

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS. NOV. 22.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

J. W. Wolf Saturday evening returned from Philadelphia.

Mrs. W. W. Boob and daughter Grace spent Sunday at Millheim.

John McCoy Shugert succeeds his father, J. Dunlop Shugert, as cashier of the Centre county bank.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lutz attended the funeral of Wm. Stover, who was buried at Bellefonte Sunday.

Prof. John W. Felds, Director of the Oklahoma Agricultural Experiment Station, was at State College Monday.

Mrs. J. N. Meyer and Mrs. L. B. Frank drove up from Rebersburg on Tuesday and called on their many friends in town.

W. Gross Mingle, connected with the Howard Creamery Company, will Sunday at Harrisburg (?), thence go to Philadelphia for a brief stay.

Bruce Goodhart, located at Clarvo, Wisconsin, will eat his Thanksgiving turkey with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Goodhart, Centre Hill.

Rev. Harvey Lundy, of Mill Hall, filed the Methodist pulpit for Rev. Chilcote Sunday morning, at which time communion was administered.

Miss Minnie and Clyde Lee, daughter and son of J. W. Lee, of Hublersburg, spent a few days recently with their uncle, J. T. Lee, in this place.

Mrs. Mary Doe Foster and Mrs. Charles H. Foster, of State College, returned home Wednesday from a pleasant visit to relatives in Union county.

H. M. Hoy and Peter Shires, of Millheim, have formed a partnership, as shippers of produce. Several car loads of cabbage and potatoes were handled by them last week.

Ira W. Walker, of Freeport, Illinois, left for his home Thursday morning. He was called east by the death of his father, William Walker of Rebersburg, which occurred a few weeks ago.

Mrs. Charles Deihl, of Bellevue, Ohio, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Corman, at Rebersburg. Mrs. Deihl went west two years ago, and likes the country very much.

John A. Montelius, of Piper City, Ill., who many years ago was employed by Wm. Wolf, deceased, as clerk, was elected a member of the Illinois legislature. He is expected east in a few days.

Mrs. Jasper Gramley and son, of Illinois, arrived in Coburn Saturday afternoon and will remain in that section for a period of six or eight weeks, when they will again return to the prairie state.

Ervin Gettig will move from Pleasant Gap to Bellefonte shortly, where he is employed by the firm of Kreamer and Gettig, butchers. Mrs. Gettig, (nee McClenahan) is well known in Centre Hall.

Miss Romie Van Pelt Monday morning returned to Wilson College to finish her studies begun at that institution some two years ago. Vocal and instrumental music will be given special attention.

Charles Kerstetter, who has been to McAlhattan, Pa. for some time in the P. R. R. station as a student, was transferred from that place to the station at Coburn, where he expects to complete the course of telegraphy and general railroad business.

Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Hosterman went to Philadelphia Tuesday to attend the Christian Endeavor convention. They will also stop at Lancaster, where they have two sons staying—Summer V., practicing law, and John S., attending Franklin and Marshall college.

Misses Emily and Grace Alexander will spend Thanksgiving at home. Miss Emily is in Philadelphia at present, having gone there from Tyrone where she is teaching a class in instrumental and vocal music. Mrs. J. F. Alexander will go to Philadelphia during Thanksgiving week.

Wm. G. Hoffer, son of George Hoffer, deceased, and wife, of Lincoln, Kansas, are east on a short visit to the former's mother who is in delicate health at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. C. Mingle, Bellefonte. Mr. Hoffer sold his newspaper, The Sentinel, but purchased another weekly just before starting east.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Durst, of Boalsburg, were callers on Tuesday. Mr. Durst tells the Reporter that he has several fine hogs that will be turned into hams, sides and sausage in a short time. Boalsburg leads half the world for heavy weight hogs, and the reports will be found in these columns as time goes on.

C. H. Murray, son of druggist J. D. Murray, during the campaign just passed was connected with "Facts," published at Colorado Springs, Colorado. "Facts" is published in magazine form, thirty pages, and exhibits excellent mechanical skill, as well as high class editorial work. Mr. Murray, who has had experience in the newspaper business with the New York Sun, is a gifted writer and has an exceptionally large vocabulary at his command. There is a possibility that he may be permanently connected with "Facts."

