G. R. Meiss will have auction Saturday evening; all are invited.

Assessment Appeals.

Spring Mills, Pa., Apr. 1, 1901.

EDITOR REPORTER:—Please state in your paper where the commissioners will hold their appeals for the triennial assessment. Gregg township people are interested, and would like to know the date of the appeal for this township.

Yours, J. A. P.

Answer: On May 8, the commissioners will sit at the Old Fort to hear appeals from property owners in Centre Hall Borough, Potter and Gregg townships.

The dates for appeals on the south side are as follows:

April 20—State College Boro and College and Harris townships, at the election house, Lemont.

April 23—Ferguson township, at election house, Pine Grove Mills.

May 6—Miles township, at election house, Rebersburg.

May 7—Millheim Boro, Haines and Penn townships, at election house, Millheim.

May 8—Centre Hall Boro and Gregg and Potter townships, at election house, Old Fort.

Coburn.

Miss Susan Strohm, of Zion, was circulating among her friends at this place Saturday and Sunday.

John Guisewite moved to this place from Aaronsburg last Thursday into the dwelling house and store room of E. L. Auman, opposite the station and is now ready to have the people of this community call and inspect his stock.

In addition to having a general line of merchandise he will also carry a line of jewelry and repair watches and clocks.

L. C. Condo, of Penn Hall, moved into the house of Lily Kerstetter, on Railroad Street on the 1st inst.

R. F. Vonada and family, of Reading, arrived at this place on Monday evening and will make this place their home for the present.

N. B. Schaeffer and family, of Centre Hall, were visiting at the home of T. W. Hosterman at this place on Saturday.

The water test given on Saturday afternoon at the various plugs proved satisfactory to the members of the water company. A strong stream of water can be thrown across the highest buildings in town, which will be of inestimable value in case of fire. The members of this company are to be commended for their enterprise, and should have the hearty support of every property holder in town.

Rev. Gerhart, of the Lutheran church, will hold communion services at this place on Easter Sunday, in the afternoon, at two o'clock.

T. F. Meyer moved to Aaronsburg last Thursday and will take charge of the store for many years conducted by W. H. Phillips.

The schools will close next week.

Peter Shires, of Millheim, is assisting S. R. King at the hotel during Mr. King's indisposition.

A gentleman from Buffalo, N. Y., was in this section last week hunting relics and curios for the Pan-American exposition.

Spring Mills.

Garden making is at hand; who will be the first?

W. W. Neese is boasting of having had the third mess of dandelion; send your neighbors some.

Jeff Heckman, one of the practical farmers of this place, spent a day at the county seat, on legal business.

There is a great deal of talk about the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo, N. Y., and a number expect to go from this place.

Rev. Rearick preached the thirteenth anniversary sermon to the Knights of the Golden Eagle last Sunday evening; his subject, which he so ably handled, was based on love and charity.

Penn Hall.

An Easter service, entitled "In Joseph's Garden" will be rendered in the Lutheran church on Saturday evening, the 6th inst. Every effort will be put forth to make this a brilliant affair.

The remains of Mrs. John Leitell were brought from Lewisburg and interred in the Green Grove cemetery on Thursday morning. The funeral services were largely attended.

Fred K. Carter and wife, of Centre Hall, were seen in this section last Thursday.

Movings—John H. Gramley moved in Mrs. Anna Fiedler's house, north of town; D. W. Zeigler moved in Samuel Ream's house; Isaac Walker, of Pine Grove Mills, to the house vacated by Mr. Crader; John C. Craden to the house which he recently built; C. R. Snyder moved to the house vacated by Mr. Crader; H. F. Weaver from Lock Haven, in the house vacated by Mr. Snyder; F. M. Ream on J. W. Shook's farm, south of town; Lott Condo to Coburn; Jeff. M. Hubler from Centre Hall to the house vacated by Mr. Condo.

Communion services will be observed in the Lutheran church on Easter Sunday morning.

C. E. Zeigler made a business trip to Centre Hall on Saturday.

A Warning to Borrowers.

