Democrats Named Guffey.

Nine of the sixty-one Democrats of the House and Senate were absent from the caucus Monday evening which placed in nomination Col. Jas. M. Guffey as the Democratic candidate for United States Senator and the resolution was unanimously adopted binding everyone present to support the decision of the caucus until released by a two-thirds vote.

When it became known that he had rejected the honor Congressman Hall and Polk, and other leading Democrats, insisted so strongly and brought such pressure to bear that Colonel Guffey wavered, and at last said he would surrender to the decision of the caucus.

Election of the United States Senators by direct popular vote is the obvious remedy for the state of affairs which existed at Harrisburg. Time and again it has been demonstrated in Pennsylvania and many other States that the election of Senators by Legislatures not only fails to insure true representation, but offers opportunities for corruption of which the machine politicians and the predatory rich are keen to avail themselves.

Clearwater's Audacity.

The audacity of "Col." Clearwater to attempt to oust J. K. P. Hall, elected by over a majority of six hundred votes in this the twenty-sixth congressional district, is appalling. And now Republican papers are weeping because Mr. Hall pleased to sift the whole district for fraud on the part of "Col." Clearwater, while the latter only charges fraud in Elk county. Well, if six hundred majority doesn't satisfy "Col." Clearwater of Mr. Hall's election, it will have to be impressed upon him in other ways.

The Electoral College of the State of Pennsylvania met in the Senate Chamber Monday and cast thirty-two votes for William McKinley, of Ohio, for President, and for Theodore Roosevelt, of New York, for Vice-President.

Governor Stone's Novel Idea.

Governor Stone is not deterred by the results of his numerous attempts to exercise power which he does not possess from believing that the impossible may be achieved in one way or another. He admits that "we could not directly compel employes to submit their difficulties to arbitration," but with that mental agility for which he is so justly celebrated he reaches the conclusion that "a law could be framed that would practically compel both parties to voluntarily submit their disputes to arbitration," and he recommends the project to the attention of the Legislature.

Governor Stone once cherished the delusion that messages could be framed to make his personal disapproval a bar to legislation which he could not veto, but the Supreme Court cured him, at least temporarily, of that hallucination. Now he thinks voluntary action may be made compulsory by legislative enactment.

Brilliant as that idea is, it is not entirely original with Governor Stone. He was forestalled by the Governor of Sonora, who, when asked if certain men being marched to barracks by armed guards were conscripts, replied: "Oh, no, they are volunteers; they have to be."

The Press Almanac.

The Philadelphia Press Almanac for 1901, is valuable; its pages must be consulted daily by the thoughtful man if he would appreciate in fullest degree the happenings near and far which his paper brings to him. The wealth of facts and fancies, of statistics and records, contained in "The Press Almanac" illumines current happenings as no other book can. It is an encyclopedia of the past year and a guide to the future.

In making Colonel James M. Guffey the Democratic candidate for United States Senator the Democratic Senators and Representatives at Harrisburg took the best possible course. Colonel Guffey is the acknowledged Democratic leader in Pennsylvania, and those who lead deserve public recognition. This is pre-eminently true of Mr. Guffey, whose leadership has been of the most unselfish kind. He has worked without stint for the advancement of others rather than himself, and he has always labored to lead his party to modifiable altitudes.

A Personal Letter.

Dr. J. B. Leitzell, of Belvidere, Ill., writes a personal letter, which is given to the public to demonstrate the success in life of a former Centre county physician, who is well known by many of the Reporter's readers.

MY DEAR SIR:—Yours of the 14th inst. just to hand, and glad to hear from you, and to know that you are the son of my old time friend and preceptor, Dr. Peter Smith. I have been very intimately acquainted with the entire Smith family back to your grand parents, as far back as 1849. In Oct. of that year, I went to your father's office to read medicine, but unfortunately on Jan. 1st, 1850, I was taken sick with typhoid fever, while at my father's, where I had gone to attend the funeral of an uncle.

