

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

CENTRE HALL, PENN'A. January 17, 1901.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

Miss Mary Burrell, of Penn Hall, visited with Miss Tishie Bradford.

Harry Shirk, one of the successful farmers of Boalsburg, was in town Tuesday.

Miss V. Ray Fleisher, of Tusseyville, was the guest of E. W. Crawford over Sunday.

Prof. E. W. Crawford is successfully conducting a large class in vocal music at Tusseyville.

W. W. Gunder, who has been employed at the Cresson car shops, is home for a few days.

Miss Gettig, of Linden Hall, spent part of last week with Mrs. Edward Sellers, in Centre Hall.

Mrs. Homer Barr, of Boalsburg, spent several days with her sister, Mrs. Jerre Miller in this place.

Frank Fisher, of Boalsburg, returned to his studies at the Medico-Chi, Philadelphia, last Friday.

Mrs. J. Frank Rearick, of Spring Mills, was the guest of her brother Alfred Krape, in this place, for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Ulrich, of Coburn, and Samuel Bohm, of Boalsburg, were guests of John S. Auman last week.

G. L. Goodhart, of Centre Hill, stopped with his former neighbor W. W. Spangler while attending institute last week.

Wm. Brindle, who has been employed in one of the western states during the past year, is paying a visit to his parents at Rebersburg.

Mrs. Samuel D. Musser, of Scranton, arrived in Millheim Monday, and is being entertained at the home of A. Walter, on East Main street.

Jesse Morgan, of Salina, Kansas, is visiting his friends at Boalsburg, and looks as natural as he did when he left there twenty-three years ago.

Miss Ella Decker, of Beech, spent several weeks with relatives at Scotia, Port Matilda and other points, and reports having had a delightful time.

Harry Clevenstine and Guy Thompson, two young men who are employed in the Bellefonte Wilson creamery, were the guests of T. G. Wilson Sunday.

H. E. Homan, of Linden Hall, was one of the Harris township farmers who attended every session, except Saturday night, of the farmers' institute.

Paul Swabb, formerly of Aaronsburg, but now engaged in the baking business at Buffalo, N. Y., is stopping with his sister, Mrs. Arthur Lee, of near Colyer.

Mrs. J. B. Kreamer, of Rebersburg, formerly of this place, is in Roanoke, Virginia, where she will spend some time with her daughter, wife of Rev. David A. Solly.

H. A. Stover, of Spring Mills, was one of the young men who enjoyed the institute sessions, and thinks himself better equipped for farming since attending the same.

Harry Fleisher, one of Wm. Colyer's right hand men at the stove and saw mill, was unable to attend to his work for several days last week owing to a severe attack of grip.

John Fortney, of near Boalsburg, was in town on Tuesday on business. Mr. Fortney is one of the prominent men in his locality, and is one of those men whom every one wishes to meet.

John C. Bible, of near Centre Hill, Monday drove to town a fine four year old Hambletonian horse, which he will sell at his sale, March 23. Such stock will be worth going miles to see and buy.

Mrs. Sara Miller, nee Moyer, of Freeburg, is visiting old friends and acquaintances, at Rebersburg. Her many friends in that section are glad to see her, as this is her first visit to that place in ten years.

Mr. and Mrs. George Krise and baby, of Uniontown, are paying the former's parents a visit in this place. Mr. Krise is engaged with the firm of McGinn & Bradley, of Chicago, manufacturers and fitters of steam heating appliances.

Herbert Brungart, of Rebersburg, expects to locate at McKeesport, Pa., in the near future, and engage in the life insurance business. Mr. Brungart is a young man well equipped to enter that business, and no doubt will make a success of it.

Franklin Bowersox of Rock Springs, accompanied by his good wife, attended the sessions of the farmers' institute last week, and did not fail to call at this office in order to drop a dollar in the slot. Mr. Bowersox believes in lime, as will be seen by reading the report of the institute in this issue.

John Durst, who was recently married to Miss Stover, will move to near Glen Iron, Union county, in the spring and go to farming on the farm owned by the estate of George Schure, deceased, his uncle. Mr. Durst is the right kind of young man to engage in farming—he is not afraid of work and is possessed with good judgment.

Mrs. Daniel Hess and Mrs. Frank E. Wieland, of Linden Hall, stopped with George O. and the Misses Benner last week and attended the institute.

Boyd Wilson, one of the members of the Howard creamery company, has been quite ill at his home on Valentine street with typhoid fever, says the Daily News, of recent date. During Mr. Wilson's sickness the work at the Bellefonte creamery has been carried on very successfully by his two competent helpers, Messrs. Harry Clemenstine and Guy Thompson. Mr. Wilson has been sick for over six weeks.

