CENTRE HALL, PA., Thurs., Nov. 29.

LOOK!

Look at things carefully from all points. Don't be narrow in your mind. Look at the inside, the outside, the bottom, the top.

You are not obliged to believe everything you hear or read. But don't shut yourself up within the limits of your own experience, and imagine the world and shoes are the same as they were when you were a boy.

Shoes—and the world, too, we believe—are better now than ever before. If you doubt this, you're probably been wearing the wrong kind of shoes and had your souls cramped.

This is intended for the few who have not been buying "Mingle's."

CHURCH APPOINTMENTS.

Methodist—Spring Mills, 10.30 a. m.; Spruce town, 2.30 p. m.; Centre Hall, 7 p. m.
Lutheran—Centre Hall, 10 a. m.; Union, 2 p. m.; Georges Valley, 7 p. m.
Reformed, Centre Hall, 2.30 p. m.; Tusseyville, 10.30 a. m.
Presbyterian—Centre Hall, 10.30 a. m.; Spring Mills, 2.30 p. m.

C. E. Entertainment.

The entertainment given in the Presbyterian church Friday evening by the Christian Endeavor society of that body was well patronized. Miss Barber's part of the program was entertaining, and the home talent which filled in the program was excellent. Those who participated were, Misses Claire Kennedy and Mabel Arney, duet; Miss Elsie Krise, solo; Messrs. F. J. Smith, C. H. Arney, E. W. Crawford and W. O. Rearick, quartette.

Face Cut.

James Dubbs, who operates the McNitt stove mill located near Loneberger's west of Centre Hall, met with a rather serious accident Friday of last week. He was sawing staves, when something about the saw machinery got out of place, causing a stove to fly back with terrific force, striking him on the nose and splitting that member longitudinally. The laceration was dressed by Dr. J. F. Alexander, and the patient is doing as well as can be expected.

BUCKTAILS AND MODOCS.

Two Boalsburg Hunting Parties Capture Eight Deer in the Seven Mountains.

The Modoc hunting party of Boalsburg long ago taught the "fleetfooted" in the Seven Mountains to have the greatest respect for them and not allow themselves to be seen within gunshot range during the hunting season. There are always some daring deer each fall which foolishly venture within sight of one or the other of this famous old hunting club, and this season's crop of deer was no exception to the rule, for the Modocs returned Thursday with four carcasses. The parties reported to the Reporter office as having killed the deer were of Messrs. Israel Condo, Dan Meyers, one each, and John Peters two.

THE BUCKTAILS.

The Bucktails were not behind the Modocs in capturing game, and brought with them the same number, four dead deer. This club, as will be seen, is composed of younger blood, and it is presumed that the deer, in order to escape Modocs' bullets, cast themselves upon the mercy of the Buck-tails and were not received with favor. The Buck-tails who did the slaughtering were Messrs. Thomas Riley, John Fisher, Oscar Stover, and Homer Barr, each one.

Bought a Property.

Alfred Durst purchased the house and lot occupied by D. H. Meyers and owned by C. W. Luse for $950.00. The property will be occupied by C. M. Crider, of the firm of Crider & Orwig, lumbermen, who are doing business near Linden Hall.

Mr. Durst built one of the finest dwellings in Centre Hall on Hoffer street during the past summer for his own use. It is brick cased and roofed with slate and presents an excellent appearance.

It is rumored that Mr. Durst is looking around for another property in which to invest.

Storm at Lock Haven.

Last week's storm did considerable damage in and near Lock Haven. The building now under construction for the Pennsylvania Fire Brick company at Berth Creek, was blown down and Thomas Stahl, an employe, had a leg severely injured. Two tobacco sheds belonging to Robert McCormick below that city, were torn to pieces and the crop of 1,200 acres of tobacco leaf stored in the sheds was destroyed. The tobacco shed of Thomas McKeague at McElhattan, was also destroyed and two iron stacks at L. M. Patterson & Co.'s pipe works, that city, were blown down.

WILL ERECT A MONUMENT.

The Graves of William Rishel and Wife Will be Deservingly Marked.

A monument is at present in course of construction at the marble yards of H. G. Strohmeier, at this place, which will mark the last resting place of William Rishel and his wife, Margaret, who died during 1900, and were buried in the United Evangelical cemetery, near Tusseyville.

The monument is of dark Quincy granite, sarcophagus style, with urn. Mr. Rishel and his good wife did many good deeds during their life time for which they will be remembered for generations to come, but a marker such as their relatives propose erecting to their memory is especially fitting. Mr. Rishel was an ardent supporter of the United Evangelical church during his lifetime, and besides contributing at all times largely towards its support he donated the present site of the church as well as the cemetery in connection with it in which his body rests today.