At that time your father was at Centre Hill, a single man, and we boarded with your grandfather, Jacob Kopp, who lived on the Runkle farm. The latter part of that winter and the following summer I taught school at Beaver Dam, below Spring Mills, and resumed my studies in the fall of that year. The following spring your father moved to Hublersburg, where his parents then lived on a farm they owned at that time. Your father was married and we all boarded with his people. In the fall of 1851 I went to lectures at Pennsylvania Medical College, Philadelphia, and graduated March 5, 1853. In May I came home and assisted your uncle, Charles Smith, in practice of medicine until the next fall, at which time I went to Stormstown, Centre county, and soon secured a good practice; was there five years and during that time was married to Miss Emily Blakely. In the spring of 1858 I had a call to locate at Salona, Clinton county. I went there and remained twelve years. In 1870 I bought property at Spring Mills and moved there in order to look after my father, my mother having died in 1869. My wife died at Salona in May 1868. In 1869, May 13, I was married to Miss Custara, who was born and raised on the farm where your late uncle Charles Smith died. I bought two of the Custara farms for him, and one of them before he ever saw it; he at the time of purchase lived in Snyder county, Pa., but, enough.

If I live I expect to visit your country and will tell you all about it. I have three children, all to my first wife. Dr. C. P., of Cedarville, Ill.; Harry B., of Freeport, Ill., and Mary Emily, married to John S. Sherman, of Belvidere, Ill. They have one child, Emily, and live in the house with myself and wife, and it was on their account I came to this place. Sherman is a well-to-do man, is industrious and a good mechanic, and does well here and we are all happy. My boys are both doing well, have fine homes of their own and all paid for. I came west in 1883 on account of the boys wanting to come. I have a fine property here in the city, the county seat of Boone county, population almost 8,000, and building up very fast. I made two trips to Spring Mills since we came west; in 1890 I was back with my wife, took dinner with your mother. Again in 1896 I was there, had my daughter and little Emily with me; the last time I did not visit Centre Hall.

I am glad to tell you I am very well and am well preserved for a man of nearly seventy-two years. I am quite active, and am often called "boy" by those who know me well. I will send you names and a communication in the near future. My brother, P. J., of Girard, Kansas, expects to move to this city in January coming, and will go into the mercantile business with a silent partner. I expect to open an office in the spring and practice my profession. With kind regards to you, I am fraternally yours,

J. B. LEITZELL.

The week of prayer was observed in the town by the various churches uniting in a union service. Quality and not quantity makes De Witt's Little Early Risers such valuable little liver pills. J. D. Murray.

Clean Linen.

Nothing is more suggestive of the gentleman than clean linen. Give your shirts, cuffs and collars to Wm. McCoy Wolf and have them laundered at the Bellefonte Steam Laundry.

The merited reputation for curing piles, sores and skin diseases acquired by De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve, has led to the making of worthless counterfeits. Be sure to get only De Witt's Salve. J. D. Murray.

Literary Notes.

McClure's Magazine for February will contain a character study, "Crocker," by William Allen White, in which this brilliant writer analyzes Tammany's leader and declares the secrets of his power.

When threatened by pneumonia or any other lung trouble, prompt relief is necessary, as it is dangerous to delay. We would suggest that One Minute Cough Cure be taken as soon as indications of having taken cold are noticed. It cures quickly and its early use prevents consumption. J. D. Murray.

Persons who suffer from indigestion can not expect to live long, because they cannot eat the food required to nourish the body and the products of the undigested foods they do eat poison the blood. It is important to cure indigestion as soon as possible, and the best method of doing this is to use the preparation known as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat and restores all the digestive organs to perfect health. J. D. Murray.

Such little pills as De Witt's Little Early Risers are very easily taken, and they are wonderfully effective in cleansing the liver and bowels. J. D. Murray.

Children in the big cities do not get a very intimate knowledge of "animated nature." The Chicago Journal says: Seventy-eight school children were polled at the Fat Stock Show recently. Only eight had seen a cow before, four had seen a hog, six had seen a sheep.

This season there is a large death rate among children from croup and lung troubles. Prompt action will save the little ones from these terrible diseases. We know of nothing so certain to give instant relief as One Minute Cough Cure. It can also be relied upon in gripe and all throat and lung troubles of adults. Pleasant to take. J. D. Murray.

Trial of an Opera Singer. In the February number of THE DELINEATOR is an article of great interest, written by Laura B. Starr, as the result of a journey across the ocean with Madame Gaski, the opera singer. Madame Gaski's description of the difficulties and thorns that beset the way of those who aspire to operatic honors, will be very interesting to all women and most men.

Pepsin preparations often fail to relieve indigestion because they can digest only albuminous foods. There is one preparation that digests all classes of food, and that is Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It cures the worst cases of indigestion and gives instant relief, for it digests what you eat. J. D. Murray.