R. H. Knofsinger, of Pleasant Gap, Wednesday moved to Centre Hall. He has had employment for some time with Wm. Colyer, and finding it too inconvenient to live so far from his work he wisely concluded to move here.

Thomas Maitland, of Williamsport, aged seventy-five years, put a lightning rod on the Methodist church at Milton, doing the most perilous part of the work himself. The steeple is 165 feet high. The sight of such an old man working at its top was considered marvelous.

James Shires, of Johnstown, made a business trip for a few days to Centre County and Centre Hall. Mr. Shires is in the oil business in Johnstown and is prospering, all of which the Reporter is glad to note. Although kept close to business he looks hale and hearty and has the expression of a young man content in life.

Quite a number of the Reporter readers are acquainted with the venerable Samuel Philson, of Berlin, Pa., father of the wife of Rev. W. E. Fischer, D. D., formerly of this place. He recently celebrated his eighty-eighth birthday, and is extremely well preserved both physically and mentally. His active business life covered a period of almost seventy years. In making a distribution of his property among his children, it was discovered that his wealth exceeded $100,000.

PENN HALL.

Rumor says there is another wedding contemplated to come off in the near future. How is it, Bruce?

Rev. John Tomlinson, of Du Bois, preached a masterly sermon in the Lutheran church Sunday morning to a large audience. Rev. Tomlinson served the people of this congregation in the capacity of pastor sixteen years ago, and has many warm friends here. He is an active and well-preserved man for his age.

J. C. Condo, proprietor of the Penn Hall carriage works, was last but not least in putting up a fine sign at his place of business.

Henry Dornblaser and wife, of Lamar, were in attendance at the Lutheran conference last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gellinger, of Lewisburg, visited Squire J. S. Meyer's and J. K. Bitner's several days last week.

Willis Cole, of Rebersburg, is again working for his former employer in the Pennhall carriage works.

Fisher Bros., the merchants, have recently purchased a fine English Coach watch dog, who makes himself known to any one who may come to the store after the lights have been turned low.

Wilson Haines, of Aaronsburg, spent Monday with his father-in-law, Reuben Kline.

The Salem Reformed congregation, east of town, has erected a handsome and durable wire fence. This with the sheds that were built a few months ago, add greatly to the general appearance and convenience of the church and cemetery.

Rumors of a wedding had been afloat for some time, and last Sunday evening the ceremony was performed at Aaronsburg, at the parsonage, by Rev. F. W. Brown. The contracting parties were Mr. Bruce Rossman, of Pennhall, and Miss Lizzie Koch, of Fairbrook, Pa. Bruce, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rossman, of this place, is a promising young man with a bright future before him. He is quite a favorite among the young folks of town, and a more energetic and trustworthy young man cannot be found anywhere in the neighborhood. His handsome bride is a refined and accomplished young lady of remarkable abilities and aptitude. Their many friends wish them abundant success and happiness through life.

A special election held in Sellingsgrove to decide whether the municipality should erect an electric light plant carried in the affirmative more than two to one. The stipulated cost is not to exceed $10,000.

When you feel that life is hardly worth the candle take a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They will cleanse your stomach, tone up your liver and regulate your bowels making you feel like a new man. For sale by Mrs. J. H. Keller, Linden Hall, and J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

The question of the spontaneous combustion of hay has recently been investigated by one of the officials of the United States Weather Bureau, who states that fermentation within moist hay may raise the temperature to 374 degrees Fahrenheit, at which temperature clover hay will ignite.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and find it to be a great medicine," says Mr. E. S. Phipps, of Poteau, Ark. "It cured me of bloody flux. I cannot speak too highly of it." This remedy always wins the good opinion, if not praise, of those who use it. The quick cures which it effects even in the most severe cases make it a favorite everywhere. For sale by Mrs. J. H. Keller, Linden Hall, and J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

LINDEN HALL.

Thomas Coble, of Altoona, is home on a two weeks' vacation.

Harvey Seanson, of Scottsdale, Westmoreland county, arrived home Friday afternoon, just in time to speak a few words to his dying mother.

