Miss Anna Musser, of Spring Mills, daughter of Robert Musser, is stopping with her cousin, Miss Laura Runkle, at the Centre Hall hotel.

John Miller, son of Jerre Miller, the Centre Hall barber, Monday went to Ardmore where he has secured a position in a barber shop. He is a young man well suited to the trade.

Miss Emma Luse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Luse, Tuesday evening entertained a large party of young people from Bellefonte, who had a delightful time. Elegant refreshments were served.

District Attorney N. B. Spangler, of Bellefonte Saturday stopped for a few hours in Centre Hall on his way to Tusseyville where his mother, Mrs. George N. Spangler is seriously ill with pneumonia.

J. Fin. Stover, of Pottery Mills, was about town the other day looking up the interests of the western house he is working for. Mr. Stover is successful in taking many orders for the enlargement of pictures.

Wm. Durs, son of James Durs, of near Centre Hill, Monday went to Creson, where he has employment. He had been at that place before and returned to await a better position, which he was fortunate in securing.

Charles D. Emerick and N. E. Emerick, who came home from the Dixmont hospital where they had been employed for the past year, Monday started for Trenton, New Jersey, where they have secured similar positions.

Mr. and Mrs. William Flory were among the grip patients during the past week. Mrs. Flory is confined to bed at present. George Bradford, of the Old Fort, was another sufferer from the same disease and was confined to his bed for a week.

Calvin Spieher, one of Potter township's successful school teachers, Saturday went to Morgauza, where he secured a position in the Reform school at that place. Mr. Spieher up to the time of his departure taught the public school at Tusseyville.

W. Frank Bradford, the station agent, was pretty doleful for the past week on account of the grip threatening to chase him home from his post of duty. Mr. and Mrs. John Auman were also sufferers from the same disease, as were also Mrs. D. C. Keller and daughter, Miss Mame.

Mrs. Hugh Garth and daughters, Bessie and Maggie, and son, George, and the wife of Rev. Brown and son, Allen, all of Mill Hall, Saturday afternoon arrived at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Potter, west of town, and remained until Monday. They were a jolly party and had a delightful time.

J. W. Wolf, who since the beginning of the new century has been conducting a grocery at Ardmore, Saturday game home to make final arrangements for moving to that place, between this and April first. Mr. Wolf is much pleased with his new location and says that the business at his stand comes up to his expectations.

Frank Hettinger, of Altoona, is visiting friends at Spring Mills. Mr. Hettinger has been promoted to express agent at Blairsville, to which place he will go after returning to Altoona. The young men, and ladies, too, at Spring Mills, were glad to see him. He is one of the Spring Mills' young men who is rapidly rising on the ladder of promotion.

Linden Hall.

Some of the young people had a skating party at this place Saturday evening.

Ross Lowder, of Oak Hall, spent part of last and this week in town.

Henry Zeigler spent Friday in Bellefonte.

George Searson and family visited with friends at Tusseyville Sunday.

Earl Gingerich has been housed up for some time with a sore neck.

W. O. Gettig, of Altoona, spent Saturday with his mother at this place.

Miss Bessie Searson spent last week at the home of Dr. Kidder at Boalsburg.

The Linden Hall Lumber Co., whose dinkies were demolished in the recent wreck, have one in running order and are rapidly repairing the other.

James Glenn, of the Branch, and Wm. Mothersbaugh, of Boalsburg, were seen in town recently.

The singing class of this place, will hold a musical convention beginning on Monday, Feb. 11, under the supervision of Prof. Crawford, of Centre Hall.

The next thing in order for this quiet little town would be an "Old Maids' and Bachelors' Convention." If Mr. Charlie Makeover would visit this town with his remodelscope he would be hailed with delight, and received with open arms by the young(?) maidens and bachelors of uncertain age.

Irvin Zeigler accompanied by his cousin, Miss Bessie, spent Saturday and Sunday with the Zeiglers' parents.

Dr. Gobble, President of Central Pennsylvania College, gave a very excellent discourse on "The Naming of Jesus," in the U. Ev. church Sunday.

A number of people in and about Linden Hall are seriously ill with grip.

