Potters Mills.

The sick in and about town are, Mr. Evans, James Palmer, John McClenahan, and Mrs. John Miller.

The funeral of Mrs. Alex. McCoy on Thursday was largely attended, and well conducted by Smith Bros.

Mrs. Platts, of Muncy, is visiting her parents at this place.

Merchant Frank Carson was in Bellefonte one day this week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Burris, of Linden Hall, visited her brother, James Stover.

Miss Blanche Heckman and friend, of Sunbury, spent several days with her sister, Mrs. Reish.

Lot McClenahan, of Philadelphia, was home during the holidays.

Mrs. Anna Hartman spent the holidays in Georges Valley, with her brother and sister.

Jesse McClenahan and brother Lot made a flying trip to Altoona last week.

Arthur Alexander, of Millheim, took dinner with Miss Kathryn Wilkinson.

Rev. Potts and wife, of Huntingdon; Samuel McCoy and wife, of Jersey Shore, and Rev. Wilson, of Williamsport, attended the funeral of Mrs. McCoy.

Spring Mills.

A new boarder came to the home of Frank Hannah; also to the home of Rev. Fenstermaker.

The ice crop has been a fine one, and most of the ice houses have been filled.

O. T. Corman is nursing a very sore eye.

C. P. Long made a business trip to Sunbury and Harrisburg. At the latter place Mr. Long joined the politicians.

Among those who are home to spend their vacation are Merrell Allison, Ward Gramley, Windom Gramley, Robert Van Valzah, Clyde Chloote, and Charles Allison, who are students at various colleges.

W. H. Smith moved on New Year's day into the home he lately purchased of the Heckman estate.

Miss May Smith spent Saturday and Sunday at Centre Hall with friends and relatives.

Perry Breen, of near Centre Hall, was here on a business trip.

The Grange hall purchased by the United Evangelical Association will be opened in the near future as a church. It has been remodeled and will make a neat building in which to worship.

Mrs. Kate Carson, of Potters Mills, was in town on business.

John Zerby employed on the Culp lumber job, spent a week with his family.

Mrs. Mary Craphe had a family reunion. Those present were, Mrs. King, of Sugar Valley; John, of Aaronsburg; Austin, of Centre Hall; George, of Johnstown, and Bessie, at home. They all had a pleasant time, long to be remembered.

The Mother's Favorite.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the mother's favorite. It is pleasant and safe for children to take and always cures. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup, and whooping cough, and is the best medicine made for these diseases. There is not the least danger in giving it to children as it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. For sale by Mrs. J. W. Keller, Linden Hall; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

Philip D. Armour, head of the big packing interests at Chicago, died at his home in that city.

The most soothing, healing and antiseptic application ever devised is De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. It relieves at once and cures piles, sores, eczema and skin diseases. Beware of imitations. J. D. Murray.

See the auctioneer card of W. A. Sandoe, in another column.

Rebersburg.

January 1.

Two of our active young men, C. Orvis Frank and Victor I. Walker have been spending their holiday vacation at home, and expect to resume their studies at Susquehanna University Jan. 3, '01. They report progress in every department and omens for a successful year.

W. H. Derr, a seminarian from Susquehanna University, has been visiting friends at Rebersburg and also assisted Rev. Harman in his usual serene manner.

The members of the I. O. O. F. held their annual banquet last Saturday evening. It was well attended and proved to be one of the most enjoyable events of the season.

Elery Krape, the jovial liveryman from Clintondale, has been circulating among friends and relatives and forming new acquaintances among the gentler folk.

J. R. Brungart has been very much annoyed recently by painful carbuncles which kept him indoors and prevented him from enjoying the wished for merry Christmas.

Katharine Bair has been visiting her brother George at Williamsport, and enjoying the usual holiday festivities of the busy city.

Mrs. H. G. Krape is visiting at Harrisburg, where her husband enjoys a lucrative position.

Sunday evening the United Evangelical Sunday school rendered a well prepared Christmas entertainment before a crowded house. The Esler Sunday school rendered an equally interesting and entertaining exercise on Monday evening following.

William Scholl, son of Alice Scholl, who has been attending Lloydsville Orphan's school for the last five years, surprised his mother and friends by paying them a visit.

Edwin and Kline Royer, students at Lebanon Business College, have added happiness to the parental fireside by their presence. They will return to their studies in the near future.

The genial good fellow, Jonathan Royer, is circulating among his many friends in and about town, renewing old acquaintances and forming new ones.

The home of Henry Scholl has been the scene of a happy family reunion. William W. has been the successful pastor of the M. E. church at Renova for the last two years; Lee and his sister Lizzie are located at Fredericksburg, Pa., while Mrs. Lillian Baker lives at Huntingdon.

Prof. E. M. Brungart returned Monday to resume work as principal of the Cross Roads schools, after a week's vacation. Prof. seems to have gained his full weight and strength again.

Ed. A. Zeigler after spending a week with friends in town, left for Lock Haven on Tuesday, to pay a short visit to his cousin, Mrs. Curt. Greninger before going back to college at Franklin and Marshall.

Orvis Frank and Victor Walker will return to college, Selingsgrove, Monday. Orvis, Victor and Prof. Morris had a game of Association ball on Saturday afternoon, which was quite interesting to the town people.

The Moyer girls have again returned to their schools; Elizabeth, to Wilkesbarre; Sara to Danville, and Rebecca to the Bloomsburg Normal.

