RAINBOW CITY.

Pan-American Exposition Aglow With Beautiful Colors. Perhaps nothing has been more talked about than the color scheme of the Pan-American. It was a daring thing to attempt to array in colors the extensive buildings of this Exposition.

that a new discovery has been made. With the buildings arrayed in colors which will harmonize with the general scheme of the Exposition and please rather than offend artistic taste, the Rainbow City cannot fail to become popular in a degree scarcely hoped for by those who planned its construction.

RARE COMBINATION.

The Floral and Electrical Display at the Pan-American Exposition. There is a saying that "Flowers are the poetry of earth, as stars are the poetry of heaven."

A number of the young people of this place assisted Henry Homan's with their moving on Tuesday and report having had a jolly time and all partook heartily of the bountiful dinner which Mrs. Homan had prepared for the occasion.

Squire J. S. Houseman made an important business trip to Bellefonte Tuesday of last week.

The other evening Wallace Weaver left home on horse back, but he changed his position and came home on foot, the horse arriving home some time before its master, but alas for poor Wallace, he was like "the girl I left behind me."

D. F. Young made a flying trip to Bellefonte Wednesday last; his new whip accounts for the flying trip.

John McNitt and lady friend, Miss Cora Houtz, spent several days at Mingoille last week.

G. R. Meiss seems to enjoy the boys sport in a rough-house which was removed one evening last week. Wm. Mulbarger stated that he was going west, but did not say how far, and all the boys wanted a lock of his hair, which accounts for the rough-house, and a broken pair of scales, which were replaced by the generous hearted Mr. Meiss himself.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Neff spent Friday afternoon with Mrs. Neff's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moyer.

Misses Sallie Wright and Lydia Ishler spent Sunday with their friends, Misses Mabel and Gertrude Houser.

Wm. F. Rockey lost a valuable horse last week. The animal was kicked by one of his other horses and its leg broken and was killed by the owner to put it out of misery.

Mrs. Julia Ishler is in feeble health. Mrs. Wm. Reiber and daughters, Clara and Blanche spent a day last week at the home of Andrew Horner.

One of the missing young men, D. G. Barr, was home with his mother over Sunday, but has again returned to parts unknown.

The members of the young people's alliance are preparing for an Easter entertainment; they will have practice Saturday evening.

Tressler's sale at Linden Hall on Monday was well attended by people from this section.

Charles Frazier is following up the public sales and buying stock and implements to begin farming in a few weeks.

Rumors are afloat of another wedding at Colyer in the near future.

Linden Hall.

Lloyd Worrel will move his family into Philip Dale's tenant house at Oak Hall on Thursday and Perry Cole will move the same day into the house now occupied by Mr. Worrel.

Merchant Howard Miller, of Rebersburg, visited friends here recently; he was from this place formerly and his many friends were glad to welcome him back.

R. M. Wolf, of Woodward, visited Mrs. Keller and T. E. Wieland.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Goss spent Saturday with J. H. Ross.

Governor Signs a Bill for Soldiers.

Governor Stone has signed the Senate bill providing for the burial of honorably discharged soldiers, sailors or marines who served the United States in any war who die in alms houses and like institutions. The bill also authorizes county commissioners to purchase plots of ground for the burial of honorably discharged soldiers, sailors or marines who served in the United States in any war who die in indigent circumstances.

In Loganot last week a little son of John Geiswite, threw a glass marble, with which he had been playing, on the sofa. The rays of the sun fell upon it and heated it to such a pitch that the sofa caught fire. The flames were extinguished before much damage was done.

Millheim.

George Cummings has again resumed his duties as cab driver for the Musser House; during his illness Mr. Spangler, of Tyersville, took his place, but now he has so far recovered as to be able to again take up his "perch" on the cab.

Last Sunday evening Rev. Chilcote delivered his last sermon for this conference year, and also administered the Lord's supper; he was assisted in the latter by Rev. H. W. Buck, of the Un. Ev. church.

Miss Mary Carper visited with her friend Mrs. Stover, of Boalsburg, recently.

Mrs. Perry Cole and family, whose dwelling and household goods were burned in the recent disastrous fire, have taken up their abode with Mrs. Cole's daughter in Bellefonte.

Some say that Ezra Tressler's sale was "bigger'n the World's Fair," but we are inclined to think that is a slight hyperbole.
