

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

CENTRE HALL, PENN'A. January 24, 1901.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

D. J. Meyer and wife, of Centre Hall, visited friends and relatives in Rebersburg over Sunday.

Misses Lillie and Lizzie Smith, of Bellefonte, were the guests of Misses Edith and Anna Lutz over Sunday.

Messrs. D. R. Sweetwood, of Potters Mills, and Samuel McClintic, of Centre Hill, were in town on business last week.

Rev. C. B. Harman and wife, of Rebersburg, are spending this week in Selinsgrove, visiting friends and acquaintances.

Clay Reesman is expected home this week from Pittsburg where he was engaged for several weeks in a large printing house.

James Ettinger, of Aaronsburg, has secured a position in the Standard printing house, Milton, and will move his family to that place.

E. C. Harter, of Spring Mills, was one of the callers Tuesday. Mr. Harter is a farmer and one of those who devotes considerable time to the study of farm topics.

The county commissioners of Clearfield county paid $1,000 to the constables for services of fire wardens during the year 1900, fifty-two per cent of the bills rendered.

Carpenters Murray and Evey, of Lemont, are home for the remainder of the winter. They were working in Dubois and Curwensville, and expect to go back again next spring.

Daniel Wian, of near Bellefonte, will become a resident of Centre Hall in the spring. He will move into the dwelling opposite the school house, which he and Harry Swabb jointly own.

Mrs. W. B. Mingle Wednesday went to Philadelphia where she will spend some time with her daughter Mrs. J. Emory Hoy, at 2058 Boston Ave., and with her brother, P. Gross Yearick, 2034 North 13th St.

Frank Bogdan, of Potters Mills, was a caller the other day. Mr. Bogdan is one of the solid Democrats on that side of the township, and in order to keep well posted had his name added to the Reporter subscription list.

Clement M. Dale, Esq., and W. Harrison Walker, Esq., of Bellefonte, stopped for a few hours in Centre Hall Monday on their way across the valley on business. Both these gentlemen paid their respects to the Reporter office before leaving town.

O. T. Corman, of Spring Mills, general merchant, is suffering from a sore eye, and nothing seems to alleviate the pain. It is feared that he will lose the member. At present Mr. Corman is unable to leave the house on account of the severe pain the afflicted eye causes him.

I. V. Musser, of the mercantile firm of Meyer & Musser, of this place, together with his wife and baby, on Monday started for Bucyrus, Ohio, on a visit to Mr. Musser's father, J. D. Musser, who in 1859 went west from near Aaronsburg. Mr. Musser will be absent for some months.

Cloyd Shaffer, of Hanover, son of S. B. Shaffer, of the Old Fort Hotel, came home to see his father's new location and spent a short time in this office. Mr. Shaffer is engaged with his brother Edward Shaffer in a large clothing store at Hanover. The firm also has a branch store in Huntingdon county.

Jerry P. Heckman, of Spring Mills, was a caller at this office Tuesday and ordered bills struck for the public sale of stock, implements, etc., of his sister, Mrs. Susanna Zettle, in Georges Valley, near Beech, on February 9. Mr. Heckman for many years was a school teacher, but of late, owing to failure of his eyesight, engaged in other business.

Messrs. Charles D. and Newton E. Emerick, of Dixmont, Pa., arrived in town Thursday of last week. The former is a son of M. L. Emerick and the latter a son of Henry Emerick, of this place. These young men have been engaged as attendants at the hospital at Dixmont and held good positions. They are on their way to some point south.

Rev. Z. A. Yearick, formerly pastor of the Aaronsburg Reformed church, recently read a highly interesting article before the Ministerial Association of Shenandoah, entitled "The Reformed church; the progress during the remarkable century just closed." Rev. Yearick is a very strong man in his church, and the Evening Herald, of Shenandoah, gives his article in full.

I. O. Hoffer, wife and little son, of Philadelphia, were in Bellefonte recently the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Mingle. Mr. Hoffer is comfortably located on Eleventh street, between Chestnut and Walnut, and is conducting a merchant tailoring establishment. He is enjoying a large and select patronage in his business, all of which his many friends and acquaintances in this neighborhood will be glad to hear. Mr. Hoffer's private residence is on Oak Lane.

County Superintendent Gramley was confined to his house in Rebersburg for the past week with grip.

John I. Williams, of Phillipsburg, was the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Wm. Rishel, at Oak Hall, over Sunday.

Misses Fannie and Emma Hoffer sisters of Mrs. A. C. Mingle are guests at the Mingle home on High St., says the Daily Bellefonte News.

Mrs. John Sylvis, of Altoona, who took sick while visiting Aaronsburg some time ago, was taken to the Lock Haven Hospital where she expects to have an operation performed.

Benjamin Gramley, of Kaneville, Ill., is visiting old friends at Rebersburg. Mr. Gramley left this county twenty-seven years ago, and is one of prosperous farmers in Illinois, owning four farms.