The Evangelical Association began their protracted meeting Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Royer spent Sunday last with friends in Centre Hall.

Prof. E. W. Crawford, of Centre Hall, is conducting a singing class at this place; quite a number of the young people are taking advantage of it.

Will Zeigler moved from this place to the Seller's property at Oak Hall Wednesday last.

Mrs. Seanson, who has been a great sufferer for several months, died Saturday morning. Interment was made in the Boalsburg cemetery Wednesday morning, Rev. Black officiating.

POTTERS MILLS.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Heckman, of Centre Hall, are spending several weeks with their daughter, Mrs. Jas. Reish.

William and Clayton McKinney, of Altoona, are home to spend their vacation in the mountains.

Miss Mabel Smith, one of Potters Mill's handsome young ladies, left for Johnstown Friday, where she will make an extended visit with her uncle, M. L. Smith.

Miss Lizzie Foust has come home to spend the winter with her mother.

Miss Rhoda Alexander, of Burnham, spent several days with her brother, Dr. Alexander.

REBERSBURG.

On Tuesday the real estate of the late Wm. Walker, deceased was sold. Henry Wolfert and family, of Livonia, moved into John Breen's house Tuesday.

Prof. E. M. Brungart is slowly convalescing from his recent attack of typhoid fever.

Daniel Culby, the only colored man we had in Brush valley for a number of years, died suddenly at the home of George B. Winters, at Kreamerville, Monday evening, having gone there to spend the evening. He was overcome by heart trouble and died very suddenly.

SPRING MILLS.

The waters are still too low for winter to set in.

David Sowers is nursing a healed jaw.

Abner Riber, school teacher at Coburn, was in town Monday evening; he took the first degree of K. G. E.

Wm. Musser, the obliging ticket agent, made a business trip to some of the eastern cities.

Smith Bros., the furniture dealers of the valley, have a car load of chamber suits coming that will be sold during the holidays at reduced rates.

Lewis Waltz will go to Lock Haven to spend the winter with his sister.

Miss Pearl Ritter, of Centre Hall, has been visiting for the past week with Miss May Smith.

John Bubb, of Feidler, transacted business in our town one day last week.

Emanuel Zeigler, of near Madisonburg, was seen in town, shaking hands with his many friends. Mr. Zeigler is a practical farmer and had the good fortune to have paying crops.

The Lutheran conference was a success in every respect; the church was crowded to its utmost. Very able sermons were preached by different ministers; it brought a great many visitors to town.

C. K. Sober stopped several days at the house of D. H. Ruhl. Liveryman Mowery drove him back and forth to the mountain, where he did some pheasant hunting; have not learned what success.

Twelve of Shook Bros. tame turkeys have been shot for wild ones. Any one can shoot that kind and call it a wild one.

John Zerbe and wife have been visiting friends and relatives at Lock Haven the past week.

John Breen will be a candidate for re-election for supervisor.

Mrs. Wm. Gramley is able to be about again.

G. H. Long, one of our popular merchants, was presented with a new boarder.

Michael Smith, of Potters Mills, had charge of Smith Bros. furniture store several days last week while the two members of the firm went to Pine Grove Mills to wait on their sick brother Lowell, who is in a very critical condition.

Friday and Saturday were good days for hunting rabbits, and the sportsmen took advantage of it; bang, bang, from morning until night. Many of the little fellows were bagged.

Spoke Wood Wanted.

F. Seidle, of Mechanicsburg, Pa., wants fifty to one hundred thousand split spokes of second growth oak and hickory butts. For further information call on W. W. Boob, Centre Hall.

A Village Blacksmith Saved His Little Son's Life.

Mr. H. H. Black, the well-known village blacksmith at Grahamsville, Sullivan county, N. Y., says: "Our little son, five years old, has always been subject to croup, and so bad have the attacks been that we have feared many times that he would die. We have had the doctor and used many medicines, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is now our sole reliance. It seems to dissolve the tough mucus and by giving frequent doses when the croupy symptoms appear we have found that the dreaded croup is cured before it gets settled." There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. For sale by Mrs. J. H. Keller, Linden Hall, and J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.