Township Causes.

The Democrats of Potter township will meet in caucus at Centre Hill Saturday, Jan. 26, 1901, between the hours of 2 and 4 o'clock p. m., to place in nomination candidates for the various township offices.

D. K. KELLER, S. J. McCLINTIC, Chairmen.

Linden Hall.

Curt Musser and family, of Altoona, visited with the former's sister, Mrs. Hale Ross, last week.

Jacob Zong is visiting with friends and relatives in Juniata county.

Mr. Reeser, of Snow Shoe, accompanied by Mr. Segner, of Boalsburg, bought up a fine herd of cattle through this section.

Mrs. Maggie Swabb, of this place, is visiting with friends and relatives at Huntingdon.

Coburn.

Charles Weiser, a student at the Theological Seminary at Gettysburg, after spending a two weeks' vacation at home, returned to the seminary.

Prof. A. J. Harter and wife, of Altoona, spent part of last week at this place visiting at the home of Mr. Harter's father.

Did you say you saw it in the Reporter? If you did not, you should subscribe for the Reporter at once, and get the brightest and newsiest paper in Centre county.

Mrs. Aggie Witman has again returned to State College, after spending a week at home with her parents.

James A. Kooney moved his family and household goods to Glen Iron recently, and will remain there while his son Wilbur is learning telegraphy and railroad business in the station at that place.

L. L. Weaver left for State College Monday morning, where he expects to take a course in the creamery.

Thomas Kaler, who was hurt a few weeks ago by being run down by a freight train while propelling a hand car, has so far recovered from the effects of the accident that he expects to begin work on the track again in a few days.

Henry Kaler, of Fisher's Ferry, has been at home attending to his father, but expects to return to the latter place in a short time.

The Dubbsites who formerly worshipped in Paradise church, have been holding a series of meetings at or near Sober, in a dwelling house on the premises of Michael Eby.

The most soothing, healing and antiseptic application ever devised is DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It relieves at once and cures piles, sores, eczema and skin diseases. Beware of imitations. J. D. Murray.

The Mother's Favorite.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the mother's favorite. It is pleasant and safe for children to take and always cures. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup, and whooping cough, and is the best medicine made for these diseases. There is not the least danger in giving it to children for it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. For sale by Mrs. J. W. Keller, Linden Hall; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

Death of Lowell A. Smith.

After an illness of months Lowell A. Smith peacefully passed away, at the home of his mother in Pine Grove Mills, Dec. 21, at the age of 30 years, 1 month and 4 days.

Lowell was a young man of most excellent character, and enjoyed the friendship and esteem of all who knew him. He was of a most pleasant and cheerful disposition and brought much sunshine to his aged mother and his brothers and sisters, to whom he was very closely attached and in whom he always manifested the deepest interest.

Almost twelve years ago he was received into communicant relationship with the Lutheran church at Pine Grove Mills, and his name stands at the head of the list of the first catechetical class confirmed by the writer. Since the death of his father H. R. Smith, several years ago, he has been the comfort and support of his mother and sister Ella, who sustain a great loss by his untimely death, which caused a heavy shadow to fall over the entire community.

He was an active worker in the Christian Endeavor society and will be missed therein.

Early last spring he was taken to the Jefferson hospital by his brother-in-law, Dr. Alexander, of Potters Mills, but it was discovered that his affliction would not admit of an operation, and he was brought home to await his end, which came peacefully as above stated.

Services were held at the home of his mother a t noon, Dec. 22nd, after which his remains were taken to the home of his brother Emanuel at Potters Mills, from which many friends followed the funeral cortege to the brick church at Tusseyville, where funeral services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. Charles T. Aikens, assisted by Rev. J. M. Reaick, of Centre Hall. The deceased leaves a mother, five brothers and two sisters to mourn his death.

A Prominent Chicago Woman Speaks. Prof. Roxa Tyler, of Chicago, Vice-President Illinois Woman's Alliance, in speaking of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, says: "I suffered with a severe cold this winter which threatened to run into pneumonia. I tried different remedies but I seemed to grow worse and the medicine upset my stomach. A friend advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and I found it was pleasant to take and it relieved me at once. I am now entirely recovered, saved a doctor's bill, time and suffering, and I will never be without this splendid medicine again." For sale by Mrs. J. W. Keller, Linden Hall, and J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

Beat Out of an Increase of His Pension. A Mexican war veteran and prominent editor writes: "Seeing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, I am reminded that as a soldier in Mexico in '47 and '48, I contracted a Mexican diarrhoea and this remedy has kept me from getting an increase in my pension for on every renewal a dose of it restores me." It is unequalled as a quick cure for diarrhoea and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Mrs. J. W. Keller, Linden Hall; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.