Miss Grace Miller, the obliging post-mistress of Rebersburg, left Tuesday for Sunbury and other towns in that section. It is likely she will also visit Susquehanna University, to look after her interests in the Theological department.

Mrs. Della Brungard, of Lock Haven, now of Lewisburg, a very estimable lady, was completely surprised on the 16th upon answering the door bell and finding that about thirty of her friends had come to celebrate her fiftieth birthday anniversary, says the Lewisburg News. Every one had a very enjoyable time, wishing the lady many such birthday anniversaries.

Franklin Bowersox, of Rock Springs, spent a week or more with friends in the lower end of Penns Valley where he lived prior to moving to Rock Springs. Thursday night he stopped with Jared Mowery in this place. Mr. Bowersox raised a large family and gave six of his sons a college education. He is a practical farmer and has made a success of the business. He demonstrated what could be done on a condemned farm—a farm so poor that the landlord quit looking for rent.

Oak Hall.

James Kimport, of near Walnut Grove, drove some fine cattle through town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wash Garbrick, of Walnut Grove, were guests at the home of Daniel Korman Sunday.

Newton Yarnell, of near Linden Hall, transacted business at this place Monday.

Michael Segner, of Boalsburg, was in town with a cattle buyer last week. The schools rendered some good dialogues and recitations at their entertainment Friday. There were a great many visitors present from this place, Lemont and Linden Hall.

Among those in the town who are sick, are E. B. Peters, Wm. Rishel, Wm. Smith, W. H. Close, Ira C. Korman, J. C. Gilliland, J. A. Kline, Geo. Kline, Calvin Coble, Calvin Eiters, J. G. Irvin, Elmer Houtz.

J. N. Diages, druggist, of Boalsburg, was in town Tuesday.

George Horner and son Edward, of Walnut Grove, were in Oak Hall Saturday.

Spring Mills.

The ice maker made a call last Friday.

J. O. Bower and wife, of near Coburn, were in town on business. Mr. Bower expects to move to Coburn in the spring.

Mrs. John Wolf, of Sprucetown, and W. O. Stover and daughter, of Potters Mills, made a business trip to Spring Mills.

Prof. W. A. Brown, of Huntingdon, spent a few days with his family on Water street.

Master Austin Long, son of C. P. Long, had the misfortune to cut his foot, which means a lay off from school.

John Breen is housed up with a sore foot. While cutting wood he came in contact with a log which rolled on his foot, crushing a couple bones.

James Foust and John Breen, the present supervisors are out for reelection. They performed their duties and they are up to the standard as supervisors. If they had been provided with a stone crusher the roads would be in much better condition with the same amount of taxes.

Next Saturday will be caucus day at Penn Hall. Let every Democrat turn out and select good men who will have the interest of Gregg township at heart. John Breen, Jr., will move to town in the spring, and take up the blacksmith trade with blacksmith Floyd Bowersox.

Archibald Allison, employed in C. P. Long's store as clerk, has been on the sick list.

Mrs. Harry Musser has been spending several weeks at the home of her father, Mr. Corman, at Rebersburg.

Hon. W. A. Allison spent Saturday and Sunday with his family.

Felty Breen is in a critical condition suffering from consumption. The Blind Concert Co. will appear in the town hall January 25. All lovers of music turn out.

The shipping bill will be taken up in the Senate after the legislative appropriation bill is disposed of.

The State Department issued a warrant for the surrender to the Cuban authorities of C. F. Neely, charged with embezzlement.

A Prominent Chicago Woman Speaks.

Prof. Roxa Tyler, of Chicago, Vice-President Illinois Woman's Alliance, in speaking of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, says: "I suffered with a severe cold this winter which threatened to run into pneumonia. I tried different remedies but I seemed to grow worse and the medicine upset my stomach. A friend advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and I found it was pleasant to take and it relieved me at once. I am now entirely recovered, saved a doctor's bill, time and suffering, and I will never be without this splendid medicine again." For sale by Mrs. J. W. Keller, Linden Hall, and J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

THE NEW YORK WORLD and THE CENTRE REPORTER

The New York World, thrice a week editions, and The Centre Reporter, can be had one year for $1.65, cash in advance.

Old subscribers to the Reporter who have paid a year's subscription to the present management of this paper can secure the World one year for sixty-five (65) cents. That puts all paid up subscribers to the Reporter on an equal footing. The regular price of the World is $1.00 cash in advance. The regular price of the Centre Reporter is $1.00 cash in advance. The two can be had for $1.65.

Beat Out of an Increase of His Pension.

A Mexican war veteran and prominent editor writes: "Seeing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, I am reminded that as a soldier in Mexico in '47 and '48, I contracted a Mexican diarrhoea and this remedy has kept me from getting an increase in my pension for on every renewal a dose of it restores me." It is unequalled as a quick cure for diarrhoea and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Mrs. J. W. Keller, Linden Hall; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.
