

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

Isaac Shawver grooms a dinky in the Seven mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Boob and daughter Grace, spent a day at Millheim last week.

J. B. Royer, of Centre Hill, announces the sale of his farm stock and implements March 12.

J. C. Brown, of Centre Hill, was a caller. He is one of the farmers who will not shift next spring.

Isaac Smith, who for four years has held a clerkship in Cook's department store, Altoona, is home on a vacation.

Miss Louise Spangler, of Bellefonte, spent several days with her grandparents, ex-Sheriff and Mrs. John Spangler.

David Burrell, of Spring Mills, attended the installation of officers of Samuel Shannon Post, which took place Saturday.

W. O. Rearick, of the Centre Hall foundry and machine shops, made a business trip to Belleville, Mifflin county, Saturday.

Oscar Gaines and mother, of Clearfield county, spent the last week of 1900 with the family of farmer George W. Glace, west of town.

Miss Mary McCormick, of State College, daughter of Hon. John T. McCormick, was the guest of Miss Maybel Keller a few days ago.

W. G. Fisher, salesman for the grocery house of Kurtz & Meyers, Sunbury, Pa., passed through Centre Hall on one of his regular trips.

Thomas E. Palmer, one of the sterling young men of Potters Mills, while in town some days ago, spent a short time pleasantly in this office.

Ephraim Harter, of Centre Hill, was a caller the other day. Mr. Harter is an experienced miller and does satisfactory work at the "Red Mill."

The marriage of Miss Eleanor Louise Irwin, of Jacksonville, and Jesse B. Rasser, of Mill Hall, took place at Jacksonville during the holidays.

Miss Minerva Dashem, daughter of J. W. Dashem, of near Centre Hill, took sick a few days after returning from attending teacher's institute.

John Rachau, Harvey Rhoads and James Duck are contemplating putting saw mills east of Penn's Cave on wood land belonging to those gentlemen.

W. Howard Homan has secured work at the carpenter trade at Montandon and accordingly changed his location from Altoona to that place.

Bessie Dubbs, instructor in music at Fredericksburg College, has been spending her vacation in Rebersburg, and assisted in the rendition of several Christmas exercises.

M. Musser, of Nittany Valley, is reported to have rented the Jacob Runkle farm at Stone Mill, which will be vacated by John C. Bible, who moves to Centre Hill, as stated before.

Wm. Zerby, of near Spring Mills, was one of the Reporter's visitors. Mr. Zerby is of the opinion that the present weather conditions are not too favorable to a good crop of winter wheat.

J. H. Reifsnnyder, Esq., of Millheim, made a business trip to Centre Hall Saturday, and called at this office for a brief chat. 'Squire Reifsnnyder is one of the most substantial citizens of lower Penn's Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wolf, of Rebersburg, were in Centre Hall the guests of the Wolf family, week before last. Ex-Commissioner Wolf will make sale of his entire farm stock and implements on March 20.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Heckman, west of Centre Hall, spent Christmas with the latter's father, W. A. Boal, at Tyrone. Miss Martha Boal, who had been seriously ill for some time, has almost recovered.

Miss Estie Ocker, daughter of G. W. Ocker, began her studies at Bucknell with the beginning of the year. Mr. and Mrs. Ocker will move to Lewisburg in the spring, in order that the family may not be separated.

George Knights, conductor on the Bellefonte side of the L. & T. local freight was transferred to Philadelphia and Erie R. R., which left a vacancy, to which flagman Cyrus Underwood was promoted. Brakeman John Fisher was promoted flagman.

John Zeigler, who farmed the John Wolf farm near Rebersburg for a number of years, will move to Rebersburg in the spring, and live retired. Mr. Geistwite, of Sugar Valley, will become tenant on the Wolf farm.

A number of young people of this place attended the "Old Maid's Convention" at Boalsburg, New Year's evening. They were highly entertained and speak well of the ability of those who took part in the exercises.

Clyde Smith is improving from his serious injuries received by falling from a telephone arm several weeks ago at State College. At present he is able to walk about the house but is suffering considerable from a healed jaw, the result of a splintered jaw bone.

Misses Edith and Anna Lutz, the latter a typo in this office, returned from Lewisburg Saturday where they spent a week pleasantly with friends and relatives.

H. I. Brungart, the energetic insurance agent of Rebersburg, has been looking after his interests in the Smoky City and about Scottsdale. Not being of a selfish disposition, he invited his cousin, Sara Brungart, of Bellefonte, to accompany him.

Mr. and Mrs. Christian Platt, of Farmers Mills, were callers at this office recently. Mr. Platt is one of the many prompt subscribers to this journal who never let the dates on their labels have the appearance of being antiquated.