Here is the latest story on the man who is too stingy to take his home paper: "A man who was too economical to take this paper sent his little boy to borrow the copy taken by his neighbor. In his haste the boy ran over a four dollar stand of bees, and in ten minutes looked like a warty summer squash. His cries reached his father, who ran to his assistance, and falling to notice a barbed wire fence, ran into that, breaking it down, cutting a handful of flesh from his anatomy, and ruining a four dollar pair of pants. The old cow took advantage of the gap in the fence, and got into the cornfield, and killed herself eating green corn. Hearing the racket, the wife ran, upset a four-gallon churn full of rich cream into a basket of kittens, drowning the whole flock. In the hurry she dropped a seven dollar set of false teeth. The baby, left alone, crawled through the spilled milk and into the parlor, ruining a brand new twenty-dollar carpet. During the excitement the oldest daughter ran away with the hired man; the dog broke up eleven setting hens, and the calves got out and chewed the tails off four fine shirts."—Kansas City Journal.

Bucknell's New Catalogue.

The catalogue of Bucknell University, College of Liberal Arts, just issued, shows a total attendance of over five hundred. Of these three hundred and twenty-eight are in the College. The Senior class in the College numbers fifty-five. It is stated that the total property of the Institution, aggregating over $750,000.00 has been contributed by individuals, no aid having been received from the state. The Organization embraces four departments: The College for both sexes; the Institute for young women; the Academy for young men and boys and the School of Music for both sexes. The real estate consists of a Campus of thirty acres, eleven buildings now in use, and one in process of construction. The Instruction of the College is organized in twelve departments: Philosophy, Logic, Anthropology, Economic and Political Science, History, Greek, Latin, English Literature, Oratory, Modern Language including German French and Spanish, Mathematics, Physics and Chemistry and Organic Science. The work of each of these departments is under the charge of a specialist, and is very completely and thoroughly done. It is the motto of the Institution to attempt nothing which it cannot do as well as it is done anywhere.

The College Library, accessible to students in all departments, number 21,000 Volumes, besides several thousand pamphlets. During term-time, the Library is open day and evening. The museum embraces some thirteen thousand specimens. The students in College maintain three literary societies, besides several clubs for debating and literary study, and publish four periodicals. The Institute for young women, the Academy for young men and boys and the School of Music have each a separate faculty, though all under the general control of the President.

How a Woman Loves.

Whenever I hear his name, I could faint. When I see him, I could sink into the ground. At the sight of his handwriting I grow cold from head to foot, I tremble, my heart aches so that it seems breaking in two. I long to be with him, yet when I am with him I have nothing to say. I have to escape and be miserable all alone. He is my thought all day; the last before I sleep, the first when I awake. I could cry and cry. I try to read, and I remember not a word. I like playing best, for then I can almost imagine that he is listening. But when I stop playing and look around I find myself in an empty room. It is awful. I call his name; no one answers. I whisper it; still no answer. I throw myself on the ground, and I say, "Think of me, think of me; you shall; you must; you do think of me!" It is great torture and a great despair. Perhaps it is a madness too. But it is my way of loving. I want to love while I live. If I knew for certain that he loved me—me only—the joy, I think, would kill me. Love! Do you know, poor little angel, what it means? Sometimes it is a curse.—From "Robert Orange," by Mrs. Craigie.

One of Many.

MR. S. W. SMITH. Dear Sir—Being employed in the Reformatory here and being anxious to hear the news from old Penna Valley I wish you would send me the Reporter until further orders. Let me know your price for a year's subscription and I will remit amount of same. I am employed in teaching music here and like my position. Hoping to receive the paper this week and from this on, and wishing you success, I remain, yours truly,

W. A. BROWN.

SELF BINDERS, MOWERS, RAKES, ETC. Repairing Binders a Specialty.

I have had a practical experience for a period of eighteen years with farm and other machinery and I feel that money can be saved to many farmers by having their old machines looked over and repaired by a practical man.

Opening for Boys.

If a boy wants to be spider-legged and weak kneed; if he wants to be short-winded and hollow-chested; if he wants to be thin jawed and dead on his feet; if he wants to grow into a scrub that no business man wants to employ, let him be a cigarette fiend. Otherwise let him keep the nicotine out of his windpipe.

Examine Your Mail.

The United States postal authorities at Washington, D. C., recognizing the liability of postmasters to mistakes that letters occasionally get in wrong boxes, have fixed a penalty of $200 for persons taking mail out of the postoffice other than their own and not returning it. The law is to have people look at their mail before leaving the postoffice, and if they should have mail other than their own they must return it as soon as possible. The order also includes newspapers. The excuse that it is the postmaster's fault does not relieve them of responsibility.
