A FOREWELL TO VICTORIA.

A large memorial tablet was unveiled today in London, in the rear of the house in which the late Queen Victoria passed her last years. The tablet was designed and erected by Sir William Wilkins, architect, and was unveiled by Mrs. Wilkins, the architect's widow, in the presence of the officers of the army and navy and of an audience of Londoners.

II.

FARINE IN CHINA.

The Farine Brothers have plans to increase their exports of flour to China. They are planning to increase their production by 50% in the next year. This is expected to meet the growing demand for flour in China.

III.

FAREWELL TO VICTORIA.

The funeral of Victoria was held in London today. The service was attended by members of the royal family and the diplomatic corps. The body of Victoria was taken to the palace of Westminster for a public viewing. The funeral was attended by over 100,000 people.

IV.

FINANCE NEWS OF THE WEEK.

The House committee has recommended that the government increase its spending on education. The committee believes that this will help to improve the economy in the long run.

V.

FARINE IN CHINA.

The Farine Brothers have zeroed in on Europe as a potential market for their flour. They are planning to open new factories in the region in the coming year.

VI.

FARINE IN CHINA.

The Farine Brothers have been successful in entering the Chinese market. They are planning to increase their exports to China by 30% in the next year.