Rev. E. J. Wolf, D. D., of the Gettysburg Theological Seminary, spent several days with his brother, ex-Commissioner John Wolf, at Rebersburg. Dr. Wolf was on his way home from Huntingdon, where he had been called to preach in the Reformatory.

H. E. Royer, of near Centre Hill, announces sale for February 2nd, and shortly thereafter will move to Bellevue, Ohio, with his family. Mr. Royer in a year expects to engage in farming in Ohio, where he found a section of country just suited to his taste.

J. Frank Meyer, son of J. S. Meyer, Esq., of Penn Hall, a teacher of science in the Ardmore high school, was in town a short time ago. Prof. Meyer came home to attend the wedding of his brother to Miss Condo, which took place New Year's morning, at Penn Hall.

Dr. H. F. Bitner, assistant principal and teacher of science in the Millersville State Normal school, was in Centre Hall a short time ago. Dr. Bitner, since his association with that school, has done much towards elevating it to its present high standard among educational institutions.

Among the many letters containing subscription remittances for the Reporter received during the past two weeks was that of B. F. Brown, of Plainfield, Ill., who added that he and his family would not think of doing without the Reporter. Mr. Brown knows a good thing when he sees it.

John Foreman, of near Centre Hill, dropped into the Reporter office the other day to pay his subscription. Mr. Foreman is one of the old reliable citizens of Potter township, and is one of the class who never asked political favors although he always gave his loyal support to the Democratic party.

Henry Jordan and wife, of McConnell, Ill., returned to their home the last Thursday of December after a visit of five weeks among friends in Potter township. Mr. Jordan is one of the new readers of the Reporter, but he is so well pleased with it that he persuaded three others to become subscribers.

Mrs. Myra Kerr and daughter Kathryn, of Spring Mills, were in Centre Hall Saturday. Mrs. Kerr purchased the house and lot of Mrs. Mary Goodhart, south of Public School Park, and will occupy it in the spring. Miss Kerr is a senior at Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa., and is an exceptionally good student.

Greely Jordan, of Tusseyville, one of the Reporter readers, paid his respects to the Reporter office recently. Mr. Jordan was the unfortunate young man who last Fourth of July had a large fire cracker explode in his hand, and did considerable havoc to that member. There are but slight traces of the accident remaining.

Wm. Lohr and daughter, Miss Alana, last week returned from Philadelphia, where they spent several months with James H. Lohr. Mr. Lohr is well pleased with the city and spent the time delightfully. James H. Lohr is comfortably located at 1716 Bally St. north of Montgomery Avenue, and is employed as clerk in Broad Street station.

J. B. White, when sending his name to be added to the Reporter list, stated that he has had regular employment with the P. R. Co., as a car builder at Pitcairn, near Pittsburgh, ever since he has been at that place, which is almost a year, having moved there from near Penn's Cave. He also notices that business is quite brisk in Pittsburgh; traffic increasing, and that there are no indications of reverses.

W. B. Mingle, Esq., cashier of the Penn's Valley Banking Company, suffered a severe attack of quinsy, which on Friday confined him to the house and later to his bed. At this writing, however, he is able to be about business again. During Cashier Mingle's absence from the bank, Chas. Bartholomew, who has shown marked aptitude for banking business, looked after the details of the bank's affairs.

J. M. Gilliland, of New Bloomfield, was in town a few days last week, the guest of W. O. Rearick. Mr. Gilliland is engaged in the manufacture of wheel rims and is doing a prosperous business. His daughter Bertha accompanied him to this point and proceeded to State College, at which institution she is a member of the Freshman class. Mr. Gilliland spoke in the highest terms of the Reporter and its correspondents, and stated that when it reached his home the paper was separated and distributed among his family so that all could read at the same time.

THE NEW YORK WORLD and THE CENTRE REPORTER One Year, $1.65.

The New York World, thrice a week editions, and The Centre Reporter, can be had one year for $1.65, cash in advance.

Old subscribers to the Reporter who have paid a year's subscription to the present management of this paper can secure the World one year for sixty-five (65) cents. That puts all paid up subscribers to the Reporter on an equal footing. The regular price of the World is $1.00 cash in advance. The regular price of the Centre Reporter is $1.00 cash in advance. The two can be had for $1.65.

Beat Out of an Increase of His Pension.
A Mexican war veteran and prominent editor writes: "Seeing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, I am reminded that as a soldier in Mexico in '47 and '48, I contracted a Mexican diarrhoea and this remedy has kept me from getting an increase in my pension for on every renewal a dose of it restores me." It is unequalled as a quick cure for diarrhoea and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Mrs. J. W. Keller, Linden Hall; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

We Want An Once.
