Bellefonte, Pa.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

Gilbert W. Deitzel has returned from Jeanette, Pa., to Tusseyville.

George Michael and wife and Mrs. Nancy Michael reached Bushnell, Ill., Wednesday of last week.

Joseph Lutz is handling farm seeds for George K. Higbie & Co., Rochester, N. Y., and will call on you.

George Osker is considering the advisability of moving to Lewisburg, and recently went to that place for a few days with that end in view.

Mrs. J. W. Zeigler and sister, Miss Winifred Wolf, of Rebersburg, delighted their Centre Hall friends with a short visit Friday and Saturday last.

Misses Anna and Sarah Breen, Edith and Anna Lutz and George Breen, were a party of young people who spent Sunday at Rock View, with John Bender.

Alment E. Reed, superintendent of the Altoona Division of the Pennsylvania railroad, died in Philadelphia, in the University of Pennsylvania hospital after submitting to an operation.

Mr. Denington, a Sophomore at Pennsylvania State College, was entertained during the Thanksgiving vacation by the Misses Rhone, as was also Miss Nell Woods, of Boalsburg.

Last Saturday John Forster drove up from Aaronsburg to Centre Hall, bringing with him his mother and sister, and Miss Jennie Steans, of Millinburg. The party spent the day at the Presbyterian Manse.

Mrs. Geary, wife of David Geary, who lives on the Grossman homestead near the Red Mill, and who has been in delicate health for some time, is seriously thinking of going to a Philadelphia hospital for relief.

Miss Ida Rhoads, who as most of the Reporter readers know is an excellent performer on a variety of musical instruments, and a skilled instructor in music, was called to Phillipsburg recently to play the wedding march at a prominent wedding.

Andy Rote, east of Centre Hall, made a hurried call on the Reporter Thursday. Mr. Rote is farming the Jerre Snavely farm, and is a successful farmer. He is not a bit afraid of work and that's the kind of man that makes farming go his way.

C. M. Crider and family, of near Lamar, Clinton county, moved to town Thursday of last week. Mr. Crider is a member of the firm of Orwig & Crider, a lumber firm doing business near Linden Hall, and is an energetic gentleman and will make an excellent citizen.

John Miller, of Bellefonte, formerly of Axemann, made a pleasant call Friday. Mr. Miller is an old reader of the Reporter and dropped in on an even date to pay another year's subscription in advance. That's largely the kind of readers the Reporter has.

George B. Stover, of Fiedler, purchased the J. W. Stam properties, situated on Penn street, says the Millheim Journal, which were sold at sheriff's sale in Bellefonte last Saturday. Consideration was about $1,800. Mr. Stover will move to Millheim in the spring.

Rev. G. W. Leisher, of Boalsburg, last Sunday installed his son, William Leisher, pastor of the Brookville, Jefferson county charge of the Lutheran church. Rev. Leisher, Jr., is a graduate of the Pennsylvania College, Gettysburg, and also of the Gettysburg Seminary.

Samuel Gilliland, son of station master James C. Gilliland, of Oak Hall, next spring will graduate from the Veterinary Department of the Pennsylvania University, Philadelphia. Mr. Gilliland has been doing considerable work for State Veterinary Surgeon Leonard Pearson.

Ed. Kerlin is home from Pittsburg, for a short vacation.

Miles Arney, student at Pennsylvania State College, spent his Thanksgiving vacation at home.

Wm. O. Dougherty, of Oak Hall Station, recently moved to Pine Hall and will devote his time to the sale of Champion harvesting machines.

The other Sunday dogs chased a deer into the dam at the Red mill. The frightened animal swam about the greater part of the day.

Edward C. Nearhood Tuesday will move to Bellefonte, where he holds a position with the wholesale hardware firm of Potter & Hoy.

Dr. Riter sent a portion of the lungs, etc., of the hog that died for G. W. Glace to Dr. Pearson, at Harrisburg. An examination failed to detect any signs of hog cholera.

Misses Lizzie Young, of Altoona, and Ollie Steel, of Bellefonte, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Dinges, at Boalsburg. Something very complimentary might be said about these young ladies' looks, but the personal column is no place to pass remarks on pretty faces and figures.

Wm. G. Hoffer, wife and baby, of Salina, Kansas, while in the east for a brief stay stopped with friends in Centre Hall this week and called on the Reporter. Mr. Hoffer holds a part interest in a newspaper published in Kansas, and if it cannot be disposed of he will return and take charge himself. If he can sell he will likely locate in Ohio.

Samuel Durst, after finishing his duties as a grand jurymen, went to Lock Haven on a visit to his sister, Mrs. John D. McClintic. Mr. Durst thinks the river bottom land between Lock Haven and Jersey Shore would be a pleasure to farm. The crops in that section, however, were no better last season than in Penns Valley.

Frank Moyer, of near Centre Hall, came to the honest conclusion that he had lived long enough in this world without reading the Reporter, and accordingly "laid out" for a year's subscription. Mr. Moyer is one of the lucky "R. A. M." hunters, and was one of the party who ended a deer's career at a distance of fully one hundred yards. He is an old hand at the business.

MILLHEIM.

Miss Mittie Winkleman, of Nittany, and Mrs. Mary Dorman and daughter, of Bellefonte, were visitors at J. H. B. Hartman's over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cantner and their grand-daughter, Rhodie Hoover, left Tuesday morning of last week for an extended visit in West Virginia and Ohio. Mr. Cantner has four sons in the oil fields, whom they want to visit.

Ed. Williams, of Boalsburg, was the guest of his brother-in-law, Prof. Rothrock Saturday and Sunday.

