MILLHEIM.

Harry K. Condo made a visit to Bellefonte Saturday.

Mrs. Samuel Campbell and Mrs. Al Walters are visiting friends in Scranton.

Mr. Harrison is trying to form a tribe of red men in Millheim. He should be able to get a fine body of men together, for there is not a better organization in the state than the Improved Order of Red Men.

Millheim band is improving. Keep at it boys, "music hath charms," let us have plenty of it.

Millheim's hosiery factory is proving to be a paying industry. Their goods find a ready market; orders are piling up. They are increasing the number of employees as fast as machinery can be put in.

Mrs. William Swartz, who has been sick for the past two weeks, is not improving very rapidly.

The genial Frank Geary, knight of the razor and shears, is spending a few days at home. Wonder why Frank wears such a broad smile.

Mr. Kreider, of Wolf's Store, was a visitor to Millheim last Friday.

Wm. Smith, the genial "Bill" is not discouraged over the result of the election. He looks at the ruins and says "fellars we must go to work." More power to you "Bill!" may your whiskers never get gray.

To my Democratic friends of Millheim, I would say: Gentlemen, the battle is over; we all said some sharp things while the campaign was in progress, and on our side at least there was justification for all that was said; in other words, we meant just what we said. But the battle being over for another four years, brings to mind the fact, that there are other things which ought to enlist our hearty cooperation. There is the question of more work for the idle men; improving the town; suppressing the rowdism and profanity on the streets. Labor as we will, we cannot accomplish all that should be done. But by pulling together we can make some gains, so let us pull together.

What is needed in Millheim is a good manufacturing concern that will give work to the men. From what your correspondent can learn, one of the young men of the town, who seems to take a deep interest in the improvement of the town is in correspondence with a firm, trying to get them interested here. He should have the assistance of every citizen of Millheim, as it would mean employment to fifty or sixty men. But from what we hear instead of being assisted he is being condemned. Why will people stand in their own light? Oh, for a few more go-ahead, business-like men in this town.

FENN HALL.

Everything is quiet since the election.

Northern Conference of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod is in session in the Lutheran church, with a large delegation of ministers and lay delegates from this and adjoining counties present.

Sheriff Brungart, of Bellefonte, was here on official business on last Wednesday.

Wm. D. Strunk is engaged in moving his sawmill from Brush mountain one-fourth of a mile east of town where he will operate for H. B. Herring.

Rev. J. S. Houseman, of Colyer, preached a very excellent sermon in the Evangelical church Sunday morning. Rev. Houseman is a native of this place, where his aged mother still resides.

James Sheesley, north of town, left for Patton, Pa., where he has secured a position.

The Evangelicals are giving their church a coat of paint, which adds greatly to the appearance.

E. H. Crader and family, of Woodward, visited at the parental home over Sunday.

A. G. Burrell who had been on the sick list is able to be around again.

H. F. McManaway, from Poughkeepsie, New York, formerly clerk in J. B. Fisher Son's store, was here to cast his vote and do a few day's hunting.

Henry Meyer left on election day for a week's hunt.

David J. Musser was the first to open the butchering season in our section.

On November 1 the Modern Woodman society had balances in its general and benefit funds of $366,491.10 and $239,184.35, or a total of $605,675.45.

TUSSEYVILLE.

Adam Krumrine who has been on the sick list is slowly improving. S. M. Swartz who has been ill is around again.

A. W. Houser departed for Davis, W. Va.

Mrs. James Houser, who had been to a hospital in Williamsport and had a cancer removed is getting along nicely.

W. F. Rockey, the produce dealer of this place, made a business trip to Altoona Tuesday.

Deaths in Nearby Counties.

Clinton—Joseph Gesler, at Chatham Run, aged sixty-two years. He was a member of Co. A, 54th Regiment, P. V.

Snyder—George Specht, of Middlebury, dropped dead while sitting at the breakfast table.

Ephraim Walter, at Beaver Springs, aged sixty-seven years.

Union—Mrs. Rachael Paige, at Forest Hill, aged near eighty-six years. She was the mother of eleven children, eight of whom she outlived.

Mifflin—Mrs. Scott Caldwell, in Ferguson valley.

At Hughesville Mrs. Charles McCarty was thrown out of a buggy during a runaway. The wheels passed over the lady's body. The horse turned a short distance a way and running back dragged the overturned buggy the unconscious form of the lady. She is seriously injured.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets cure biliousness, constipation and headache. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. For sale by Mrs. J. H. Keller, Linden Hall, and J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

Daniel H. Herr, of Salona, was granted a pension of six dollars, and Vina Hatch, of Phillipsburg, will receive eight dollars per month.

A Village Blacksmith Saved His Little Son's Life.

Mr. H. H. Black, the well-known village blacksmith at Grahamsville, Sullivan county, N. Y., says: "Our little son, five years old, has always been subject to croup, and so bad have the attacks been that we have feared many times that he would die. We have had the doctor and used many medicines, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is now our sole reliance. It seems to dissolve the tough mucus and by giving frequent doses when the croupy symptoms appear we have found that the dreaded croup is cured before it gets settled." There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. For sale by Mrs. J. H. Keller, Linden Hall, and J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

"I have used Chamberlain's Coflo, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and find it to be a great medicine," says Mr. E. S. Phipps, of Poteau, Ark. "It cured me of bloody flux. I cannot speak too highly of it." This remedy always wins the good opinion, if not praise, of those who use it. The quick cures which it effects even in the most severe cases make it a favorite everywhere. For sale by Mrs. J. H. Keller, Linden Hall, and J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

High and low priced blankets and robes, and full value given for the money, at D. A. Boozer's.

To remove a troublesome corn or bunion: First soak the corn or bunion in warm water to soften it, then pare it down as closely as possible without drawing blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily; rubbing vigorously for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn for a few days, to protect it from the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequalled. For sale by Mrs. J. H. Keller, Linden Hall, and J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.
