CENTRE HALL, PENN'A. January 24, 1901.

TERMS.—The terms of subscription to the Reporter are one dollar per year in advance.

While less is being heard of the money question, there will always be differences of opinion on the subject.

Representative W. W. Nisbet, of Allegheny county, will introduce in the Legislature a bill to exempt from state, county and city taxes all property belonging to Posts of the Grand Army of the Republic.

An attempt was made to incorporate three anti saloon amendments into the army bill, but each amendment was rejected.

The state of Oregon has hit upon a new device to make and keep men sober. Every man who drinks takes out a license costing him $5 a year and unless he is armed with the document he cannot be served with liquor at any hotel or saloon.

The project to form a county to be called Quay county out of portions of Luzerne and Schuylkill, which was defeated by the last Legislature is to be revived.

Having failed to secure a right of way through the Senate for the ship subsidy bill, the subsidy Senators are putting their wits under a terrible strain to discover some way of sugar-coating the measure to make the job it provides for invisible.

The Republican Senators met last week to consider the subsidy question. The best stagger they could make at it was the substitution of a substitute bill for the original one.

"Florida Fast Mail" by the Seaboard Air Line Railway, "Florida and West India Short Line" to the Winter Resorts of the South.

Jerome Wilkins is on the sick list with the mumps and Katie Wise with the grip.

While peddling fish about town the Wyle Bros. had the misfortune to have their horse run away, smashing one of the front wheels entirely, not a spoke being left in the hub.

Luther Bower is filling Dr. Frank's ice house at Millheim, taking the ice from Weaver's dam at this place and hauling it out there.

John Haines is happy over the arrival of a little daughter, and Clymer Stover over that of a son.

ATTENTION, GAME WARDEN.

A Hunter Cites Conditions that Should not be Tolerated.

EDITOR REPORTER:—Would you kindly grant a little space in the columns of your valuable paper to reply to an article which appeared in the columns of the Reporter of Dec. 14. The writer says there were fifty-four deer killed within a radius of five miles of Kulp's camp.

I see in another article in your paper of the same date that hunters were so thick in the mountains that deer had to flee to the valley to escape.

TRANSFERS OF REAL ESTATE. Reuben Gramley, et. ux. to C. H. Stitzer, dated Oct. 20, 1900, 69 perches in Miles, for $20.00.

C. P. W. Fisher's heirs to L. E. Kilder, dated Oct. 25, 1900; 3 acres, one and one-eighth perches in Harris, for $213.35.

B. F. Kister to Shem Spiglemyer and W. E. Green, dated Dec. 17, 1900, house and lot in Millheim, for $550.00.

Meitzler served in the Confederate army under Fitzhugh Lee; in the Union army under Colonel Wilson, of Jersey Shore, Pa., has run an ocean steamer, owned a canal boat and been proprietor of many hotels.

James Burd and his son-in-law Geo. Reigle, went to Patton one day last week, and will work in the clay mines at that place.

G. B. Shaffer took possession of T. F. Meyer's store last Monday.

The saw mill of C. H. Meyer and Co. was moved to Penn Hall last week, where they purchased a tract of timber.

John Haines is happy over the arrival of a little daughter, and Clymer Stover over that of a son.

Rev. Chilcote is holding a protracted meeting in the M. E. church at this place. The meetings are interesting and well attended.

Frank Burd is down with an attack of rheumatism, and Sam Green is all doubled up with the same trouble and can scarcely get around.

John Haines is happy over the arrival of a little daughter, and Clymer Stover over that of a son.

The Democrats of Schuylkill county passed resolutions asking the resignation of Representative Galvin because he voted for Marshall for Speaker of the house and M. S. Quay for U. S. Senator.

Thirty Filipino leaders have been deported to Guam by General MacArthur, and their families were not permitted to accompany them.

In these Kentucky feuds, instead of arming themselves to the teeth, there would be less harm if they merely shot off their mouths.

This season there is a large death rate among children from croup and lung troubles. Prompt action will save the little ones from these terrible diseases. We know of nothing so certain to give instant relief as One Minute Cough Cure.

Talking of trans-oceanic telephoning it would be better for England and America to use one across the Atlantic than to have work over the Niagara canal.

Pepsin preparations often fail to relieve indigestion because they can digest only albuminous foods. There is one preparation that digests all classes of food, and that is Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It cures the worst cases of indigestion and gives instant relief, for it digests what you eat. J. D. Murray.

Those who believe in whisky as an antidote say that the grip is less effective when only a couple of fingers are used.

Persons who suffer from indigestion can not expect to live long, because they cannot eat the food required to nourish the body and the products of the undigested foods they do eat poison the blood. It is important to cure indigestion as soon as possible, and the best method of doing this is to use the preparation known as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat and restores all the digestive organs to perfect health. J. D. Murray.
