The land adjoins the Shook properties at Spring Mills, and was a piece of ground they were anxious to own for some time. It was a "Naboth" vineyard.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE.

An Organization Effected and Chairmen of Committees Appointed.
The meeting Monday night held to make the preliminary arrangements of the Farmers' Institute was well attended and the various committees were appointed.

Hon. John A. Woodward spoke briefly concerning the institutes throughout the state, and the importance of securing the interest of local talent in order to make the Institute what it should be.
The organization was effected by electing J. J. Arney permanent chairman and S. W. Smith permanent secretary. The chairman then appointed the following chairmen of sub-committees, with power to select their own associates.
Program: James A. Keller.
Music: E. W. Crawford.
Decorations: D. J. Meyer.

A Thief's Good Hour.

Mr. and Mrs. John Logue, who reside on Bellefonte avenue, Lock Haven, suffered severely by a robbery. While Mrs. Logue and the members of the family were absent from the house watching a parade, a thief went to an outbuilding on their premises, and pried open the lower sash of the window in the house. The thief found in a locked bureau drawer about $500 in money, the greater amount of which was gold, three or four watches and two suits of clothing.

That Ole Scare.

The report circulated that the Howard Creamery Company was guilty in some way of using oleomargarine in its business was treated lightly by the managers, but since some farmers in Penna valley might be under that impression at present the firm point blank denies that such is the case. Any one who will take a second thought will realize the ridiculousness of such a report, and especially will it appear so to any one who knows the personnel of the firm. Any one using Howard creamery butter can rest assured that it is absolutely free from oleo or ever was in sight of oleo while in the hands of the Howard Creamery Company.

Literary and Musical Entertainment.

An entertainment will be given in the Presbyterian church in this place Friday evening, Nov. 23, and in the Presbyterian church at Spring Mills, Saturday evening, Nov. 24. Miss Sarah Boude Barber, of Lewisburg, reader, lecturer and instructor, has been secured for the occasion. The program will consist of music and recitations, the recitations being of a dramatic, humorous and pathetic character. Miss Barber had charge of the department of elocution and physical culture in the Colorado State Normal School for several years, and has been successfully giving instructions in these branches at county and city institutes in Pennsylvania. We copy the following from the Williamsport Sun: "Superintendent Lose introduced Miss Barber, physical culture instructor, to the institute. She is an expert in her line of instruction, which was clearly demonstrated in her manner of instructing on how to stand, walk, sit, ascending and descending stairs, and how to attain ease of movement." These entertainments promise to be interesting. An invitation is extended to all to be present. Admission 10 and 15 cents.