A quiet wedding took place at the Lutheran parsonage on Christmas night, the contracting parties being Charles Shaffer and Miss Stover, both of Madisonburg.

The houses in town all seem to be taken and several parties have, as yet no place to move.

W. H. Corman had a birthday party for his wife on Saturday, Dec. 23, a complete surprise. The following persons were present: James Hoy and wife, State College; Solomon Peck and wife, Houston, Pa.; Samuel Wolfe and wife, Tylerstown; Daniel Wolfe and wife, Booneville; Thomas Brungart, wife and daughter Mabel, Wolf's Store; Mrs. Reuben Meyer, Wm. Lintbert and family, A. N. Corman and family, J. R. Brungart and wife, Mrs. Geo. Corman and child, Rebersburg; Rose Diehl and son, Bellevue, Ohio; Ada Stover and daughter, Penn Hall; Adam Greninger and wife, Kremerville; H. C. Musser and family, Spring Mills, and Charles Hoy, Madisonburg.

Mrs. Cyrus Erhart is again very sick with her old complaint.

The week of prayer will be observed in this place next week. At Madisonburg union services will be held by the Lutheran and Reformed congregations. The enterprising blacksmith, Jacob Heller, is crowded with work.

A Prominent Chicago Woman Speaks. Prof. Boxa Tyler, of Chicago, Vice-President Illinois Woman's Alliance, in speaking of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, says: "I suffered with a severe cold this winter which threatened to run into pneumonia. I tried different remedies but I seemed to grow worse and the medicine upset my stomach. A friend advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and I found it was pleasant to take and it relieved me at once. I am now entirely recovered, saved a doctor's bill, time and suffering, and I will never be without this splendid medicine again." For sale by Mrs. J. W. Keller, Linden Hall, and J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

Miss Eessie Cooney, of Colyer, was a guest at the home of Andrew Zettie last week.

The public sale at Jeremiah Hoy's, in Brush Valley on Thursday was largely attended, and everything brought fair prices. The real estate was sold to Israel Rachau, of Mackeyville; consideration, $1180.

I. W. Zeigler, teacher of the Cross Roads school, spent Sunday visiting his parents at Linden Hall.

J. B. Fisher's Sons, merchants of this village, had their show windows fixed up in artistic style over Christmas. One of the windows represented "Santa Claus" in full uniform.

J. C. Condo, the up-to-date coachmaker, states that he will build a larger line of buggies this winter for the summer trade than ever before. Any one contemplating buying a first-class buggy or road wagon will do well to consult Mr. Condo for prices.

John Mesmer is working on Ira Bringer's saw mill at Madisonburg.

The young people are having lots of parties these nice moonlight nights.

The Evangelical Association gave their Sunday school a treat on Christmas.

Rev. Leopold, P. E., of Philadelphia, preached a very able sermon in the Evangelical church one evening last week.

Fred K. Carter and wife, of Centre Hall, were the guests of the gentleman's brother, Joseph Carter on Sunday.

Charles A. Rachau and wife, of Madisonburg, visited at the home of W. C. Burrell Sunday.

D. W. Zeigler, the up-to-date carpet weaver, is busily engaged in making a lot of handsome rugs.

Miss Elsie Ulrich, of Millheim, spent her holiday vacation at the home of D. A. Ertel, north of town.

Jeweler Clyde Roper did a rushing business over the holidays, in the way of furnishing Christmas presents.

Robert Hettinger is in the pulp wood business.

The Christmas entertainment held in the Reformed church on Sunday evening was a decided success. The children acquitted themselves nobly in their recitations, and the music under the direction of J. S. Meyer, was extraordinarily well rendered.

Mrs. Anna Kritzer and family visited friends at Howard the other week.

Mrs. Rose Diehl and son, from Ohio, visited her sister, Mrs. W. F. Stover, the past week.

Leonard Mesmer, who had been confined to the house is able to be around again.

H. F. McManaway, of Rochester, N. Y., spent his holiday vacation in town and served as best man at the Meyer-Condo wedding.

Andrew C. Sheesley purchased a saw mill engine from Clark Gramley, of Rebersburg, and will operate his mill for C. P. Long, the lumber king.

Miss Sadie V. Ocker, of Madisonburg, spent Christmas among friends here.

Jacob D. Breen from Spring Mills, and Lonisa A. Ream from here were married on New Years evening.

Unskilled mechanics blame their tools for doing unmechanical work. Our tools were never in such hands. The work turned out of this shop is mechanical in appearance and in reality. We are prepared to do Repair Work of Every Description.

Clean Linen.

Nothing is more suggestive of the gentleman than clean linen. Give your shirts, cuffs and collars to Wm. McCoy Wolf and have them laundered at the Bellefonte Steam Laundry.

Persons who suffer from indigestion can not expect to live long, because they cannot eat the food required to nourish the body and the products of the undigested foods they do eat poison the blood. It is important to cure indigestion as soon as possible, and the best method of doing this is to use the preparation known as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat and restores all the digestive organs to perfect health. J. D. Murray.

Secretary Root voiced his opposition to the amendment to the army reorganization bill providing for a veterinary corps on the ground that it would add another bureau to the many already under the control of the War Department.

When threatened by pneumonia or any other lung trouble, prompt relief is necessary, as it is dangerous to delay. We would suggest that One Minute Cough Cure be taken as soon as indications of having taken cold are noticed. It cures quickly and its early use prevents consumption. J. D. Murray.
