PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

Andrew Crozier, who is engaged on a saw mill near Milroy, spent Sunday with his family.

If the earth were equally divided among its inhabitants, each person would get about twenty-three and one-half acres.

Howard M. Emerick, son of Henry Emerick, of this place, has secured a position at Trenton, N. J., at the Trenton State Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Floray, of Tusseyville, recently made one of their occasional visits to their daughter, the wife of Rev. Dubbs, at Rebersburg.

John F. Breen, of near Spring Mills, is seriously thinking of leaving the farm and moving to Spring Mills. Mr. Breen has been a successful farmer.

George F. Emerick was a caller Monday, having come to town to market a fine lot of Thanksgiving turkeys, which were sold to the Howard Creamery Company.

The readers of the Reporter will regret to learn that David Krape, of Aaronsburg, is suffering from a paralytic stroke. Owing to his advanced age his condition is serious.

Mrs. R. B. Hartman, of Millheim, who has been visiting relatives in Bloomsburg, stopped in town, says the Millheim Times, being the guest of Charles Harter and family.

Arthur Stuck, son of A. H. Stuck, of Millburg, member of the 41st U. S. V. I., who did service in the Philippines, died in San Francisco. The body was shipped home for burial.

J. F. Emerick, of Farmers Mills, while in town Saturday called at this office. Mr. Emerick is a saddler by trade and is always ready for trade at his establishment at Farmers Mills.

J. H. Price, of Princeton, Illinois, when forwarding advance payment on the Reporter, states "that we could not get along without the Reporter." That is the verdict of many of the readers of this paper.

George W. Atherton, LL. D., President of Pennsylvania State College, was elected a member of the executive committee by the convention of agricultural colleges and experiment stations in session at New Haven, Connecticut.

Harry Potter, of near Centre Hall, and Earl Gingerich, of Linden Hall, who are attending Lebanon Business College, were laid up with the measles last week. The disease seems to have a run at that school, but that doesn't say that Lebanon Business College is a "measly" institution.

Miss Helen Bartholomew, of this place, has been selected pianist for the County teachers' institute. Miss Bartholomew, besides being an excellent musician is a success in the school room. She is a graduate of Millersville Normal and has shown herself especially well equipped for teaching.

Insurance agent Grant Hoover, of Bellefonte, made a trip through Penna Valley on insurance business, and while in Centre Hall spent a half hour in the Reporter office. Mr. Hoover has built up a splendid insurance business in the county. Every school child knows that Grant Hoover is in the insurance business because he knows enough to advertise.

The Gazette, York, Pa., gives an excellent portrait of Daniel W. Poorman who was elected poor director of York by the Democratic party. Mr. Poorman is a step-son of Dr. John Riter, of this place. Eleven years ago he went to York and engaged with the Martin Carriage Company, and today is regarded one of the most experienced carriage builders in that city. The Gazette speaks of Mr. Poorman in the highest terms.

$87,000,000 for New Navy.

Secretary Long will ask for an appropriation of $87,172,630.76 for the navy for the year 1902, an increase of $31,183,531.41 over 1901. His estimates made public to-day call for appropriations and increases in part as follows: Pay for the navy, appropriations, $15,125,684; increase, $2,314,787. Construction, appropriations, $21,772,916; increase, $9,032,218. Public works, yards and docks, appropriations, $12,302,540; increase, $8,735,660. Public works, naval academy, appropriations, $3,000,000; increase, $2,650,000. Bureau of supplies and accounts, appropriations, $4,843,849; increase, $2,112,617. Bureau of construction and repairs, appropriations, $8,080,824; increase, $1,840,000.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and find it to be a great medicine," says Mr. E. S. Phipps, of Poteau, Ark. "It cured me of bloody flux. I cannot speak too highly of it." This remedy always wins the good opinion, if not praise, of those who use it. The quick cures which it effects even in the most severe cases make it a favorite everywhere. For sale by Mrs. J. H. Keller, Linden Hall, and J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

John Long, of Pleasant Gap, was the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Ida McClellan on Green Bank Avenue, Sunday last. C. E. Zeigler and John Raymond, of this place, are spending this week in Bellefonte as jurors.

John Lee, of Colyer, while assisting his son-in-law to butcher on Thursday of last week, had the misfortune to cut his hand with a knife. It was not considered anything more than a flesh wound at the time, but blood poison set in and he is unable to use his hand. Mrs. Maggie Jones, son and daughter-in-law, of Tylertown, Clearfield county, attended the funeral of Mrs. Jones' sister, Mrs. James Senarson, which took place Wednesday of last week.

