S. W. SMITH, Editor and Proprietor.

CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS., DEC. 20

TERMS.—The terms of subscription to the Reporter are one dollar per year in advance.

OLD SUBSCRIBERS can pay One Dollar any time during 1900 and get the paper for one year beginning July 1, 1900.

OLD SUBSCRIBERS whose subscriptions are paid in advance of July 1st, 1900, will get the same credit as though the paper had not changed hands.

FOR TWENTY-FIVE CENTS the Reporter will be sent to NEW SUBSCRIBERS from now until January 1st.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—20 cents per line for three insertions, and 5 cents per line for each subsequent insertion. Other rates made known on application.

NEW ARMY BILL.

The Hull bill for a larger army passed the House by a vote of 166 to 133. The most exciting debate was over the proposition to abolish the sale of liquor in the army.

The following are condensed statistics of the new army bill as passed by the House:

Table with 2 columns: Category and Amount. Includes Maximum strength (96,766), Minimum strength (58,274), Infantry (maximum) (50,080), Cavalry (maximum) (18,225), etc.

HARRISON SCORES ADMINISTRATION.

The former occupant of the White House has stirred up a hornet's nest in Washington, where the Administration and its friends are deeply chagrined over his lecture delivered last Friday before students of Michigan University.

James Ettinger has thrown up his job in the Chronicle office at Lewisburg and is about starting out to look up something better, or will at least pay him better.

Mrs. John Yarger, who had been quite ill for some time with pleurisy, is again better, but at the least she is an invalid and at times suffers a great deal.

The hunting season having closed, deer are getting to be quite tame and come into the fields about town. The same with rabbits; they come into the yards and play around like cats.

THE LEGISLATURE.

The next session of the Pennsylvania Legislature promises to be full of interest. Municipal reformers, County Commissioners, representatives of third class cities, the farmers, the lawyers and other organized callings that have held meetings during the past year have passed resolutions asking for legislative action upon many subjects of public importance.

The Pennsylvania State Grange recommends the establishment of rural, or township High Schools, and an appropriation for the encouragement of nature study in the public schools.

At the County Commissioners' Convention, held in October, resolutions favoring legislation which will give fixed salaries to all county officers and provide for the payment of fees into the county treasuries were passed.

Mr. Austin, an architect employed by A. G. Morris, at the stone quarry at Milroy, fell from a building upon which he was working and was seriously injured.

The most effective little liver pills made are De Witt's Little Early Risers. They never gripe. J. D. Murray.

There is a possibility of Milroy having an electric light plant, and the village being lighted by electricity.

De Witt's Little Early Risers are dainty little pills, but they never fail to cleanse the liver, remove obstructions and invigorate the system. J. D. Murray.

Perhaps if England and the United States would combine forces they might be able to subjugate the Philippines and then do up the Dutch and divide the spoils. In union there is strength.

Now is the time when croup and lung trouble prove rapidly fatal. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results is One Minute Cough Cure. It is very pleasant to take and can be relied upon to quickly cure coughs, colds and all lung diseases. It will prevent consumption. J. D. Murray.

portionment since 1887. There has been a clear violation of "a plain duty" here.

The State revenues and appropriations are always supremely important subjects of legislative action, and public interest will be revived in the struggle for the election of a United States Senator.

A bill has been introduced in the Porto Rico House of Delegates to grant unrestricted suffrage to women.

The House Monday defeated a bill giving veterans of the Spanish and Philippine wars preference in Government appointments.

Col. Wm. Jennings Bryan declares positively that he is not a candidate for United States Senator from Nebraska. He says he has other plans.

The British have the Boers so completely under control that during last week only one thousand British subjects were killed. Remember, only one thousand.

Col. W. J. Bryan will begin the publication of a newspaper—"The Commoner"—in Lincoln, Nebraska. The title selected is suggestive of the man himself, his methods and beliefs.

An article of note in the January number of McClure's Magazine will be entitled, "Great Achievements in Modern Bridge Building," by Mr. Frank W. Skinner, of The Engineering Record.

Schools closed and teachers away to institute makes the west end of town rather quiet. The pupils of the three schools can make quite a racket when they start in.

Aaron Bower, of Renovo, is home on a visit to his father. It has been over two years since he last was home. His father, John Bower, was 83 years old on the 21st ultimo.