The monument will be put into position within a week.

Wright Riley Killed.

Wright Riley, of Woodland, was instantly killed by a large tree falling on him while out hunting Wednesday afternoon of last week. The unfortunate man and his friend Ulysses Walker, during the hunt that day chased a rabbit into its burrow, and while in the act of digging the animal out, a large tree was torn from its roots by the wind and fell upon him, crushing his skull. Walker was hurt but not seriously.

Mr. Riley was prominent in musical circles and was leader of the Phillips band. He was a married man and leaves a wife and several children.

Fire at Milroy.

Milroy narrowly escaped a disastrous fire Friday afternoon. At the Thompson woolen mill about 2.30 o'clock fire started in the picking department from one of the machines, igniting the wool and for a time the destruction of this important industry seemed imminent. Fortunately the fire was extinguished before a great amount of damage was done.

Boom for Williamsport.

The rains of this and last week will enable saw mill owners in Williamsport to secure 20,000,000 feet of logs lying between that city and Keating. Sixty million feet of logs lie in the river beyond Keating but it will take unusual good logging floods to bring them to the mills.

Leg Broken.

John From, of near Boalsburg, was seriously injured while twenty miles from home in the Seven Mountains Thursday of last week, by being kicked by a horse. Mr. From had gone to the mountains in a two horse wagon to bring back the traps of a hunting party. Something got out of place at the harness, and he stepped from the wagon on the tongue to replace it, when his foot slipped and he fell between the horses. One of the animals became frightened at the commotion and kicked, striking Mr. From on the leg below the knee, breaking both bones. The stroke was sufficiently hard to cause the bones to protrude through the flesh.

Mr. From stood the long and rough ride home very well. Dr. Kidder reduced the fracture, and the patient is doing as well as can be expected.

His Hand in a Shredder.

Saturday of last week John Garner, of State College, got his left hand into a corn shredder and had it cut in a horrible manner. It was necessary to amputate the arm about two inches below the elbow, which was done by Dr. Glenn. The unfortunate man is an employe on one of the college farms. He is getting along very well.

Married at Spring Mills.

Jeremiah Snively and Mrs. Sarah C. Heckman, both of Spring Mills, were married at the home of Mrs. Heckman Monday evening, by Rev. J. M. Rearick. The bride was the widow of Daniel F. Heckman and is a lady held in high esteem. The Reporter wishes Mr. and Mrs. Snively a happy life.

Thanks Giving Services.

Thanksgiving services were held in the Boalsburg Reformed church by Rev. White, M. E. Divine, of Pleasant Gap, and at Lemont in the Presbyterian church by Rev. J. M. Rearick, of Centre Hall.

Large Attendance at Court.

Court was largely attended by Penns Valley people this week, several cases of more or less importance being on trial in which they were interested. The suit against the borough entered by the Misses Bible to prove a certain contract involving a water deal, was postponed. The court was crowded with commonwealth cases which are always given preference. The Bible suit was begun at the instigation of parties who had it in for the borough, although they have nothing to lose or make, go as the suit will. Once in the toils, the Bibles were left to paddle their own canoe. The postponement will give time for sober consideration.

Fatally Wounded.

Frank Brindle, son of Mrs. Isaac Aunrand, of Ferguson Valley, Mifflin county, with whom he made his home, met with a horrible accident while out hunting Thursday of last week. He was in the woods and was standing on a log, his gun resting thereon, when the log turned and the gun slipped off, the hammers striking and discharging the gun. The load struck him at the one side of the abdomen, tearing a terrible hole from which his bowels protruded. The workmen at a saw mill near by went to his assistance and carried him to the saw mill. Dr. Sweigart gave the young victim surgical attention, but the fatal character of the wound was apparent. Death relieved his sufferings Thursday evening. He was aged nineteen years.

Removed a Cataract.

Dr. C. S. Musser, assisted by Dr. Schwenck of Will's Eye Hospital, Philadelphia, removed a cataract from one of M. M. Musser's eyes. It cannot be said positively for several days whether the operation is a success or not, time only will tell whether the sight has been improved, but judging from the skill of the physicians in charge there is great hope.

The "Loopers" Kill.

A hunting party from various parts of the South side of Potter township, who call themselves the "Loopers" took a day's hunt in the Seven Mountains Saturday and had the good fortune to kill a fine deer. Jacob Royer was the lucky man to get the shot at the game, but it was skill and not luck that directed the bullet.

Brokerhoff House.

John J. Shanfelter, of Williamsport, will become proprietor of the Brokerhoff House, Saturday, December 1. Elmer Thompson, the present host, will conduct the Ickyl club house, Georgia, a branch of the Union League of New York.