Charles Sheffer, of Muncy, spent Sunday in town.

Mrs. Lizzie Snook and son Stover, of State College, were in town over Thanksgiving.

W. R. Musser and his chum, Mr. Hendricks, students at State College, spent their Thanksgiving vacation in town.

The town council purchased a gasoline arc light for the diamond; it arrived on Friday, was put up and tried, and gives very good satisfaction.

John Rymestine, of Selingsgrove, is visiting his father, George Rymestine, north of town.

Harry Bibighaus, the hustling hardware salesman, was entertained by merchant J. W. Stover Monday.

BRUSH VALLEY.

Butchering was in season last week. H. H. Miller, of Rebersburg, killed two hogs weighing 441 and 401 pounds respectively, thus taking the lead. Thomas Walker was second, his hog weighing 421 pounds. There were quite a number of hogs killed in the valley weighing 350 pounds and over.

Harry Fiedler, son of Josiah Fiedler, of Madisonburg, is stricken with typhoid fever.

The protracted meeting at Madisonburg is prospering; they have had some thirty seekers thus far and the meeting is still in progress.

Prof. E. M. Brungart, of Rebersburg, has again returned to his place of teaching at Cross Forks, Potter county, after being confined to bed four weeks with typhoid fever.

Henry Meyer, Jr., who is attending school at Fredericksburg, Lebanon county, was home to spend Thanksgiving and help eat the turkey.

Wallace Brungart is home to spend a few days. Mr. Brungart has learned the art of cooking and has been employed at Sunbury.

J. C. Bierly is erecting buildings on his lots at the west end of town.

The teachers of Miles township are anxiously looking forward to Institute, which they feel confident will be a grand success under the supervision of the worthy superintendent, C. L. Gramley and a corps of such able instructors.

Jackson Lambert, of Madisonburg, is housed up with an attack of gout and nervousness.

The recent rains have swelled the streams, they are bank full.

State Apportionment.

Politicians are figuring out what effect apportionment of the State into Senatorial and legislative districts under the 1900 census will have. According to some calculations Centre county will lose one representative. It is calculated that the State will gain four representatives.

Winter Schedule.

The winter schedule went into effect on the Pennsylvania railroad Monday. Changes in the time table published elsewhere in the Reporter were made accordingly. There is no change in the time on the L. & T.

LINDEN HALL.

H. C. Gettig, of this place, spent part of last and this week with friends at State College and Oak Hall.

Miss Bessie Seanson, one of the charming young ladies of this place, spent Thanksgiving with friends at Centre Hall.

John McPherson and family, of Boalsburg, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mrs. McPherson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Spicher, east of town.

Mr. and Mrs. George Seanson spent Friday of last week with friends at Centre Hall.

County Superintendent C. L. Gramley visited the schools in this community Monday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brooks and son Lee spent last week with friends at Pine Glenn and returned home Saturday with an abundance of wild game. Pine Glenn seems to be a kind of rendezvous for wild game.

On Friday evening of last week the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Tressler was filled with a pleasant party of young people, who had gathered to do honor to the birthday anniversary of their son Robert. All had a pleasant time and did not go home until the "wee small" hours of the morning, well pleased with the evening's entertainment. Mr. Tressler was the recipient of many valuable and handsome presents.

BOALSBURG.

O. W. Stover killed the largest porker in town; it tipped the scale at 582 pounds. Cyrus Durst killed two the combined weight being 880 pounds, and Edward Woomey killed one that weighed 445 pounds. Boalsburg for big hogs.

Prof. J. C. Bryson closed his school Monday noon and took the train for Millinburg to transact some very important business; he returned Tuesday morning.

Owing to inclement weather on the evening of the 25th, the Reformed League did not have a Thanksgiving meeting which was to be conducted by Prof. J. C. Bryson, and on the following Sunday evening the League held a special meeting opened by Prof. Bryson and closed by Mr. George Meyers. The main audience room was comfortably filled.

The Reformed League on the evening of the 9th will be conducted by Miss Effie Long; the subject is, "How to Listen."

The Reformed Sunday school superintendent appointed the following committee to purchase the Christmas supplies: Wm. Mothersbaugh, Misses Catharine Meyer and Effie Long; the committee will meet some time during the week.

The Presbyterians are holding services every evening during the week and will hold communion Sunday morning.

Wm. Woods returned home from the Westing House works at Pittsburg for a short vacation.

Among the tens of thousands who have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for colds and a gripe during the past few years, to our knowledge, not a single case has resulted in pneumonia. Thos. Whitfield & Co., 240 Wabash avenue, Chicago, one of the most prominent retail druggists in that city, in speaking of this says: "We recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a gripe in many cases, as it not only gives prompt and complete recovery, but also counteracts any tendency of a gripe to result in pneumonia." For sale by Mrs. J. W. Keller, Linden Hall; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

INGLEBY ITEMS.

Fine weather for game hunting.—The Ingleby scribe visited the High Valley scribe during his butchering. The High Valley scribe wants to sell his gray mare.—Dr. Barker is busy doctoring sick horses.—Henry Elsenhuth has four fine hogs to kill this week. Ditto W. Coonsman.—Feed is scarce through here. One man has six head of horses and not enough hay to make a chicken nest.

The Best Plaster.

A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound to the affected parts is superior to any plaster. When troubled with lame back or pains in the side or chest, give it a trial and you are certain to be more than pleased with the prompt relief which it affords. Pain Balm also cures rheumatism. One application gives relief. For sale by Mrs. J. W. Keller, Linden Hall; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall. The Centre Reporter one dollar.