Millheim.

F. P. Geary, who had been employed in Snow Shoe for some time, returned to his home in this place on Friday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Harshbarger, residing at Kanevill, Ill., for the last year, returned to Millheim last week and went to house-keeping in the building formerly occupied by the Millheim Journal, located on Penn street.

On account of the inclement weather the Epworth League Rally, which was to have been held in the M. E. church of this place on last Sunday evening, was postponed until the first Sunday in March. Miss Margaret Evans was present at the regular league meeting and gave a very interesting talk. Revival services will be continued during the week.

Editor Raine, of the Millheim Journal, spent several days last week at his home in Saxton.

Harry Condo and wife came to town on Saturday to pay their final visit before going to York, where they will reside in the future.

Coburn.

Mrs. George Reigle accompanied by her mother, Mrs. James Burd, left for Patton one day last week, where they intend to make their future home.

James Kooney, of Glen Iron, is visiting his son Elmer and family; his friends are all glad to see him, as this was his former home.

Miss Lydia Stitzer and Miss Bressler and Bruce Weber visited at E. J. Kooney's Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Brown, of Sunbury, circulated among friends and relatives at this place several days last week.

Miss Gertrude Eisenhuth paid her parents a visit after an absence of several months; she is employed at Lewisburg.

Rev. H. W. Buck, pastor of the U. Ev. church, opened a series of meetings Wednesday evening.

Andrew Vonado is at Woodward erecting the saw mill which he recently purchased from Theodore Hosterman.

Superintendent Gramley visited the schools Monday; all were glad to see him.

The members of the Keystone League were unable to hold their meeting on Sunday evening on account of the inclemency of the weather.

Harry Powell, of Munson Brothers' office, at Curwensville, met with a strange experience Thursday. He was handling an incandescent light when a current struck his hand. A gold ring, worn on the third finger, was completely melted off in an instant. The current evidently stopped in the ring, because, aside from the black circle burned into the flesh, where the ring was, he was uninjured and did not feel the shock to any extent.

Aaronsburg.

Prof. L. E. Boob had singing on Saturday and Monday evenings.

Two of George Feh's sons went to Nevada, Iowa, last week, where they expect to secure employment.

Joseph Gramley was home over Sunday.

Paul Swabb left again for Buffalo, last week, where he is employed at baking. He is certainly a young man of fine principles and good moral character.

Don't forget to feed the snow birds. The Aaronsburg grammar school will have an entertainment Tuesday evening, Feb. 12th. The principal part of the program is patriotic; admission five and ten cents; doors open at 6.15 p. m., entertainment to begin at 7 p. m. The Lutheran congregation of this place, will hold a sociable in the school house Saturday evening. There will be singing, after which ice cream, candy and cakes will be served. All are invited.

Lemont.

The young folks have been enjoying the sleighing very much; several sled loads went to Pleasant Gap to the concert.

The men and boys who were called out to fight mountain fires last spring received their pay last Thursday. There is a good bit of dissatisfaction among them about their pay and the constable will have trouble to secure help in case of another fire.

Henry Eters and wife, both confined to bed. Mr. Eters has been ill for some time with a complication of diseases.

Wm. Miller and John Lucas have bought Samuel Wasson's coachmaking business and rented his shop. They expect to do first class work at reasonable prices and respectfully ask the public for a liberal share of its patronage.

Mrs. Edward Armstrong is seriously ill with pneumonia.

Rev. Hepler assisted by Rev. Dr. Schuyler, of Centre Hall, held a series of meetings in the Presbyterian church last week.

Pneumonia Can be Prevented.

This disease always results from a cold or an attack of the grip and may be prevented by the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. That remedy was extensively used during the epidemics of La Grippe of the past few years, and not a single case has ever been reported that did not recover or that resulted in pneumonia, which shows it to be a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has gained a world wide reputation for its cures of colds and grip. For sale by Mrs. J. H. Keller, Linden Hall; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

James Starford, of Phillipsburg, has been appointed by Governor Stone a member of the board to examine applicants for mine inspectors of the bituminous coal regions, to serve for a term of four years from March 1, 1901.
