

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

CENTRE HALL, PENN. February 14, 1901.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

Mrs. C. N. Kryder made a brief visit to her former home at Lamar.

John Miller returned from Ardmore after a week's stay at that place.

Tuesday was "Lincoln Day." Abraham Lincoln was born February 12, 1809, in Kentucky.

Mrs. Alexander, wife of Dr. J. F. Alexander, has been in Philadelphia for the past ten days.

Miss Grace Alexander, a senior at State College, spent Sunday at her home in Centre Hall.

Messrs. Peter Smith and Samuel McClintic, of Centre Hill, found business in Centre Hall Saturday last.

Paul Fortney, of Bellefonte, drove to Centre Hall Sunday and took back with him Prof. John D. Meyer.

Miss Anna Breen, daughter of John Breen, west of Centre Hall, is visiting her sister, Mrs. John Benner, at Rockview.

Hon. L. Rhone was in Harrisburg last week looking after the interests of the farming class, whose welfare is his chief concern.

"Mick" Miller, of near Potters Mills, was in town the other day looking about for a house into which to move in the spring.

Rev. Hepler, of Lemont, filled the appointment of Dr. Schuyler in the Presbyterian church at this place Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Jane Marshall, sister of Mrs. Harper, of this place, last week visited her sister Mrs. Wm. Derstine, of Bellefonte, who was ill at that time.

Dr. W. E. Park had an attack of grippe which kept him housed up for several days. Dr. J. F. Alexander looked after the former's patients.

M. J. Decker, farmer, east of Centre Hall, who has cleared of stumps one of the best farms in all this section, now advertises this stump puller for sale.

Thomas G. Wilson, of the Howd Creamery Company, is seriously ill with the grip at this writing, Tuesday Mr. Wilson is at his home in Centre Hall.

Simon R. King, landlord of the Coburn house, had business at Centre Hall Friday. Landlord King's Coburn house is well kept in all its departments, and his livery is much better than is usually found in country districts. Mrs. Nation would have no reason to complain of the Coburn House if she would have occasion to visit Coburn.

Rumor says, and it is believed there is much truth in the statement, that Thomas L. Moore, of this place, and Miss Lillian Christine will be married between this and the April rains, and will occupy the up town Hostern house. Miss Christine is a daughter of Rev. C. F. Christine, formerly pastor of the Presbyterian church in this place, now living at Elysburg, and is popularly known by the young people in this section. Mr. Moore is a school teacher by profession and is a young man held in high esteem.

Miss Lena Poorman, of Tusseyville, will hereafter get the news of Centre county as well as the news of the world through the columns of the Reporter, having made a trip to this office especially to subscribe for the paper. When young people take to reading their home paper in preference to any other it is good evidence that they have the best of common sense. This one element lacking a boy never becomes a man; nor a girl, no matter how smart, a real, noble woman.

There was a jolly crowd of young men came from Colyer on Saturday evening for a sled ride. They had a good time, and Sheriff was the best one among them; come again boys.

The new organ in the M. E. church at Sprucetown is said to be a good one, by all who heard it on Sunday. The organist, Mrs. Smith, knew how to test it.

Harvey Confer, one of the members of the firm of the Spring Mills Planning Mill Company has two little daughters laid up with the measles.

Albert Bradford, of Farmers Mills, the boss miller in Fisher Bros. roller mill, took in a new boarder who arrived at his home. He intends caring for him well for when it reached his ears that the baby was a boy, he began killing chickens.

When you see R. U. Bitner going about town with a smile on his face, you can easily guess who arrived at his house—a girl.
