THE HOME GOLD CURE.

An Ingenious Treatment by Which Drunkards are Being Cured Daily in Spite of Themselves.

No Noxious Doses. No weakening of the nerves; a pleasant and positive cure for the liquor habit.—It is now generally known and understood that Drunkenness is a disease and not a weakness. A body filled with poison, and nerves completely shattered by periodical or constant use of intoxicating liquors, requires an antidote capable of neutralizing and eradicating this poison, and destroying the craving for intoxicants. Sufferers may now cure themselves at home without publicity, or loss of time from business by this wonderful "Home Gold Cure" which has been perfected after many years of close study and treatment of inebriates. The faithful use according to directions of this wonderful discovery is positively guaranteed to cure the most obstinate case, no matter how hard a drinker. Our records show the marvelous transformation of thousands of drunkards into sober, industrious and upright men.

Wives cure your husbands!! Children cure your fathers!! This remedy is in no sense a nostrum but is a specific for this disease only, and is so skillfully devised and prepared that it is thoroughly soluble and pleasant to the taste, so that it can be given in a cup of tea or coffee without the knowledge of the person taking it. Thousands of drunkards have cured themselves with this priceless remedy, and as many more have been cured and made temperate men by having the "cure" administered by loving friends and relatives without their knowledge in coffee or tea, and believe today that they discontinued drinking of their own free will. Do not wait. Do not be deluded by apparent and misleading "improvement." Drive out the disease at once and for all time. The "Home Gold Cure" is sold at the extremely low price of one dollar, thus placing within reach of everybody a treatment more effectual than others costing $25 to $50. Full directions accompany each package. Special advice by skilled physicians when requested without extra charge. Sent prepaid to any part of the world on receipt of one dollar. Address Dept. B734 Edwin B. Giles & Company, 2330 and 2332 Market Street, Philadelphia. All correspondence strictly confidential.

The Reporter herewith presents a portrait of Rev. S. H. Deitzell, Ph. D., pastor of Christ Reformed Church, Cavetown, Md., who has conferred a great blessing upon the church by the publication of the "Church Member." It is just what every church member, young and old, should have by his side, in his hands, and in his mind and heart. All the relations of the church member in the church, in the home, as a citizen, etc., are treated pointedly, yet kindly. The book is well written, contains 195 pages, neatly bound, and costs only 50 cents. It ought to be in the hands of every member, especially those who have just entered the fold of the church. Order from Rev. S. H. Deitzell, Ph. D., Cavetown, Md.

Rev. Deitzell was born and raised in Potter township, and is well known throughout the county.

no one safe except the Potters; one person would imbibe this erroneous idea from the other, and so it went on. But finally a new era began to dawn; the large tracts of land became more and more divided, the farmers would haul the products of their farms direct to Lewistown and sell it to Frank McCoy, get their money, bring it home and keep it in their houses until spring or such a time as they would wish to make a payment on their land, and if one man had a hundred or two dollars over he would be willing to loan it to his neighbor if he needed it. This would inspire confidence in each other, hence the idea that their failure was a blessing in disguise.

Mr. J. J. Neff was an old settler of this part of the valley; he settled only a few miles from where Centre Hall is located, was married to a Miss Durst; he was a blacksmith by trade but as he had made a purchase of land where he settled he soon drifted into farming. He raised a large family of robust and respectable children. Mr. Durst, Maj. Neff's father-in-law, was also among the first settlers; he was the father of the late George, Peter, Daniel, William and John Durst. John moved to Mercer county about forty-five years ago, and died when a very old man.

Another old settler was Robert Pennington, Sr., who lived where the Misses Bible now live. The Pennington's belonged to the Methodist church, and their home was head quarters for the ministers and others. The Methodists were at that time the predominating denomination and they had a church about midway between where George Emerick and George Howe now live, north of the road about twenty rods towards the mountain; this building was large and was constructed of very fine white pine logs hewn with the axe, such logs as could not be had now at any price. It was a very plain structure but fairly comfortable. The Methodists must have worshipped in that house for a long time; it was called an old church in 1851. That denomination began to get very weak, caused by deaths and removals and the remaining few decided to take the church down and in the years 1853 or 1854 it was sold to Jacob and Samuel Harpster who took the logs and had them sawed into lumber and had two houses built out of it, one where Wm. A. Sando lives and the other where W. W. Boob lives.

That was the only church in this neighborhood until 1853 when the Reformed church was built. Previous to that the people went over to what was then called the Loop church, now Tusseyville; it was, and is yet a union church, Reformed and Lutheran. There were very few Presbyterians on this side of the valley and what were here went to Centre Hill, where the most of them resided; that church was built in 1844.

We have now given some history of the vicinity of Centre Hall, only however, reporting the very oldest among the first settlers of whom we could get any traditional account. Two generations since have been very little mentioned; our next effort will be confined within the limits of the borough of Centre Hall, going back to 1846.
