is the railroad agent at that place and is well known in Centre Hall. He paid a visit to his friends here last week.

Reminon of the 49th Regiment. About seventy survivors of the Forty-ninth Regiment, P. V., assembled in Bellefonte Thursday of last week, that being the day of their reunion. The officers for the ensuing year are: President, Charles Smith, of Pine Grove Mills; vice presidents, Don Julian Wallings, of Delaware county, and Sylvester B. Weber, of Lewistown; secretary, R. S. Westbrook, of Altoona; treasurer, J. L. Barton, of Juniata; chaplain, Dr. A. M. Smith, of Snyder county.

Laundry Agent. Wm. McCoy Wolf is agent for the Bellefonte steam laundry which does all its work in the most satisfactory manner. Wash collected and delivered weekly.

CHAIRMAN J. K. JOHNSTON.

The Democratic County Chairman's Work About Completed.—Good Work. Chairman J. K. Johnston of the Democratic county committee has about finished his work for the present campaign. If the ticket is successful in having a majority from top to bottom, which it undoubtedly will have, chairman Johnston will be entitled to more than the usual credit for victory; if defeat follows, which it will not, no blame can be laid at the chairman's door.

MILLHEIM.

R. J. Smith who had been visiting his family and friends for the past two weeks, returned to Philadelphia Monday afternoon. Miss Bessie Sturgis returned to her home in this place Friday, after spending four weeks with her father in Watstown.

Messrs. Stover Snook and Randal Musser, students at State College, spent Saturday and Sunday at their homes in this place. Sanford Miller, who has been housed in for several weeks with a severe attack of quinsy is able to be out again. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bassler, of Freeburg, visited at the home of Jerome Spigelmyer over Sunday.

Dr. H. B. Hartzler, of Harrisburg, editor of The Evangelical, the English organ of the United Evangelical church, preached at Woodward Sunday morning, and at Millheim in the evening. The doctor is a theologian of note, and was employed as English Bible teacher in Mr. Moody's Northfield school for some years.

C. C. Frankenbarger, who is employed in Philadelphia as motorman on the street car line, arrived in town on Monday morning to visit his family, and do a little hunting. Hon. S. R. Peale and wife registered at the Musser house over last Sunday. On Saturday evening the band turned out and serenaded the Senator; he responded by delivering a neat speech, and by replenishing the band's larder.

Harry Fisher, who some time ago started the laundry business in our town, has already built up for himself a lucrative business. The work turned out by the Millheim laundry is up to date and the patrons are more than pleased.

D. J. Neiman, the up to date clothier, brought his new wife to town on Monday evening. The band turned out and were well rewarded for their music. Mr. Neiman goes to house-keeping in the Catherman property on the hill, on North street.

Next Tuesday Millheim will vote on the water question. The battle is on and water politics is waxing hot. The town killer is at work and some of those who ought to be at work for the best interest of the town, do all in their power to defeat it, threatening, terrorizing, and intimidating. Talking of advance in rents, mountains of taxes, and there are a number of empty houses. Water is the topic on every street corner, and the people who are favorable to the project realize the danger of an independent company in case the citizens defeat it at the polls.

The proprietors of the Millheim Hosiery Mills are at present placing the necessary machinery for a finishing plant, thus employing an additional number of hands, and doing the work at home that heretofore had to be sent to the city. The industry is booming in all its departments, and the company have orders booked now to last them for months to come.

Misses Elizabeth and Elsie Miller, of Pleasant Gap, and Miss Mackey, of Williamsport, were in town Saturday. John E. Snyder, of Philadelphia, is visiting his father, Capt. Thompson Snyder, at Hon. Robert M. Foster's. Hon. J. H. Wetzel, of Bellefonte, was about town Monday looking after things politically.

The executors of the Peter Lauck estate are Daniel F. Lauck, of Altoona, and H. J. Mahaffey, of Tyrone. Mr. Lauck will move to the old homes lead. W. C. Lauck has made sale of his farm stock and will move to Clearfield county.

Winter Excursion Tickets on the Pennsylvania Railroad

On November 1 the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will place on sale at its principal ticket offices excursion tickets to all prominent winter resorts in New Jersey, Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Cuba, and Central America.

The magnificent facilities of the Pennsylvania Railroad, with its many connections and through train service, made this the favorite line for winter travel.

An illustrated book, descriptive of winter resorts, and giving routes of travel and rates for tickets, will be furnished free after November 1 on application to ticket agents.

Notice.

Parties desiring pictures taken at the Centre Hall studio on Friday should come not later than four o'clock. W. W. SMITH, Photographer