Last Sunday the United Evangelical Sunday school at this place, elected their officers for the year 1901, they are as follows: Superintendent, A. E. Zeigler; assistant superintendent, L. Gingerich; secretary, S. Lizzie Gettig; treasurer, Mrs. S. Zong; librarians, Edward Zong and John Gettig.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Condo spent Tuesday on a drive, calling on friends through the valley. Thomas Ulrich, the barber at Lock Haven, is visiting at the home of his parents. Miss Helen Womelsdorf, of Bellefonte, spent a few days visiting Mrs. John P. Condo.

John P. Condo made a business trip to the county seat Monday. A party of hunters were sidetracked in town Monday on account of the rain. Our good Christian people have been praying for rain for the past three weeks, but few turned out on Sunday night, to thank the Lord for giving them what they asked for.

The long looked for are light for the diamond is slowly heaving in sight; it is about at Pittsburg. W. J. Harrison is confined to his home, suffering from a bad cold. From the looks of the buses that left here Monday, there seemed to be a general exodus to Bellefonte.

Look before you leap, would be a good motto for some of our young people to memorize. There is a crowd of young men in town who seem to delight in making it hot for any one who comes here from the neighboring town. Boys, stop it, it is not gentlemanly.

A hunting party consisting of Charley Morris, Geo. Springer, of Millheim, Messrs. Lenker, Hoffman and others, from Millersburg, will spend two weeks in the Seven Mountains; Jesse King is chief cook.

Miss Dell Reichard has returned to spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. E. Mauck, after spending the last two months at her home at Shamokin. She don't look as though the strike at Shamokin affected her any.

There is considerable rivalry here as to who has the largest hogs, but so far the palm has been taken by James Stover; one weighed 700, another 640 pounds. Who can beat that?

J. I. Condo, the up-to-date carpet weaver, sprained his back, which keeps him from doing much work. Sheriff Brungart was in town last week on business.

Andrew Dunlap, the fashionable barber and hair dresser, expects to move his shop to a more central part of the town in the spring. Monday quite a number of our people went a courting to the county seat. James McCool is looking after a farm near Rebersburg; if it suits him he will buy.

The late rains have raised the water in the creeks, which was much needed. Rev. J. M. Bearick is conducting a protracted meeting in the Cross church at Georges Valley.

Some of our young bloods are going about town with revolvers in their pockets; keep it up boys, you are being looked after, and it will not be so pleasant if you are dealt with accordingly to law.

The foot bridge across Penna creek, near the postoffice should be looked after; it is in bad shape and there may be some broken limbs.

INGLEBY ITEMS.

The late rains raised the water in the wells considerably. If you want stocks put on your guns take them to H. Kreamer, he will do them up in first-class order, for he knows just how to do it.

The real estate agent is getting out a car of mining plank; he will then go to Somerset county to drive team. T. O. Keen, the Ingleby walking boss, is going to build an addition to his saw mill, in order to make room to store slabs.

AARONSBURG.

Herb Condo, who last spring moved to Cambria county, moved back to town again last week. In the early fall he moved as far as Bellefonte, where he found employment for a time and when that failed he came on home.

"Squire Rote had a young berkshire porker killed last week that dressed 383 pounds. There is no finer breed for lean meat than berkshires, besides they are very light boned.

Frank Dutweiler sold his live stock and farming machinery to his son-in-law, Mr. Winkelblech, who will take charge of things in the spring, while Mr. Dutweiler will engage in other business.

Ira Gramley is still working for Wm. Bair in Rebersburg, and may keep up their butchering all winter if they find it pays. Luther Bower moves in with Mrs. Rote in the spring, when Elmer Limbert moves out. Luther expects to buy another horse and some cows and young cattle.

MILLHEIM.

Messrs. Ed. Brown and Joe Reifenynder paid a visit to Lock Haven. Some of the girls are wearing engagement rings, with guards to hold them on.

Robert Smith, late of Philadelphia, has accepted a position in the hosiery mill. The Knights of the Golden Eagle had a banquet Tuesday, November 20th. There was a pleasant time for all who attended.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Condo spent Tuesday on a drive, calling on friends through the valley. Thomas Ulrich, the barber at Lock Haven, is visiting at the home of his parents.

Miss Helen Womelsdorf, of Bellefonte, spent a few days visiting Mrs. John P. Condo. John P. Condo made a business trip to the county seat Monday.

A Village Blacksmith Saved His Little Son's Life.

Mr. H. H. Black, the well-known village blacksmith at Grahamsville, Sullivan county, N. Y., says: "Our little son, five years old, has always been subject to croup, and so bad have the attacks been that we have feared many times that he would die. We have had the doctor and used many medicines, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is now our sole reliance. It seems to dissolve the tough mucus and by giving frequent doses when the croupy symptoms appear we have found that the dreaded croup is cured before it gets settled." There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. For sale by Mrs. J. H. Keller, Linden Hall, and J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.