James Ettinger has thrown up his job in the Chronicle office at Lewisburg and is about starting out to look up something better, or will at least pay him better.

Mrs. John Yarger, who had been quite ill for some time with pleurisy, is again better, but at the least she is an invalid and at times suffers a great deal.

Bert Harene, of Westfield, Tioga county, died from anthrax poisoning. He was ill but four days. He became inoculated with the anthrax germs by handling hides from Brazil.

Many persons have had the experience of Mr. Peter Sherman, of North Stratford, N. H., who says, for years I suffered torture from chronic indigestion, but Kodol Dyspepsia Cure made a well man of me. It digests what you eat and is a certain cure for dyspepsia and every form of stomach trouble. It gives relief at once even in the worst cases, and can't help but do you good. J. D. Murray.

Coburn. Merchant James E. Harter had business at the county seat Wednesday.

Mrs. Sarah Wilson, of Zion, is at present visiting friends in this section. The stores are assuming their holiday attire.

John Waite and family, of Smithport, Pa., are visiting their parents at this place at present.

Mrs. Ezra Burd, who was taken violently sick last week while visiting her mother at Aaronsburg, is still confined to her bed.

Miss Bertha Kerstetter is visiting friends at Pleasant Gap this week. She will also attend Teachers' Institute at Bellefonte.

Pepper has advanced in price since that box of the same made its disappearance from the store porch of one of our merchants last week.

Spring Mills.

Cold weather has come. Michael Shires has been nursing a rheumatic arm for several weeks, which at times caused him considerable pain.

Dr. Braught has been kept very busy for some time. George Mensch, of Millheim, was seen in town last week one day. Geo. does a big lively business; he turns out first-class rigs, and is a jolly good fellow.

The hunting season closed last Saturday, and J. O. McCormick has now turned his attention to fishing; he is the champion rod and line fisher for suckers. He brought home a fine string, some eighteen inches.

James McCool lost one of his fat hogs with cholera. Mr. Homan of the lumber firm of Shaffer & Homan, went to Philadelphia a week ago for horses; he returned with two fine, heavy draft horses, which he bought at a reasonable price.

John Smith and daughter May, spent last week at Pine Grove Mills, taking care of his sick brother. Emanuel Shook thinks the farm he recently purchased from Mr. Waltz ought to be subsoiled to improve it. No doubt it will improve it in drainage after the hard pan is broken through.

Gregg township can boast of having the poorest roads in Pennsylvania, but not for want of material. A good stone crusher and a bed of crushed stone would answer the purpose. For the past few weeks, through the wet season, we had nothing but mud roads and mud holes. The twenty-two hundred dollars were spent as usual, and the roads are no better than they have been for the past ten years.

The heavy tax payers should look after the interest of their money and see that they get better value for their money. Stop and think of the amount of money spent each year, and no better results. All the stores are in holiday attire, and are well equipped for the Christmas trade.

If you would have an appetite like a bear and a relish for your meals take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They correct disorders of the stomach and regulate the liver and bowels. Price, 25 cents. Samples free at Mrs. J. W. Keller's, Linden Hall; J. F. Smith's, Centre Hall.

George Cannon, of Keating, sold the antlers of a deer the other day for forty-five dollars. The antlers had thirteen prongs on one side and fourteen on the other.

How to Cure Croup.

Mr. R. Gray, who lives near Amenia, Dutchess county, N. Y., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best medicine I have ever used. It is a fine children's remedy for croup and never fails to cure." When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has developed, it will prevent the attack. This should be borne in mind and a bottle of the Cough Remedy kept at hand ready for instant use as soon as these symptoms appear. For sale by Mrs. J. W. Keller, Linden Hall; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

Nothing is more suggestive of the gentleman than clean linen. Give your shirts, cuffs and collars to Wm. McCoy Wolf and have them laundered at the Bellefonte Steam Laundry.

When the stomach is tired out it must have rest, but can't live without food. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure "digests what you eat" so that you can eat all the good food you want while it is restoring the digestive organs to health. It is the only preparation that digests all kinds of food. J. D. Murray.

A number of Centre Hall and valley people are attending teachers' institute.

When you need a soothing and healing antiseptic application for any purpose, use the original De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve, a well known cure for piles and skin diseases. It heals sores without leaving a scar. Beware of counterfeits. J. D. Murray.
