

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

CENTRE HALL, PENN'A. March 21, 1901.

Spring Mills.

Good sucker fishing now in Penns creek.

There has been auction at G. H. Long's store for the past week.

Wm. Blauser's sale was well attended last Saturday; everything brought good prices.

The trout season will open April 15. J. O. McCormick, R. G. Kenney, B. F. Kenney, D. Kenney, W. H. Smith, and John Smith, are looking up their rods and lines to have them in good shape.

Harvey Horner and brother Wilkey, of Colyer, were in town on business.

George Lee and William Moyer, of Colyer, stopped off an hour to look after business.

Mesiah Parker, of Potters Mills, attended to business in this place last week.

Rev. Rearick preached an able sermon on "Love thy neighbor as thyself." It would be a grand thing to know that every one was practicing the lesson taught us, to "Love thy neighbor as thyself." Let all practice this, and see the difference it will make in our community.

Miss May Smith spent several days in Bellefonte, at the home of A. V. Smith.

Moving time is coming, and the changes made at this place will be: James McCool to Rebersburg, on his farm; John Breon, Jr., to McCool's house; Mrs. Myra Kerr, to Centre Hall; Samuel Crape, to the Zeigler house; J. Breon, to Rossman's house; J. O. McCormick, to C. P. Long's house; Maj. Huss, from Johnston to his own house; Andy Graden and Bartley, to the house vacated by Michael Snyder; Snyder to James McCool's house, back of Egg Hill; Rev. Brown, to Bellefonte; Ed Sunday to Johnston; Prof. Brown, to Huntingdon; Daniel Runkle, to the Allison property; J. Wel's Evans, to his farm recently purchased in Georges Valley; R. D. Musser, to Wm. Allison's farm.

R. M. Wolf, the popular merchant of Woodward, accompanied by his wife, spent a day at Smith Bro's furniture store and bought a fine outfit of furniture.

Hon. Wm. Allison is disgusted at the way work is done at the State Capitol. "An honest confession is good for the soul."

Farmers Mills.

As the first of April is drawing near, some of our people are about ready to move. Among them are Messrs. John E. Rishel, and Jonas Stires. Sorry to see such prominent people leave the neighborhood, but wish them all success.

William Brown and family spent a few days with his father, Nathaniel Brown, before leaving for Huntingdon, where Mr. Brown is employed in teaching school. Success to the family.

The enterprising merchant, John H. Rishel, is receiving new goods daily, and is now ready to meet the demands of his customers, and give them lowest prices and best quality. In order to convince you of the fact, just drop in and see the merchant and goods.

The expert miller, Alfred Bradford, with the assistance of George Kline, is making good use of the abundance of water, and is running the mill almost day and night.

The Centre Hall sports paid their weekly visit to this place Saturday evening. The boys were quite jolly going through town they were whistling a tune which sounded something like "We won't go home 'til morning."

Miss Kathryn Armbruster, of Bellefonte, is home paying a visit to her mother, who is housed up with grip. Miss Kathryn's many friends are glad to see her.

Miss Blanche Hagen, who has been sick for some time is slowly convalescing.

George Kline and Miss Alice Eye spent Sunday with Mr. Kline's parents, near Boalsburg.

The singing class taught by Prof. Samuel Homan, will close on Saturday evening with a free concert at the Union church.

John E. Rishel purchased another fine horse on Saturday. John will turn the soil on Rev. Rearick's farm with good horses.

William R. Homan, after spending ten days' vacation at home with his wife and parents, has again returned to his college duties at New Berlin, Pa., where he will graduate this year. Mr. Homan is a bright and energetic young man.

Lemont.

Wednesday I. J. Dreese received a car load of lumber to be used in making extensive repairs to his house; he expects to receive the lumber for his new stable in a few days.

Miss Frances Woodring, who made her home with George Martz, has gone to Port Matilda to reside in the future.

Rev. Hepler gave all the young men who are members of the Christian Endeavor society, an invitation to a wood chopping party last Friday, but the weather being unfavorable not many came. Try again Rev.

Messrs. J. H. and J. C. Wasson, of Bolivia, N. Y. have returned to their homes after visiting their mother, Mrs. Cyrus Wasson, of Lemont, a few days.

Messrs. J. B. Mayes and Son have been doing some repairing to the stable on the property they bought from the Long estate.

Jack Mitchell, the hardware man, has secured possession of two very fine bull pups. Now burglars, if you don't want to lose a leg or an arm, don't try to crack Jack's safe.

Jack Dale, Esq., of Bellefonte, was noticed in town last Sunday.

Smith, the Photographer.

W. W. Smith, the Photographer, wishes you to sit for photos Friday of this week at his gallery at Centre Hall.

Business Stand for Sale.

W. W. Boob, of Centre Hall, offers for sale his private residence, business place, and established retail carriage and wagon hardware trade. This is a first-class stand for any one wanting to carry a general line of hardware in addition to the above. The established trade in bicycles, plumbing supplies, etc., will be included in the deal. The location is the best to be had in the town. Satisfactory reason will be given for selling. This will be a good opportunity for a hustler who will act quick.

SEABOARD AIR LINE RAILWAY.
